Each week we put our faith into action:

Protect Access to Reproductive Medical Care

On September 1, 2020, Senator Ted Cruz and 19 of his Senate colleagues sent a letter to the Food and Drug Administration urging the agency to ban the abortion pill, Mifeprex, in the United States. In defense of the letter, Cruz claimed that “pregnancy is not a life-threatening illness” and the abortion pill does not “cure or prevent disease.” On the contrary, decades of research shows that it’s actually safer to have a medical abortion than it is to have a full-term pregnancy. Cruz’s attempt to remove Mifeprex from the U.S. market isn’t based in legitimate science or a desire to keep pregnant people safe—it’s just the same anti-abortion rhetoric he’s peddled for years. The facts are that the United States’ maternal mortality rate is abysmal compared to other developed countries and, as the COVID-19 virus continues to spread, pregnancy is becoming even more dangerous. Senator Cruz and his Senate colleagues should be focusing on passing a real pandemic relief package or finding solutions to pregnancy and childbirth risks in the states they represent instead of trying to ban a critical form of medical care. We must demand full protection for reproductive medical care!

Four Foundational Goals of All Saints Church

Claim our values, mission and VISION.

Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.

Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.

Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A, as well as from The Message, Enfleshed, The Voice, and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

LESSON

Paula Arvedson

A Reading from Exodus (33:12–23).

Moses said to our God, "Look, you have told me to lead this people, but you have never told me who you will send with me. You have said to me, 'I know you by name,' and 'You have found favor with me.' So if I have found favor with you, teach me your ways so that I might truly know you, and that I might find favor in your eyes. Remember that these people are the nation you have chosen as your own." Our God replied, "My Presence will go with you. Let this set your mind at ease." Moses continued, "If your Presence does not come with us, do not send us from this place. How can it ever be known that we have found favor in your eyes — I, and your people — if you do not accompany us? It is your Presence alone that will mark us — I, and your people — from others of the people on the earth." And our God said to Moses, "As you have asked, I will do, for you have found favor in my eyes and I have known you by name." Then Moses said, "Please, show me your glory!" Our God said, "I will make all of my goodness pass before your eyes, and I will pronounce my Name, I AM, in your presence: I will show my grace to whom I will show my grace, and I will show my compassion to whom I will show my compassion. But you cannot see my face." God continued, "No human can see my face and live." Then our God said, "Look — here is a place beside me, where you can stand on a rock. When my glory passes you, I will place you in a cleft in the rock, and I will cover you with my hand until I have passed by. When I remove my hand you will see my back; but my face you must not see."

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL

Sally Howard

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (22:15–22).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

The Pharisees went and plotted to entrap Jesus in what he said. So they sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that you are sincere, and teach the way of God in accordance with truth, and show deference to no one; for you do not regard people with partiality. Tell us, then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to the emperor, or not?" But Jesus, aware of their malice, said, "Why are you putting me to the test, you hypocrites? Show me the coin used for the tax." And they brought him a denarius. Then he said to them, "Whose head is this, and whose title?" They answered, "The emperor's." Then he said to them, "Give therefore to the emperor the things that are the emperor's, and to God the things that are God's." When they heard this, they were amazed; and they left him and went away.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

HYMN "In the Midst of New Dimensions" Everyone sings with soloist.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Susan Johnson

Minister: God of abundance, we thank you for the many peoples and cultures that make up the rich and varied tapestry of the human family. Your spirit of generosity calls us to share our resources to build a just society.

People: We thank you, O God.

Minister: Beloved One, in the midst of worrisome and troubled days, we seek refuge in your presence. In your care, we find a place to tend our fears and air our grief, to hold our anger, and to renew our passion for collective good. Meet us as we are with your restorative love.

People: Draw us near to you, O God.

Minister: God of Redemption, by your grace we learn to perceive differently. Where we once justified our complicity with evil, you set us on a new path. With humility, we keep seeking: to understand your truths more deeply, to refine our love, and to release all that keeps us from the great re-ordering of things. With thanks and determination, we bring all of our gifts to you.

People: May it be so.

Minister: We grieve the broken and unjust economic systems that surround us. We remember all who are left without needs met this day. We seek to be faithful, just, and generous in the stewardship of all our resources.

People: May it be so.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

We need your healing, merciful God: give us true repentance. Some sins are plain to us; some escape us; some we cannot face. Forgive us; set us free to hear your word to us; set us free to serve you.

Minister: Through Christ, God has put away our sin. Let us approach God in peace. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

HOLY COMMUNIONGREAT THANKSGIVING

Susan Russell

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Come to the table with thankful hearts.

People: We open our hearts to God and to one another.

Priest: Creative God, source of all life and ground of our being, you are the vibrant energy dancing at the center of the universe! Through us you move, and through us you are made known to the world. Co-creators with you, we are emboldened to move beyond ourselves, to find the courage to let go of old ways and welcome new life.

