Each week we put our faith into action:
This Sunday we are supporting a petition to the Pasadena Unified School District.

In Altadena, CA, which is part of the Pasadena Unified School District, there is an elementary school named for President Andrew Jackson. Jackson was a plantation owner reputed to have owned as many as 300 slaves and who, as president, advocated and enforced the removal of Native American tribes from the South to what is now Oklahoma. This became the national disgrace known as “The Trail of Tears”. Andrew Jackson does not represent the current values or culture of our town and its people nor that of the emerging multi-cultural democracy of the United States. He should no longer be immortalized in the name of this school. NASA has announced that it would name its headquarters in DC for Mary W. Jackson, the first Black woman to work there. She was instrumental in helping NASA send American astronauts into space. Since JPL is a neighboring institution with many of its employees sending their children to Pasadena schools, the petition asks that the school be renamed in her honor. Naming it for a tenacious, free, and trailblazing Black woman would also be a fitting rebuke to a man who believed she did not have the right to freedom, wages, or autonomy.

Loving without judgment
Doing justice courageously
Embracing life joyfully
Reverently inviting all faiths and peoples into relationship
For the healing and transformation of ourselves, our community, and the world.

Our Core Values:

Radical Inclusion ✦ Courageous Justice ✦ Ethical Stewardship ✦ Joyful Spirituality

---

Four Foundational Goals of All Saints Church

Claim our values, mission and VISION.

Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.

Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.

Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A, as well as from The Message, Enfleshed, The Voice, and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Loving God, we thank you for implanting in our hearts a vision of liberty and the desire to realize that vision for all nations and peoples; grant us the grace and courage to hold fast to that vision knowing that none of us are free until all are free. Amen.

LESSON

Alma Stokes

A Reading from Hebrews (11:8–16).

By faith, Sarah and Abraham obeyed when they were called, and went off to the place they were to receive as a heritage; they went forth, moreover, not knowing where they were going. By faith, Sarah and Abraham lived in the promised land as resident aliens, dwelling in tents with their children and grandchildren, who were heirs of the same promise – for they were looking forward to the city with foundations, whose designer and maker is God. By faith, Sarah received the ability to conceive, even though she was past childbearing age, for she thought that the One who had made the promise was worthy of trust. As a result of this faith, there came forth from one woman and one man, themselves as good as dead, descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and the sands of the seashore. All of them died in faith. They did not obtain what had been promised, but saw and welcomed it from afar. By acknowledging themselves to be strangers and exiles on the earth, they showed that they were looking for a country of their own. If they had been thinking of the country from which they had come, they would have been able to return to it. But they were searching for a better country, a heavenly one. So God is not ashamed of them, or ashamed to be called their God. That is why God has prepared a city for them.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

ANTHEM

Sung by Trouvères, with soloist Cassidy Anderson.

Fantasy

Every man has a place, in his heart there's a space,
And the world can't erase his fantasies.
Take a ride in the sky, on our ship fantasii
All your dreams will come true, right away.

And we will live together, until the twelfth of never
Our voices will ring forever, as one.

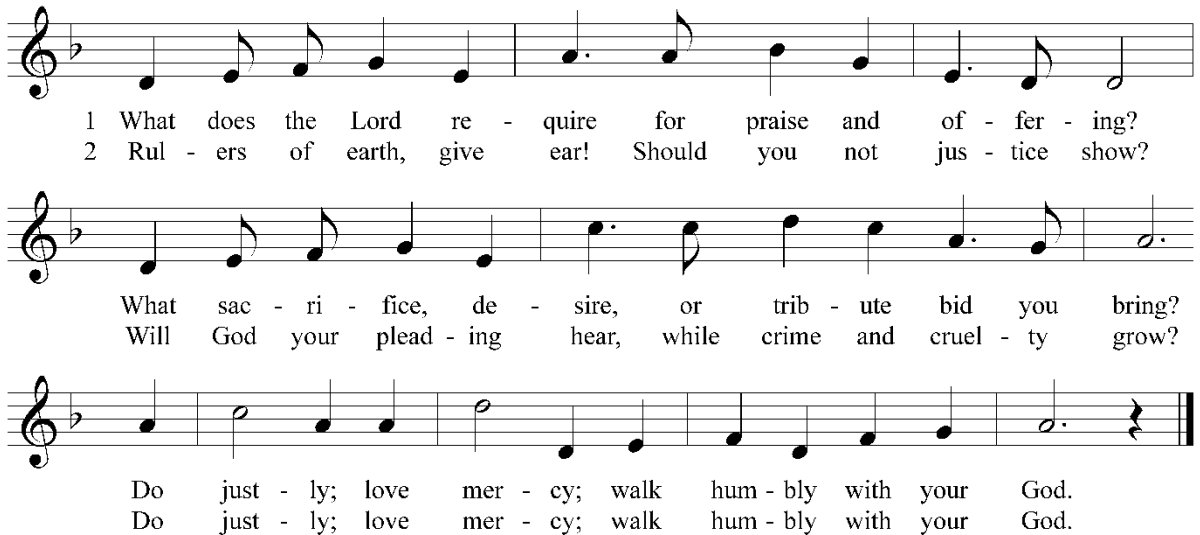

Every thought is a dream, rushing by in a stream,
Bringing life to our kingdom of doing.
Take a ride in the sky, on our ship fantasii
All your dreams will come true, miles away.

Our voices will ring together until the twelfth of never,
We all, will live forever, as one.

Come to see, victory in a land called fantasy,
Loving life, for you and me, to behold, to your soul is ecstasy
You will find, other kind, that has been in search for you,
Many lives has brought you to Recognize it's your life, now in review.
And as you stay for the play, fantasy, has in store for you,
A glowing light will see you through.

