Each week we put our faith into action:

Condemn Racism, Police Brutality and Racial Violence

On this LGBTQ Pride Sunday, we invite you to join with the Human Rights Campaign and civil rights allies and please sign a letter condemning racial violence and committing to embrace anti-racism as core to our mission. The letter has been signed by 200+ leaders of the nation’s most prominent LGBTQ and civil rights organizations. Please join them in condemning racism, police brutality, and racial violence.

Click on the link below to sign the letter.

Our Mission Statement:

We are an Episcopal Church, walking with a revolutionary Jesus,
Loving without judgment
Doing justice courageously
Embracing life joyfully
Reverently inviting all faiths and peoples into relationship
For the healing and transformation of ourselves, our community, and the world.

Our Core Values:

Radical Inclusion ✦ Courageous Justice ✦ Ethical Stewardship ✦ Joyful Spirituality

Four Foundational Goals of All Saints Church

Claim our values, mission and VISION.

Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.

Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.

Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A, as well as from The Message, Enfleshed, The Voice, and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Creator God,

Thank You.

You have made us wonderfully well, though each of us is different from each other and from the rest of the world. We want to develop the courage and confidence to live proudly and to celebrate that you absolutely adore us just the way you created us. And so, we want to love one another the way we have been loved.

Amen.

Susan Russell

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Minister: Keep, O God, your household the Church in your steadfast faith and love, that through your grace we may proclaim your truth with boldness, and minister your justice with compassion; for the sake of our Savior Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

LESSON

Terry Moore

A Reading from Genesis (18: 1–15, 21:1–7).

The Lord appeared to Abraham near the great trees of Mamre while he was sitting at the entrance to his tent in the heat of the day. Abraham looked up and saw three travelers standing nearby. When he saw them, he hurried from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed low to the ground. He said, "If I have found favor in your eyes, my lord, do not pass your servant by. Let a little water be brought, and then you may all wash your feet and rest under this tree. Let me get you something to eat, so you can be refreshed and then go on your way – now that you have come to your servant." "Very well," they answered, "do as you say." So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah. "Quick," he said, "get three seahs of fine flour and knead it and bake some bread." Then he ran to the herd and selected a choice, tender calf and gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it. He then brought some curds and milk and the calf that had been prepared, and set these before them. While they ate, he stood near them under a tree. "Where is your wife Sarah?" they asked him. "There, in the tent," he said. Then the Lord said, "I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah your wife will have a child." Now Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, which was behind him. Abraham and Sarah were already old and well advanced in years, and Sarah was past the age of childbearing. So Sarah laughed to herself as she thought, "Now that I am so old and my husband even older, is pleasure to come my way again?" Then the Lord said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh and say, 'Will I really have a child, now that I am old?' Is anything too hard for the Lord? I will return to you at the appointed time next year and Sarah will have a child." Sarah was afraid, and said, "I didn't laugh." God said, "Oh, but you did indeed laugh!"

Our God was gracious to Sarah as it had been foretold, and did what had been promised. Sarah conceived and gave birth to a child for Abraham, who was now in old age, at the very time God had promised. They named the child Isaac, and Abraham circumcised the child Isaac when he was eight days old, according to God's command. Abraham was a hundred years old when Sarah gave birth to Isaac. Sarah said, "Now God has given me laughter, and all who hear this will laugh with me." She also said, "Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would suckle children? Yet I have given Abraham a child in his old age."

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 116:1, 10–17

Maddie Moore

I love you, O God, for you have heard my cry for mercy.

I believed even when I said, "I am completely crushed," and in despair said, "No one can be trusted.
How can I repay you for all your goodness to me?"

I raise the cup of deliverance, and call on the name of our God.

I will fulfill my vows to you in the presence of all your people.

The death of your faithful is precious in your sight.

O God, I am your faithful one- I am faithful to you alone, the child of your fidelity.

You have freed me from my chains.

I will offer you the sacrifice of praise, and call on the name of our God.

I will fulfill my vows to you in the presence of all your people, in the courts of the house of our God, in the midst of Jerusalem.

Alleluia!

LESSON

Ella Baker

A Reading from Romans (5:1–8).

