10:00-10:45 a.m.

Rector's Forum with The Right Reverend John Harvey Taylor, *Servants of the Spirit: Abiding With Christ In Quarantine

The Rt. Rev. John H. Taylor began ministry as seventh bishop of the six-county Episcopal Diocese of Los Angeles on Dec. 1, 2017. "To our divided nation, to those living in fear and uncertainty, to anyone yearning for a rich relationship with the God in Christ who loves everyone without reservation, The Episcopal Church throws its arms open," Taylor said after the election was announced. "In our diverse, far-flung diocese, we are united in our baptismal pledge to strive for justice and peace among all people and to respect the dignity of every human being, especially those who are most vulnerable. I look forward with joy to serving alongside my fellow ministers -- laypeople, deacons, priests and bishops -- as we continue to proclaim the gospel in word and deed."

11:00-11:15 a.m. Virtual Children's Chapel led by Kelly Erin O'Phelan

If you have a candle and matches at home, please have them ready so you can light the candle together. We will share the video afterward if you want to do this later with your children.

11:15 a.m. Virtual Service

The Right Reverend John Harvey Taylor will preach. Canterbury Choir offers Psalm 23 by McFerrin and O Clap Your Hands by Vahuagn Williams. Minisingers and Mastersingers offer What a Wonderful World by Armstrong.

1:00 p.m. Bilingual Spanish/English Virtual Service

Alfredo Feregrino will preach at our bilingual service, and we'll again follow Eucharist with breaking bread together at a Virtual Coffee Hour. Dan Cole & Ensemble will offer music.

Monique Thomas is a long time member of All Saints Church, currently serving on the Vestry and as Junior Warden. She studied communications and performance at CSU San Bernardino and CSULA, and participated in a summer performance program at Northwestern University. As an African-American woman, hair has been a major part of her identity.

Monique's performance will be followed by a discussion you can participate in regarding your own "hair journeys." For the Zoom link or more information, contact rjm.ascpas@gmail.com

Looking Ahead

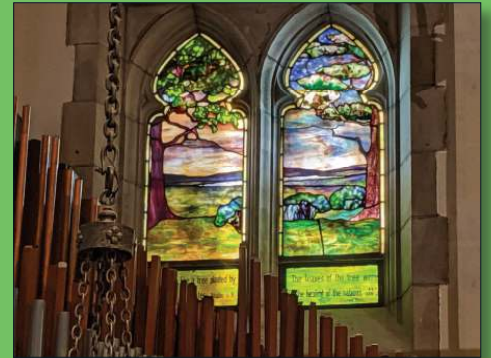

Events & Opportunities

We Are Grateful for You!

The generous support of the extended All Saints family helps make possible the many ways in which our love of God and of each other manifests through engagement with one another and with our wider community. We are grateful! Our celebration of Easter this year holds exceptional meaning – reminding us all of the hope and possibilities that are alive in our world. We invite you to mark this moment by making a special gift during Eastertide, helping to ensure that All Saints Church continues to be a church of healing and transformation, and a community where we can imagine new and wondrous things together.

Please make your gift here: —<https://allsaints-pas.org/donate/donate-now/>

If you have any questions, contact our Director of Giving, Terry Knowles at tknowles@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2736.

Congregational Response Team (CRT)

The CRT, chaired by Christine Hartman is hard at work contacting members of our community, starting with those most vulnerable and with minimal internet access. You can help! Please think of people who are vulnerable, anxious and in need ... and then do two things:

First — reach out to them yourself. Phone. Text. Email. Drop them a card. Ask if there is anything they need.

Spend some time just talking and listening.

Second — let us know. Email CRT convener Christine Hartman at christine@icehatcreative.com with any information about people in need or if you are interested in volunteering.

Our staff is working remotely. You can find a full contact list on our website at

Jazz Vespers with John Proulx

Link: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/84226320446>

Please do not log on more than 15 minutes in advance, at 4:45 p.m.

We will have a virtual Jazz vespers at 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 10, featuring John Proulx. The jazz scene is abuzz about singer, pianist, composer, and recording artist, John Proulx. His piano playing is hot and swinging, and his voice recalls the smooth, mellow sounds of a young Chet Baker. John's latest CD, "Say It", on the ArtistShare label, features Chuck Berghofer, Joe LaBarbera, Larry Koonse, Bob Sheppard, a duet with Melissa Manchester, and three string quartet arrangements by Alan Broadbent. John has appeared on Michael Feinstein's radio show on NPR, "Song Travels" as well as on Marian McPartland's radio show, "Piano Jazz". John recently received a Master's degree in "Jazz vocal performance" from Western Michigan University, and is currently on faculty at the Bob Cole Conservatory of Music at Cal State University Long Beach. Christina Honchell offers a meditation.

Scott Budnick Joins Us For Our Rector's Forum at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday, May 10

Despite a red-hot career Scott Budnick abruptly left the film business in 2013 to start a prisoner-advocacy nonprofit. He recently returned to film-making with a vision to pair storytelling with real-world impact. In 2013, Budnick launched the Anti-Recidivism Coalition (ARC), which advocates for policy change and provides mentoring for the incarcerated and recently released. ARC helped get 14 bills signed into law by former California Gov. Jerry Brown, including one that gives a shot at freedom to 20,000 juveniles sentenced to life without parole. But Budnick, 43, couldn't quite shake his storytelling roots: In 2018, as an offshoot of ARC, the Atlanta native created production banner One Community. Its first project, Warner Bros. Just Mercy, based on the book of world-renowned civil rights defense attorney Bryan Stevenson works to free a wrongly condemned death row prisoner.

Budnick was inspired to bring prisoners' stories to film and TV not long after starting ARC. "I met a guy at a party who was involved in the marriage equality movement and asked him what was the game-changing moment," Budnick recalls. "He said, 'Will & Grace, Ellen DeGeneres, Glee, Modern Family, Milk.' That was a decade of content that changed people's hearts and minds and how they voted throughout the country or just made them less dug-in against gay marriage. When I heard that, I realized that I'm able to really scale the work we're doing by raising money for a film and television company."

We Welcome Back Andre Henry Preaching at 11:15 a.m. on Sunday, May 17

Andre Henry is managing editor at RELEVANT Media Group. He holds a B.A. in Practical Theology and an M.A. in Theology with an emphasis in Biblical Languages. He's passionate about music, faith, racial justice, and social change. You can find him on Twitter @andrehenry, and more of his writing at <http://andrerhenry.com>.

After watching a black man bleed to death on Face Book Live in 2016, I decided (if you can call it that) to lug a 100-pound granite boulder around Los Angeles for 6 months, to demonstrate the burden that systemic racism lays on the black psyche. I took it to work, to class, on job interviews, to dinner with friends—everywhere—singing as I went. That path has led me through the work of great freedom fighters of the past like Gandhi and Mandela and Martin Luther King. All of this searching has shown me that history isn't a story that's happening to us, but one we're writing together. Therefore, we don't have to feel helpless about the overwhelming brokenness in the world. We have the power to take meaningful action.
