Each week we put our faith into action

In these uncertain times navigating a global pandemic, now more than ever our continued advocacy for the world's deep needs is crucial. As we continue to worship virtually, the Rapid Response Team (RRT) is choosing actions that can be done completely online from your web browser. While the current priorities are generally aligned with the acute needs of COVID-19 and the associated economic and social justice impacts, the RRT also considers actions that address pre-existing needs. Thank you to all who are participating in our virtual action table each week, and we urge everyone to prayerfully consider each week's action and join us in committing to improving our world.

Each week's action can be found at <https://www.allsaints-pas.org/more/action> or from the All Saints home page. If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions for actions, please contact Juliana Serrano at jserrano@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2731.

We Come Together as Beloved Community at All Saints Church as a sign of what can happen outside our doors. That we can be the change our world must see. That we can Come Together as a Beloved Community in Pasadena, the nation and the world. That the human family can Come Together. Today.

Four Foundational Goals of All Saints Church

Claim our values, mission and VISION.

Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.

Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.

Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A, as well as from The Message, Enfleshed, The Voice, and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Loving God, the source of strength and peace: Take from us all that inhibits the flow of your spirit, break down the walls that separate us, with hands of compassion wash away our fear, our resentment and our hardness of heart, enable us to become centered and still, aware of your Presence, here, now, to heal and to transform. We pray in the Spirit of Christ, our Healer. Amen.

LESSON I

Lynndi Scott

A Reading from Exodus (1:8–20, 2:10).

The children of Israel were fruitful and became a veritable swarm – their numbers increased so much that they filled the land and became powerful. A new Pharaoh – one who did not know Joseph – came to power in Egypt. Pharaoh said to the Egyptians, “Look how powerful the Israelites have become, and how they outnumber us! We need to deal shrewdly with their increase, against a time of war when they might turn against us and join our enemy, and so escape out of the country.” So they oppressed the Israelites with overseers who put them to forced labor; and with them they built the storage cities of Pitom and Ra’amses. Yet the more the Israelites were oppressed, the more they multiplied and burst forth, until the Egyptians dreaded them. So they made the Israelites utterly subservient with hard labor, brick-and-mortar work, and every kind of field work. The Egyptians were merciless in subjugating them with crushing labor. Pharaoh spoke to the midwives of the Hebrews — one was Shiprah, and the other Puah — and said, “When you assist the Hebrew women in childbirth, examine them on the birthing stool. If the baby is a boy, kill it. If it is a girl, let it live.” But the midwives were God-fearing women, and they ignored the Pharaoh’s instructions, and let the male babies live. So Pharaoh summoned the midwives and asked why they let the male babies live. The midwives responded, “These Hebrew women are different from Egyptian women; they are more robust, and deliver even before the midwives arrive.” God rewarded the midwives, and the people increased in numbers and in power. The Pharaoh then commanded all those in Egypt, “Let every boy that is born to the Hebrews be thrown into the Nile, but let every girl live.” There was a man from the house of Levi who had married a Levite woman, and she conceived and gave birth to a boy. And she saw that the baby was good, so she hid him for three months. When she could hide the baby no longer she took a papyrus basket, daubed it with bitumen and pitch, and put the child in it, and placed the basket among the reeds by the banks of the Nile. The baby’s sister watched from a distance to learn what would happen. Pharaoh’s daughter came down to the Nile to bathe, while her attendants walked along the river bank. She noticed the basket among the reeds and sent her attendant to fetch it. Opening it, she saw the baby – and how it wept. She was moved to pity and said, “This must be one of the Hebrew’s children!” Then his sister said to Pharaoh’s daughter, “Do you want me to go and find a nurse for you among the Hebrews to nurse the child for you?” “Yes, go,” she answered. So the sister went off and brought the baby’s own mother. Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this child with you and nurse it for me, and I myself will pay you.” The woman took the child and nursed it. After the child was weaned, she brought him to Pharaoh’s daughter, who adopted him as her own. She called him Moses – “to draw out” – for she said, “I drew him out of the water.”

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People: Thanks be to God.

ANTHEMSung by Trouvères.Stand Together

Lo lay oh ai lee lie lee ai lee loo.
 Stand alone, see the rain that's falling down,
 Below, where I'm reaching.
 Joining hands slowly takes us to a place
 We all can believe in.

Side by side we could be,
 Growing hope and dreams.

If we stand together we will sing forever
 Of the dreams, growing in our hearts.
 If we stand together we will see forever,
 Side by side, hope will find a way, to our hearts.

One by one we will follow with our hearts,
 A place we can dream of.
 Open hearts slowly lead us to,
 A place we all can believe in.

We will stand side by side with our dreams,
 We will sing. We will sing for freedom
 When we sing, with our hearts.
 We will stand side by side and believe.

—Words &amp; Music: Jim Papoulis (2007)

PSALM 138

Mel Soriano

I thank you with all my heart; I sing your praise before the gods.
 I bow down in front of your holy Temple and praise your Name because of your love and faithfulness, for you have put above everything else your Name and your word.

When I called, you answered me — you made me bold and strong of heart.
 All the rulers of the earth will praise you, when they hear the Words of your mouth.

They will sing about what you have done, and about your great glory.
 Even though you are so high above, you care for the lowly and see arrogant people from far away.

Even when I am surrounded by troubles, you keep me safe;
 you oppose the anger of my enemies, and save me with your right hand.

You will do everything you have promised me.
 O God, your love is eternal; do not abandon the work of your hands.

