MEMORIAL FLOWERS
The Altar flowers this morning are given to the Glory of God.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year C, as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

Assisted listening devices are available at the Accessibility Table on the quad, for use at the 9:00 and 11:15 services and Rector's Forum.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones prior to entering the church.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD’S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

As the people gather before the service begins, we encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

God of abundant love, refresh us in the deep places of our being. Help us to find that still place where we can sense your presence and hear your call to us. Attune our senses to the beauty of your creation. Let us hear you in the healing sounds of winds and waters, and see your majesty in vistas of mountain peaks and valleys. Help us to know how deeply we are loved, that we, too, may deeply love. Amen.

SALUTATION  Remain standing.

Minister: Blessed be God: Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer.
People:  And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY  Remain standing.

Minister and People:
Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.
COLLECT OF THE DAY

Minister: God dwells in you.
People: And also in you.
Minister: Let us pray.

Remain standing; silence is kept.

Minister: Grant, O merciful God, that your church being gathered together in unity by your Holy Spirit, may show forth your power among all peoples, to the glory of your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
LESSON  Seated.

A Reading from Jeremiah (1:4–10).

Now the word of God came to me and said: “Before I formed you in the womb, I chose you. Before you were born, I dedicated you. I appointed you as a prophet to the nations.” I said, “But Sovereign God! I do not know how to speak! I am too young!” But God said, “Do not say, ‘I am too young.’ Now, go wherever I send you. And say whatever I command you. Do not fear anyone, for I am with you to protect you. It is your God who speaks.” Then God touched my mouth and said to me, “Look, I am putting my words in your mouth. This day I appoint you over nations and territories, to uproot and to tear down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.”

Minister:  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People:  Thanks be to God.

_A period of silence is observed following the reading._

HYMN  “The Church of Christ, In Every Age”  Standing – all who are able, everyone sings.

eat and never live until they die.
GOSPEL  Remain standing.

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

One Sabbath, Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues. There was a woman there who for eighteen years had a sickness caused by a spirit. She was bent double, quite incapable of standing up straight. When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, “Woman, you are free of your infirmity.” He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight and began thanking God. The head of the synagogue, indignant that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, said to the congregation, “There are six days for working. Come on those days to be healed, not on the Sabbath.” Jesus said in reply, “You hypocrites! Which of you does not let your ox or your donkey out of the stall on the Sabbath to water it? This daughter of Sarah and Abraham has been in the bondage of Satan for eighteen years. Should she not have been released from her shackles on the Sabbath?” At these words, Jesus’ opponents were humiliated; meanwhile, everyone else rejoiced at the marvels Jesus was accomplishing.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.
People: Praise to you, O Christ.

Children in Kindergarten – Fifth grade are invited to follow the banner to the Learning Center for Children’s Chapel.

Minister:  In the confusions and stresses of daily life,
People:  Help us to hear your voice.

Minister:  In our fatigue and discouragement,
People:  Help us to know your comfort and strength.

Minister:  In our communities, in our actions,
People:  Help us to reflect your justice and love.

Minister:  Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:
God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives.  We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created.  We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf.  Forgive, restore, and strengthen us.  Propel us toward your vision of a world of peace and respect among all members of the human community.  Amen.

Minister:  Almighty God, have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life.  Amen.

PEACE  Remain standing.

Minister:  The peace of Christ be always with you.
People:  And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

OFFERTORY SENTENCES  Seated.  Mike Kinman
HOLY COMMUNION

OFFERTORY ANTHEM  Remain seated. Sung by the Quartet (9:00) and Summer Choir (11:15).

Draw Us in the Spirit’s Tether

Draw us in the Spirit’s tether; for when humbly, in thy name,
Two or three are met together, Thou art in the midst of them:
Alleluya! Alleluya! Touch we now thy garment’s hem.

As the members used to gather in the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God, Creator, break the bread and bless the cup, Alleluya! Alleluya! So knit thou our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving, we may true disciples be.
Alleluya! Alleluya! We will serve thee faithfully.