And so, in concert with those of every generation who have been touched by your redeeming love, we lift our praise to you:

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION

Priest: Holy God, known and beyond all knowing, in your image you created us, giving the earth into our care. In our arrogance, we lost touch with the breath of God within us, with the divinity of the creation, growing blind to its beauty and deaf to its harmonies. But through Christ, born of a woman, your deep abiding love reclaimed us and realigned us with the grain of the universe.

On that evening in an upper room, with his friends around him, our brother Jesus blessed the bread, broke it, and shared it with all who were gathered: This bread is my body, an offering of God's love for all. When you eat it, remember me. Taking the cup of wine, he blessed it and shared it with all who were gathered: This wine is my blood, God's promise of new life for all. When you drink it, remember me.

God, in the memory of Jesus who healed people and washed his disciples' feet, who loved children and honored outcasts, who fed people and turned water into wine, who died and rose to new and unending life, we ask that you breathe on this bread and this wine, filling them with the transforming power of the cosmic Christ.

Priest and People:

Breathe through us, God, that our bodies, minds, and spirits may be filled with your life-giving presence. Make us again a holy people, strongly bound to you, firmly rooted in the earth, with eyes to see all life as sacred. Empower us to spread the light of Christ in our wondrous and confusing world. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be
done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el
cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre,
venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras
ofensas, como también nosotros
perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en
tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y
por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父，
願人都尊父的名為聖，
願父的國降臨，
願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪，
如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。
不叫我們遇見試探，
拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是父的，永無窮盡
阿們。

HYMN "One Earth, One Sky"

 one people here below,
 One binding theme, one goal, one dream

 There can be found the purest sound
 an unfamiliar hush. (Refrain)

All Saints’ Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office. A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support, connecting resources to those in need, and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT’s Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus, healthcare professionals, those who are mourning a death, those who are facing job loss and unemployment, those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email prayers@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact Christine Hartman at christine@icehatcreative.com.

At our parish celebration of this festival, we remember by name all those close to the life of this parish who have died since last All Saints Day. Requiem for the Living projects a wide range of meaningful expression, from a biting essay on the vanity and pain of humankind to a plea for mercy, and finally a celebration of eternal light.

Who Am I? Mask Challenge: Saving Lives One Conversation At a Time

Founded by longtime All Saints Pasadena member, William Lucas (Bill) Walker, #WhoAmIMaskChallenge aims to slow the spread of Covid-19 by using short, personal videos to start new conversations about masks, one voice at a time. The Challenge: to flood social media with these non-partisan, non-political videos (shot on phones by ordinary Americans) of individuals answering the question, "Why do you wear a mask?" Bill, an Emmy-winning television writer (Frasier, Will & Grace, Roseanne) encouraged congregations across the United States to take up this simple-yet-powerful action. What better way to bring about a rapid end to this pandemic and return our lives to normal?

Following the completion of the 9 weeks, we will gather regularly to check in and support each other as we move forward. Rector's Forum with Rick Perlstein

Rick Perlstein has published three definitive works about the emerging dominance of conservatism in American politics: Before the Storm: Barry Goldwater and the Unmaking of American Consensus (2002); Nixonland: The Rise of a President and the Fracturing of America (2008); and The Invisible Bridge: The Fall of Nixon and the Rise of Reagan (2014). With the saga's final installment, Reaganland—covering the years from Jimmy Carter's election to his defeat at the hands of Ronald Reagan—he has delivered his most stunning literary and historical achievement yet. Perlstein shows how much the nation changed over those years—and just as importantly, how those changes produced the world we live in now.

Reaganland is available at Vromans- <https://www.vromansbookstore.com/book/9781476793054>

"I've read the first three and am devouring the fourth. Together they show the deep roots of how we got where we are today."

SMALL GROUPS

AT ALL SAINTS CHURCH

Following the completion of the 9 weeks, we will gather regularly to check in and support each other as we move forward. Mondays or Wednesdays, 7:00 p.m. on Zoom

Prayers for the Church, facilitated by Jenny Berman: This group is for folks interested and invested in the idea of an intercessory prayer group for the church. The group can talk about the hosting part after they start meeting.

Book Group on Becoming REAL: And Thriving in Ministry by Sandra Montes, facilitated by Vivian Varela : If congregations were to look outside their doors, they may find that the people who need the good news don't look like them and that the way to engage them is by having ministries that are REAL. This easy-to-understand perspective on relationships can be implemented in any setting with any group. This bilingual (Spanish/English) book group will meet for six sessions on Thursdays at 7:00 p.m., starting October 22 on Zoom (no meeting on Thanksgiving Day).

Meditation and the Mind, facilitated by Leila Gonzalez : We will meet for 8 consecutive sessions to meditate together and discuss simple tools that help incorporate the power of meditation into our daily lives; emphasizing that creating lasting change requires practice over time. The meditations are designed to develop emotional intelligence, resiliency, and a growth mindset. Sundays, 4:00 p.m. on Zoom
