Events & Opportunities

Fiction Fun! Reads The House of Mirth

Friday, Feb 23, 7:30 p.m. in the Guild Room. The February selection is The House of Mirth, by Edith Wharton (1905), another of the Modern Library's hundred best. As she would say in a preface to the book three decades later, it portrays "New York society in the nineties," a "little hot-house of tradition and conventions"—at a time when "these traditions and conventions were unassailed, and tacitly regarded as unassailable." Information = Jamie Hebert at 626.583.2765 or jhebert@allsaints-pas.org.

Jazz Vespers: Carol Robbins

Sunday, Feb. 25, 5:00 p.m. on the Chancel. Born in Chicago, Carol Robbins grew up in Los Angeles, where piano lessons at an early age inspired her to experiment with jazz improvisation. By age eight she was studying harp and eventually became one of the handful of students ever accepted by the late pioneering harpist Dorothy Ashby. One of the world's few jazz harpists, Ms. Robbins has recorded and performed with an eclectic variety of artists including Billy Childs, Manhattan Transfer, Brian Wilson, Linda Ronstadt, Nina Simone, Ella Fitzgerald and Frank Sinatra.

She has performed at the Hollywood Bowl with many artists, including Stevie Wonder and Aretha Franklin. Susan Russell offers a meditation. Child-care provided. If you would like to use the chancel elevator for accessibility, please arrive five minutes early. There is no charge. No reservations required. Validated parking is available at Plaza las Fuentes. Information = Melissa Hayes, 626.583.2725 or mhayes@allsaints-pas.org.

Donations for Prison Ministry

A gentle reminder from the Prison Gift Ministry: While donations of toiletries are always accepted, at this time, we are in urgent need of stationery, tea, and coffee singles. Donations can be dropped off at the Main Lobby.

Walk the Labyrinth in Lent

"Journey to Jerusalem"...while walking the Labyrinth as a metaphor for your journey throughout Lent: available 8:00 a.m.–8:00 p.m., Monday – Friday through Lent, in the sanctuary's south transept. Come anytime, walk at your own pace, reflect deeply, and listen for God's still, small voice to embrace you through this Lenten season. Information = Ana Camacho acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

ly, and listen for God's still, small voice to embrace you through this Lenten season. Information = Ana Camacho acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

Theatre Ministry

Visit our table at the Sign-Up Center to purchase tickets for:

The Hothouse, Friday, February 23, 8:00 p.m. at Antaeus Theatre in Glendale. Tickets are $30 and available at <http://qrs.ly/em64rk6>. Harold Pinter's The Hothouse tells a blisteringly funny story of a government-run institution in which the wardens may be more mad than the patients. Filled with Pinter's biting political commentary on the perils of unchecked power, the battle for control results in absurdly comedic mayhem.

A Raisin in the Sun, Friday, March 2, 8:00 p.m. at A Noise Within. Tickets are $37 and available at <http://qrs.ly/yc64m2>. An unexpected windfall offers a life-changing option for the Youngers, an African-American family living in a cramped South Side Chicago apartment. Competing visions and high stakes threaten to tear apart a family already facing pre-civil rights America. Lorraine Hansberry's seminal work ("A play that changed American theatre forever"—New York Times) remains a resonant story of hope, inspiration, and the need to retain dignity in a harsh and changing world.

A Streetcar Named Desire, Friday, March 23, 8:00 p.m. at Theatre @ Boston Court. Tickets are $25 and available at <http://qrs.ly/z664ro2>. This daring new production strips away decades of Southern gothic gauze to reveal striking themes of class, race, and gender—reinvigorating the classic that shocked audiences in its debut 70 years go. By placing the iconic 1940s-era Blanche within an entirely contemporary and multicultural environment, this 21st century production highlights the timeless relevance of this play for our divided America.

Information = Debbie Daniels, 626.583.2750 or ddaniels@allsaints-pas.org.

Weicheng Zhao's Final Doctoral Degree Organ Recital in Celebration of the Chinese New Year and Lantern Festival

Saturday, Mar. 3, 4:00 p.m., in the Church.

World Premiere Bist du bei mir by Bill Cunliffe.
Guest Artists: Cherry Rhodes and James Walker. A reception follows in Sweetland Hall.

Children's Book Donations

The Children's Ministry is seeking donations of picture books! Do you have new, nearly new or gently used children's books that your kids have outgrown? Do you love to shop the bargain book table at your local bookstore? We need all those books for the Children's Activity Bags at All Saints Church!

Here are the guidelines:

- Books need to be smaller than 8"x11" so they will fit in the activity bag.
- Please - no merchandise-related books (Disney, Transformers, etc).
- We would especially appreciate book topics that appeal to all genders, since the books are handed out randomly.
- We really hope to get good multi-cultural books.
- We have lots of baby books, but need books for children ages 3-8.

Please leave your book donations with the front desk in the church main office. Information = Kelly Phelan 626.583.2764 or at kphelan@allsaints-pas.org.

Prison Ministry Conference: Reimagining Justice in the Age of Mass Incarceration

Monday, Mar. 5 – Wednesday, Mar. 7. A conference sponsored by the Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles and Prism Restorative Justice. Featured presenters are the Rev. Gregory J. Boyle, and Sister Helen Prejean. Mass incarceration ranks high among the injustices of our day, splitting families and communities, perpetuating racism, and failing to deliver the very thing it promises: justice. What does true justice look like in our current context? This conference will study that question from a multifaceted perspective, looking at diverse approaches to justice. Prioritizing the voices of formerly incarcerated people, those working on the front lines, and those whose ideas challenge our preconceptions of what criminal justice looks like, this conference will bring new perspectives for those who have long been working against mass incarceration and for those new to the struggle. Information = Prism@ladiocese.org or visit our website at www.prismjustice.org.

Spiritual Direction

Spiritual direction is a way of sharing the sacred journey of our lives with another person. A trained spiritual guide can assist an individual in developing a deeper relationship with God, and in helping to discern the ways in which God is leading them. If you are interested in finding a spiritual director you may leave a confidential message at 626.583.2755 and the intake coordinator will call you to schedule a meeting.
