Featured Ministry — Racial Justice Ministry

As we kick off Black History Month and celebrate the beauty and diversity of Blackness here in America, the racial justice ministry welcomes you to a special time of celebration on the lawn after service. The peoples bookstore, also known as Octavia's Bookshelf, will be with us selling books!

Sunday Lunch — Café and Community

February 4, 12:15 p.m., at Mamma's Brick Oven Pizza & Pasta

Come meet new friends for a casual lunch once a month after church. For our next outing, we will be returning to Mamma's Brick Oven Pizza & Pasta, 1007 Fair Oaks Ave in South Pasadena. Mamma's features fantastic pizza by the slice ($5.50 for a loaded slice!) as well as tons of Italian dishes, salads, and sandwiches. Free parking is in the lot behind the restaurant and on surrounding streets. We will continue to meet at various spots around town. Stay tuned for our next location! RSVPs are helpful, but walk-ins are welcome! Juliann Budimir will facilitate.

Info, RSVPs, or questions = Amanda McCormick, amccormick@allsaints-pas.org.

Say hello to our Children, Youth and Families Team!

Children, Youth & Families at All Saints Church

Interested in acolyting, game nights, youth confirmation class, the youth discord server, Youth group? Contact Nina Scherer, Director of Engagement and Integration: Children, Youth, and Families, at nscherer@allsaints-pas.org.

Programs for Children (Birth — 5th grade) at All Saints:

Sunday Morning Childcare for Infants and Toddlers 9:00 a.m. –12:00 p.m. We are happy to announce that we are able to offer child care again! Child Care is available for children birth-Kindergarten in the Seminar Room in Regas House from 9:00 a.m. –1:00 p.m. Parents must sign their kids in and out. Space is limited.

Children's Chapel During Sunday service, children in kindergarten through 5th grade are invited after the gospel reading to attend Children's Chapel. Children connect and celebrate with age-appropriate lessons and activities, then return to the sanctuary for communion. We radically welcome, pray, explore themes of the people of God, and discuss what's happening in the world. Parents are welcome to attend.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the Sunday morning, 10:00 a.m. service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

Unidad Children's Choir All children in 1st–5th grade are welcome to join our wonderful children's choir. The program is free of charge and no auditions are necessary to join. Thursdays 5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

Programs for Youth (6th — 12th grade) at All Saints:

Acolyte Program Youth are welcome to join one of our fabulous acolyte teams. Being an Acolyte gives everyone a unique opportunity to serve: service to All Saints, service to the community, and service to God. Youth will learn more about our Anglican tradition, serve others, learn to work as part of team and to lead a team, wear fancy robes, eat donuts, meet new friends and have fun doing all of it.

Seekers Program Youth in 9th grade and up are invited to join the Seekers class. A youth confirmation class that explores faith, church, other religions, the history of All Saints and much more. Is church relevant in the 21st Century? Why do people believe in God? Is God really still a thing? What if I don't believe in God but want to be a part of the community anyway? What has a community like All Saints to offer? Does church tradition matter? We will wrestle with questions like these together, discuss (and come to different conclusions), play games, eat together and even go on a fabulous mountain retreat. Sign ups are open now.

Trouvères Youth Choir Want to join the family feel of a fabulous youth choir? The program is free of charge and no auditions are necessary. Wednesdays, 5:15–6:30 p.m.

Youth Dinners Join us for free dinners and great community every Wednesday from 6:30–7 p.m.

Youth Group for 6th–12th grade Every Wednesday we meet to be in community together. We learn together, support each other and of course have fun together. Youth Group is a safe place to express who you really are. Check it out! Wednesdays, 7–8:30 p.m.

Discord Server The youth at All Saints are posting and chatting 24/7 on our ASC Youth discord server. It's an easy way to stay connected and with channels like music, art, memes, book club, and so many more, there is a topic for everyone. Content will be monitored by vetted volunteers and staff. For youth only. Contact Merry for the link to join.

Not-So-Bored-Game Night Every second Friday of the month, 6-9:30pm, we gather at All Saints church to play board games, eat snacks and hang out. It's tradition to end the evening with a murder mystery game. Who will win this time, the murderer or the town's people? Come and find out.

For general questions about our Children, Youth & Families program, please contact Merry Simkins at msimkins@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2733.

