She will be joined by Bob McChesney on trombone, Otmaro Ruiz on piano, Mike Gurrola on bass and Dick Weller on drums. Mike Kinman offers a meditation. Validated parking is available at Plaza las Fuentes. If you would like to use the elevator for accessibility, please arrive five minutes early.

MEMORIAL FLOWERS

The Altar flowers this morning are given in memory of those lost to violence.

Language in worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, that is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A, as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

Assisted listening devices are available at the Accessibility table on the lawn, for use at the 9:00 and 11:15 services and Rector's Forum.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all devices when entering the Sanctuary.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

As the people gather before the service begins, we encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Spirit of Truth, come and search our hearts. What attention might our souls need? Where there is resentment building, pain unaddressed, or unresolved conflict still weighing heavy, tend to our needs. Guide us in your wisdom as we seek healing and repair. Help us to support one another in the sacred labors of nurturing love from within. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Remain standing; silence is kept.

Minister: O God, the strength of all who put their trust in you: Mercifully accept our prayers; and because in our weakness we can do nothing good without you, give us the help of your grace, that in keeping your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LESSON Seated.

9:00 Madeleine Harbison

11:15 Jerry Craig

A Reading from Deuteronomy (30:15–20).

Moses said to all Israel the words which the Lord commanded him, "See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and adversity. If you obey the commandments of the Lord your God that I am commanding you today, by loving the Lord your God, walking in God's ways, and observing the commandments, decrees, and ordinances, then you shall live and become numerous, and the Lord your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. But if your heart turns away and you do not hear, but are led astray to bow down to other gods and serve them, I declare to you today that you shall perish; you shall not live long in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess. I call heaven and earth to witness against you today that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Choose life so that you and your descendants may live, loving the Lord your God, obeying God, and holding fast to God; for that means life to you and length of days, so that you may live in the land that the Lord swore to give to your ancestors, to Sarah and Abraham, Rebecca and Isaac, and Leah, Rachel and Jacob."

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

Lord, I will trust in the Lord 'til I die.
Lord, Chil-dren will you trust in the Lord 'til you die.

GOSPEL Remain standing.

9:00 Lynn Jay

11:15 Mike Kinman

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (5:21–37).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

"You have heard that our ancestors were told, 'No killing' and, 'Every murderer will be subject to judgment.' But I tell you that everyone who is angry with their sibling is subject to judgment; anyone who says to their sibling, 'I spit in your face!' will be subject to the Sanhedrin; and anyone who vilifies them with name-calling will be subject to the fires of Gehenna. If you bring your gift to the altar and there remember that your sibling has a grudge against you, leave your gift there at the altar. Go to be reconciled to them, and then come and offer your gift. Lose no time in settling with your opponents — do so while still on the way to the courthouse with them. Otherwise your opponents may hand you over to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the bailiff, who will throw you into prison. I warn you, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny. You have heard the commandment, 'No committing adultery.' But I tell you that those who look lustfully at others have already committed adultery with them in their hearts. If your right eye causes you to sin, pluck it out and throw it away. It is better to lose part of your body than to have it all cast into Gehenna. And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away! It is better to lose part of your body than to have it all cast into Gehenna. It was also said, 'Whenever a couple divorces, each partner must get a decree of divorce.' But I tell you that everyone who divorces — except because of adultery — forces the spouse to commit adultery. Those who marry the divorced also commit adultery. Again, you have heard that our ancestors were told, 'Do not break your vow; fulfill all oaths made to our God.' But I tell you not to swear oaths at all. Do not swear by heaven, for it is God's throne; do not swear by the earth, for it is God's footstool. Do not swear by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great Ruler. And do not swear by your own head, for you cannot make a single hair white or black. Say 'Yes' when you mean 'Yes' and 'No' when you mean 'No.' Anything beyond that is from the Evil One."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

Minister: Loving God, you have connected all of life in creation but we have separated ourselves through fear and anger.

People: Turn us from patterns that replicate pain and violence and point us in directions that free and uplift.

Minister: Guide us to disrupt cycles of violence, to practice healing within and around, and to create bold alternatives to norms that harm and destroy.

People: Illuminate the possibilities of radical love within and around us.

Minister: When it feels as though our choices have been stripped from us — that we are powerless before systems of evil — give us courage to further love in the world and not escalate hostility.

People: Strengthen us to choose the path that leads to our better selves.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

O God, you have searched us out and known us, and all that we are is open to you. We confess that we have sinned: we have used our power to dominate and our weakness to manipulate; we have evaded responsibility and failed to confront evil; we have denied dignity to ourselves and to our siblings, and have fallen into despair. We turn to you, O God; we renounce evil, we claim your love; we choose to be made whole.

