

Film Production FAQs

Does the church have a parking lot?

We have 1 parking lot available for rent with a total of 105 parking spaces. The lot is located north of the church. There is also street parking available. We also have 2 driveways that can be used by your production.

Can we use your parking lot even if we are not filming at your church?

Yes! The parking lot is available for rent. You can use it for base camp, catering, or crew parking.

Can we get early and late access to your campus?

Because we are in a residential neighborhood, access before 7:00 am and after 10 pm requires a permit from the city.

Can we attach scenery and equipment to the walls?

It depends on the location. We try to be as flexible as possible and understand that in some cases it may be unavoidable. We will work with you to come up with the best solution that will not damage our structure. Should there be any damage, the appropriate charges will be given to the production company.

Can we remove exterior signs around campus?

Yes, we will plan ahead your filming day and remove any outdoor signs that you do not wish to get in your shoot.

Can we remove furniture from the church?

Anything that is not bolted down to the floor (with the exception of the organ) we can put away. This includes chairs, altar, candles, and piano.

Can we use church furniture?

Yes, liturgical furniture from inside the church can be used for your filming production, this includes the piano and organ. All fees differ.

Is there a space for craft services setup?

Yes, We have two driveways that can be used for craft services. You can also use a space in the atrium.

Can we bring our own dumpsters?

Yes! We actually encourage you to bring your own dumpsters -- You can set them up on the north driveway area.

Do you have a holding space for extras?

We have a few spaces that can hold anywhere from 120 people to 300 people. We also have smaller spaces with a private restroom if you need to use it as a green room.

Who provides security?

Security is provided by the production company. All Saints Church is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

Does All Saints Church require Liability Insurance?

Yes, All Saints Church requires your production to secure a standard two million dollars policy of liability insurance. Please list All Saints Church as additional insured. Proof of liability insurance must be provided at least 15 days prior to filming. The Insured Party listed on the certificate of liability insurance must be the same company in whose name the filming rental contract is written.

What comes with church rental?

A Film Representative plus a minimum of two Buildings and Grounds staff will be provided to assist your crew and make sure everything runs smoothly. Our dedicated staff has YEARS of filming experience. This service will be billed as hourly fees based on the total amount of hours worked to prep and assist with production.

Can I make an appointment to see your facilities?

Appointments are required for a walk-through. We are very responsive and understand that you might need a quick response. Please reach out to the film office at ASCFilmOffice@gmail.com to schedule an appointment. We will get back to you within 24 hours.