Offerings Online

Centering Prayer Tuesdays, 6:45–8:00 p.m., via Zoom

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Next Financial Town Hall

Sunday, February 11, 11:45 a.m., in the Forum

The goal of these gatherings is to expand understanding of how All Saints functions operationally, as well as, invite more participation into our work to sustain and grow this special place. Our February gathering will focus primarily on review of the 2023 year-end results and 2024 income and expense projections. During our November gathering, we shared our current financial standing, some of the challenges we are facing and the steps that are being taken to address these issues. We encourage everyone to mark your calendar and attend. This is a great way to better understand how we work together to live into our values and sustain the ministries that are happening in and through this community each day.

Centennial Conversations: All Saints Church, Pasadena: One Story at a Time

As our Centennial Celebration continues, so do our Centennial Conversations. Inspired by the groundbreaking narrative project "Humans of New York," Centennial Conversations is an opportunity to tell the story of All Saints Church "one story at a time" with conversations with the saints of All Saints – those who have been part of making All Saints Church what it is and who are calling it to continue to become all that it could be. Each issue will include: a profile of our featured "saint," a photo from the archives, and updates on upcoming Centennial events.

Watch for this monthly feature in your email inbox or on our social media platforms. December issue available here.

You Are Invited to Bring the Oblations to the Altar!

Consider bringing the bread and wine up the aisle for communion at the 10:00 a.m. service. For your birthday, anniversary, or in memory of a loved one - or any Sunday. You may do this with your family, a partner or be paired with someone else. If you are not able to walk up the steps to the altar, the staff will come to you!

To sign up or for more information, please contact Marianne Ryan at marianneryan1014@gmail.com.

Lenten Offerings

What Keeps Me from Seeing the Truth that I Am Beloved of God?

*Which Old Patterns, Beliefs or Experiences
Would I Like to Release?*

What in My Life Is in Need of Transformation?

Help Us Create Our Ashes For Ash Wednesday

Bring your offering on Shrove Tuesday, February 13, 4:00–6:00 p.m.

We will be creating ashes out of things in our lives we want to release or transform. We will take everyone's offerings, along with the Palm branches from last year's Palm Sunday services, and burn them in a transforming fire on Shrove Tuesday – our ashes will be the remains of all we wish to release or transform, and we will wear them together. We invite you to write a word or phrase that represents something that prevents you from living as a fully beloved child of God.

Then either: Bring it to the church, on Shrove Tuesday, Feb. 13, 4:00 – 6:00 p.m. or email your word or phrase to information@allsaints-pas.org
(Put "For Ash Wed. fire" in subject line)

Or send in the mail All Saints Church, Attn. Melissa Hayes - For Ash Wed. Fire,
132 N Euclid Ave, Pasadena CA 91101

Ash Wednesday Services, February 14

7:00 a.m. in the Chapel

12:10 p.m. in the Church

7:30 p.m. in the Church, a bilingual Spanish/English service

We will also offer Ashes-to-go out in our community!

Information = Melissa Hayes at mhayes@allsaints-pas.org

Lenten Small Groups

A Lenten Journey Navigating the Deep Waters of Sorrow and Loss

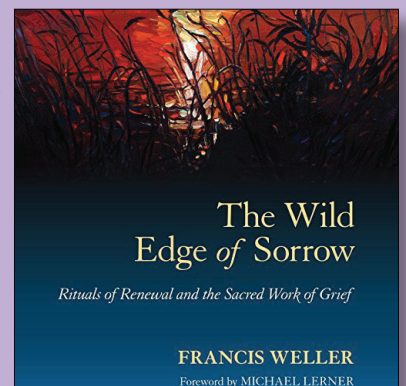

Led by Jonathan Stoner and Marianne Ryan.

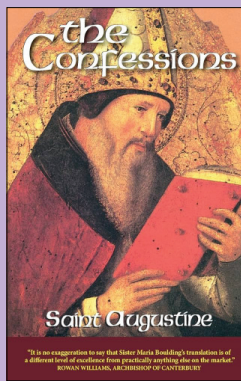

Sundays, Feb. 18 – Mar. 24, at 11:30 a.m. at All Saints.

"All sorrows can be borne if you put them in a story or tell a story about them."

