Each week we put our faith into action For the People Act

This week our focus is voting rights and we invite you to send a message to your United States Senators urging them to support the For the People Act (S.1), which recently passed the House as H.R.1. During the past several months, there have been numerous unsubstantiated allegations of electoral fraud in the 2020 election. Never-the-less, 253 laws have been proposed in 43 states to solve this non-existent problem that will severely restrict access to voting. The new Georgia law is a prime example. This is in addition to ample evidence that barriers already exist for many eligible voters. The For the People Act contains many provisions relating to election security, voter access, and support for states to carry out elections. Among those provisions are expanding early voting, mandating same-day voter registration, protecting eligible voters from unjust voter purges, and creating a pathway for re-enfranchisement for those who have lost voting privileges due to felony convictions. It would also make Election Day a federal holiday.

LESSON

Art McDermott

A Reading from Isaiah (49:1–13).

Listen you coastlands, to me, and pay heed, you peoples from afar! The CREATOR OF ALL called me from the womb, from my mother's belly God made my name known. God made my mouth like a sharpened sword, and in the shadow of God's own hand, hid me; God made me like a polished arrow, in God's own quiver, hid me. And God said to me, "You are my slave, Israel, in you I am glorified." But I, I said, "in vain have I labored, I have spent my strength for nothingness and vanity; surely my judgment is with the FAITHFUL ONE, and my wages with my God." And now says the AUTHOR OF LIFE, who formed me in the womb to be God's slave, to return Jacob back to God, and that Israel might be gathered to God; I am honored in the sight of the HOLY ONE OF OLD, and my God is my strength. God says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my slave to raise up the tribes of Jacob, the line of Rebekah, and to restore the survivors of Israel, born of Rachel and Leah, and Bilhah and Zilpah? I will give you as a light to the nations, for it will be that my salvation reaches to the end of the earth." Thus says the FAITHFUL ONE, the Redeemer of Israel, God's holy one, to one despised, abhorred by the nations, the slave of rulers, "Queens and kings shall see and arise, princes and princesses, and they too shall prostrate themselves, on account of the FIRE OF SINAI, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you." Thus says the MIGHTY GOD: In a favorable time I have answered you, on a day of salvation I have helped you; I have kept you and given you as a covenant to the people, to establish the land, to apportion the desolate portions; saying to the prisoners, "Go free!" to those who are in darkness, "Let yourselves be seen." Along the paths they shall pasture, and on all the bare heights shall be their pasture. They shall not hunger nor shall they thirst, neither shall heat nor sun strike them down, for the one who mother-likes them shall lead them, and by springs of water shall guide them. And I will turn all my mountains into a pathway, and my highways shall be raised up. Look! These shall come from far away, and see! These from the north and from the sea to the west, and these from the southland of Syene. Sing for joy, you heavens, and exult O earth; let mountains break forth into singing! For the TENDER LOVING ONE has comforted God's people, and will mother-love God's suffering ones.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 18:2–11, 16–19Monique Thomas, Senior Warden of the Vestry

The ROCK WHO GAVE US BIRTH is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer,
my God, my rock in whom I take refuge,
my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

I call upon the HOLY ONE, may she be praised,
and from my enemies I shall be saved.

The snares of death encompassed me;
the rivers of wickedness assailed me.

The snares of Sheol encircled me;
the snares of death confronted me.

In my distress I called upon SHE WHO HEARS;
to my God I cried for help.

From her temple she heard my voice,
and my cry came before her, to her ears.

Then the earth shuddered and quaked;
the foundations also of the mountains trembled and were shaken because of her anger.

Smoke went up from her nostrils,
and consuming fire from her mouth;
burning coals blazed forth from her.

She spread out the heavens, and descended;
thick darkness was under her feet.

She mounted up on a cherub, and flew;
she soared upon the wings of the wind.

She made darkness her veil around her,
her canopy dark waters and thick clouds.

She reached down from on high, she took me;
she drew me out of the multitude of water.

She delivered me from my strong enemy,
and from those who hate me;
for they were too mighty for me.

They confronted me in the day of my calamity;
yet the SHELTERING GOD was my support.

She brought me out into a broad place;
she delivered me, because she delights in me.

LESSONJulianne Hines, Junior Warden of the Vestry

A Reading from Hebrews (11:1–2, 23–24, 28–39).

