

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY

A Celebration of Life in the Presence of Death

Almighty God, who hast compassed us about with so great a cloud of witnesses: Grant that we, encouraged by the good example of thy servants, may persevere in running the race that is set before us, until at length, through thy mercy, we may with them attain to thine eternal joy; through Jesus Christ, the author and perfecter of our faith, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY
November 1, 2020
11:15 REQUIEM EUCHARIST

It has been the custom in the Western Church to celebrate All Saints Day on November 1, remembering the lives of all Christians who have died. At our parish celebration of this festival, we remember by name all those close to the life of this parish who have died since last All Saints Day.

The traditional way of remembering the dead has been through the requiem, a mass for the dead. The music of today's Requiem for the Living is by Dan Forrest (b. 1978). It is offered by Coventry Choir, with soloists Kyla McCarrel, soprano, Kimberly Poli, mezzo-soprano, Daniel Ramon, tenor and Jim Campbell, baritone, accompanied by chamber orchestra and organ played by Grace Chung. Weicheng Zhao conducts.

Requiem for the Living projects a wide range of meaningful expression, from a biting essay on the vanity and pain of humankind to a plea for mercy, and finally a celebration of eternal light.

The opening movement pleads for rest and mercy. The second movement sets scriptural texts that speak of the turmoil and sorrow which face humanity. The Sanctus offers three different glimpses of the "heavens and earth, full of Thy glory" including an ethereal opening section inspired by images of space from the Hubble Space Telescope, a stirring middle section inspired by images of our own planet as viewed from the International Space Station, and a closing section which brings the listener down to Earth, where cities teem with the energy of humanity. The Agnus Dei is a plea for deliverance and peace. The Lux Aeterna which then closes the work portrays light, peace, and rest — for both the deceased and the living.

On this All Saints Sunday you may have additional emotional and spiritual care needs as we mourn and celebrate the lives of loved ones we have lost. Please remember that trained lay counselors are available through the Lay Counseling Ministry at 626.583.2706.

We honor the roots of our liturgical history by using the traditional language of Rite One from The Book of Common Prayer.

The smoke from the incense is a symbol of prayer and the mystery of life and death.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAME

VIDEO MEDITATION

Len DeVane (reader); Jason Lockett (music); Alison Pill (video)

Now we will praise our great heroes, the ancestors of our people from times long past. Our God gave them greatness and honor, they too reflected the greatness of God in ancient times. Some of them had power over great domains and gained their fame through their strength. Others were advisors who possessed great foresight and spoke with the power of prophets. Some led the people through their wisdom, and by their knowledge of the Law of Israel, teaching the people from their wealth of understanding. Some composed great music, others wrote great poetry. Still others possessed great wealth and power, living a life of ease in their estates. All of these were known for great honor and those among them took great pride in them. Some left behind them renown, and their stories are told to this day. Others are forgotten; passed away, as though they had never existed, as if they had never been born — and their children after them did the same. But it was different with our ancestors who were true to their faith; their virtuous deeds will be remembered forever. Their progeny will last for all time and respect for their names will never die. Their bodies are at peace but their names will continue forever.

—Ecclesiasticus 44:1–10, 13–14

Susan Russell

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (5:1–12).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, the disciples came to him. Then Jesus began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

CONCLUDING COLLECT

Mike Kinman

Minister: Christ is risen from the dead, trampling down death by death, and giving life to those in the tomb. We commend to thee, O God of life, all who have died in the communion of thy Church, and those whose faith is known to thee alone, that, with all thy saints, they may have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal.

May the souls of all the departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

People: And may light perpetual shine upon them.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And with thy spirit.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

Lord God of Sabaoth,
 Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua:
Heaven and earth are full of your glory:

GREAT THANKSGIVING

Sally Howard

Priest: The Lord be with you.
 People: And with thy Spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.
 People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks unto the Lord our God.
 People: It is meet and right so to do.

Priest: It is very meet, right and our bounden duty, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto thee, O Lord, almighty and everlasting God. Who, in the multitude of thy saints, hast compassed us about with so great a cloud of witnesses, that we, rejoicing in their fellowship, may run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, may receive the crown of glory that fadeth not away.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee and saying,

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
 Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
 Hosanna in the highest.
 Blessed is the One that comes in the name of the Lord.
 Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION

Priest: All glory be to thee, Almighty God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect offering for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death, until his coming again.

