Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.

Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.

Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer and Enfleshed.

The biblical readings are from the new The Women's Lectionary year W, created by Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney.

© Wil Gafney and Church Publishing, no further distribution.

Assisted listening devices are available at the Welcome table on the lawn, for use at the 11:15 a.m. and the 1 p.m. services.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Loving God, the source of strength and peace: Take from us all that inhibits the flow of your spirit, break down the walls that separate us, with hands of compassion wash away our fear, our resentment and our hardness of heart, enable us to become centered and still, aware of your Presence, here, now, to heal and to transform. We pray in the Spirit of Christ, our Healer. Amen.

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

ENTRANCE HYMN "Thou Whose Almighty Word"

Stand — all who are able, as the procession enters the church; everyone sings.

SALUTATION Remain standing.

Susan Russell

Minister: Blessed be God: Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer.

People: And blessed be God's kindom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY Remain standing.

Minister and People:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
 Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Susan Russell

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Minister: O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LESSON Seated.

Paul Keeley

A Reading from I Corinthians (4:8–13).

You all already have enough. You all have already become rich! With us you all have begun to rule like royals! And I wish that you all had become royal rulers, so that we might reign with you! For I think that God has set us forth, we the apostles last, like those condemned to death, because we have become a spectacle to the world, angels and mortals. We are fools for Christ, but you all are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you all are strong. You all are honored, but we, dishonored. To this very hour are we hungry and thirsty, we are unclothed and beaten and homeless. And, we are weary of the work of our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; persecuted, we endure. Being slandered, we proclaim comfort. We have become the garbage of the world, the scum of all things, to this very moment.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL Remain standing.

Bud Williams

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Luke (19:11–27).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

As the crowd was listening to Jesus, he added a parable to relay because he was near Jerusalem and, because they thought the reign of God was about to appear, immediately. Thus Jesus said, "A highborn person went to a distant country to receive their royal authority and then returned. This person summoned ten of their slaves and gave them ten gold mina coins and said to them, 'Tend to business until I come back.' But the citizens of their country hated this person and sent an envoy following, saying, 'We do not want this person to rule over us.' And it was as in returning, having received royal authority, this person ordered these slaves, to whom had been given the money, to be summoned in order to find out what profit they had made. The first came forward and said, 'Highness, your gold coin has made ten more gold coins.' Then this person said to that slave, 'Well done, good slave! Because in little you have been trustworthy, take over ten cities.' And the second came, saying, 'Highness, your one gold coin has made five gold coins.' Then this person said to that slave, 'And you, be over five cities.' Then the other came, saying, 'Highness, here is your gold coin. I wrapped and stored it in a handkerchief, for I was afraid of you, because you are a harsh person; you take what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.' This person said to him, 'I will judge you by your own words, you wicked slave! You knew that I was a harsh person, taking what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow? Why then did you not put my money on the banker's table? So I, when I returned, could have collected it with interest.' And then this person said to the bystanders, 'Take the gold coin from him and give it to the one who has ten gold coins.' And they said to this person, 'Highness, he has ten pounds!' 'I tell you, to all those who have, more will be given; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. But as for these enemies of mine who did not want me to reign over them—bring them here and slaughter them in my presence.'"

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

Children in kindergarten – fifth grade are invited to the playground for Children's Chapel.

PRAYERS VIA TEXT Remain standing.

Alfredo Feregrino

We take this time to acknowledge Prayers and Thanksgivings from the community.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Remain standing.

Chris Folz

Minister: God of peace, grant to this world marked by division and strife a thirst for justice and wholeness for all people.

People: Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Minister: Help us to see your face in those people who challenge us.

People: Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Minister: There are parts of who we are — each of us — that have been demeaned, shamed, or silenced. Love asks us not to hide them away, but to bring them before God. To see what wisdom they might hold. What story they might tell. What gifts they might bear. In faith, let us share all of who we are and all of what we have with God and one another.

People: Merciful God, hear our prayer.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

We need your healing, merciful God: give us true repentance. Some sins are plain to us; some escape us; some we cannot face. Forgive us; set us free to hear your word to us; set us free to serve you.

Minister: Through Christ, God has put away our sin. Let us approach God in peace. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Sung by Ruth Ballenger.A Simple Song
from Mass

Sing God a simple song. Lau da lau de.	Blessed is the one who loves the lord. Blessed is the one who praises God. And walks in God's way.
Make it up, as you go along. Sing, like you like to sing. God loves all simple things, For God, is the simplest of all.	I will lift up my eyes To the hills from whence comes my help? I will lift my voice to the Lord.
I will sing the Lord a new song. To praise God, to bless God, to bless the Lord. I will sing God's praises, while I live All of my days.	For the lord, is my shade, Is the shade upon my right hand. And the sun shall not smite me by day, Nor the moon by night.

—Words: Stephen Schwartz (b. 1948) and Leonard Bernstein
Music: Leonard Bernstein (1918–1990)

HOLY COMMUNION

Lynn Jay

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Come to the table with thankful hearts.