Minister: Almighty God, have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE Remain standing.

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

Walk Together, Children

There's a great camp meeting in the promised land.
Oh, walk together children, don't you get weary,
walk on, my children, don't you get a weary,
there's a great camp meeting in the promised land.

Gonna walk and never tire,

Gonna sing...

Gonna shout...

There's a great camp meeting in the promised land.

Oh walk together children, don't you get weary,
Sing on my children, don't you get a weary,
Just a shout together children don't you get weary,
There's a great camp meeting in the promised land.

Priest: God dwells in you.
People: And also in you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Priest: Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: From your love and in your image you created us, breathing your spirit into the dust of the earth. When we failed to live in love, you loved us anyway, refusing to let us go. In Jesus of Nazareth you showed us what we might become. In miracle and mystery Jesus was born, as we are born, and lived as we might live.

In the fullness of his life, Jesus revealed the self-centeredness of our lives. So we sought to silence him. But we could not. The resurrection and ascension revealed the indestructible power of God's inexhaustible love.

On the night before Jesus died he shared a meal with his disciples. He took a loaf of bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take. Eat. This is my body that I share with you. Remember me whenever you eat, and offer your food and yourselves to the world."

After supper, Jesus took a cup of wine. When he had blessed it, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant of forgiveness that I share with you and with all. Remember me whenever you drink, and forgive."

Priest and People:

Now, gracious God, we offer our thanks for this bread and wine, the fruit of field and vine, and the body and blood of self-offering and compassion. We pray that the presence of your Holy Spirit will sanctify our meal, that we, like Christ, may love, heal, forgive and speak truth to all people. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,
Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父，
愿人都尊你的名为圣，愿你的国降临，
愿你的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我们日用的饮食，今日赐给我们。
免我们的债，
如同我们免了人的债。
不叫我们遇见试探，救我们脱离凶恶。
因为国度，权柄，荣耀，
全是你的，直到永远。
阿们。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us.

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive communion (the bread and wine), when you come to the front you may stand or kneel. Hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, touch the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front you may stand or kneel. Cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers, grape juice and smaller communion cups for those with difficulty swallowing are available at your request on either back side rail.

Members of our Healing Ministry are available in the Chapel and Baptistry during communion for all who wish to receive prayers and the laying on of hands. All prayers are kept confidential. If you desire follow-up, please contact our pastoral care department.

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just ask anyone near you and they will be happy to help.

At both services, children in the chancel rejoin their families.

ANTHEM

Sung by Canterbury Choir.

Verbum caro

Verbum caro, panem verum,
The Word made flesh becomes true bread,
 verbo carnem efficit: fitque sanguis Christi merum,
by the word, pure wine becomes the blood of Christ,
 et si sensus deficit,
and if senses fail,
 ad firmandum cor sincerum sola fides sufficit.
faith alone is sufficient to strengthen a sincere heart.

—Words: Ancient Responsory

Music: Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina (1525–1594)

HYMN "Come Sunday" Everyone sings.

Refrain

Lord, Dear Lord a - bove: God Al - might - y; God of love,
Please look down and see my peo - ple through.

Verse

1 I be - lieve that God put sun and moon up in the sky.
3 I be - lieve God is now, was then and al - ways will be.

Repeat Refrain

I don't mind the gray skies, 'cause they're just clouds pass - ing by.
With God's bless - ing we can make it through e - ter - ni - ty.

—Words and Music: Duke Ellington (1899–1974)

HYMN "Take, O Take Me As I Am" Everyone sings.

Take, O take me as I am; sum-mon out what I shall be;
set your seal up - on my heart and live in me.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

9:00 Susan Russell

11:15 Mike Kinman

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Gracious God, holy, and undivided Trinity, we thank you for feeding us in this holy sacrament. Send us now into the world in gladness and peace, and grant us the gentleness, the strength, and the courage to love, feed and forgive in your name. Amen.

BLESSING

HYMN "Lord, You Give the Great Commission" Standing –all who are able; everyone sings.

1 Lord, you give the great com-mis-sion: "Heal the sick and preach the word."
 2 Lord, you call us to your serv-ice: "In my name bap-tize and teach."
 5 Lord, you bless with words as-sur-ing: "I am with you to the end."

