Director of Music Search Congregational Survey

As All Saints proceeds with the search for its next Director of Music, early input from you, as members of the Community, will be extremely helpful. Your thoughts will inform the committee's creation of a position, description and public announcement about the search, and will influence its expectations regarding the qualities, characteristics, and skills of the person who will assume this responsibility. Please help us by setting aside a few minutes to take a short survey; your responses will be anonymous (even if you provide your name, it will not be linked to your answers). Note that the survey will be open only from Sept. 8 – 18. It is available online at the links below.

Thank you for assisting the Director of Music Search Committee with this important mission!

All Saints Theatre Ministry Fall Season

Our Town – Friday, Oct. 6, 8:00 p.m. at Pasadena Playhouse. Starring Jane Kaczmarek; co-production with Deaf West Theatre. Rediscover Our Town in this groundbreaking new production of the iconic play, co-produced with Tony-winning Deaf West Theatre, performed in both American Sign Language and spoken English. Come together to experience this timeless classic, as powerful today as when it won the 1938 Pulitzer Prize. Tickets are $40 and are available at <http://qrs.ly/wl5ohu0>.

The Mad Woman of Chailot – Friday, Oct. 20, 8:00 p.m. at A Noise Within. Liquid (and comedic) gold fuels this feminist, fantastical, frack-tured fairy tale. Oil is discovered under Paris, and Countess Aurelia and her kooky coterie are determined to drive away the evil corporate profiteers lying in wait. A can't miss rallying-cry for those who crave a satisfying David vs. Goliath fable in the form of incisive, side-splittingly funny theatre. Tickets are $40 and are available at <http://qrs.ly/6v5ohu3>.

With Love and a Major Organ – Friday, Nov. 3, 8:00 p.m. at Theatre @ Boston Court. A young woman falls in love with a total stranger she meets on the subway. After giving the man her actual beating heart, he disappears — leading this unlikely heroine on a quest to retrieve her heart, accidentally cracking open those of others she meets along the way. Whimsical, quirky, and wildly original, the play pushes on the ever stranger phenomenon of physical human interaction in the age of technology. Why is it that we are ever more connected and yet we have never felt more alone? With Love and a Major Organ is an eccentric, edgy comedy about what it costs to give your heart away, and what happens when you discover you actually have one. Tickets are $25 and are available at <http://qrs.ly/195ohu9>.

Tickets are available for purchase using the links above or at the Sign-Up Center on the lawn beginning Sept. 24. Information = Debbie Daniels, 626.583.2750 or ddaniels@allsaints-pas.org.