LESSON II

Ava King

A Reading from Romans (12:1–8).

Dear friends, I beg you through the mercy of God to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God — this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform yourself to this age, but be transformed by the renewal of your minds, so that you can judge what God’s will is — what is good, pleasing and perfect. In light of the grace I have from God, I urge each of you not to exaggerate your own importance. Each of you must judge yourself soberly by the standard of faith God has given you. Just as each of us has one body with many members — and these members do not have the same function — so all of us, in union with Christ, form one body. And as members of that one body, we belong to each other. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophecy, use it in proportion to your faith. If your gift is ministry, use it for service. If you are a teacher, use your gift for teaching. If you are good at preaching, then preach boldly. If you give to charity, do so generously; if you are a leader, exercise your authority with care; if you help others, do so cheerfully.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Susan Russell

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (16:13–20).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

When Jesus came to the neighborhood of Caesarea Philippi, he asked the disciples this question: "Who do people say that the Chosen One is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist, others say Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." "And you," he said, "who do you say that I am?" "You are the Messiah," Simon Peter answered, "the Firstborn of the Living God!" Jesus replied, "Blessed are you, Simon begot of Jonah! No mere mortal has revealed this to you, but God in heaven. I also tell you this: your name now is 'Rock' and on bedrock like this I will build my community, and the jaws of death will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the reign of heaven: whatever you declare bound on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you declare loosed on earth will be loosed in heaven." Then Jesus strictly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

OFFERTORY ANTHEMSung by Canterbury Choir and Coventry Choir Soloists.Christ, the Solid Rock

My hope is built on nothing less
 Than Jesus' blood and righteousness.
 I dare not trust the sweetest frame
 But wholly lean on Jesus' name.

His oath, his covenant, his blood
 Support me in the whelming flood.
 When all around my soul gives way
 He then is all my hope and stay.

On Christ the solid rock I stand
 All other ground is sinking sand
 When darkness veils his lovely face
 I'll rest on his unchanging grace.
 In every high and stormy day
 My anchor holds within the veil.

On Christ the solid rock I stand
 All other ground is sinking sand
 Let's just revisit and visualize it
 Just think about what that is gonna look like
 When we hear that trumpet sound.

When he shall come with trumpet sound
 Oh, may I then in him be found.
 Dressed in his righteousness alone
 Faultless to stand before the throne.

BLESSING FOR A NEW SCHOOL YEAR

Mike Kinman

Priest: As we begin the school year let us pray, for all who are starting school this fall – particularly amidst the unprecedented challenges of the pandemic. We pray for the health and safety for all who make learning possible: students, teachers, administrators, staff, bus drivers, coaches, room parents, parents stepping into the role of teachers, custodians, tutors, teacher aides, school board members. For all who teach and all who learn and all whose labors make teaching and learning possible. Thank you for these wonderful people, loving God.

For a spirit of adventure and joy in learning. For inquiring and discerning hearts and diligence in the pursuit of greater knowledge and insight. For the courage to ask the scary question, admit we don't know the answer and the grace to seek wisdom even from people who challenge us or with whom we disagree. For the reluctant student to find purpose, momentum and joy. For all students to be inspired by possibility and challenge. For light and patience to guide conversation, whether in the classroom, on the court, in passing or online. Grant all of us these things, loving God.

For health and protection for all who travel to and from school. For protection from bullies and the temptation to bully. For courage in the face of the pressure of the crowd. For trust in your love at times when we feel lonely and unlovable. Guard us and guide us, loving God.

Priest: For all who do not have access to adequate education, resources, or support. For children who live on the streets or sleep on neighbor's couches. For children who are hungry and receive no help with their homework. For children whose classroom is the shade of a tree and who walk miles for a drink of water. For teachers who are paid poorly or not at all, or work in risky, unhealthy environments. For administrators whose decisions impact faculty, students, curriculum and safety. Make us determined to help, loving God.

For our many different families. For homes bedrooms, dining rooms, and dens that have become classrooms and work spaces. For patience and strength as stresses mount and days get fuller. For your love to bind us together as we all grow into new roles in new places. For the ability to continue to spend time together as families and for the grace to have hard conversations and share those things together of which we are afraid. For the grace of parents and caregivers to remember what it was like to be children and the grace of children to realize that their parents and caregivers actually might know something. Grant us all your grace, loving God.

Holy and loving God, we ache for the friends we miss seeing in person, for activities, performances and sports that have been postponed or cancelled, and for time to learn and play together. Despite these obstacles, help us discover ourselves as created in your image as scientists and artists, as historians and athletes, as writers, innovators and dreamers. Help us to understand that these new restrictions will not last forever. And keep us safe and under your blessed care this year and always.

May God bless you and keep you;

May you always know God's love for you.

May you always know our love for you.

And may you continue to grow in wisdom, grace and strength. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

GREAT THANKSGIVING

Sally Howard

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: In wonder and gladness we celebrate your creation of all that is, your incarnation in Jesus Christ, and your inspiration through the Holy Spirit.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Priest: Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS Everyone sings.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless'd is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

CONSECRATION

Priest: Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Creator of all.

Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect self-offering for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Priest and People:

Christ has died.
 Christ is risen.
 Christ will come again.

Priest: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this offering of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's life, death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ.

Priest and People:

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ—by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父，
願人都尊父的名為聖， 願父的國降臨，
願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪，
如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。 不叫我們遇見試探，
拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是父的，永無窮盡
阿們。