1 Lest the Church ne-glect its mis-sion and the Gos-pel go un-heard,
 2 That the world may trust your prom-ise, life a-bun-dant meant for each,
 5 Faith and hope and love re-stor-ing, may we serve as you in-tend,

1 help us wit-ness to your pur-pose with re-newed in-teg-ri-ty;
 2 give us all new fer-vor, draw us clos-er in com-mu-ni-ty;
 5 and, a-mid the cares that claim us, hold in mind e-ter-ni-ty;

Refrain

with the Spi-rit's gifts em-power us for the work of min-is-try.

—Words: Jeffery Rowthorn (b. 1934)
 Music: Austria, Franz Joseph Haydn (1732–1809)

This Week at All Saints

February 16 – 22, 2020

Sunday, February 16

Featured Ministry:

Committee To End Gun Violence

This committee lets parishioners and others know how to protect themselves, their families and others from gun violence, helps parishioners, others and All Saints itself be effective advocates for legislative and other actions to reduce and eventually end gun violence in our community, in California and across the nation, honors those killed by gun violence and supports gun violence survivors. We invite your questions, suggestions and involvement.

LGBTQ+ Social Gathering

1:00–2:30 p.m. (Guild Room) We strive to enhance the journey of faith of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer community through opportunities to foster spiritual and educational growth, social interaction, political advocacy and pastoral care.

Reclaiming the Bible

2:00–3:30 p.m. (Small Lounge) Our goal will be to heal and move beyond the misunderstanding, confusion, hurtful interpretation, oppression, and other ways the Bible has been used against us.

February Jazz Vespers: Calabria Foti

5:00 p.m. (Chancel)

Calabria Foti is an American singer, violinist, composer, arranger, author, and educator. A consummate musician and a dynamic entertainer, Calabria is a connoisseur of music, from Classical to Broadway.

She will be joined by Bob

McChesney on trombone, Otmario Ruiz on piano, Mike Gurrola on bass and Dick Weller on drums. Mike Kinman offers a meditation.

Feast & Friendship March Gatherings Set

The Spring 2020 series of Feast & Friendship gatherings is now available for sign-up on the All Saints website/Signup Center. Two dinners and one afternoon picnic for families are scheduled for March. Choose a date/location that works for you, and you can anticipate making new friends during a potluck gathering at which "feasting and friending" are the only agenda items! Information = Christine Cox at 626.583.2765 or ccox@allsaints-pas.org. Slots fill up quickly so sign up promptly! And if you would like information about hosting a small gathering in June or July, let us know – new hosts are welcome!

Frida Kahlo: Wings to Fly/Alas para volar

Sunday, Mar. 2, 2:30–4:00 p.m. in Sweetland Hall.

The Latino/Hispanic ministry invites you to their quarterly cultural convivio. Delve into the life and work of Mexican painter Frida Kahlo, and discover her through her letters, diary and the music she loved. Presented by Dr. Gloria Arjona, Professor of Spanish, Cal Tech. This is a potluck event; please bring a dish to share. For more information contact: Carlos D Carrillo, at carrilloc@sbcglobal.net.

Women's Community Lunch of Compassion

Sunday, Mar. 8 in Sweetland Hall at 1:00 p.m. This year is the Year of the Woman, and instead of highlighting a single person, we'll talk with a few leaders whose organizations have made a real difference to women and children in Pasadena. The groups all got their start right here at All Saints and women have made them successes. Lorna Miller, former head of outreach and community services here at All Saints, will be sharing thoughts and leading the panel discussion. Her guests are sure to include someone whose work you already admire! Join us for what promises to be a lively and informative hour. More information = Amanda Perez, at 626.583.2732 or aperez@allsaints-pas.org, or sign-up online here: <https://bit.ly/2w6jgN>.

Theatre Ministry Winter/Spring Season

Measure for Measure, Fri., Mar. 6, 8:00 p.m. at Antaeus Theatre. "Some rise by sin and some by virtue fall." Sex and hypocrisy abound in this bleak comedy about the corruption of power and authority ... and the true nature of love and justice. Tickets are $25 and available at: <https://qrs.ly/fvauzah>.

Passion, Fri., Mar. 20, 8:00 p.m., at Theatre @ Boston Court. To celebrate Stephen Sondheim's 90th birthday, Artistic Director Michael Michetti will direct a rare production of Sondheim's Tony Award-Winning Best Musical and perhaps his most ravishing and personal work, Passion. Tickets are $30 and available at <https://qrs.ly/eyauzbm>.