—Words: From Enlarged Songs of Praise, alt.
Music: Harold W. Friedell (1905–1958)

FOR THE PRESENTATION

HYMN  “Through North and South and East and West” Standing – all who are able; everyone sings.

Through north and south and east and west, May God’s immortal name be blessed: Alleluia, alleluia! Till everywhere beneath the sun, God’s reign begins; God’s will is done: Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

—Words: from Songs of Praise, alt.
GREAT THANKSGIVING  Remain standing.

Priest:  God dwells in you.
People:  And also in you.
Priest:  Lift up your hearts.
People:  We lift them to the Lord.
Priest:  Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People:  It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest:  It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.
Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.
Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS  Remain standing; everyone sings.

CONSECRATION  Kneeling or standing – all who are able.

Priest:  We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Priest and People:

We remember Christ’s death,
We proclaim Christ’s resurrection,
We await Christ’s coming in glory;

Priest:  And we offer our praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant.

Priest and People:

Unite us to your Son in his self-offering, that we may be acceptable through Christ, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, align all things with your love, and bring us to that heavenly country where with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.
Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo,
santificado sea tu Nombre,
venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad,
en la tierra como en el cielo.
Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.
Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes cae en tentación, y libranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: We are one bread, one body.
People: We will love one another as Christ loves us.

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ’s table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive communion (the bread and wine), when you come to the front you may stand or kneel. Hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, touch the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front you may stand or kneel. Cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers, grape juice and smaller communion cups for those with difficulty swallowing are available on either back side rail.

Members of our Healing Ministry are available in the Chapel and Baptistery during communion for all who wish to receive prayers and the laying on of hands. All prayers are kept confidential. If you desire follow-up, please contact our pastoral care department.

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just ask anyone near you and they will be happy to help.

At both services, children in the chancel re-join their families.
DURING COMMUNION

HYMN “Come, Let Us Eat” Everyone sings.

HYMN “Loving Spirit, You Have Chosen Me” Everyone sings.

1. Loving Spirit, loving Spirit, you have chosen me to be;
2. Like a mother you enfold me, hold my life within your own.
3. Like a father you protect me, teach me the discerning eye.
4. Friend and lover in your close-ness I am known and held and blest.
5. Loving Spirit, loving Spirit, you have chosen me to be;

1. you have drawn me to your wonder, you have set your sign on me.
2. Feed me with your very body, form me of your flesh and bone.
3. Hoist me up upon your shoulder, let me see the world from high.
4. in your promise is my comfort, in your presence I may rest.
5. you have drawn me to your wonder, you have set your sign on me.

HYMN “Heal Me, Hands of Jesus” Everyone sings.

1. Heal me, hands of Jesus, and search out all my pain: remove my fear and bring me peace again.
2. Cleanse me, blood of Jesus, take bitterness away; let heaven’s serenity be mine, for Jesus brings me peace!
3. Know me, mind of Jesus, and show me all my sin; dispel the memories of guilt, and bring me peace.
4. Fill me, joy of Jesus: anxiety shall cease and I may rest.

HYMN  “Come Sunday”   Everyone sings.

Refrain
Lord, Dear Lord above: God Almighty; God of love,

Please look down and see my people through.

Verse
1 I believe that God put sun and moon up in the sky.
3 I believe God is now, was then and always will be.

I don’t mind the gray skies, ’cause they’re just clouds passing by.
With God’s blessing we can make it through eternity.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER  Kneeling or standing – all who are able.

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Eternal God, great Creator, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING
HYMN  “Lord of All Hopefulness”  Standing – all who are able; everyone sings.

1 Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy, whose trust, ever child-like, no cares could destroy,
be there at our wak-ing, and give us, we pray,
your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

2 Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith, whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe, be there at our la-bors, and give us, we pray,
your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.

3 Lord of all kindliness, Lord of all grace, your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace,
be there at our hom-ing, and give us, we pray,
your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

4 Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm, your voice is contentment, whose presence is balm,
be there at our sleep-ing, and give us, we pray,
your peace in our hearts, Lord, at the end of the day.

