

This Week at All Saints

October 20 – 26, 2019

Sunday, October 20

Featured Ministry: Middle East Ministry

Middle East Ministry (MEM) advocates for peace, justice and reconciliation in Israel/Palestine and across the Middle East. We seek to educate with films, special speakers and field trips; and provide the All Saints community with action opportunities such as raising money for Episcopal ministries in the Middle East. We visit and advocate for detainees; and are involved in a variety of opportunities for advocacy. Visit our table today to learn more and share some Arabic hospitality and treats!

Rector's Forum: LGBTQ+ Vision Team presents Pronouns 101 & "The Survey Says ..."

10:15 a.m. (Sweetland Hall) Join us for a report back from members of the LGBTQ+ Vision Team on the recent parish wide survey of LGBTQ+ community members and allies – and a reprise of Pronouns 101. We will start with the question "Why do pronouns matter?" and work up to any questions you have for our LGBTQ+ Vision Team. Join us to be both informed and inspired.

Lay Counseling Ministry

The ministers are volunteer lay counselors, trained to assist persons undergoing situational and emotional difficulties. If you are experiencing situational difficulties, you may leave a confidential message on the dedicated line at 626.583.2706 and a coordinator will call you to schedule a meeting.

Refugio Pasadena – Interested in Serving Immigrant Children?

Join other families and faith communities to serve unaccompanied refugee children from Central America who are waiting to be reunified with their families. Consider opening your heart and home by becoming a short-term foster family for a child. Learn more at an orientation meeting on Sunday, Oct. 27, 12:30 p.m. at Lake Avenue Church. RSVP = Lisa Barrios at lbarrios@urbanstrategies.us or 626.788.6109.

LGBTQ+ All Saints Anniversary Party

The All Saints LGBTQ+ Small Group invites you to their anniversary party, to be held on Friday, Nov. 1, at 7:00 p.m. in the Guild Room. Our theme, appropriately enough, is All Saints – coming dressed as your favorite saint ('official' or otherwise) is highly encouraged! Please RSVP by Oct. 27 by emailing Christine Cox at ccox@allsaints-pas.org or call at 626.583.2765.

Foster Care Project Seeks Thanksgiving Donations

Once again, Foster Care Project will collect non-perishable food to provide Thanksgiving dinners to foster care families in the Pasadena area. Non-perishable hams, such as Dak hams (not the refrigerated kind), canned chicken, canned fruits and vegetables, instant mashed potatoes, stuffing and cornbread mixes, hearty soups, juices, and baby food are most welcome. You may also provide a $10 grocery store gift card and let one of our volunteers do the shopping for you. Please check expiration dates before donating and remember that only non-perishables can be accepted. Food and gift cards may be dropped off at the FCP lawn table in the Connection Center on Sundays, Oct. 20 & 27. (The early dates give us enough time to organize and deliver to families.) Please note: Items may not be dropped off in the church office. If you cannot drop off items at the lawn table, contact inbox@fostercareproject.org for an alternative site. Thank you for helping!

All Saints Theatre Ministry

Eight Nights, Friday, Nov. 1, 8:00 p.m., at Antaeus Theatre. Tickets are $20 and available at <https://qrs.ly/fia9fc8>. Set in one apartment in New York over the span of several generations, this World Premiere follows the poignant journey of a German Jewish refugee and her family in this heartfelt, lyrical portrait of a woman haunted by the past but resiliently moving toward the future.

Gem of the Ocean, Friday, Nov. 15, 8:00 p.m., at A Noise Within. Tickets are $42 and available at <https://qrs.ly/8paas2w>. Pulitzer Prize winner August Wilson unfolds the African American legacy in the first chronological episode of his celebrated American Century Cycle—a soaring, mystical tale of a man desperate for redemption in 1904 Pittsburgh. Aunt Ester, a 285-year old "soul cleanser," sends him on a spiritual journey that dissects the nature of freedom amidst oppression and spurs him to take up the mantle of justice. Information = Debbie Daniels at ddaniels@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2750.

All Saints Sunday Family Eucharist Nov. 3, 9:00 a.m. in the Learning Center

The 9:00 a.m. Gospel procession will lead to a Family Eucharist in the Learning Center. All families are invited to creatively explore the meaning of All Saints Day through family discussion, an artful remembrance of loved ones who have died, and a festive Eucharist. Information = Kelly O'Phelan at kophelan@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2764.