Alice in Wonderland, Fri., Apr. 17, 8:00 p.m. at A Noise Within. Crash through the looking glass with Alice on her zany adventure to an upside-down magical dream-land where imagination defies reality and madness makes logic. Weaving a dark and whimsical poem of colorful eccentrics, Lewis Carroll's fractured fairy tale creates a prism through which we can again experience the mystery and effervescent wonder of growing up. Tickets are $44 and available at <https://qrs.ly/t9av82c>. Information = Debbie Daniels at 626.583.2750 or ddaniels@allsaints-pas.org.

We're Listening! Feedback Urged as PACES Continues Rolling Out Campus Concepts

Presented by the PACES (Planning and Campus Enrichment Strategies) Task Force, 10 concepts for creating a more welcoming church campus have begun appearing on the lawn in poster form each Sunday.

Your feedback is essential to the PACES Task Force as we discern which concepts are of greatest interest to you, with the best fit for the All Saints mission and values, consistent with the PACES guiding principles. Following is a sampling of the questions asked by parishioners to date – and the answers – to keep you informed.

Comments and questions may be directed to paces@allsaints-pas.org -- let us hear from you!

1. What are some examples of the deferred maintenance projects referenced?

There is a long list that includes: a new roof for Regas House, replacement of a 30-year-old air conditioning system, sprinkler systems, seismic retrofit of the old rectory, among other items. Some concepts offer the possibility of new construction that would remedy some of the deferred maintenance needs.

2. Are these 10 concepts/projects really do-able?

Yes. Each concept is do-able, with a variety of options presented for consideration, all subject to the availability of funding and the planned phasing of each project. Your feedback will allow us to prioritize.

A lack of storage space creates cluttered staff work areas in the old rectory building. Such space could be converted to more welcoming space for campus visitors and meetings.

3. How much funding remains from the last capital campaign?

The nearly $2M remaining is earmarked for use in the spirit for which it was raised. Options addressing the best use of those funds to address our campus, infrastructure and building needs will be presented to the Vestry. At this time, no decisions have been made about how to pay for any of the concepts being explored by PACES.

4. Has the PACES Task Force considered revenue-generating ideas among these concepts?

Yes. For example, the parking lot concept could include automated parking. Enhanced meeting facilities could be used by outside groups for a fee.

5. How can I be sure that my specific interests are represented in the concepts? I am interested in a new kitchen, for example, and better space for our choirs.

The broad concepts do cover many detailed suggestions gathered from the All Saints community. A new kitchen is considered as part of the concept describing new space for our Children, Youth and Family activities. Improved space for our music programs is considered in more than one concept. Be sure to voice your special interests and preferences – to the Vestry, to PACES task force members on the lawn or via email to paces@allsaints-pas.org.

6. Why are we refreshing the rectory?

PACES offers a concept to remodel the old rectory—also called the office building—which currently houses staff and is in need of a seismic retrofit. PACES is not exploring modifications to the current rectory off-campus where Rector Mike Kinman lives with his family.

7. What about the operating costs for any new or improved facilities?

Operating costs will be estimated and included in the late spring presentation to Vestry. The final cost estimates and funding plan will incorporate operating costs.

8. What is the timeline going forward for the PACES process?

We are at a critical juncture to gather feedback from the All Saints community now to help us prioritize the concepts and options. By Summer, we expect to be developing more detailed proposals and we will conduct a funding evaluation. We will begin presenting to the Vestry this April, a process that will take some months. Our goal is to present formally to the Vestry this Fall, and Vestry members will make decisions about how we move forward. Once a project or projects have been advanced by the Vestry, the next steps will involve the development of plans for fund development, construction planning and maintenance activities.

9. Is it too late to take one of the PACES campus tours?

No—we would be delighted for you to join us. You may sign up by on the All Saints website in the “signup center” or call the church office for assistance.

10. Will the Feb. 2 Rector’s Forum describing the 10 concepts be repeated?

While there are no plans to repeat the forum presentation, the video from Feb. 2 is now posted on the All Saints website at (<http://allsaints-pas.org/paces>) for your viewing.

For more information about PACES or to read past issues of the Keeping Pace bulletin, visit the PACES page on the All Saints website (<http://allsaints-pas.org/paces>).

