

This Week at All Saints

This Sunday, October 25, 2020

Link for this Sunday: <https://zoom.us/j/817796514>

(The link above includes the Forum, Children's Chapel, the 11:15 a.m. & 1 p.m. services)

Please do not log on more than 15 minutes in advance, at 9:45 a.m.

10:00-11:00 a.m. Rector's Forum with Rick Perlstein

Rick Perlstein has published three definitive works about the emerging dominance of conservatism in American politics: Before the Storm: Barry Goldwater and the Unmaking of American Consensus (2002); Nixonland: The Rise of a President and the Fracturing of America (2008); and The Invisible Bridge: The Fall of Nixon and the Rise of Reagan (2014). With the saga's final installment, Reaganland—covering the years from Jimmy Carter's election to his defeat at the hands of Ronald Reagan—he has delivered his most stunning literary and historical achievement yet. Perlstein shows how much the nation changed over those years—and just as importantly, how those changes produced the world we live in now.

"I've read the first three and am devouring the fourth. Together they show the deep roots of how we got where we are today."

—Mike Kinman

Reaganland is available at Vromans- <https://www.vromansbookstore.com/book/9781476793054>

11:00-11:15 a.m. Children's Chapel led by Kelly Erin O'Phelan

Everyone is invited to light a candle with Kelly Erin and enjoy a story and a craft.

11:00-11:15 a.m. Meditative Chapel with Amy Brenneman

Chapel aims to be a liminal space between the hustle of life and household and a more tranquil, worshipful mindset. We'll have a reading and a moment of meditation, you'll just need yourself and a candle if you have one. Link will be provided on Sunday morning.

11:15 a.m. Service

Mike Kinman preaches.

Canterbury and Coventry Choirs offer R,tzei by Richards;
Trouvères offer You Do Not Walk Alone by Hagenberg.

1:00 p.m. Bilingual Spanish/English Service

Alfredo Feregrino preaches.

Dan Cole & ensemble & Trouvères offer music.

Prayers and healing are available by zoom and telephone appointment. Contact Pastoral Care at prayers@allsaints-pas.org.

A Service of Prayer for our Nation - Thursday, October 29 at 7:00 p.m.

As the election cycle comes to a close, the Diocese of Los Angeles will offer a liturgy of prayers for our nation. Hosted by St. John's Cathedral, this virtual service will offer music, prayers and readings calling us to be agents of hope and healing as we live out our baptismal promise to strive for peace and justice.

Bishop John Taylor will offer the reflection and participants will include Bishop Bruce, Canon McCarthy, Deans Kowalewski and Ade and leaders of UBE – the Union of Black Episcopalians. Music will be offered from St. Augustine's, Santa Monica and Holy Faith, Inglewood. No reservations necessary.

The service will be live-streamed on the diocese's Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/LADiocese> and YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCva0NDh1tfkDNXJxP1NILfA>

All Saints Pasadena LGBTQ+ Ministry Discusses Advocacy Through the Church - Friday, October 30, 6:00 p.m.

The LGBTQ+ Ministry at All Saints Church, Pasadena, welcomes Alan Yarborough to their virtual speaker series, The Talk. Alan is the church relations officer with The Episcopal Church's Office of Government Relations, where he helps manage their grassroots advocacy engagement and develops resources aimed at educating and equipping the church in policy advocacy. Join us as we discuss the upcoming November election and what it means to advocate through the Episcopal Church. The Zoom link will be <https://allsaints-pas.zoom.us/j/89640228417?pwd=SjRaWW13VTNYdTRYdDRBQmM0TWZNdz09>.

This event is open to everyone; allies are encouraged to attend!

Election 24-Hour Zoom Vigil - We Would Like to Provide a Refuge and Safe Place from the 24 hour News Cycle for Those Seeking an Alternative to the Election Day Noise & Stress

Tuesday, Nov. 3, Noon – Noonday Prayers, Wednesday, Nov. 4

We will have hosts for each one-hour segment throughout the day, starting with a prayer service led by Sally Howard, from 12:00-1:00 p.m. on Nov. 3 and ending with a Noonday Prayer and Healing service, 12:00 p.m. on Nov. 4.

