Each week we put our faith into action

The United States is still the only developed nation without a national policy on paid sick leave. Right now, American employees who lack paid sick leave must go to work to provide for their families – despite being ill, and possibly contagious. While many government workers, including U.S. legislators, have paid sick leave, roughly 57 million workers do not. Many of these individuals work in jobs with high risk of exposure – hourly or lower-paying jobs, the "gig economy," or in our education system – and have contact with hundreds of people each day while working.

We must demand that the US Senate pass legislation to provide national paid sick leave.

We Come Together as Beloved Community at All Saints Church as a sign of what can happen outside our doors. That we can be the change our world must see. That we can Come Together as a Beloved Community in Pasadena, the nation and the world. That the human family can Come Together. Today.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD’S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Holy Comforter, Divine Guide, even as Love leads us towards the places we fear the most, we hope to trust in you. When the shadow of the cross looms, keep us from retreating into privilege or isolation. Make us brave in our care for each other, leaving no one to go alone. Amen.

SALUTATION

Minister:  Blessed be God who forgives all our sins; God’s mercy endures for ever.

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Minister:  God dwells in you.
People:  And also in you.
Minister:  Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Minister:  Gracious God, whose blessed Son Jesus Christ came down from heaven to be the true bread which gives life to the world: Evermore give us this bread, that Christ may live in us, and we in Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.
LESSON

A Reading from I Samuel (16:1-13).

Our God said to Samuel, “How long will you grieve for Saul since I rejected him as ruler of Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and be on your way. For I am sending you to Jesse in Bethlehem. For I have chosen my ruler from among his children.” But Samuel replied, “How can I go? For if Saul learns about it, I will be murdered.” Our God replied, “Take a heifer with you: I am sending you to Jesse. Tell him that you came to offer a sacrifice to God, and invite Jesse to the sacrifice. Then I will show you what to do. You are to anoint for me my selection.” Samuel did what our God said. When he arrived at Bethlehem, the elders of the town trembled when they met Samuel. They asked, “Do you come in peace?” Samuel said, “Yes, in peace; I have come to sacrifice to God. Consecrate yourselves and come to the sacrifice with me.” Then he consecrated Jesse and his children and invited them to the sacrifice. When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab, and said to himself, “Surely God’s anointed stands here before the Almighty.” But God said to Samuel, “Pay no attention to appearance and height; I have rejected him. God does not see as mortals see; mortals see only appearances but God sees into the heart.” Then Jesse called Abinadab to pass before Samuel, who said, “No. God has not chosen this one.” Next came Shammah, but Samuel said, “Not this one either.” Seven sons were presented to Samuel by Jesse, who said, “God has not chosen any of these.” Samuel asked, “Are these all the sons you have?” “There is still the youngest,” Jesse said, “but he is tending the sheep.” Samuel said, “Send for him; we will not begin the sacrificial banquet until the lad arrives.” So they sent for the boy, a ruddy youth with bright eyes, and handsome to behold. Our God said, “Rise and anoint this one.” Then Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed the boy in the presence of his brothers, and from that day forward the Spirit of God came upon David and was with him. Then Samuel set out on his way to Ramah.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 23 All are invited to join in the reading of the psalm.

The Lord is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in paths of righteousness for his name’s sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
GOSPEL

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in John (9:1–12).
People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

As Jesus walked along, he saw someone who had been blind from birth. The disciples asked Jesus, “Rabbi, was it this individual's sin that caused the blindness, or that of the parents?” “Neither,” answered Jesus, “It was not because of anyone’s sin — not this person’s, nor the parents'. Rather, it was to let God’s works shine forth in this person. We must do the deeds of the One who sent me while it is still day — for night is coming, when no one can work. While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

With that, Jesus spat on the ground, made mud with his saliva and smeared the blind one’s eyes with the mud. Then Jesus said, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means ‘sent’). So the person went off to wash, and came back able to see. Neighbors and those who had been accustomed to seeing the blind beggar began to ask, “Is this not the one who used to sit and beg?” Some said yes; others said no — the one who had been healed simply looked like the beggar. But the individual in question said, “No — it was me.” The people then asked, “Then how were your eyes opened?” The answer came, “The one they call Jesus made mud and smeared it on my eyes, and told me to go to Siloam and wash. When I went and washed, I was able to see.”

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.
People: Praise to you, O Christ.

WE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED:
Margaret Craig; Sean Cox; Freeman Dyson; Barbara C. Harris; Edward Mackenzie; Christian Moore; Luis Reyes; Carlo.
Minister: God, in your presence, we are nourished in abundance. You make our weary hearts glad.

