

SMALL GROUPS

AT ALL SAINTS CHURCH

Small Groups are an opportunity for friends and members of All Saints Church to deepen connections and widen service within the church and community – by emphasizing caring for each other. All of these groups are currently happening online.

Current Groups:

Artists Guild: Open to anyone who loves the arts, loves to share, and loves to learn. For everything from sharing our own artistic stories, to teaching our crafts, to field trips to explore outside artistry. Second Saturday of each month, 10 a.m.,

Brothers on a Journey: All men are welcome, wherever you find yourself on your own life journey. We are a supportive men's group that meets every Monday, 7 p.m.,

Fiction Fun! A monthly book group exploring what it means to live lives of faith by reading and discussing contemporary and classic works of fiction. All are welcome to join us; reading experience is not necessary. Fourth Friday of each month, 7:30 p.m.,

LGBTQ+ Small Group : We are a diverse group of LGBTQ+ people who meet weekly to share our stories and experiences, and to build a supportive community within All Saints. Monday, 7 p.m.

Parent Culture (Parents of birth - 5th grade): Discussions on current issues and community building as we juggle parenthood together. Sunday, 10:15 a.m.,

Senior Saints Book Group: A book reading group focused on seeking insight from spiritual writers and discovering how one's understanding of the spiritual dimension can transform aging. Second Thursday of each month, 12:30 p.m.

The Writers Group: Novels, poetry, memoir, performance art. Read what you've written, get critiqued and hang out with some very creative people. Every other Thursday at 7 p.m.