Each hour will be unique. Each host will shepherd the hour with something that will provide quiet rest, a listening ear, musical interludes and dance or movement. Some hours will be a time for sharing experiences and stresses, and some will be literal dance parties. This time is meant to be an escape from the news network hyperbole. The hosts are not there to further the anxiety of the day but to be an alternative to it. Come join us as we walk into November 3 with love and hope and faith in our hearts, as hard as that can sometimes be. Join us for any or all of the vigil (and please vote!)

Foster Care Project Seeks Thanksgiving Donations

Once again the Foster Care Project is collecting non-perishable food to provide Thanksgiving dinners to foster families in the Pasadena area.

Requested items include:

- Non-perishable hams, such as Dak hams (not the refrigerated kind)
- Canned chicken
- Juices, canned fruits and vegetables
- Instant mashed potatoes, stuffing and cornbread mixes
- Hearty soups
- Baby food, Pedialyte (strawberry or bubble gum flavors), size 5 & 6 diapers, 2T pull-ups.

During this extraordinary time, we are also suggesting that you donate grocery store gift cards, so our families can do their own shopping (Vons, Trader Joe's, Ralphs, Food4Less). If you choose to donate canned goods, please check expiration dates and remember that only non-perishables can be accepted.

To donate food or gift cards, please contact inbox@fostercareproject.org for drop-off sites.

Please note: Items may not be dropped off in the church office.

The deadline for donations will be Monday, Nov. 9.

Who Am I? Mask Challenge: Saving Lives One Conversation At a Time

Founded by longtime All Saints Pasadena member, William Lucas (Bill) Walker, #WhoAmIMaskChallenge aims to slow the spread of Covid-19 by using short, personal videos to start new conversations about masks, one voice at a time. The Challenge: to flood social media with these non-partisan, non-political videos (shot on phones by ordinary Americans) of individuals answering the question, "Why do you wear a mask?" Bill, an Emmy-winning television writer (Frasier, Will & Grace, Roseanne) encouraged congregations across the United States to take up this simple-yet-powerful action. What better way to bring about a rapid end to this pandemic and return our lives to normal?

The Way of Love

Are you looking for a small group that can provide you with companionship, care, prayer, study, and spiritual development? Consider The Way of Love, a modern interpretation of following the way of life Jesus presented. Through participation in this small group, you are given the opportunity to build trusting and transformative relationships with God and one another. We will follow a 9 week curriculum developed by the national church during which we will explore how we can fit God into our busy and chaotic lives through scripture, prayer, worship, relationships, service, and rest. Following the completion of the 9 weeks, we will gather regularly to check in and support each other as we move forward. This group is facilitated by Dori Torrey will meet on a TBD Monday or Wednesday (please indicate your availability/preference in the registration form), 7:00–8:30 p.m.

Information = Amanda McCormick, amccormick@allsaints-pas.org.

Looking Ahead

Events & Opportunities

Invest in the Future of All Saints Church

All Saints Church is a beacon of hope and a place of solace and inspiration for so many people. Our connection with one another, even though online, is deeply important and central to the quality of our lives. It is your generosity that sustains this community, and we are profoundly grateful.

We ask now that you consider what All Saints means to you, and what it can become, and make a generous pledge for 2021. All Saints is on a journey to becoming a community that is more deeply focused on Mission and that has even more impact.

Financial sustainability will be critical, so your support makes all the difference.

Please pledge now, knowing that your investment matters. Thank you!

Make a pledge or gift here: <https://allsaints-pas.org/donate/donate-now/>

If you have questions, please contact Terry Knowles, our Director of Giving & Stewardship, at tknowles@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2736.

Reminder – Set your clocks back one hour Saturday evening!

All Saints Sunday

It has been the custom in the Western Church to celebrate All Saints Day on November 1, remembering the lives of all who have died. At our parish celebration of this festival, we remember by name all those close to the life of this parish who have died since last All Saints Day. We will return to the beautiful interior of All Saints. Ministers of the liturgy will be observing the social distance and safety protocols dictated by health care professionals and in compliance with our diocesan guidelines. And while we all long for the time when we can safely return for in person congregational worship, being able to center our online service in our familiar and beloved sanctuary is one step toward that eventual goal.