—Words: Jan Struther (1901–1953)
Music: Slane, Irish ballad melody; adapt. The Church Hymnary, 1927

DISMISSAL  Standing – all who are able.

Minister: Let us go forth rejoicing in the name of Christ.
People: Thanks be to God.

Lay Counseling Ministry in the Chapel

All Saints is fortunate to have the Lay Counseling Ministry, a dedicated group of trained lay counselors, who can assist parishioners who are dealing with difficult life events. A Lay Counselor will be present in the Chapel after the 9:00 and 11:15 a.m. services to meet with any parishioner who would like to talk about a concern, or connect to the Lay Counseling Ministry. Just go to the chapel after the service, and look for the following people wearing a Lay Counseling name tag:

Post 9 a.m.: Marylouise Lau

Day of Healing: Nationwide Bell Ringing Ceremony
Sunday, August 25 | 3pm Eastern/12noon Pacific

August 25, 2019 is the 400th anniversary of the first landing of enslaved Africans in English-occupied North America at Point Comfort in Hampton, Virginia, now part of Fort Monroe National Monument.

The anniversary will be commemorated at Fort Monroe as a day of healing and reconciliation with an invitation to come together in solidarity by ringing bells simultaneously across the nation. This symbolic gesture will enable Americans from all walks of life to participate in this historic moment from wherever they are -- to capture the spirit of healing and reconciliation while honoring the significance of 400 years of African American history and culture.

In the words of our Presiding Bishop Michael Curry: “Churches and people from around this country [will] commemorate and remember that landing and the bringing of those first enslaved Africans to this country by ringing bells ... on August 25 at 3:00 in the afternoon.”

"I'm inviting us as The Episcopal Church to join in this commemoration as part of our continued work of racial healing and reconciliation. At 3:00 pm we can join together with people of other Christian faiths and people of all faiths to remember those who came as enslaved, who came to a country that one day would proclaim liberty. And so we remember them and pray for a new future for us all."

Here at All Saints we will pause at 12:00 noon during our liturgy to participate in this national moment of recognition with the tolling of a bell and a moment of silence.
All Saints Explores Campus Needs, Future Development

Members of All Saints Church are invited to “keep pace” with the PACES Task Force. This periodic bulletin is a tool to help you do just that!

Appointed by the Vestry in January, the Planning and Campus Enrichment Strategies (PACES) Task Force has been researching options and exploring costs for both deferred maintenance needs and campus development opportunities.

By Spring 2020, the Task Force is expected to deliver a report of project recommendations to the Vestry. All Saints parishioners are invited to learn about the various needs, opportunities and options currently in discussion among the task force’s 80+ volunteers. Those individuals include architects, space planners and finance experts, among others.

PACES working groups are assessing our needs to develop recommendations for enhancing the church’s physical space in support of our mission. The goal is to create campus projects that incrementally and cost-effectively improve our facilities, based on parish ability to fund each project step by step. PACES also will recommend a process to forecast when future maintenance will be required.

The PACES work is rooted in All Saints’ four Foundational Goals, particularly in the goal to provide a safe, welcoming space for community life and ministry.

Parishioners will receive communication to inform and engage them as the PACES work progresses. Communication is ramping up this Fall, from the continuation of campus tours to conversations on the lawn, to more formal communications with opportunities for parishioners to provide feedback.

Feedback is critical as PACES moves forward. All Saints parishioners are invited to participate in a campus tour to see firsthand our deferred maintenance needs while envisioning ideas for campus redevelopment.

Get Involved!

We want to hear your voice! You can provide suggestions for us at: www.allsaintspas.org/paces-suggestion-box

We welcome any comments/questions at paces@allsaints-pas.org

Please visit the PACES page on the All Saints website (http://allsaints-pas.org/paces) to learn more about the task force and campus tours.

The historic rectory building—now used for staff offices—is among the All Saints campus buildings being discussed by PACES for future campus development.
