Featured Ministry: Spiritual Direction

Spiritual Direction has been part of the Christian tradition for centuries in which a trained spiritual guide can assist an individual in growing as a person and in relationship with God. It is the art of listening both to the person seeking spiritual direction and to God's Spirit. Theatre Ministry Spring Season

Noises Off

Friday, May 18, 8:00 p.m. at A Noise Within.

Tickets are $42 and available at <http://qrs.ly/z66qkig>.

ANW's most requested production is back: Your favorite Resident Artists, along with some new faces, are ready to rein in the chaos of this joyfully out-of-control British farce about the auspiciously titled play-within-a-play "Nothing On." Step behind the curtain and meet the under-rehearsed and over-worked cast and crew with a penchant for drama more personal than professional. As the production progresses, the bumbling cast brings down the house—literally!

Culture Clash's Bordertown Now

Friday, June 8, 8:00 p.m. at Pasadena Playhouse

Tickets are $40 and available at <http://qrs.ly/e46qklx>.

Twenty years after their searing hit "Bordertown" premiered, LA's very own Culture Clash returns to the southern border to investigate the state of affairs once again.

Re-imagined, remixed and fully reloaded, "Bordertown Now" is an irreverent look at the people at the center of one of America's most hot-button controversial issues, and the walls that divide us all. Infused with their trademark comedic approach, the nation's premier Chicano/Latino performance trio joins Obie Award-winning director Diane Rodriguez to redefine the boundaries of theater and break down the divisions between cultures. Mike Kinman leads a post-show discussion as part of the Playhouse Talks series.

Her Portmanteau

Friday, June 22, 8:00 p.m. at Theatre @ Boston Court.

Tickets are $25 and available at <http://qrs.ly/di6qkpu>.

A family rifles through their literal and emotional baggage in this taut and poignant drama about relatives, legacy, and connection. This West Coast premiere, brilliantly penned by first generation Nigerian-American storyteller Mfoniso Udofia, chronicles the triumphs and struggles of a tenacious family matriarch and two daughters. The mother and one of her daughters have called the United States home for many years. And the other daughter's arrival raises heart-wrenching questions about the power of place, family bonds, and how we define our relationships over space and time.

Three Days in the Country

Friday, July 6, 8:00 p.m. at Antaeus Theatre.

Tickets are $20 and available at <http://qrs.ly/p56qsor>

A fresh, breezy update by Patrick Marber of Turgenev's classic comedy A Month in the Country, this is a tale of unrequited passion, unfolding over the course of three days in the sunny Russian countryside. Full of wit, folly and heart, men and women, both young and old, learn the tender and ridiculous lessons of love.

Tickets may be purchased now through the links above or at the Sign-Up Center beginning Apr. 29. Information = Debbie Daniels, 626.583.2750 or ddaniels@allsaints-pas.org.