— Isak Dinesen

Join us on this 6-week journey delving into psychotherapist and soul activist Francis Weller's The Wild Edge of Sorrow: Rituals of Renewal and the Sacred Work of Grief. Together we will probe and challenge the darkness to discover the intimate bond between grief and gratitude, sorrow and intimacy, and how the greatest gifts are often hidden in the things we avoid. Each week we will utilize powerful tools and rituals from Weller's book to help us transform our grief into a force that allows us to live and love more fully.

St Augustine, The Confessions, Lenten Book Group

Led by David Hunt, Thursday evenings, February 15 – March 21 (6 weeks), 6:00 – 7:30 p.m., via Zoom

St. Augustine (354-430 AD), from Roman North Africa, is arguably the third most important figure in the development of Western Christianity (after Jesus and Paul). His intellectual autobiography, The Confessions, features an “extraordinary capacity to evoke and analyze intimate and complex feelings.” Join us this Lent for a serious engagement with this spiritual classic. Register here.

The Case for Love – Small Group

Led by Thomas Diaz and Susan Russell, Mondays

7:00–8:30 p.m., Feb 19 – March 18, via Zoom

Facilitated by Rev. Canon. Susan Russell and Thomas Diaz (Director of Connection and Care), this small group will explore what unselfish love truly looks like in our modern world. Using the film’s study guide, we will come together to share and reflect on themes presented in the movie and, ultimately, about Love itself. And there is no better antidote to the anxiety, polarization and division that dominates our civic discourse than coming together to share the inspiring witness of those making a case for love in the face of hate...a case for peace in a time of war...a case for hope in the wake of despair. Whether you’ve seen the film or not, all are welcome to participate in this thought-provoking journey. Don’t miss out on this opportunity to deepen your understanding of love and its impact in our lives.

Register here.

Lent as Liberation

Led by Jonathan Quinn and Thomas Diaz, Wednesdays, 7:00–8:30 p.m.,

Feb. 21– Mar. 20, via Zoom

We invite you to join us for an enriching Lenten journey of liberation in our small group, “Lent as Liberation.” Facilitated by staff member Thomas Diaz and our LGBTQ ministry leader Jonathan Quinn, we will diving into Brandi Miller’s thought-provoking: Lent — A devotional from Reclaiming my Theology. Through engaging discussions and shared experiences, we will explore the power of Lent as a tool for personal and collective liberation. You may purchases the devotional here <https://www.reclaimingmytheology.org/shop/devotionals>

Father James Martin, Between Heaven and Mirth

Book study led by Stacy Kennelly and Christine Hartman, Wednesday mornings, 10:00 – 11:30 a.m., Feb. 21 - Mar. 20, via Zoom

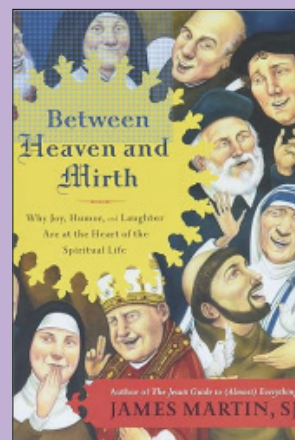

As we embark on a season of Lent, the Community Care Alliance is thrilled to host a book club. We have selected Between Heaven Mirth by Father James Martin, SH. This book, written by one of America’s most beloved spiritual leaders and the New York Times bestselling author, offers a revolutionary perspective on how joy, humor, and laughter can transform our lives and nurture our spirits. Space is limited.

The Amen Effect by Sharon Brous

Led by Sally Howard, Wednesdays, 4:00 p.m., Feb. 21 –Mar. 20, via Zoom

Come join us as we read together Rabbi Sharon Brous’s new book, The Amen Effect. Rabbi Brous, founder of IKAR and one of the leading American rabbis, is a long-time friend of ASC. She offers ancient wisdom to mend our broken hearts and the world, and to establish communities of connection and care.

Join Our Getting Connected Class

We will meet five Sundays,
 February 18 – March 24,
 12:00 – 1:30 p.m., in the Guild Room

This five-week class is designed for anyone — from brand new explorers to longtime seekers — interested in exploring the essence of All Saints Church and getting more connected through active engagement. Each class consists of a presentation by a staff member and lay leader followed by a small group experience. Together we consider the core values of All Saints Church and develop a sense of belonging as we build connections to individuals, ministries and groups.

