Each week we put our faith into action: Support a Bill in Congress that would Implement a Nationwide Eviction Moratorium

August rent is now due for many, but unlike every other month since this pandemic began, the supplementary unemployment benefits that millions of Americans have been relying on have run out. So are eviction moratoriums in dozens of states.

Congress is currently gridlocked on another stimulus package. Meanwhile, millions of Americans are staring at the potentiality of being evicted from their homes. Mass evictions won't just be bad for the economy, it will make the COVID-19 pandemic worse.

This week please support a nationwide eviction moratorium while Congress works on a stimulus. It will prevent millions of families from being kicked out onto the street in the middle of a pandemic.

We Come Together as Beloved Community at All Saints Church as a sign of what can happen outside our doors. That we can be the change our world must see. That we can Come Together as a Beloved Community in Pasadena, the nation and the world. That the human family can Come Together. Today.

Our Mission Statement:

We are an Episcopal Church, walking with a revolutionary Jesus,
Loving without judgment
Doing justice courageously
Embracing life joyfully
Reverently inviting all faiths and peoples into relationship
For the healing and transformation of ourselves, our community, and the world.

Our Core Values:

Radical Inclusion ✦ Courageous Justice ✦ Ethical Stewardship ✦ Joyful Spirituality

Four Foundational Goals of All Saints Church

Claim our values, mission and VISION.

Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.

Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.

Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A, as well as from The Message, Enfleshed, The Voice, and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAMEPRAYER OF MEDITATION

We encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

O God, the Creator of this beautiful planet and all that dwells in it, we now pause to remember the souls of those who perished in the atomic bombings and those who suffer from radiation even now, and join our hearts and voices together to pray for peace everywhere. May the deadly power of nuclear arsenals never be unleashed again upon your sacred creation. May such weapons of mass and indiscriminate annihilation be forever banned and eliminated from the face of the earth. Forgive our silence, O God, and enable your Church to raise its prophetic voices to speak against the madness of nuclear pursuits anywhere. Renew our commitment to be faithful stewards of your beautiful creation and vehicles of peace. In the name of Christ, our Prince of Peace. Amen.

LESSON

Terry Moore

A Reading from Genesis (32:22–31).

In the course of the night, Jacob arose, took the entire caravan, and crossed the ford of the Yabbok River. After Jacob had crossed with all his possessions, he returned to the camp, and he was completely alone. And there, someone wrestled with Jacob until the first light of dawn. Seeing that Jacob could not be overpowered, the other struck Jacob at the socket of the hip, and the hip was dislocated as they wrestled. Then Jacob's contender said, "Let me go, for day is breaking." Jacob answered, "I will not let you go until you bless me." "What is your name?" the other asked. "Jacob" he answered. The other said, "Your name will no longer be called 'Jacob' or 'Heel-Grabber', but 'Israel', 'Overcomer of God' because you have wrestled with both God and mortals and you have prevailed." Then Jacob asked, "Now tell me your name, I beg you." The other asked, "Why do you ask me my name?", and blessed Jacob there. Jacob named the place Peniel – "Face of God" – "because I have seen God face to face, yet my life was spared." At sunrise, Jacob left Peniel, limping along from the injured hip. That is why, to this day, the Israelites do not eat the sciatic muscle that is on an animal's hip socket, because Jacob's hip socket was struck at the sciatic muscle.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

ANTHEM

Sung by the Trouvères, with soloist Lorenzo Bacani.

How Can I Keep from Singing

My life flows on in endless song, how can I keep from singing?
No storm can shake my inmost calm, how can I keep from singing?

What though the tempest around roars, I know the truth, it liveth.
What though the darkness round me close, songs in the night it giveth.

I hear the real, though far off hymn, that hails a new creation.
It sounds an echo in my soul, above earth's lamentation.

To the rock I'm clinging. How can I stop singing?
I'm clinging to the rock now. Hear me singing!

—Words: Quaker hymn (c. 1800)
Music: arr. by Greg Gilpin (2003)

LESSON

Adelaide Esseln

A Reading from Isaiah (55:1–5).

All who are thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, buy food and eat! Come, buy wine and milk, without money, without price! Why spend your money for what is not bread, your wages for what fails to satisfy? Heed me, and you will eat well, you will delight in rich fare; bend your ear and come to me, listen, that you may have life: I will make an everlasting Covenant with you – in fulfillment of the blessings promised to David. See, I have made of you to be a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander of the nations. See, you will summon nations you never knew, and nations that never knew you will come hurrying to you – for the sake of your God, the Holy One of Israel, who will glorify you.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL VIDEO

Amy Brenneman, Brad Siberling

Matthew (14:13–21)

Jesus withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When Jesus went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said to them, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They replied, "We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish." And Jesus said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, Jesus looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were many more than five thousand adults and children as well.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

David Morgan

Minister: Holy Agitator, when our spirits are restless and unsettled, when peace is nowhere to be found, challenge our perceptions that confine and confront our thinking that leads us to harm. Meet us in the places deep within and let your Spirit lead us in truth and healing.

