Each week we put our faith into action: Los Angeles County Affordable Housing

Los Angeles County has a deficit of over 700,000 homes that are affordable to households with low and moderate incomes, a situation that accelerates neighborhood displacement and pushes Angelenos into homelessness. Addressing this need requires billions in new state and local funding for the production and preservation of affordable homes. Senate Bill 679, which has been introduced into the California legislature, will begin to address this challenge by creating the L.A. County Affordable Housing Solutions Agency. Modeled on the Bay Area Housing Finance Authority created in 2019, this new agency would have the power to raise revenue and finance to fund systemic solutions to the affordable housing crisis, including 100% affordable housing and renter protection programs. This is a critical step towards turning the tide on the county's affordable housing and homelessness crises.

Our Mission Statement:

We are an Episcopal Church, walking with a revolutionary Jesus, Loving without judgment
Doing justice courageously
Embracing life joyfully
Reverently inviting all faiths and peoples into relationship
For the healing and transformation of ourselves, our community, and the world.

Our Core Values:

Radical Inclusion ✦ Courageous Justice ✦ Ethical Stewardship ✦ Joyful Spirituality

Four Foundational Goals of All Saints Church

Claim our values, mission and VISION.
Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.
Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.
Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer and Enfleshed.

The biblical readings are from the new The Women's Lectionary year W, created by Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Sally Howard

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Minister: Loving God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

LESSON

Glenn Orton

A Reading from Deuteronomy (5:11–22).

You shall not lift up the name of the MOST HIGH your God as though it were nothing, for the DREAD GOD will not acquit anyone who treats God's name as though it were nothing. Observe the sabbath day and keep it holy, as the HOLY ONE your God commanded you. Six days you shall labor and do all your work. Yet the seventh day is a sabbath to the HOLY ONE your God; you shall not do any work—you, or your children, or your slave, or your ox or your donkey, or any of your livestock, or the migrant in your towns, so that your slave may rest as you do. Remember that a slave were you in the land of Egypt, and the FAITHFUL ONE your God brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm; therefore, the HOLY ONE your God commanded you to keep the sabbath day. Honor your mother and your father, just as the CREATOR OF ALL, your God, commanded you, so that your days may be long and that it may go well with you in the land that the FAITHFUL ONE your God is giving you. You shall not murder. And: You shall not commit adultery. And: You shall not steal. And: You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor. And: You shall not covet your neighbor's spouse. And: You shall not desire your neighbor's home, or field, or slave, or ox, or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor. These words the FIRE OF SINAI spoke to your whole assembly at the mountain from the midst of the fire, the cloud, and the thick darkness; a great voice and, added no more. God wrote them on two tablets of stone and gave them to me.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 78:1 –7

Anina Minotto

Give ear, my people, to my teaching;
incline your ear to the utterances of my mouth.

I will open my mouth in a proverb;
I will utter riddled from of old.

Which we have heard and known,
and which our mothers and fathers have told us.

We will not hide them from their children;
we will recount to generations to come the praiseworthy deeds of She Who Speaks Life, and her might and, the wonderful works she has done.

She gave her decrees for Rebekah's descendants and placed teaching among Sarah's offspring, which she commanded their mothers and fathers to make known to their children.

In order that a coming generation, children yet to be, might know,
and will rise up and tell their children.

Then they will put their confidence in God, and not forget the works of God, but will keep her commandments.

LESSON

Anina Minotto

A Reading from Romans (13:8–10).

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet" and, any other commandment, are summed up in this word, "Love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no harm to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL

Susan Russell

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (22:22–33).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

The same day that Jesus taught about taxes, some Sadducees came to him, saying there is no resurrection; and they questioned him, saying, "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man dies without having children, his brother shall marry the widow, and raise up offspring for his brother.' Now there were seven brothers among us; the first married, and without having offspring, leaving the woman to his brother. The same for the second, and the third, to the seventh. After everything the woman died. In the resurrection, then, for which of the seven will she be wife? For they all had her." Jesus answered them, "You all are wrong, because you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry nor are given in marriage, rather they are like angels in heaven. And about the resurrection of the dead, have you all not read what was said to you by God, 'I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Ishmael; the God of Sarah, Rebekah, Rachel, Leah and Hagar'? God is God not of the dead, but of the living." And when the crowd heard it, they were astounded at his teaching.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

PRAYERS VIA TEXT

Mike Kinman

We take this time to acknowledge Prayers and Thanksgivings from the community.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Glenn Orton

Minister: Holy One, we depend on the guidance of the Spirit to navigate the inevitable complexities and struggles of this shared life together. In gratitude for a God who meets us in the midst, we give you thanks.

Silence.