It's your day, shining day, all your dreams come true.
As you glide, in your stride with the wind, as you fly away
Give a smile, from your lips, and say
I am free, yes I'm free, now I'm on my way.
Come to see, victory in a land called fantasy,
Loving life, for you and me, to behold, to your soul is ecstasy.

GOSPEL

Alfredo Feregrino

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (5:43–48).

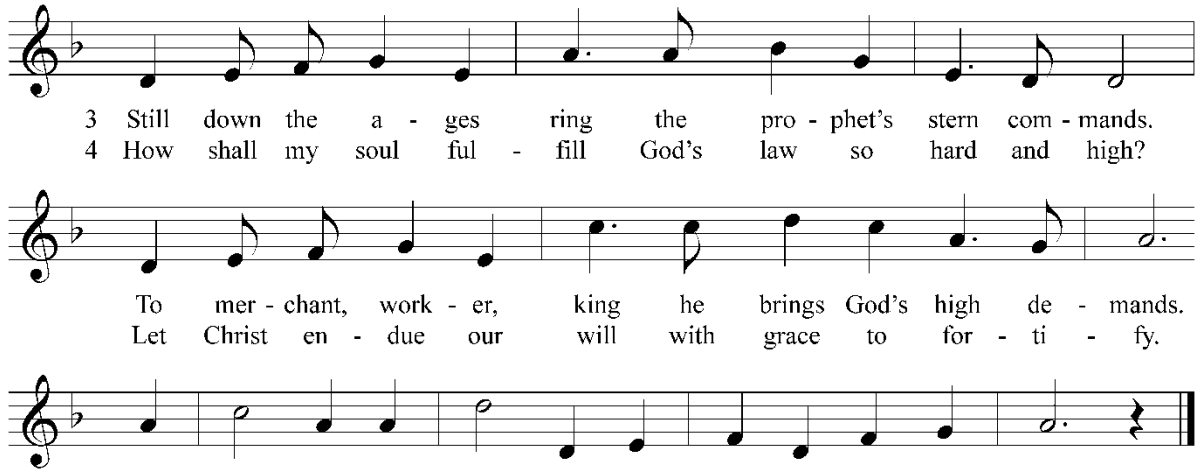

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

Jesus said, "You have heard it said, 'Love your neighbor but hate your enemy.' But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you. This will prove that you are children of God. For God makes the sun rise on the evil and on the good alike, and sends rain on the just and the unjust. If you love only those who love you, what merit is there in that? Do not even the tax collectors do as much? And if you greet only your friends, what is exceptional in that? Do not even the pagans do that much? Let the love you extend be full just as the love God extends is full."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMN "What Does the Lord Require" Everyone sings with soloist.

Heal Our Land

Lord, we humbly pray, heal our land.
 In this troubled time, we cannot stand
 Unless you hear our prayer.
 Forgive our sin and heal our land.
 Please, heal our land.

The storm clouds have gathered,
 The thunder is deafening.
 Where can we go for refuge when we're afraid?
 Help us remember, the God of our forebears.
 You were their strength and shelter against the rain.

Lord, we have a vision now burning within us,
 A nation who's heart is blazing with love for the Lord.
 You will renew us and pour out your blessing.
 We'll never lose hope, remember, you've done it before.

—Music &amp; Lyrics: Wesley Putnam; arr. by Nate Carter

HOLY COMMUNION*GREAT THANKSGIVING

Susan Russell

Priest: God dwells in you.
 People: And also in you.
 Priest: Lift up your hearts.
 People: We lift them to the Lord.
 Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
 People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.
 Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

Priest: Your Spirit moved over the deep and brought all things into being: sun, moon, and stars; earth, winds, and waters; and every living thing. You made us in your image and taught us to walk in your ways. But we rebelled against you, and lost our way; and yet, like mothers and fathers who care for their children, you would not forget us. Time and again you called us to live in the fullness of your love.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS Everyone sings.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Bles'd is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

—Setting: Asikhatali, South Africa

CONSECRATION

Priest: Glory and honor and praise to you, holy and living God. To deliver us from the power of sin and death and to reveal the riches of your grace, you looked with favor upon Mary, your willing servant, that she might conceive and bear a son, Jesus the holy child of God. Living among us, Jesus loved us. He broke bread with outcasts and sinners, healed the sick, and proclaimed good news to the poor. Yet we were heedless of his call to walk in love with all God's people.

Priest: Jesus persisted in inclusive love, even to his death on the cross, offering himself for the whole world.

On the night before he died for us, Jesus was at the table with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, and said: "Take, eat: This is my body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine. Again, he gave thanks to you, gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Now gathered at your table, O God of all creation, and remembering Christ, crucified and risen, who was and is and is to come, we offer to you our gifts of bread and wine, and ourselves, a living offering.

Priest and People:

Pour out your Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Body and Blood of Christ. Breathe your Spirit over the whole earth and make us your new creation, the Body of Christ given for the world you have made.

In the fullness of time bring us, with all your saints, from every tribe and language and people and nation, to feast at the banquet prepared from the foundation of the world.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父，
願人都尊父的名為聖，
願父的國降臨，
願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪，
如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。
不叫我們遇見試探，
拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是父的，永無窮盡
阿們。

Lift Every Voice and Sing, originally written as a poem by James Weldon Johnson and later set to music by his brother J. Rosamond Johnson, affirms the African American's resolve to persevere through adversity, remaining true to a vision of ultimate triumph. The words invoke a spirit of hope and faith in God, and express a sense of pride in heritage and national identity. It is most often referred to as the Black National Anthem.

All Saints’ Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office. A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support; connecting resources to those in need; and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT’s Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus; healthcare professionals; those who are mourning a death; those who are facing job loss and unemployment; those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact Christine Hartman at christine@icehatcreative.com.

with Rev.