Priest: For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for all, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O God, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful God, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy everlasting goodness to accept this our offering of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O God, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, Almighty God, world without end. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be
done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu
voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras
ofensas, como también nosotros
perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父，
愿你的名被尊为圣，愿你的国降临，
愿你的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我们日用的饮食，求父今日赐给我们。
又求饶恕我们的罪，
如同我们饶恕得罪我们的人。
不叫我们遇见试探，
拯救我们脱离兇恶。
因为国度、权柄、荣耀，
全是父的，永无穷尽。
阿们。

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER

Alfredo Feregrino

Priest and People:

Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness toward us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people: and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting Kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A, as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus, healthcare professionals, those who are mourning a death, those who are facing job loss and unemployment, those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

To reach the CRT or CCT, please call the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email Frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

On this All Saints Sunday you may have additional emotional and spiritual care needs as we mourn and celebrate the lives of loved ones we have lost. Please remember that trained lay counselors are available through the Lay Counseling Ministry at 626.583.2706.

All Saints Sunday

It has been the custom in the Western Church to celebrate All Saints Day on November 1, remembering the lives of all who have died. At our parish celebration of this festival, we remember by name all those close to the life of this parish who have died since last All Saints Day. We will return to the beautiful interior of All Saints. Ministers of the liturgy will be observing the social distance and safety protocols dictated by health care professionals and in compliance with our diocesan guidelines. And while we all long for the time when we can safely return for in person congregational worship, being able to center our online service in our familiar and beloved sanctuary is one step toward that eventual goal.

If you would like to ensure a loved one's name is in our Memorial Book, please send to frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org and in subject line add "For Memorial Book 2020"

11:00-11:15 a.m. Children's Chapel led by Kelly Erin O'Phelan

Everyone is invited to light a candle with Kelly Erin and enjoy a story and a craft.

11:00-11:15 a.m. Meditative Chapel

Chapel aims to be a liminal space between the hustle of life and household and a more tranquil, worshipful mindset. We'll have a reading and a moment of meditation, you'll just need yourself and a candle if you have one. Link will be provided on Sunday morning.

Requiem Eucharist - 11:15 a.m.

Coventry Choir and Chamber Orchestra, directed by Weicheng Zhao will offer Requiem for the Living by Dan Forrest.

Mike Kinman preaches.

Requiem for the Living projects a wide range of meaningful expression, from a biting essay on the vanity and pain of humankind to a plea for mercy, and finally a celebration of eternal light.

Día de Los Santos y Fieles Difuntos - 1:00 p.m.

Day of Saints and Faithful Departed

Dan Cole & Ensemble offer music. Mike Kinman preaches.

This is a festive and colorful celebration in which we honor our loved ones as they were when they were alive.

Prayers and healing are available by zoom and telephone appointment. Contact Pastoral Care at prayers@allsaints-pas.org.

Who Am I? Mask Challenge: Saving Lives One Conversation At a Time

Founded by longtime All Saints Pasadena member, William Lucas (Bill) Walker, #WhoAmIMaskChallenge aims to slow the spread of Covid-19 by using short, personal videos to start new conversations about masks, one voice at a time. The Challenge: to flood social media with these non-partisan, non-political videos (shot on phones by ordinary Americans) of individuals answering the question, "Why do you wear a mask?" Bill, an Emmy-winning television writer (Frasier, Will & Grace, Roseanne) encouraged congregations across the United States to take up this simple-yet-powerful action. What better way to bring about a rapid end to this pandemic and return our lives to normal?

Drum Circle Continues!

We will be hosting our outdoor community drum circle, led by Brother Gerald Rivers (<https://www.geraldrivers.com/>), a Master Drummer and Djembe player. Drumming is an ancient communal spiritual practice, which roots us in the rhythms of God in creation and binds us to one another. No experience is required! Everyone can drum! Everyone entering will have their temperature taken, be asked about COVID symptoms, checked for masks and given hand sanitizer. Social distancing will be observed at all times. Bro. Gerald will provide some Djembes, and you are encouraged to bring your own drum. There will be a free-will offering taken at the end for Bro. Gerald's time and talent. Please bring some cash as you have it.

A new time and date TBA soon!