Now faith is the essence of things hoped for, the conviction of that which is not seen. By faith, indeed, were our ancestors approved. By faith Moses was hidden after his birth by his mother and father for three months, because they saw that the child was beautiful; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. By faith Moses, after he had grown up, refused to be called a son of Pharaoh's daughter. By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, in order that the destroyer of the firstborn would not touch the firstborn children of Israel. By faith they passed through the Red Sea as though on dry land, but when the Egyptians chose to try, they were drowned. By faith the walls of Jericho fell when encircled for seven days. By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who did not believe, because she had received the spies in peace. And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets, all expressions of gender, who through faith conquered realms, administered justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, were made strong out of weakness, became mighty in war, felled foreign armies. Women through resurrection received their dead. Others were tortured, refusing to receive a release, in order to obtain a better resurrection. Yet others received a trial of mocking and whipping, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawed in two, they were slaughtered by sword; they went about in animal-skins, in sheepskin and goatskin, impoverished, oppressed, tormented. The world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground. And all these, commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.SEQUENCE ANTHEMSung by the Trouvères.

Hallelujah

Hallelujah!
For the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth.

The kingdom of this world
Is become the kingdom of our Lord,
And of his Christ, and of his Christ;
And He shall reign for ever and ever.

King of kings, and Lord of lords,
And He shall reign for ever and ever.
Hallelujah!

GOSPEL

Alfredo Feregrino

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in John (20:1–18).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ

Now it was the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene came, early on while it was still dark, to the tomb and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken the Messiah out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him." Then Peter and the other disciple came and went to the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple ran ahead of Peter and reached the tomb first. And bending down to see, saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not enter. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb, and he saw the linen wrappings lying there. And the facecloth that had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up separately in another place. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, went in and saw and believed. Indeed they did not understand the scripture, that it was necessary for Jesus to rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned once more to their homes. Now Mary stood outside, facing the tomb, weeping. As she wept, she bent down to see in the tomb. Then she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been lying. They said to her, "Woman, why do you weep?" She said to them, "Because, they have taken my Savior, and I do not know where they have laid him." Having said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why do you weep? For whom do you look?" Thinking that he was the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned and said to him in Aramaic, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not hold me, because I have not yet ascended to God. Rather, go to my siblings and say to them, 'I am ascending to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Savior"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

Sally Howard

Priest: God dwells in you.
 People: And also in you.
 Priest: Lift up your hearts.
 People: We lift them to the Lord.
 Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
 People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
 People: Glory to you for ever and ever.

Priest: At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

People: By your will they were created and have their being.

Priest: From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

People: Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Priest: Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

People: By his love, he reconciled us. By his life, we are healed.

Priest: And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

CONSECRATION

Priest: And so, God, we who have been redeemed by Christ, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night Jesus was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now Christ's work of redemption, and this offering of thanksgiving,

People: We celebrate Christ's death and resurrection, as we await the day of Christ's coming.

Priest: Lord God of our Fathers and Mothers; God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Ishmael; God of Sarah, Rebekah, Rachel, Leah and Haggar; God, of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in Christ's name.

People: Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Priest: Accept these prayers and praises, God, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,
Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父，
愿人都尊父的名为圣，
愿父的国降临，
愿父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我们日用的饮食，求父今日赐给我们。
又求饶恕我们的罪，
如同我们饶恕得罪我们的人。 不叫我们遇见试探，
拯救我们脱离凶恶。
因为国度，权柄，荣耀，
全是父的，永无穷尽。
阿们。

Magdalena

Early on that Easter morn
 Mary Magdalena came, forlorn;
 What found she where the Lord was laid,
 But an angel, bright arrayed?

The angel greeted her and said:
 "Woman, why weepest thou? He is not dead;
 He is arisen from the dead,
 Jesus, whom thou seekest."

"Mary," Jesus saith to her,
 Mary turned and called him "Master,"
 For then in very truth she knew Him,
 that He was Christ the Saviour.

All Saints' Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office.

A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support, connecting resources to those in need, and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT's Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus, healthcare professionals, those who are mourning a death, those who are facing job loss and unemployment, those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact Christine Hartman at christine@icehatcreative.com.

Foster Care Project - Love Has No Limits Campaign

Love Has No Limits is a collaborative, multi-county recruitment campaign that will continue through the end of May 2021. There are more than 40,000 children in foster care in Southern California. Los Angeles County alone has more children in foster care than any other county or entire state in the country. Outcome statistics for these children are horrifying, with significant numbers likely to become homeless, incarcerated, human trafficked, and prone to trauma the rest of their lives. We have a critical need more foster and adoptive parents to give these children loving homes. See <https://vimeo.com/503212378/f52337a5db> Faith communities can be the solution to this crisis. Throughout the spring, please watch for information about the Love Has No Limits campaign posted on the Foster Care Project website: www://fostercareproject.org, or on our Facebook page.

Those interested in learning more about fostering and/or adopting and the Love Has No Limits campaign should text 'FAMILY' to 94090 or visit LoveHasNoLimits.com/FAMILY