Now, since we have been made right in God's sight by our faith, we are at peace with God through our Savior Jesus Christ. Because of our faith, Christ has brought us to the grace in which we now stand, and we confidently and joyfully look forward to the day on which we will become all that God has intended. But not only that – we even rejoice in our afflictions! We know that affliction produces perseverance; and perseverance produces character; and character, hope. And such a hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts through the Holy Spirit who has been given to us. At the appointed time, when we were still powerless, Christ died for us godless people. It is not easy to die for a good person – though of course for someone really worthy, there might be someone prepared to die – but the proof of God's love is that Christ dies for us even while we were sinners.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL

Fairbairn Powers

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (9:35–10:8).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When Jesus saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then Jesus said to the disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into this harvest." Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed Jesus. These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: "Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, 'The kingdom of heaven has come near.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

PRAYERS VIA CHAT

Mike Kinman

We take this time to acknowledge Prayers and Thanksgivings appearing on our Chat page.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Liz Burnam-Supple

Minister: God, who made us in your infinite creativity, you have chosen the spectrum of the rainbow to be the sign of your blessing and protection. We pray for your children in the rains of inequality and oppression, that they would see your blessing.

Silence.

Minister: On this Pride Sunday, we remember those who have blazed the trail for LGBTQ+ equality and justice and pray for those who continue to fight for full equality under the law.

Silence.

Minister: We pray for those who continue to live under the threat of intimidation, oppression, or violence in our communities because of their sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or the color of their skin.

Silence.

Minister: We pray for LGBTQ+ children and youth who struggle with isolation and shame, who have no safe space to retreat to or mentors who can teach and guide them through their journey of self-discovery.

Silence.

Minister: Empower us to walk in the way of love, to welcome the excluded and care for the vulnerable, to work for justice, and rejoice in the spirit of life.

Silence.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us. Propel us toward your vision of a world of peace and respect among all members of the human community. Amen.

Minister: Almighty God, have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

HOLY COMMUNION

GREAT THANKSGIVING

Susan Russell

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: In wonder and gladness we celebrate your creation of all that is, your incarnation in Jesus Christ, and your inspiration through the Holy Spirit.

For you are the source of light and life; you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Priest: Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS Everyone sings.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Bles'd is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

—Setting: Asikhatali, South Africa

CONSECRATION

Priest: Blessed are you, Creator of all, for the gift of life. You labored to bring forth the world from the waters of Creation; you gave the sign of the rainbow, your promise over the waters of the flood. You brought your people through the Red Sea, and quenched our thirst in the wilderness with water from the rock. You sweetened the bitter water of our journey with your abiding presence, and brought us across the Jordan into the land of promise.

Priest and People:

We failed continually to acknowledge your gifts to us. We chose purity over justice, prosperity over mercy, arrogance over humility. Yet your care for us never failed; in your good time, you sent Jesus to open our eyes, release us from captivity, and preach good news by the power of your Spirit.

Priest: In Jesus, your love for us became flesh; in him, you renewed your call to love God and our neighbor. He was baptized by John in the Jordan, offering himself as living water to all who thirst, and transformed our daily lives into the wine of celebration.

On the night before he died, Jesus sat at table with his friends. He took the bread, gave you thanks, and broke it and shared it with them, saying, "Take, eat; this bread is my Body, given to set you free. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave you thanks, and shared it with them, saying, "This is my Blood, the sign of the new covenant, given to set you free. Do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering his love for us, his labor to give us new life, and his defeat of death, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Priest and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Priest: Now, Creator God, breathe your Spirit upon these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be for us the food and drink of new life, Christ's Body and Blood given for us. Send your Spirit upon us, that our lives may be transformed into Gospel wine. Strengthen us by this holy food and drink to be your people, united to one another and to you.

Through Christ our Savior, in the power of the Holy Spirit, we give you glory and praise, Creator God, now and forever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父，
願人都尊父的名為聖， 願父的國降臨，
願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪，
如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。 不叫我們遇見試探，
拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是父的，永無窮盡 阿們。

All Saints’ Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office. A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support; connecting resources to those in need; and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT’s Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus; healthcare professionals; those who are mourning a death; those who are facing job loss and unemployment; those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at (626) 298-9551 or email acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact Christine Hartman at christine@icehatcreative.com.