People: We open our hearts to God and to one another.

Priest: Creative God, source of all life and ground of our being, you are the vibrant energy dancing at the center of the universe! Through us you move, and through us you are made known to the world. Co-creators with you, we are emboldened to move beyond ourselves, to find the courage to let go of old ways and welcome new life.

And so, in concert with those of every generation who have been touched by your redeeming love, we lift our praise to you:

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: Holy God, known and beyond all knowing, in your image you created us, giving the earth into our care. In our arrogance, we lost touch with the breath of God within us, with the divinity of the creation, growing blind to its beauty and deaf to its harmonies. But through Christ, born of a woman, your deep abiding love reclaimed us and realigned us with the grain of the universe.

On that evening in an upper room, with his friends around him, our brother Jesus blessed the bread, broke it, and shared it with all who were gathered: This bread is my body, an offering of God's love for all. When you eat it, remember me. Taking the cup of wine, he blessed it and shared it with all who were gathered: This wine is my blood, God's promise of new life for all. When you drink it, remember me.

God, in the memory of Jesus who healed people and washed his disciples' feet, who loved children and honored outcasts, who fed people and turned water into wine, who died and rose to new and unending life, we ask that you breathe on this bread and this wine, filling them with the transforming power of the cosmic Christ.

Priest and People:

Breathe through us, God, that our bodies, minds, and spirits may be filled with your life-giving presence. Make us again a holy people, strongly bound to you, firmly rooted in the earth, with eyes to see all life as sacred. Empower us to spread the light of Christ in our wondrous and confusing world. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父， 願人都尊父的名為聖， 願父的國降臨，
願父的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。
我們日用的飲食，求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪， 如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。 不叫我們遇見試探， 拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是父的，永無窮盡
阿們。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Priest: We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us.

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Per our Diocesan Bishop's directive, communion wine will not be offered until we can be confident that the danger of mass COVID-19 infections has abated. (Bread will still be offered)

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers, are available at your request.

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Eternal God, great Creator, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you

All Saints' Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office.

A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support, connecting resources to those in need, and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT's Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus, healthcare professionals, those who are mourning a death, those who are facing job loss and unemployment, those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Protocol for Common Sense Risk Reduction for In-Person Worship

- Masks are required at all times — both indoors and outdoors — on the All Saints campus.
- Both outdoor and indoor seating is available for services and communion (bread only) will be served in both locations.
- Our expectation is that those entering the church will be vaccinated (if vaccination is available to them) and masks must be worn by all to protect the most vulnerable.
- Those seated indoors are asked to maintain six feet distance between individuals/households.
- We ask you not enter the campus if you are experiencing any of the following symptoms: fever over 100.4°F or chills, cough, shortness of breath or difficulty breathing, fatigue, muscle or body aches, headache, new loss of taste or smell, sore throat, congestion or runny nose, nausea or vomiting, diarrhea, or if you have had contact in the last 14 days with someone diagnosed with or suspected to have COVID-19.

Next Sunday, July 25 - Join us here: <https://allsaints-pas.org/>

Prayer in the Taizé Style of Worship

Taizé worship is quiet and reflective. It can be both peaceful and joyful, including simple songs and chants in different languages, readings, silences and prayers.

Our hymns are sung over and over as a prayer of the heart. The focus of Taizé is on Christ and the cross, reconciliation, and prayers for the suffering throughout the world.

During the current shelter-in-place, the All Saints Taizé Community is offering worship virtually. Each Thursday night at 6:00 p.m. we will release and together watch a video service on our Facebook page at <http://facebook.com/ASCTaize>. The services will remain on the Facebook page, so you may visit at any time.

You also can get a list of our videos at <http://allsaints-pas.org/more/taize>.

Your Generosity Makes the Difference

Your generosity to All Saints Church is inspiring – and so very important.

At such a time as this – as over the summer our community gathers in person on Sunday mornings and looks forward eagerly to Homecoming Sunday – we thank you for your financial support of All Saints Church. If you have not yet done so, please join the many individuals and families who have pledged by making your own pledge now, using the “Donate” button on our website. You will help ensure that All Saints Church continues to be a beacon of hope and light, and a community that is safe and welcoming to all.

For assistance of any kind with your giving, please contact Terry Knowles, our Director of Giving & Stewardship, at tknowles@allsaints-pas.org.

Education for Ministry: A Unique Small Group Experience

Theologian Karl Barth advised “to take your Bible and take your newspaper, and read both.” EfM will help you dig deeper into the Christian faith. Learn about church history, theological ideas and reflect on connecting faith with life experiences. We guarantee to stretch your imagination and open a new world of insights as you probe scripture and tradition. It is held in a small group setting that links faith with everyday life. EfM is for lay persons. It is not a process leading towards ordination, though some do continue on in that ministry. It is more about discerning where our daily life and the things we do form our ministry to the world around us.

Classes begin in September. Registration is limited.
