MEMORIAL FLOWERS
The Altar flowers this morning are given in memory of Mary Prue & Bill Petre and William Chun-Hoon.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year C, as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

Assisted listening devices are available at the Accessibility Table on the quad, for use at the 9:00 and 11:15 services and Rector’s Forum.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all devices when entering the Sanctuary.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD’S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

As the people gather before the service begins, we encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Loving God, the source of strength and peace: Take from us all that inhibits the flow of your spirit, break down the walls that separate us, with hands of compassion wash away our fear, our resentment and our hardness of heart, enable us to become centered and still, aware of your Presence, here, now, to heal and to transform. We pray in the Spirit of Christ, our Healer. Amen.

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

ENTRANCE HYMN “Praise to the Lord, the Almighty”

Stand – all who are able – as the procession enters the church; everyone sings.

1 Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the God of creation;
2 Praise to the Lord; over all things God glorious reigns;
3 Praise to the Lord, who doth prosper thy way and defend;
4 Praise to the Lord! O let all that is in me adore thee;

O my soul, praise the Lord, God is thy health and salvation;
Born as on eagle wings, safely the saints still sus- tend thee;
Surely God’s goodness and mercy shall ever be before God! All that hath life and breath come now with praises be-

Join the great throng, psalter-y, organ, and Thou not seen how all thou needest hath
De- new what the Almighty can

Sound in glad adoration.
Grant in what God daint-eth?
Do, who with God’s love doth be-friend thee.
Gain; gladly for ever adore God.

—Words: Joachim Neander (1650–1680); tr. Hymnal 1940, at.
Music: Lobe den Herren, melody from Erneuerten Gesangbuch, 1665

SALUTATION Remain standing.

Minister: Blessed be God: Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer.
People: And blessed be God’s kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY Remain standing.

Minister and People:
Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.
GLORIA  Remain standing; everyone sings

Choir

1 Gloria a Dios, Gloria a Dios, Gloria en los cielos!
2 Gloria a Dios, Gloria a Dios, Gloria a Jesus Cristo!
3 Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to the Spirit!

All

Gloria a Dios, Gloria a Dios, Gloria en los cielos!
Gloria a Dios, Gloria a Dios, Gloria a Jesus Cristo!
Glory to God, Glory to God, Glory to the Spirit!

Choir

To God be glory forever! To God be glory forever! Alleluia, Amen!

Alleluia, Amen! Alleluia, Amen!

—Setting: Gloria in excelsis, Peru

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Minister: God dwells in you.
People: And also in you.
Minister: Let us pray.

Remain standing; silence is kept.

Minister: Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.
LESSON  Seated.

A Reading from Genesis (32:22–31).

In the course of the night, Jacob arose, took the entire caravan, and crossed the ford of the Yabbok River. After Jacob had crossed with all his possessions, he returned to the camp, and he was completely alone. And there, someone wrestled with Jacob until the first light of dawn. Seeing that Jacob could not be overpowered, the other struck Jacob at the socket of the hip, and the hip was dislocated as they wrestled. Then Jacob’s contender said, “Let me go, for day is breaking.” Jacob answered, “I will not let you go until you bless me.” “What is your name?” the other asked. “Jacob” he answered. The other said, “Your name will no longer be called ‘Jacob’ or ‘Heel-Grabber’, but ‘Israel’, ‘Overcomer of God’ because you have wrestled with both God and mortals and you have prevailed.” Then Jacob asked, “Now tell me your name, I beg you.” The other asked, “Why do you ask me my name?” — and blessed Jacob there. Jacob named the place Peniel — “Face of God” — “because I have seen God face to face, yet my life was spared.” At sunrise, Jacob left Peniel, limping along from the injured hip. That is why, to this day, the Israelites do not eat the sciatic muscle that is on an animal’s hip socket, because Jacob’s hip socket was struck at the sciatic muscle.

Minister:  Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People:  Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.
HYMN “There’s a Wideness in God’s Mercy” Standing — all who are able; everyone sings.

There’s a wideness in God’s mercy like the wideness of the sea; there’s a kindness in God’s justice, which is more than liberty. There’s no place where earthly sorrows are more felt than in God’s heav’n; there’s no place where earthly failings have such kindly judgment given.

GOSPEL Remain standing.

9:00 Sally Howard
11:15 Jamie Barnett

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

Jesus told the disciples a parable on the necessity of praying always and not losing heart: “Once there was a judge in a certain city who feared no one — not even God. A woman in that city who had been widowed kept coming to the judge and saying, ‘Give me legal protection from my opponent.’ For a time the judge refused, but finally the judge thought, ‘I care little for God or people, but this woman will not leave me alone. I had better give her the protection she seeks, or she will keep coming and wear me out!’ Jesus said, ‘Listen to what this corrupt judge is saying. Will not God then do justice to the chosen who call out day and night? Will God delay long over them? I tell you, God will give them swift justice. But when the Promised One comes, will faith be found anywhere on earth?’