Children, Youth & Families

K-5th Grade Updates

Sunday K-5th Grade Children's Chapel

Digital Children's Chapel is on at 11:00 a.m. from the Facebook feed of Kelly Erin O'Phelan (you can friend request Kelly and it will be set to 'public' on their page, so you can watch it by searching for their name). Anyone one of any age is welcome to attend this digital chapel! If you have a candle and matches at home, please have them ready as we will light the candle together! Children's Chapel will happen ever single week, digital or not.

If you are looking for support during this time please reach out to Kelly Erin O'Phelan at kophelan@allsaints-pas.org to connect.

Youth, 6th-12th Grade, Updates

The youth of All Saints Church have setup an online community so that we can all stay connected during this time.

We'll gather online during our regular meeting times as well as any other time you'd like.

To get access to the server, please contact Jeremy at jangill@allsaints-pas.org or Nina at nscherer@allsaints-pas.org.

Stay Connected

Sunday, June 14: Welcome Café - 10:15–1045 a.m.

An informal virtual gathering to get to better know All Saints Church. Join other newcomers and meet staff, ask questions, and learn how to get connected. Hosted by Nina Scherer, Youth Minister. For more information email Christine Cox at ccox@allsaints-pas.org.

Monday, June 15:

Monday Meditation Group - 6:45–8:45 p.m.

Beginners are welcome. Join us for quiet sitting and group meditation, accessible to all. Information = Ana Camacho acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

Grief and Loss Support Group - 7:00 p.m.

The Grief and Loss Support Group offers opportunities to develop a better understanding of grief and to learn healthy coping skills and share feelings with others who are experiencing loss. Information = Ana Camacho acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

Brothers on a Journey - 7:00–9:00 p.m.

Brothers on a Journey is an affinity group for men to share about their lives in a safe and welcoming environment. Information = Christine Cox at ccox@allsaints-pas.org.

LGBTQ+ Small Group - 7:00–8:30 p.m.

We strive to enhance the journey of faith of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer community through opportunities to foster spiritual and educational growth, social interaction, political advocacy and pastoral care. Email Christine Cox at ccox@allsaints-pas.org for access details.

Tuesday, June 16

Centering Prayer service 6:45–8:00 p.m.

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word.

Civil Resistance Teach-in

with Andre Henry and Lauren Grubaugh
Wednesday, June 17, 5:00 p.m.

Registration: https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_W9Gv8nTeRlyCx_0GrTWfIA

Many people believe that nonviolent revolutions are spontaneous outbursts requiring the right alchemy of emotion, leadership and action.

But a closer look at history shows that successful nonviolent revolutions, from the Civil Rights Movement to the overthrow of Serbian dictator Slobodan Milosevic in 2000, have won because of careful planning and strategic execution.

Andre Henry and Lauren Grubaugh want to help you plan to win.

You'll learn how to:

Collaboratively arrive at a compelling vision of tomorrow everyone wants to work toward,

Wage peace using a grand strategy of nonviolence,

Creatively generate subversive and surprising tactics,

Make oppression backfire,

And more!

Andre Henry, program manager for ESA's Racial Justice Institute, and nonviolent strategist and Rev. Lauren Grubaugh, Episcopal priest, certified Kaleidoscope Institute dialogue Facilitator, Spanish-English translator, subversive liturgist, and nonviolent strategist, discuss what it takes to bring about lasting change--nonviolently--in the fight against racism. (You'll receive a terrific resource list upon registering.)

Looking Ahead

Events & Opportunities

Your Generosity Matters

The financial support of the All Saints community and extended family is so very important! Thank you to those families and individuals who have pledged for 2020, and who are fulfilling those promises with messages of encouragement and prayers. All are welcome to support All Saints Church through a pledge or gift. This community is awake and alive with ministries and programs in full swing. We are drawn together by our love of each other and by a burning need to spread the gospel of our brother Jesus as far and wide as we can.

Please join us.
