Each week we put our faith into action: Legislation and Leadership in California

Every week we put our faith into action at All Saints Church and this week we ask you to sign a letter to Governor Gavin Newsom. It has become our practice that once a year we write to the Governor expressing our views on a range of issues. This year we are expressing: 1. Our thanks for signing AB 1350 that will help further California’s climate change and emissions reduction goals by providing fare-free public transit to youth riders. We also thank him for his recent executive action setting the goal of ending the sale of gas and diesel powered cars and light trucks in California by 2035. 2. Our disappointment of his veto of AB 2054, the CRISES Act. This act would have given California the opportunity to create pilot programs demonstrating alternatives to policing for mental health events, non-violent emergencies and other community needs, thereby showing alternatives to gun-carrying police responses to certain community emergencies. While disappointed in his veto, we let him know that we are heartened by his promise to work with the legislature to create legislation next year that would meet his objections and bring these important pilot programs into existence. 3. We acknowledge and express our appreciation for his leadership this year combating the COVID-19 pandemic. California is doing much better than the national average and a website that tracks COVID stated, “California’s COVID preparedness meets international standards.” As stated, this isn’t over, so we encourage the Governor to keep up the good work. 4. We also acknowledge and express our appreciation for his leadership fighting the fires that have plagued and continue to plague California this year.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A, as well as from The Message, Enfleshed, The Voice, and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAMEPRAYER OF MEDITATIONWe encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.*

Bread of heaven, nourish us in this period of wandering. Through wildernesses wearisome and fearful, we strive to remain faithful. Keep our minds set upon lands of abundance, where justice rolls down like waters and love is the law. Do not let us settle for crumbs of life, but encourage us in persevering toward your Kindom. Amen.

— Enfleshed

LESSON

Jim White

A Reading from Isaiah (25:1–9).

Great Creator, you are my God. I exalt you! I praise your name! For you do marvelous things, planned long ago with steadfast faithfulness. You have made the city a heap of rubble, the fortified town a ruin, the foreigners' stronghold a city no more; it will never be rebuilt. It is for this reason the powerful honor you, and cities of ruthless people fear you. Yet you are a refuge to poor people, to the needy in their distress, shelter in the storm, shade from the heat — for the breath of the ruthless is like an ice storm or a scorching drought. You subdue the roar of the enemy, and the mantra of tyrants is stilled. On this mountain, the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, food rich and succulent, and fine, aged wines. On this mountain, God will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, the shroud covering all nations, destroying all death forever. God will wipe away the tears from every cheek, and will take away the shame of God's people on earth, wherever they live. God has spoken. On that day it will be said, "This is our God, this is the One for whose liberation we waited, the Lord is the One in whom we had hoped! We rejoice exultantly in our deliverance, for the hand of God rests on this mountain!"

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

Now I Walk in Beauty

Beauty is behind me,
Above and below me.

Music: Gregg Smith (1951 – 2016)

PSALM 23

Katie Ford, Maggie Emmons

The Lord is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;
He leadeth me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

HYMN "For Everyone Born, a Place at the Table" Everyone sings with soloist.

GOSPEL

Susan Russell

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (22:1–14).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

Jesus spoke to the people in parables, saying: "The kingdom of heaven is like this: there was a ruler who prepared a feast for the wedding of the family's heir; but when the ruler sent out workers to summon the invited guests, they would not come. The ruler sent other workers, telling them to say to the guests, 'I have prepared this feast for you. My oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, and everything is ready; come to the wedding.' But they took no notice; one went off to his farm, another to her business, and the rest seized the workers, attacked them brutally and killed them. The ruler was furious, and dispatched troops who destroyed those murderers and burned their town. The ruler said to the workers, 'The wedding feast is ready, but the guests I invited do not deserve the honor. Go out to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find.' The workers went out into the streets and collected everyone they met, good and bad alike, until the hall was filled with guests. The ruler, however, came in to see the company at table, and noticed one guest who was not dressed for a wedding. 'My friend,' said the ruler, 'why are you here without a wedding garment?' But the guest was silent. The ruler said to the attendants, 'Bind this guest hand and foot, and throw the individual out into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' Many are called, but few are chosen."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMN "For Everyone Born, a Place at the Table" Everyone sings with soloist.

We take this time to acknowledge Prayers and Thanksgivings appearing on our Chat page.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Marianne Ryan

Minister: Holy God, whose spirit beats through the rhythms of creation, fill us with hope for what we and your world might become through your love.