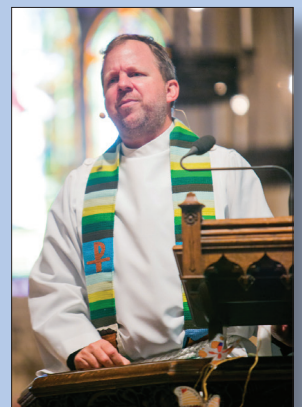

If you would like to ensure a loved one's name is in our Memorial Book, please send to frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org and in subject line add "For Memorial Book 2020"

Requiem Eucharist - 11:15 a.m.

Coventry Choir and Chamber Orchestra, directed by Weicheng Zhao will offer Requiem for the Living by Dan Forrest. Mike Kinman preaches.

Requiem for the Living projects a wide range of meaningful expression, from a biting essay on the vanity and pain of humankind to a plea for mercy, and finally a celebration of eternal light.

Día de Los Santos y Fieles Difuntos - 1:00 p.m.

Day of Saints and Faithful Departed

Dan Cole & Ensemble offer music. Mike Kinman preaches.

This is a festive and colorful celebration in which we honor our loved ones as they were when they were alive.

All Saints Church Families
Join us for a spooky evening of drive though trick or treating!

Trick or Treat?

When: October 31st, 5-6:45pm

Where: 132 N. Euclid Ave

Wear: Your costume and stay in your car to drive up to different tables on Euclid
Ave for treats! You must wear a mask!

Please RSVP

kophelan@allsaints-pas.org

Halloween Is Coming!

All Saints is planning a
Halloween drive though trick or treating experience
on

Saturday,
Oct. 31,
5:00–6:45 p.m.

for all All Saints Families.

You'll be able to drive through on Euclid like you might have done for the blessing of the backpacks. There will be a few different tables set up with plastic zip lock bags of candy and treats.

You will drive up to each table and park to receive bags of candy via a covid safe
"grabber" to allow for 6 ft plus of distance.

Please have all people in your car ages 3+ wear a mask!

You will leave the event visiting 6 or more tables with different themes and candies from each one!

Expect to drive away with a bucket worth of candy.

Please RSVP so we have enough candy to Kelly Erin at kophelan@allsaints-pas.org.

If you'd like to donate candy, please contact Kelly Erin at kophelan@allsaints-pas.org.

SMALL GROUPS

AT ALL SAINTS CHURCH

Small Groups are an opportunity for friends and members of All Saints Church to deepen connections and widen service within the church and community – by emphasizing caring for each other.

New Small Group Offerings, starting Fall 2020 (register online here):

Parents of High School Seniors, facilitated by Robin Kinman: A support group for parents of high school seniors. 1st and 3rd Wednesdays, 7:00 p.m. This group will be offered in a combination of Zoom and in a private backyard.

The Way of Love, facilitated by Dori Torrey: The "Way of Love" is the modern interpretation of following the way of life Jesus presented. We will follow a 9 week curriculum developed by the national church during which we will explore how we can fit God into our busy and chaotic lives through scripture, prayer, worship, relationships, service, and rest. Following the completion of the 9 weeks, we will gather regularly to check in and support each other as we move forward. Mondays or Wednesdays, 7:00 p.m. on Zoom Prayers for the Church, facilitated by Jenny Berman: This group is for folks interested and invested in the idea of an intercessory prayer group for the church. The group will meet weekly, on a TBD Friday, Saturday, or Sunday schedule on Zoom. Leading the prayers would rotate among the group. The group can talk about the hosting part after they start meeting.

Book Group on Becoming REAL: And Thriving in Ministry by Sandra Montes, facilitated by Vivian Varela : If congregations were to look outside their doors, they may find that the people who need the good news don't look like them and that the way to engage them is by having ministries that are REAL. This easy-to-understand perspective on relationships can be implemented in any setting with any group. This bilingual (Spanish/English) book group will meet for six sessions on Thursdays at 7:00 p.m., starting October 22 on Zoom (no meeting on Thanksgiving Day).

Meditation and the Mind, facilitated by Leila Gonzalez : We will meet for 8 consecutive sessions to meditate together and discuss simple tools that help incorporate the power of meditation into our daily lives; emphasizing that creating lasting change requires practice over time. The meditations are designed to develop emotional intelligence, resiliency, and a growth mindset. Sundays, 4:00 p.m. on Zoom

132 N Euclid Avenue, Pasadena 91101 | For more info contact Amanda Perez 626.583.2732