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.
People: Praise to you, O Christ.

Children in Kindergarten – Fifth grade are invited to follow the banner to the Guild Room for Children’s Chapel.
HYMN “There’s a Wideness in God’s Mercy” Remain standing; everyone sings.

2 For the love of God is broader than the measure of the mind; and the heart of the Eternal is most wonderfully kind. If our love were but more faithful, we would gladly trust God’s word; and our life would be thanks-giving for the goodness of the Lord.

—Words: Frederick William Faber (1814–1863), alt.
Music: St. Helena Calvin Hampton (1938–1984)

Minister: Gracious God, we thank you for all of life — for joys and sorrows, pains and pleasures, things understood and beyond understanding.

People: We thank you, God.

Minister: For the opportunity to create with you a new world, with our imagination, our time, and our worldly resources.

People: We thank you, God.

Minister: For your life-giving spirit that strengthens us, challenges us and sends us forth.

People: We thank you, God.

Minister: Bless our hopefulness, our risk-taking, our work in your name.

People: Bless us, God.

Minister: Bless this community of faith, striving to be the people you are calling us to be.

People: Bless us, God.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

O God, you have searched us out and known us, and all that we are is open to you. We confess that we have sinned: we have used our power to dominate and our weakness to manipulate; we have evaded responsibility and failed to confront evil; we have denied dignity to ourselves and to our siblings, and have fallen into despair. We turn to you, O God; we renounce evil, we claim your love; we choose to be made whole.

Minister: Almighty God, have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE Remain standing.

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

HOLY COMMUNION

OFFERTORY ANTHEM  Remain seated.  Sung by Coventry Choir.

Cantate Domino
Cantate Domino canticum novum:
  Sing to the Lord a new song:
cantate Domino, omnis terra.
  Sing to the Lord, all the whole earth.

Cantate Domino benedicite nomini ejus:
  Sing to the Lord and bless God’s name:
annuntiate die in diem salutare ejus.
  Proclaim the good news of God’s salvation from day to day.

Quoniam magnus Dominus et laudabilis valde
  The Lord is great and to be highly praised:
terribilis est super omnes deos.
  God is to be feared more than all gods.

—Words: Psalm 96

FOR THE PRESENTATION

HYMN  “From All That Dwell Below the Skies”  Standing – all who are able; everyone sings.

From all that dwell below the skies
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise
the Creator’s praise arise!
Let the Redeemer’s God, all creatures here below; praise God above, ye Name be sung through every land, by every tongue!
heavenly host: Creator, Christ, and Holy Ghost.

—Words: Isaac Watts (1674–1748), para. of Psalm 117 St. 3, Thomas Ken (1637–1711)
Music: Old 100th, melody from Pseaumes octante trois de David, 1551, alt.
OBLATIONS ARE PRESENTED BY
9:00 Valerie Okorocha and Rose Weiss
11:15 MaryAnn and John Ahart

GREAT THANKSGIVING  Remain standing.  9:00  Fairbairn Powers

Priest: God dwells in you.
People: And also in you.
Priest: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life; you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS  Remain standing; everyone sings.

CONSECRATION  Kneeling or standing – all who are able.

Priest: Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Creator of all.

Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect self-offering for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Priest and People:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Priest: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this offering of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ’s life, death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ.

Priest and People:

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ—by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal. Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父，
愿你的名被尊为圣，愿你的国降临，
愿你的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我们日用的饮食，求父今日赐给我们。
又求饶恕我们的罪，
如同我们饶恕得罪我们的人。
不叫我们遇见试探，
拯救我们脱离兇恶。
因为国度、权柄、荣耀，
全是父的，永无穷尽。
阿们。
BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest:  We are one bread, one body.
People:  We will love one another as Christ loves us.

INVITATION

Priest:  The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ’s table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive communion (the bread and wine), when you come to the front you may stand or kneel. Hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, touch the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front you may stand or kneel. Cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers, grape juice and smaller communion cups for those with difficulty swallowing are available on either back side rail.

Members of our Healing Ministry are available in the Chapel and Baptistery during communion for all who wish to receive prayers and the laying on of hands. All prayers are kept confidential. If you desire follow-up, please contact our pastoral care department.

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just ask anyone near you and they will be happy to help.

At both services children in the chancel rejoin their families.

DURING COMMUNION

HYMN  “Halle, Hallelujah”  Everyone sings.

---Traditional, Syria---

HYMN “Tis the Gift to Be Simple” Everyone sings.