Sunday Book Group:

Anden en amor

En este libro dos sacerdotes episcopales (Scott Gunn y Melody Wilson Shobe) nos hacen recorrer El Libro de Oración Común, la vida cristiana y las creencias básicas de nuestra fe. Este libro explora el año litúrgico, los sacramentos de la iglesia, los hábitos de la oración diaria, y las enseñanzas del cristianismo anglicano. Descubre cómo la oración forma nuestras creencias y cómo nuestras creencias nos conducen a una relación más profunda con Jesucristo. Sundays, 2:30 ~ 4:00 p.m. Guild Room. Spanish only. 3/8-3/29 (4 sessions). Alfredo Feregrino

Thursday Afternoon Book Group:

The Universal Christ

"God loves things by becoming them," Rohr writes, and Jesus's life was meant to declare that humanity has never been separate from God—except by its own negative choice. When we recover this fundamental truth, faith becomes less about proving Jesus was God, and more about learning to recognize the Creator's presence all around us, and in everyone we meet. Thursdays, 12:15 ~ 1:15 p.m., OCC Conference Room. 3/5-4/2 (5 sessions). Sally Howard

Thursday Evening Book Groups:

Entering the Passion of Jesus

Entering the Passion of Jesus takes us on a journey through the Gospels, walking with Jesus through Passion Week as we encounter the historical significance, and more importantly, are offered an opportunity to examine, question and deepen our own personal spiritual journey with Christ, preparing us for the glorious Easter! Thursdays, 7:00 ~ 8:30 p.m., Scott Hall 4. 2/27-4/2 (6 sessions). Susan Adkins

Making Our Way Home: The Great Migration and the Black American Dream

Making Our Way Home explores issues like voting rights, domestic terrorism, discrimination, and segregation alongside the flourishing of arts and culture, activism, and civil rights. Imani shows how these influences shaped America's workforce and wealth distribution by featuring the stories of notable people and events, relevant data, and family histories. The experiences of prominent figures such as James Baldwin, Fannie Lou Hamer, El Hajj Malik El Shabazz (Malcolm X), Ella Baker, and others are woven into the larger historical and cultural narratives of the Great Migration to create a truly singular record of this powerful journey. Thursdays, 6:30 ~ 8:00 p.m., Scott Hall 3. 3/5-4/2 (5 sessions). Gloria Antall & Edna Trigg

Wednesday Morning Educational Group: Lenten Bible Study

Jeremy Langill leads us through a five week engagement of the book of Revelation, exploring it's context, genre, and authorship, and directing our attention to what its grand eschatological claims mean in the resurrection to come. Wednesdays, 10:30 a.m. ~ 12 noon. OCC Conference Room. 3/4-4/1 (5 sessions). Jeremy Langill

Wednesday Evening Educational Group: Radical Inclusion: The Great Story and Your Story

Join the LGBTQ+ ministry for a Lenten small group to pray, connect, and reflect on our core value: Radical Inclusion. Allies are welcome. Wednesdays, 7:00 ~ 8:30 p.m., Scott Hall 4. 3/4-4/1 (5 sessions). Thomas Diaz

Thursday Evening Educational Group: Discovering our Personal Financial Intelligence

What is your family's relationship with money? How does one plan for the future in today's uncertain environment? How do we nurture our personal financial intelligence? Join our business and financial experts for a four-week financial literacy workshop. Thursdays, 6:00-8:00 p.m., Jr. High Room. 3/5-3/26 (4 sessions). Kimberli Hudson & Mike Puls

Saturday Morning Educational Groups:

The Way of Love

"The Way of Love is a way of life. More than a program or curriculum, it is an intentional commitment to follow Jesus: Turn, Learn, Pray, Worship, Bless, Go, Rest." This 9 week offering leads participants through the Way of Love, to the development of a Rule of Life, and a recommitment to following Jesus. Saturdays, 9:00-10:30 a.m., Scott Hall 3. 2/29-5/9 (9 sessions). Dori Torrey

Centering Prayer

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is founded in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. No previous meditation experience necessary. Saturday mornings, TBD, Church. Centering Prayer Ministry

GETTING CONNECTED

An Introduction to All Saints Church WINTER 2020

March 1 - 29

Sunday Mornings in the Guild Room
10:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

Radical Inclusion | Courageous Justice
Joyful Spirituality | Ethical Stewardship

There is something wonderful about this community that for generations has drawn all sorts of people to All Saints Church. Something that has drawn each of us here that continues to draw us deeper into community.

"Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith there is a place for you here" are words that encapsulate our commitment to radical inclusion and welcome – and yet we know that finding your place in a church as big as All Saints can be a challenge.

This five-week class is designed for anyone – from brand new to old-timer – interested in exploring the essence of All Saints and getting more connected through active engagement. Each class is two hours long and consists of a presentation by a staff member and lay volunteer followed by a one-hour small group experience. Together we consider the core values of All Saints Church and develop a sense of belonging as we build connections to individuals, ministries and groups. The five week series concludes with a service of Welcome to the Church which includes the option of baptism.
