Friday, January 18, 8:00 p.m. at Antaeus Theatre. Tickets are $15 and available at: <https://qrs.ly/4e98d38>. Dreams are in short supply on Inishmaan, especially for Billy Claven. So when a Hollywood filmmaker arrives on the neighboring island to make a movie, Billy goes after a part in the film, hoping to escape from the cruelty and bleakness of his life in master storyteller Martin McDonagh's darkly comic Irish yarn.

Ragtime

Friday, February 15, 8:00 p.m., at Pasadena Playhouse

Tickets are $45 and available at <https://qrs.ly/2b98h8h>. Twenty years after its premiere, the great American musical returns to LA. Nominated for 13 Tony Awards including Best Musical, Ragtime tells the story of three families at the turn of the 20th Century in pursuit of the American dream. ### The Judas Kiss, Friday, March 1

8:00 p.m. at Theatre @ Boston Court

Tickets are $25 and available at: <https://qrs.ly/c398d3d>.

The Judas Kiss revolves around two pivotal moments in the life of Oscar Wilde: the day when, cajoled by Bosie into an ill-fated trial, he decides to stay in England and face imprisonment, and a night when, after his release two years later, the lover for whom he risked everything betrays him again. David Hare's masterful play pulses with the ecstasy and anguish of an enamored heart.

Othello, Friday, March 29

The Bard's most intimate of family tragedies about the terrible force of love and the breakdown of a man who has everything—power, position, and passion—only to find his world decimated through intense mind games with his ensign. Prescient in its searing social commentary of prejudice, betrayal, and thwarted ambition, Shakespeare's thunderous drama examines who we trust and the price we pay for choosing wrong.
