Each week we put our faith into action: Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act

This week we ask you to sign an Episcopal Public Policy Network (EPPN) action letter to our senators and urge them to protect Indigenous women by passing the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act (VAWA) of 2019. The incidence of violence against indigenous women is among the highest in the country and the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act (VAWA) of 2013 was an important piece of legislation in addressing violence against Indigenous women. However, shortfalls in the program have become evident. The reauthorization act of 2019, passed by the House in April of that year, would rectify some of these shortfalls. The legislation will: Protect Indigenous victims of sexual assault and keep Indigenous children safe from violence by expanding tribal jurisdiction over non-Indigenous perpetrators; Include Alaska Native tribes; Promote tribal access to federal criminal databases; Improve coordination and response rates across multiple jurisdictions.

Please sign the letter to urge its passage in the Senate.

Our Mission Statement:

We are an Episcopal Church, walking with a revolutionary Jesus,
Loving without judgment
Doing justice courageously
Embracing life joyfully
Reverently inviting all faiths and peoples into relationship
For the healing and transformation of ourselves, our community, and the world.

Our Core Values:

Radical Inclusion ✦ Courageous Justice ✦ Ethical Stewardship ✦ Joyful Spirituality

Four Foundational Goals of All Saints Church

Claim our values, mission and VISION.

Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.

Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.

Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A, as well as from The Message, Enfleshed, The Voice, and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

ANTHEM*Sung by the Trouvères.*

You Do Not Walk Alone

May you see God's light on the path ahead
 when the road you walk is dark.
 May you always hear even in your hour of sorrow,
 the gentle singing of the lark.
 When times are hard
 may hardness never turn your heart to stone.
 May you always remember when the shadows fall—
 You do not walk alone.

LESSON

Anina Minotto

A Reading from Leviticus (19:1–2, 15–18).

Our God told Moses to tell the entire Israelite community these things: Be holy, for I, your God, am holy. Do not be corrupt in administering justice. Do not show partiality to the poor or give honor to the great. Judge your neighbor with fairness. Do not go about slandering others. Do not profit by the blood of your neighbor. I am your God. Do not nurse hatred for a neighbor. If you are angry with your neighbor, speak frankly about it, to avoid storing up ill feelings. Never seek revenge or hold a grudge toward your relatives. You must love your neighbor as you love yourself. I am your God.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL

Susan Russell

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (22:34–46).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had left the Sadducees speechless, they gathered together, and one of them, an expert on the Law, attempted to trick Jesus with this question: "Teacher, which commandment of the Law is the greatest?" Jesus answered: "You must love the Most High God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind.' That is the greatest and first commandment. The second is like it: 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.' On these two commandments the whole Law is based-and the Prophets as well." While the Pharisees were gathered around him, Jesus asked them this question: "What do you think about the Messiah? Whose descendant is the Messiah?" They answered, "David's." Jesus continued, "Then how is it that David, inspired by the Spirit, calls the Messiah 'Sovereign'? For he says, 'The Most High said to my Sovereign, "Sit at my right hand until I place your enemies under your foot.'" If David calls the Messiah 'Sovereign,' how can the Messiah be a descendant of David?" No one could reply, and from that day on no one dared ask him any more questions.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMN "Love Astounding, Love Confounding" Everyone sings with soloist.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Andy Malloy

Minister: Holy God, we thank you for all who shepherd the lost and care for those in need. And we pray for the spirit of justice that all who are homeless, addicted, exploited, or oppressed, may find freedom and wholeness.

Silence.

Minister: We pray for the spirit of peace in the world, that all peoples, especially nations in conflict, may find a way to live in harmony.

Silence.

Minister: God of endings and beginnings, you are no stranger to change. You have seen this planet and its creatures through age after age, loving it in all its forms. Though we tremble at uncertainty, your care is steady, abiding, enduring. We give you thanks, and pray for the faith to be patient in times of transition. May Divine Wisdom be our firm foundation.

Silence.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Minister: Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

HOLY COMMUNIONGREAT THANKSGIVING

Alfredo Feregrino

Priest: God dwells in you.
 People: And also in you.
 Priest: Lift up your hearts.
 People: We lift them to the Lord.
 Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
 People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: In wonder and gladness we celebrate your creation of all that is, your incarnation in Jesus Christ, and your inspiration through the Holy Spirit.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord; who on the first day of the week overcame death and the grave, and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS Everyone sings.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless'd is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

CONSECRATION

Priest: Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Creator of all.

Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect self-offering for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Priest: Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Priest and People:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Priest: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this offering of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's life, death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ.