Minister: Beloved One, we are grateful for all the prophets who bring truth to the surface. Help us to linger in their wisdom, even when we are uncomfortable. Give us the courage to listen with hearts open to transformation.

Silence.

Minister: Eternal source of love and justice, we give you thanks for the richness of our diversity and the treasured uniqueness of every person; inspire us with your vision of the world as it might be. Energize us for your work of healing and reconciliation in our community and in the wider world. Free us from all that would thwart the expression of your spirit within us.

Silence.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

O God, you have searched us out and known us, and all that we are is open to you. We confess that we have sinned: we have used our power to dominate and our weakness to manipulate; we have evaded responsibility and failed to confront evil; we have denied dignity to ourselves and to our siblings, and have fallen into despair. We turn to you, O God; we renounce evil, we claim your love; we choose to be made whole.

Minister: Almighty God, have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

HOLY COMMUNION

GREAT THANKSGIVING	Sally Howard
Priest: God dwells in you.
People: And also in you.
Priest: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.
Priest: In wonder and gladness we celebrate your creation of all that is, your incarnation in Jesus Christ, and your inspiration through the Holy Spirit.
And now we give you thanks for Christ's glorious resurrection from the dead. By his death Christ has destroyed death and by his rising again Christ has restored to us eternal life.

Priest: Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS Everyone sings.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho -

 Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est. _____

— Setting: From A Community Mass; Richard Proulx (1937–2010)

CONSECRATION

Priest: Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Creator of all.

Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect self-offering for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Priest and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Priest: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this offering of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's life, death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ.

Priest and People:

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ—by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父，
願人都尊父的名為聖， 願父的國降臨，
願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪， 如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。 不叫我們遇見試探，
拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是父的，永無窮盡
阿們。

All Saints' Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office. A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support, connecting resources to those in need, and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT's Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus, healthcare professionals, those who are mourning a death, those who are facing job loss and unemployment, those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact Christine Hartman at christine@icehatcreative.com.

The Rector and Wardens will share about work being done by staff, vestry and other leaders as we look at emerging from the pandemic. We will begin to ask “what have we learned and are we learning during this pandemic time?”

Topics will include the vestry's work on developing a racial justice lens for leadership and congregation, moving to the Circles structure for staff, conversations happening about coming back together for in-person worship, progress of staff searches ... and of course lots of time to hear from you and address what is on your heart.

Looking Ahead

Events & Opportunities

Film Screening of Far East Deep South Followed by Discussion with Filmmakers

Sunday, April 25, 2:00–4:30 p.m.

Join the Racial Justice Ministry for a conversation with filmmakers of the award-winning documentary, Far East Deep South, Larissa Lam and Baldwin Chiu. Lam and Chiu will provide a link to the film at 2:00 p.m. We'll watch the film on our own screens and then meet back at 3:30 for a conversation with Lam and Chiu.

In Far East Deep South, a Chinese-American family's search for their roots leads them to the Mississippi Delta, where they stumble upon surprising family revelations and uncover the racially complex history of Chinese immigrants in the segregated South. Discussion will focus on that history and the continued discrimination against AAPI communities.

Volunteer at a Vaccine Site

The Congregational Response Team and the Community Care Team has an exciting volunteer opportunity at a vaccine site in partnership of the County of Los Angeles and the City of Bell. This vaccine site is serving those who live and work in Southeast Los Angeles County. There are 2 major volunteer areas: (1) an indoor call center (volunteers must be fully vaccinated already) and (2) outside staff for checking-in and directing traffic (volunteers do not have to be vaccinated). There is a need for bilingual volunteers in the call center. We are partnering up with parishioner Alex Gonzales who is helping coordinate the site.

For additional information, please reach out to Thomas Diaz at tdiaz@allsaints-pas.org.

Foster Care Project - Love Has No Limits Campaign

Address the acute and growing need to recruit foster and adoptive families for our most vulnerable children, children languishing in the foster care system. Love Has No Limits is a collaborative, multi-county recruitment campaign that will continue through the end of May 2021. There are more than 40,000 children in foster care in Southern California. Los Angeles County alone has more children in foster care than any other county or entire state in the country. Outcome statistics for these children are horrifying, with significant numbers likely to become homeless, incarcerated, human trafficked, and prone to trauma the rest of their lives.

We have a critical need more foster and adoptive parents to give these children loving homes.

See <https://vimeo.com/503212378/#52337a5db>

Faith communities can be the solution to this crisis. Throughout the spring, please watch for information about the Love Has No Limits campaign posted on the Foster Care Project website: www.fostercareproject.org, or on our Facebook page.

Those interested in learning more about fostering and/or adopting and the Love Has No Limits campaign should text 'FAMILY' to 94090 or visit LoveHasNoLimits.com/FAMILY
