Fiction Fun! Reads Ceremony by Leslie Marmon Silko

Friday, Feb. 22 in the Guild Room 7:30–9:00 p.m.
More than thirty-five years since its original publication, Ceremony remains one of the most profound and moving works of Native American literature, a novel that is itself a ceremony of healing. Tayo, a World War II veteran of mixed ancestry, returns to the Laguna Pueblo Reservation. He is deeply scarred by his experience as a prisoner of the Japanese and further wounded by the rejection he encounters from his people. Only by immersing himself in the Indian past can he begin to regain the peace that was taken from him. Masterfully written, filled with the somber majesty of Pueblo myth, Ceremony is a work of enduring power. The Penguin Classics Deluxe Edition contains a new preface by the author and an introduction by Larry McMurtry. Information = Christine Cox at ccox@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2765.

For your birthday, anniversary, or in memory of a loved one, consider bringing the bread and wine up the aisle for communion at the 9:00 or 11:15 a.m. Sunday service. After offering these "oblations" to the priest at the altar, you stand in the circle with the other ministers for the Eucharistic prayer, receive communion, and then return to your seat. You may do this with a partner or be paired with someone else. To sign up or for more information, please contact Beverly Franco at 626.280.9048 or bgfranco@usc.edu.

Theatre Ministry Winter Season

Ragtime, Friday, February 15
8:00 p.m., at Pasadena Playhouse

Tickets are $45 and available at <https://qrs.ly/2b98h8h>. Twenty years after its premiere, the great American musical returns to LA. Nominated for 13 Tony Awards including Best Musical, Ragtime tells the story of three families at the turn of the 20th Century in pursuit of the American dream. The award-winning score uses ragtime rhythms to paint a portrait of the people who built this country with the hopes for a brighter tomorrow.

The Judas Kiss, Friday, March 1
8:00 p.m. at Theatre @ Boston Court

Tickets are $25 and available at: <https://qrs.ly/c398d3d>.

The Judas Kiss revolves around two pivotal moments in the life of Oscar Wilde: the day when, cajoled by Bosie into an ill-fated trial, he decides to stay in England and face imprisonment, and a night when, after his release two years later, the lover for whom he risked everything betrays him again. David Hare's masterful play pulses with the ecstasy and anguish of an enamored heart.

Othello, Friday, March 29
8:00 p.m. at A Noise Within

Tickets are $42 and available at: <https://qrs.ly/5g98d2t>. The Bard's most intimate of family tragedies about the terrible force of love and the breakdown of a man who has everything—power, position, and passion—only to find his world decimated through intense mind games with his ensign. Prescient in its searing social commentary of prejudice, betrayal, and thwarted ambition, Shakespeare's thunderous drama examines who we trust and the price we pay for choosing wrong.

Tickets available at the links above or at the Sign-Up Center beginning Jan. 27. Information = Debbie Daniels, 626.583.2750 or ddaniels@allsaints-pas.org.

Tracey Lind is a newly retired Episcopal priest and city planner whose ministry has included work for social and environmental justice, interfaith relations, sustainable urban development, arts and culture, and progressive theology. Most recently, Tracey's ministry has extended to include the spiritual insights and lessons she has gained from a life complicated by dementia. On Nov. 8, 2016 (Election Day), Tracey was diagnosed with the early stages of Frontotemporal Degeneration. This diagnosis hasn't stopped her from fully immersing in what life has to offer — and what she has to give. Both Tracey and her spouse, Emily Ingalls will be speaking. Emily will provide the spouse/caregiver perspective. Come be inspired by one of the most amazing people we know!
