Friday, April 26 (cont.)

Fiction Fun! Reads Disgrace by J.M. Coetzee

7:30 – 9:00 p.m. (Guild Room) Disgrace was a Booker prize winner in 1999, making J.M. Coetzee the first writer to win the trophy twice (first with Life & Times of Michael K). In 2003, he was also awarded the Nobel prize in literature. But beyond the awards, Coetzee is notable as a great South African writer who, together with Breyten Breytenbach and the late André Brink, grappled with the savage complexity of the apartheid and post-apartheid years. Coetzee also took the novel in English into new imaginative and moral territory. From his many outstanding works of fiction, Disgrace is unquestionably his masterpiece. disturbing videotape becomes the talk of the locker room, the comfortable lives of the Hardy family threatens to shatter. Good Boys is a suspenseful drama that explores what happens when a family must separate fact from fiction—and, ultimately, choose to either preserve a legacy or risk losing everything in pursuit of the truth.

Ladies, Friday, June 21, 8:00 p.m. at Theatre @ Boston Court.

Tickets are $25 and available at: <https://qrs.ly/yn9uo6>.

They were pioneers who tried to accomplish something no one had ever done before with no path, no road map, and no rules. And, in the short term, they failed spectacularly. Ladies is a fictional account of the birth of The Blue Stocking Society, the world's first major feminist movement in 1750's London, told through a modern lens. The ladies' ambitious goals soon create scandal in London society and conflicts amongst themselves, escalating into a tangled knot of electric and jagged relationships. These women are emboldened by their righteous cause and burdened by being revolutionaries far ahead of their time.

This deliciously funny and irreverent world premiere examines the humanity and passion of these trail-blazing ladies, and inspires us to carry on the work they began.

Tickets available at the links above or at the Sign-Up Center Apr. 28, May 5, 12, 19, June 9 & 16. Information = Debbie Daniels, 626.583.2750 or ddaniels@allsaints-pas.org.