Silence.

Minister: God of boundless mercy, whose love is not contingent upon our good behavior, retrieve us from our false perceptions and our poor decisions. Encourage us in our work to achieve health and wholeness for all people and for the creation.

Silence.

Minister: Holy Agitator, Blessed Defender of Life, you teach us how to practice courage in the hardest situations. When we would rather remain silent, or go with the flow, or stay off the radar of our enemies, you remind us of the Sacred calling of love that will not let us take shelter in privilege or apathy. For your disruptive and saving truths, we give you thanks.

Silence.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

O God, you have searched us out and known us, and all that we are is open to you. We confess that we have sinned: we have used our power to dominate and our weakness to manipulate; we have evaded responsibility and failed to confront evil; we have denied dignity to ourselves and to our siblings, and have fallen into despair. We turn to you, O God; we renounce evil, we claim your love; we choose to be made whole.

Minister: Almighty God, have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

CONSECRATION

Priest: From your love and in your image you created us, breathing your spirit into the dust of the earth. When we failed to live in love, you loved us anyway, refusing to let us go. In Jesus of Nazareth you showed us what we might become. In miracle and mystery Jesus was born, as we are born, and lived as we might live.

In the fullness of his life, Jesus revealed the self-centeredness of our lives. So we sought to silence him. But we could not. The resurrection and ascension revealed the indestructible power of God's inexhaustible love.

On the night before Jesus died he shared a meal with his disciples. He took a loaf of bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take. Eat. This is my body that I share with you. Remember me whenever you eat, and offer your food and yourselves to the world."

After supper, Jesus took a cup of wine. When he had blessed it, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant of forgiveness that I share with you and with all. Remember me whenever you drink, and forgive."

Priest and People:

Now, gracious God, we offer our thanks for this bread and wine, the fruit of field and vine, and the body and blood of self-offering and compassion. We pray that the presence of your Holy Spirit will sanctify our meal, that we, like Christ, may love, heal, forgive and speak truth to all people. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be
done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el
cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre,
venga tu reino, hágase tu
voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras
ofensas, como también nosotros
perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en
tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y
por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父，
願人都尊父的名為聖，
願父的國降臨，
願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪，
如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。
不叫我們遇見試探，
拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是父的，永無窮盡
阿們。

All Saints' Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office. A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support, connecting resources to those in need, and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT's Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus, healthcare professionals, those who are mourning a death, those who are facing job loss and unemployment, those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 626.583.2707 or email prayers@allsaints-pas.org.

Prayer in the Taizé Style of Worship

Taizé worship is quiet and reflective. It can be both peaceful and joyful, including simple songs and chants in different languages, readings, silences and prayers. Our hymns are sung over and over as a prayer of the heart. The focus of Taizé is on Christ and the cross, reconciliation, and prayers for the suffering throughout the world.

During the current shelter-in-place, the All Saints Taizé Community is offering worship virtually. Each Thursday night at 6:00 p.m. we will release and together watch a video service on our Facebook page at <http://facebook.com/ASCTaize>. The services will remain on the Facebook page, so you may visit at any time.

You also can get a list of our videos at <http://allsaints-pas.org/more/taize>.

Our staff is working remotely. You can find a full contact list on our website at www.allsaints-pas.org/more/contact-us/

Every Sunday We Put Our Faith into Action at All Saints Church

In these uncertain times navigating a global pandemic, now more than ever our continued advocacy for the world's deep needs is crucial. As we continue to worship virtually, the Rapid Response Team (RRT) is choosing actions that can be done completely online from your web browser. While the current priorities are generally aligned with the acute needs of COVID-19 and the associated economic and social justice impacts, the RRT also considers actions that address pre-existing needs. Thank you to all who are participating in our virtual action table each week, and we urge everyone to prayerfully consider each week's action and join us in committing to improving our world.

Each week's action can be found at <https://www.allsaints-pas.org/more/action> or from the All Saints home page. If you have any questions, comments, or suggestions for actions, please contact Juliana Serrano at jserrano@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2731.

We're Returning to the Church to Stream Our October 18 Services!

A different link will be used: <https://allsaints-pas.org/live-stream/>

We will return to the beautiful interior of All Saints. Ministers of the liturgy will be observing the social distance and safety protocols dictated by health care professionals and in compliance with our diocesan guidelines. And while we all long for the time when we can safely return for in person congregational worship, being able to center our online service in our familiar and beloved sanctuary is one step toward that eventual goal.
