Each week we put our faith into action:

Trans and Nonbinary People Need Access to IDs that Accurately Reflect Who They Are, Our Government Doesn't Make That Easy

This week we are asking everyone to sign a petition to President Biden urging that he issue an executive order that will give accurate and accessible IDs for all. Only 11 percent of trans people in America have an accurate name and gender marker on all IDs and records. That's because of burdensome requirements that prevent them from getting updated identification, often putting their safety at risk. The Biden-Harris administration has the power to fix this in its first 100 days by issuing an executive order directing all federal agencies to remove medical documentation requirements for updating gender markers and add a gender-neutral "X" designation to federal IDs and records for anyone for which an "M" or an "F" is not suitable. The fact is, refusing to provide accurate IDs puts trans men, trans women, intersex people, and nonbinary people in potential danger. Showing an ID with a name or gender marker that doesn't match your gender presentation or identity risks verbal harassment, denial of services, and violence – the last especially impacting Middle Eastern, Native American, and Black trans and nonbinary people. Nobody should be forced to present documents that tell lies about who they are. Nonbinary people want to be recognized for who they are. And after years of being erased through cruel administrative actions, it's time our federal government did better.

Our Mission Statement:

We are an Episcopal Church, walking with a revolutionary Jesus, Loving without judgment
Doing justice courageously
Embracing life joyfully
Reverently inviting all faiths and peoples into relationship
For the healing and transformation of ourselves, our community, and the world.

Our Core Values:

Radical Inclusion ✦ Courageous Justice ✦ Ethical Stewardship ✦ Joyful Spirituality

Four Foundational Goals of All Saints Church

Claim our values, mission and VISION.
Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.
Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.
Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer and Enfleshed.

The biblical readings are from the new The Women's Lectionary year W, created by Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney.

LESSON

Lynndi Scott

A Reading from Song of Songs (4:9–15).

You have taken my heart, my sister, my bride, you have taken my heart with a glance of your eyes, with a single jewel of your necklace. How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride. How much better is your love than wine, and the fragrance of your oils than every spice. Nectar drops from your lips, my bride; honey and milk are under your tongue; the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon. A garden locked is my sister, my bride, a garden locked, a fountain sealed. Your limbs are an orchard of pomegranates with luscious fruits, henna with nard. Nard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with all kinds of frankincense trees, myrrh and aloes, with all superior spices; a garden fountain, a well of living water, and flowing streams from Lebanon.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 45:6–15

Amy Brenneman

Your God-given throne is everlasting;
a scepter of integrity is your royal scepter.

You love righteousness and hate wickedness, therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness more than your companions.

Myrrh and aloes and cassia scent all your garments;
from ivory palaces stringed instruments bring you joy.

Royal daughters are your treasures;
the consort stands at your right hand in gold of Ophir.

Hear daughter, consider and incline your ear;
forget your people and the house of your mother and father.

Daughter of Tyre, with gifts shall they seek your favor, the wealthiest of the people.

With all kinds of wealth is the princess ensconced, her garments are woven with gold.

In embroidery is she led to the king;
behind her the maidens, her companions, follow.

They are brought with joy and gladness into the palace of the king.

LESSON

Jennifer Cowie King

A Reading from I Corinthians (9:1–10).

Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Redeemer? Are you not my work in the Savior? If I am not an apostle to others, surely I am to you, for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Messiah. This is my defense to those who examine me. Do we not have the right to our food and drink? Do we not have the right to travel with a sister, a wife, as do the other apostles and the brothers of the Messiah and Cephas? Or is it only I and Barnabas who have no right to not work? Who soldiers and pays their own expenses? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat any of its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not taste any of the milk of the flock? Do I say this as a human person? Does not the law also say the same? For it is written in the teaching of Moses, "You shall not muzzle a threshing ox." Is it for oxen that God cares? Or does God not, by all means, speak for our sake? It was indeed written for our sake, for the one who must plow should plow in hope and whoever threshes should thresh in hope of partaking.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL

Sally Howard

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in John (2:1–12).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

PRAYERS VIA TEXT

Mike Kinman

We take this time to acknowledge Prayers and Thanksgivings from the community.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Cynthia Nickell

Minister: Compassionate One, teach us to practice discernment. To know when love calls for gentleness or for challenge; when to push and when to be still. Within, and in the world.

Silence.

Minister: God of Hope, you have not left us powerless before pain. Not ours. Not our neighbors. Not that of the groaning earth. With your help, we need not be afraid to confront and be confronted by the truth of what is, what has been, and what may become. May we be devoted to faithful practices of care wherever they are needed most, for ourselves and for others.

Silence.

Minister: God of abundance, you anoint us with the oil of Gladness, may we be aware of the quickening of possibility. May we continuously draw sustenance from a well of living water, and flowing streams.

Silence.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

O God, you have searched us out and known us, and all that we are is open to you. We confess that we have sinned: we have used our power to dominate and our weakness to manipulate; we have evaded responsibility and failed to confront evil; we have denied dignity to ourselves and to our siblings, and have fallen into despair. We turn to you, O God; we renounce evil, we claim your love; we choose to be made whole.