Please register here: <http://tinyurl.com/yn2jnz2b> or contact Ana Camacho at acamacho@allsaints-pas.org

Sing at All Saints

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel. Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works.

To audition, please contact Weicheng Zhao, Director of Music at wzhao@allsaints-pas.org.

Theatre Ministry The Winter's Tale

Friday, March 8, 8:00 p.m. at Antaeus Theatre

Tickets are $26.25 and available here.

When Leontes, King of Sicilia, falsely accuses his wife of an affair with his best friend he sets into motion a series of events that catapult two kingdoms into disarray in William Shakespeare's sweeping romance of passion and forgiveness.

Director Elizabeth Swain, fresh from Antaeus' award-winning 2022 production of Shakespeare's Hamlet brings her vast knowledge of the canon to tackling the timely question, "How do you forgive the unforgivable?"

One of the Good Ones

Friday, March 22, 8:00 p.m. at Pasadena Playhouse Tickets are $42 and available here.

The ultimate family showdown is on in the world premiere of this new comedy commissioned by Pasadena Playhouse. When the "perfect" Latina daughter brings her boyfriend home to meet the parents, her family's biases and preconceptions are put on full display. As tensions run high and hilarity ensues, everyone must navigate the ins and outs of family dynamics and the boundaries of acceptance — all while tackling the age-old question: what does it truly mean to be an American? Meet your new favorite family in this laugh-out-loud, heartfelt story from Gloria Calderón Kellett, the co-creator and showrunner of Netflix's One Day at a Time.

Save the Date: The Philadelphia Eleven Documentary Film Screening @All Saints Church

Saturday, March 16, 2:00 p.m., in the church

The Philadelphia Eleven is an award winning documentary marking the 50th anniversary of the July 1974 moment when eleven courageous women and three brave bishops shattered the stained glass ceiling by ordaining the first women as priests in the Episcopal Church. These groundbreaking ordinations opened the way for fifty years of living more fully into equity across the gender spectrum in an historically patriarchal institution — and while there is still much work to do to dismantle oppression in all its forms, the Episcopal Church has inarguably been changed because of what happened on that July day in Philadelphia.

Join us on Saturday, March 16 for this opportunity to learn from our past as we continue to grow into God's future as the Beloved Community we are called to be.

Film screening at 2:00 p.m. followed by panel discussion with some very special guests and a festive reception on the lawn.

All are welcome. Registration requested: here

Next Sunday, February 11, 2024 — A Celebration of the Lunar New Year

In-Person Worship or join us on Live-Stream <https://allsaints-pas.org/live-stream/>

Eucharist at 7:30 a.m. in the Chapel

Mike Kinman preaches.

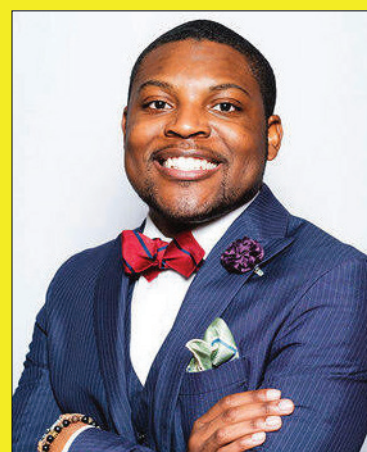

Eucharist at 10:00 a.m. in the Church

Eddie Anderson preaches. Coventry Choir offers 이호준 — 은혜의 강물 (A River of Grace Flowing by Ho Joon Lee) and For the Beauty of the Earth, a Chinese Folk Tune arr. by Walker.

9:00 a.m. in the Forum:

The World We Want is Possible with Eddie Anderson

In an age where more and more people are losing faith in government, The Rev. Eddie Anderson is going all in. In addition to being the pastor of historic McCarty Memorial Church in West Adams and the California Co-Chair of the Rev. William Barber's Poor People's Campaign, Eddie is running for LA City Council in District 10. Come be a part of a conversation about hope and healing in a time of polarization and despair.

We Celebrate the Lunar New Year

The Lunar New Year is a celebration of the arrival of spring and the beginning of a new year on the lunisolar calendar. It is the most important holiday in Chinese culture, and it is also widely celebrated in South Korea, Vietnam, and around the world. Lunar New Year is a time for family reunions. Many people travel across China to be with their loved ones. 2024 is the year of the dragon in the Chinese zodiac. This is the second year that it is a California state holiday.