'Tis the gift to be simple, 'tis the gift to be free, 'tis the gift to come down where we ought to be, and when we find ourselves in the place just right, 'twill be in the valley of love and delight.

When true simplicity is gained to bow and to bend we shan't be ashamed, to turn, turn, will be our delight till by turning, turning we come round right.

—Words: Shaker song, 18th cent.
Music: Simple Gifts, Shaker melody

HYMN “O For a World” Everyone sings.

1 O for a world where everyone respects each other's ways,
2 O for a world where goods are shared and misery relieved,
3 We welcome one world family and struggle with each choice
4 The poor are rich, the weak are strong, the foolish ones are wise.
5 O for a world preparing for God's glorious reign of peace,

Where love is lived and all is done with justice and with praise.
Where truth is spoken, children spared, equality achieved.
That opens us to unity and gives our vision voice.
Tell all who mourn: outcasts belong, who perish es will rise.
Where time and tears will be no more, and all but love will cease.

—Words: Miriam Therese Winter (1987)
Music: Azmon, Carl Gottlieb Gläser (1784–1829)
POST-COMMUNION PRAYER  Kneeling or standing – all who are able.

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Eternal God, great Creator,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ’s Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

HYMN  “Awake, My Soul Stretch Every Nerve” Standing – all who are able; everyone sings.

October 20 – 26, 2019

Sunday, October 20

Featured Ministry:
Middle East Ministry
Middle East Ministry (MEM) advocates for peace, justice and reconciliation in Israel/Palestine and across the Middle East. We seek to educate with films, special speakers and field trips; and provide the All Saints community with action opportunities such as raising money for Episcopal ministries in the Middle East. We visit and advocate for detainees; and are involved in a variety of opportunities for advocacy. Visit our table today to learn more and share some Arabic hospitality and treats.

LGBTQ+ Vision Team presents Pronouns 101 & “The Survey Says …”
10:15 a.m. (Sweetland Hall) Join us for a report back from members of the LGBTQ+ Vision Team on the recent parish wide survey of LGBTQ+ community members and allies – and a reprise of Pronouns 101. We will start with the question “Why do pronouns matter?” and work up to any questions you have for our LBGTQ+ Vision Team. Join us to be both informed and inspired.

Reclaiming the Bible
2:00–3:30 p.m. (Small Lounge) Our goal will be to heal and move beyond the misunderstanding, confusion, hurtful interpretation, oppression, and other ways the Bible has been used against us.

Ongoing Maintenance Needs Go Hand in Hand with Historic Buildings

The architecture of old buildings on countless university campuses provides inspiration and beauty. Old buildings also carry a never-ending list of maintenance needs. The same is true on many church campuses—including All Saints Church.

Our PACES (Planning and Campus Enrichment Strategies) Task Force has been studying our deferred maintenance needs. Volunteers are prioritizing projects for the task force report due to the Vestry in Spring 2020. Feedback from All Saints members is critical in guiding the PACES work.

Earlier this year, outside experts conducted a full evaluation of our entire campus to identify maintenance needs and opportunities for campus refreshment.

Among the larger projects, seismic upgrades are needed for the 88-year-old Rectory building that houses staff offices. That upgrade would be the ideal time to add fire sprinklers and other modern features to our historic structure.

Our 95-year-old sanctuary is in good condition. However, like all older buildings, we can expect repairs will be needed almost every year.

Among our more urgent needs, both the Learning Center and the Junior High Room have leaking roofs, and parts of our air conditioning systems need replacement.

PACES is tasked with building a strategy to make sure we have the planning structure and funding in place to effectively provide for needed maintenance and upgrades—preserving and protecting our buildings, parking lots, and equipment.

The Vestry Buildings & Grounds Committee, working closely with PACES, is considering maintenance needs across the campus to ensure that our facilities are safe, functional, and welcoming. Recent campus improvements include a new elevator system and floors in Regas House, and a new playground for children and families.

Stay tuned to Keeping Pace for updates on the work of PACES and proposed plans for facilities maintenance and campus development.

Get Involved!

For more information about the work of PACES and the opportunity for campus tours, and to read past issues of the Keeping Pace bulletin, visit the PACES page on the All Saints website (allsaints-pas.org/paces).

We want to hear your voice! You can provide suggestions for us (including volunteers we might recruit to our PACES Task Force) by going to the Suggestions Box in the link above. Thank you for your ideas!
The 9:00 a.m. Gospel procession will lead to a Family Eucharist in the Learning Center. All families are invited to creatively explore the meaning of All Saints Day through family discussion, an artful remembrance of loved ones who have died, and a festive Eucharist.

For information, please contact Kelly O’Phelan at kophelan@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2764