Minister: Almighty God, have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Where there is charity and love, God is there.

Congregavit nos in unum Christi amor.

The love of Christ has gathered us together.

Exsultemus, et in ipso jucundemur.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Let us revere and love the living God.

HOLY COMMUNIONGREAT THANKSGIVING

Alfredo Feregrino

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Come to the table with thankful hearts.

People: We open our hearts to God and to one another.

Priest: Creative God, source of all life and ground of our being, you are the vibrant energy dancing at the center of the universe! Through us you move, and through us you are made known to the world. Co-creators with you, we are emboldened to move beyond ourselves, to find the courage to let go of old ways and welcome new life.

And so, in concert with those of every generation who have been touched by your redeeming love, we lift our praise to you:

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
 Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the One who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION

Priest: Holy God, known and beyond all knowing, in your image you created us, giving the earth into our care. In our arrogance, we lost touch with the breath of God within us, with the divinity of the creation, growing blind to its beauty and deaf to its harmonies. But through Christ, born of a woman, your deep abiding love reclaimed us and realigned us with the grain of the universe.

On that evening in an upper room, with his friends around him, our brother Jesus blessed the bread, broke it, and shared it with all who were gathered: This bread is my body, an offering of God's love for all. When you eat it, remember me. Taking the cup of wine, he blessed it and shared it with all who were gathered: This wine is my blood, God's promise of new life for all. When you drink it, remember me.

God, in the memory of Jesus who healed people and washed his disciples' feet, who loved children and honored outcasts, who fed people and turned water into wine, who died and rose to new and unending life, we ask that you breathe on this bread and this wine, filling them with the transforming power of the cosmic Christ.

Priest and People:

Breathe through us, God, that our bodies, minds, and spirits may be filled with your life-giving presence. Make us again a holy people, strongly bound to you, firmly rooted in the earth, with eyes to see all life as sacred. Empower us to spread the light of Christ in our wondrous and confusing world. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo,
santificado sea tu Nombre,
venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.
Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父， 願人都尊父的名為聖， 願父的國降臨， 願父的旨意行在地上， 如同行在天上。
我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪， 如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。 不叫我們遇見試探， 拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是父的，永無窮盡 阿們。

All Saints' Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office. A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support, connecting resources to those in need, and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT's Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus, healthcare professionals, those who are mourning a death, those who are facing job loss and unemployment, those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact Christine Hartman at christine@icehatcreative.com.

Prayer in the Taizé Style of Worship

Taizé worship is quiet and reflective. It can be both peaceful and joyful, including simple songs and chants in different languages, readings, silences and prayers. Our hymns are sung over and over as a prayer of the heart. The focus of Taizé is on Christ and the cross, reconciliation, and prayers for the suffering throughout the world.

During the current shelter-in-place, the All Saints Taizé Community is offering worship virtually. Each Thursday night at 6:00 p.m. we will release and together watch a video service on our Facebook page at <http://facebook.com/ASCTaize>. The services will remain on the Facebook page, so you may visit at any time.

You also can get a list of our videos at <http://allsaints-pas.org/more/taize>.

What Keeps Me from Seeing the Truth that I Am Beloved of God?
Which Old Patterns, Beliefs or Experiences
Would I Like to Release?

What in My Life Is in Need of Transformation?

Help Us Create Our Ashes For Ash Wednesday, February 17

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, the 40-day period of fasting before Easter. On Ash Wednesday, the ashes are blessed, mixed with either holy oil or water, and imposed on the head with the sign of the cross.

The Ashes are usually made from burning the palm branches from the previous year's Palm Sunday... however this year will be different. This year we will be creating ashes out of things in our lives we want to release or transform. We will take everyone's offerings and burn them in a transforming fire on Shrove Tuesday – our ashes will be the remains of all we wish to release or transform, and we will wear them together.

Here's how it will work

We invite you to write a word or phrase that represents something that prevents you from living as a fully beloved child of God.

Then either:

- Bring it to the church, on Shrove Tuesday, Feb. 16, 4:00 - 6:00 p.m. and drop off your offering for the fire and pick up a bag of goodies including some ashes-to-go. (Wear and/or decorate with your Mardi Gras best! Please stay in your car.)
- Or email your word or phrase to information@allsaints-pas.org (Put "For Ash Wed. fire" in subject line)
- Or send in the mail
All Saints Church, Attn. Melissa Hayes - For Ash Wed. Fire, 132 N Euclid Ave, Pasadena CA 91101
- Or — we may be able to come by and pick up your offering and bring you ashes to go.
Contact information@allsaints-pas.org (Put "For Ash Wed. Pick Up" in the subject line. Please send by Wed., Feb. 10.)

Per our Diocesan Covid Guidelines, we are unable to impose ashes this year — however — we can offer you the ashes-to-go which you may use as a family or impose on yourself on Ash Wed.

We will offer 3 services via Zoom on Ash Wed., Feb. 17:

7:30 a.m.

12:00 p.m.

6:30 p.m.

(Links will be available on our Live Stream page) and - we will offer a short family service you may download and use at your own convenience.