Priest and People:

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ—by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父，
願人都尊父的名為聖，
願父的國降臨，
願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪，
如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。
不叫我們遇見試探，
拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，

All Saints' Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office. A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support, connecting resources to those in need, and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT's Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus, healthcare professionals, those who are mourning a death, those who are facing job loss and unemployment, those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact Christine Hartman at christine@icehatcreative.com.

10:00-11:00 a.m. Rector's Forum with Rick Perlstein

Rick Perlstein has published three definitive works about the emerging dominance of conservatism in American politics: Before the Storm: Barry Goldwater and the Unmaking of American Consensus (2002); Nixonland: The Rise of a President and the Fracturing of America (2008); and The Invisible Bridge: The Fall of Nixon and the Rise of Reagan (2014). With the saga's final installment, Reaganland—covering the years from Jimmy Carter's election to his defeat at the hands of Ronald Reagan—he has delivered his most stunning literary and historical achievement yet. Perlstein shows how much the nation changed over those years—and just as importantly, how those changes produced the world we live in now.

“I've read the first three and am devouring the fourth. Together they show the deep roots of how we got where we are today.”

Election 24-Hour Zoom Vigil - We Would Like to Provide a Refuge and Safe Place from the 24 hour News Cycle for Those Seeking an Alternative to the Election Day Noise & Stress

Tuesday, Nov. 3, Noon – Noonday Prayers, Wednesday, Nov. 4

We will have hosts for each one-hour segment throughout the day, starting with a prayer service led by Sally Howard, from 12:00-1:00 p.m. on Nov. 3 and ending with a Noonday Prayer and Healing service, 12:00 p.m. on Nov. 4.

Each hour will be unique. Each host will shepherd the hour with something that will provide quiet rest, a listening ear, musical interludes and dance or movement. Some hours will be a time for sharing experiences and stresses, and some will be literal dance parties. This time is meant to be an escape from the news network hyperbole. The hosts are not there to further the anxiety of the day but to be an alternative to it. Come join us as we walk into November 3 with love and hope and faith in our hearts, as hard as that can sometimes be. Join us for any or all of the vigil (and please vote!)

Who Am I? Mask Challenge: Saving Lives One Conversation At a Time

Founded by longtime All Saints Pasadena member, William Lucas (Bill) Walker, #WhoAmIMaskChallenge aims to slow the spread of Covid-19 by using short, personal videos to start new conversations about masks, one voice at a time. The Challenge: to flood social media with these non-partisan, non-political videos (shot on phones by ordinary Americans) of individuals answering the question, "Why do you wear a mask?" Bill, an Emmy-winning television writer (Frasier, Will & Grace, Roseanne) encouraged congregations across the United States to take up this simple-yet-powerful action. What better way to bring about a rapid end to this pandemic and return our lives to normal?

All Saints Sunday

It has been the custom in the Western Church to celebrate All Saints Day on November 1, remembering the lives of all who have died. At our parish celebration of this festival, we remember by name all those close to the life of this parish who have died since last All Saints Day. We will return to the beautiful interior of All Saints. Ministers of the liturgy will be observing the social distance and safety protocols dictated by health care professionals and in compliance with our diocesan guidelines. And while we all long for the time when we can safely return for in person congregational worship, being able to center our online service in our familiar and beloved sanctuary is one step toward that eventual goal.

If you would like to ensure a loved one's name is in our Memorial Book, please send to frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org and in subject line add "For Memorial Book 2020"

Requiem Eucharist - 11:15 a.m.

Coventry Choir and Chamber Orchestra, directed by Weicheng Zhao will offer Requiem for the Living by Dan Forrest. Mike Kinman preaches. Requiem for the Living projects a wide range of meaningful expression, from a biting essay on the vanity and pain of humankind to a plea for mercy, and finally a celebration of eternal light.

Día de Los Santos y Fieles Difuntos - 1:00 p.m. Day of Saints and Faithful Departed

Dan Cole & Ensemble offer music. Mike Kinman preaches.

This is a festive and colorful celebration in which we honor our loved ones as they were when they were alive.

The group can talk about the hosting part after they start meeting.

Book Group on Becoming REAL: And Thriving in Ministry by Sandra Montes, facilitated by Vivian Varela : If congregations were to look outside their doors, they may find that the people who need the good news don't look like them and that the way to engage them is by having ministries that are REAL. This easy-to-understand perspective on relationships can be implemented in any setting with any group. This bilingual (Spanish/English) book group will meet for six sessions on Thursdays at 7:00 p.m., starting October 22 on Zoom (no meeting on Thanksgiving Day).

Meditation and the Mind, facilitated by Leila Gonzalez : We will meet for 8 consecutive sessions to meditate together and discuss simple tools that help incorporate the power of meditation into our daily lives; emphasizing that creating lasting change requires practice over time.