Silence.

Minister: Spirit of Transformation, as forces of evil and empire work to kindle the fear in us, embolden our faith. Make us persistent, determined, and resolute in the way of life. Trusting your hand to uphold us, we endeavor to struggle against injustice within and around.

Silence.

Minister: Loving God, foundation of mystery, from the unknowns that surround, possibilities emerge. In silence, honesty voices its concerns. Help us be courageous and to linger patiently in discomfort. Thank you for your love that upholds us.

Silence.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us. Propel us toward your vision of a world of peace and respect among all members of the human community. Amen.

Christ Is Made the Sure Foundation

Christ is made the sure foundation,	To this temple where we call thee,
Christ the Head and Cornerstone;	Come, O Lord of hosts, today;
Chosen of the Lord, and precious,	With thy wonted loving kindness
Binding all the Church in one;	Hear thy servants as they pray,
Holy Zion's help forever,	And thy fullest benediction
And her confidence alone.	Shed within its walls always.

Laud and honor to the Creator,
 Laud and honor to the Christ,
 Laud and honor to the Spirit,
 Ever Three and ever One,
 One in might, and One in glory,

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: In wonder and gladness we celebrate your creation of all that is, your incarnation in Jesus Christ, and your inspiration through the Holy Spirit.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

CONSECRATION

Priest: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Priest: Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Priest and People:

We remember Christ's death,
We proclaim Christ's resurrection,
We await Christ's coming in glory;

Priest: And we offer our praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant.

Priest and People:

Unite us to your Son in his self-offering, that we may be acceptable through Christ, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, align all things with your love, and bring us to that heavenly country where with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父，
願人都尊父的名為聖，
願父的國降臨，
願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪，
如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。
不叫我們遇見試探，
拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是父的，永無窮盡

All Saints’ Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office. A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support; connecting resources to those in need; and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT’s Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus; healthcare professionals; those who are mourning a death; those who are facing job loss and unemployment; those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact Christine Hartman at christine@icehatcreative.com.

Every Sunday We Put Our Faith into Action at All Saints Church

In these uncertain times navigating a global pandemic, now more than ever our continued advocacy for the world's deep needs is crucial. As we continue to worship virtually, the Rapid Response Team (RRT) is choosing actions that can be done completely online from your web browser. While the current priorities are generally aligned with the acute needs of COVID-19 and the associated economic and social justice impacts, the RRT also considers actions that address pre-existing needs. Thank you to all who are participating in our virtual action table each week, and we urge everyone to prayerfully consider each week's action and join us in committing to improving our world.

Each week's action can be found at <https://www.allsaints-pas.org/more/action> or from the All Saints home page. If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions for actions, please contact Juliana Serrano at jserrano@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2731.

JAZZ VESPERS

SUNDAY, AUGUST 2, 2020, 5:00 P.M.

JOHN & GERALD CLAYTON

Link: <https://allsaints-pas.zoom.us/j/86916320948>

John Clayton is a natural born multitasker. The multiple roles in which he excels -- composer, arranger, conductor, producer, educator, and yes, extraordinary bassist -- garner him a number of challenging assignments and commissions. With a Grammy on his shelf and eight additional nominations, artists such as Diana Krall, Paul McCartney, Gladys Knight, Queen Latifah, and Charles Aznavour vie for a spot on his crowded calendar. Career highlights include arranging the 'Star Spangled Banner' for Whitney Houston's performance at Super Bowl 1990 (the recording went platinum), playing bass on Paul McCartney's CD "Kisses On The Bottom," and numerous recordings with Diana Krall, the Clayton Brothers, the Clayton-Hamilton Jazz Orchestra, Milt Jackson, Monty Alexander and many others.

Gerald Clayton searches for honest expression in every note he plays. With harmonic curiosity and critical awareness, he develops musical narratives that unfold as a result of both deliberate searching and chance uncovering. The four-time GRAMMY-nominated pianist/composer formally began his musical journey at the prestigious Los Angeles County High School for the Arts, and earned a Bachelor of Arts in Piano Performance at USC's Thornton School of Music under the instruction of piano icon Billy Childs. Clayton won second place in the 2006 Thelonious Monk Institute of Jazz

Piano Competition. Capturing the truth in each moment's conception of sound comes naturally to Clayton. The son of beloved bass player and composer John Clayton, he enjoyed a familial apprenticeship from an early age. Clayton honors the legacy of his father and all his musical ancestors through a commitment to artistic exploration, innovation, and reinvention.