Silence.

Minister: You awaken us to the ordinary gifts that surround us. May fears of scarcity never let us forget all that we have.

Silence.

Minister: The rest we crave is found in turning towards each other. The heavy burdens of life are made light when they are shared.

Silence.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:
O God, you have searched us out and known us, and all that we are is open to you. We confess that we have sinned: we have used our power to dominate and our weakness to manipulate; we have evaded responsibility and failed to confront evil; we have denied dignity to ourselves and to our siblings, and have fallen into despair. We turn to you, O God; we renounce evil, we claim your love; we choose to be made whole.

Minister: Almighty God, have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.
People: And also with you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

HOLY COMMUNION

GREAT THANKSGIVING

Priest: God dwells in you.
People: And also in you.
Priest: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Christ you have given us the spirit of discernment, that we may triumph over evil and grow in grace.
Priest: Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the One that comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION  Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: God of new life, we thank you for the redemptive, liberating power of Jesus. When your Spirit led him into the wilderness to be tested for his ministry, he wrestled to understand his calling.

Now, as we make our way through our own wilderness, we ask for the strength and the courage to become the people you are calling us to be.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, saying: “Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

And so, in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving in union with Christ’s self-offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Priest and People:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Priest: Pour out your Holy Spirit on us, gathered here, and on these gifts of bread and wine. Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his love.

Priest and People:

Loving God, as we follow Jesus into the unknown, help us to find our true selves on the journey. Sustain us with your life-giving Spirit and empower us to do your work in the world. Amen.
Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal. Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父，願人都尊父的名為聖，願父的國降臨，願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。又求饒恕我們的罪，如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。不叫我們遇見試探，拯救我們脫離兇惡。因為國度、權柄、榮耀，全是父的，永無窮盡阿們。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: We are one bread, one body.
People: We will love one another as Christ loves us.

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

COLLECT FOR THE PRESENCE OF CHRIST

Minister: Let us pray.

Jesus, our Healer, stay with us as we are far from one another, be our companion along the way, kindle our hearts, and awaken hope, that as we gather and eat together, wherever we are, by ourselves or with those whom we love and care about, the risen Christ is present in the breaking of the bread. Amen.

CLOSING BLESSING

Virtual Coffee Hour

Immediately following the Closing Blessing, we will move to our “virtual coffee hour” and as we will have coffee and refreshments.

If you would like the Congregational Response Team to reach out to or follow up with someone, or if you would like to be involved in this congregational work, please contact Christine Hartman (christine@icehatcreative.com) or call the church office (626-796-1172).

We Would Like Pictures of You!

We are missing your faces and were inspired by a Face Book posting of a church with pictures of congregants in the pews. Our talented and crafty Kelly Erin O’Phelan and Jenny Tisi are working on projects that would involve putting together as many pictures as we can gather in a creative display.

A close up shot will be the most effective.
Please send to Kelly Erin O’Phelan at kophelan@allsaints-pas.org.

Congregational Response Team (CRT)
The CRT, chaired by Christine Hartman is hard at work contacting members of our community, starting with those most vulnerable and with minimal internet access. You can help! Please think of people who are vulnerable, anxious and in need ... and then do two things:
First — reach out to them yourself. Phone. Text. Email. Drop them a card. Ask if there is anything they need. Spend some time just talking and listening.
Second — let us know. Email CRT convener Christine Hartman at christine@icehatcreative.com with any information about people in need or if you are interested in volunteering.

Diocesan Carbon Footprint Challenge for Lent
The L.A. Diocese is asking churches to participate in a carbon footprint challenge for Lent and the All Saints Climate Change Task Force encourages everyone to sign up at www.sustainislandhome.org and enter the information about your family’s home energy use and carbon footprint. Every Sunday throughout the Lenten season, the Task Force will have volunteers to assist you with entering your data at the Connection Center on the lawn. This will be a fun and engaging way to make us all aware of our personal contributions to climate change, and encourage each other to be the change we want to see.

Thank You!
Thank you for your continued, generous support of your All Saints community during this extraordinarily challenging time. We have made a commitment that all of our staff — salaried, hourly and contracted — will be able to count on the income they are depending on from All Saints Church for the duration of this epidemic. That makes it especially important that pledges are fulfilled in a timely way.
You can make a pledge payment or other gift to All Saints Church online by clicking here — https://allsaints-pas.org/donate/donate-now/.
