Welcome!

“Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith there is a place for you here.”

Sunday Morning Childcare

Childcare for Infants and Toddlers: 9:00–12:00 p.m.

in the Seminar room and Small Lounge in Regas House, sign in required. Space is limited.

All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

To learn more about the history of the land we are on, read our report here:

The Ordination of the Philadelphia Eleven

This commemoration marks the ordinations of the first eleven women to the priesthood in the Episcopal Church at the Church of the Advocate in Philadelphia on July 29, 1974.. Through most of the history of the Christian Church the position of women has been secondary to that of men. During the first half of the twentieth century, as women in the Episcopal Church were seeking to expand their participation in the life of the church, many women became church workers or directors of religious education as "Deaconesses" — a separate order from male Deacons.

The movement for ordination equity gained momentum in 1970 when laywomen were seated for the first time with voice and vote at a General Convention of the Episcopal Church. A resolution called for a vote to eliminate the canonical distinctions between male deacons and female deaconesses, with the intent to clear the way for women seeking ordination to be recognized as full and equal deacons. When that motion was adopted, The Episcopal Church was presented with the issue of whether to ordain women as priests and bishops too.

Another resolution was proposed at the 1970 General Convention to approve women's ordination to the priesthood and episcopate. It failed to pass the House of Deputies, but nonetheless had much positive support. A similar resolution narrowly failed to pass at the next General Convention in 1973.

By July 1974, supporters of women's ordination grew restless with the stalled legislative process and a service was scheduled to ordain women to the priesthood. Three retired bishops agreed to preside: Daniel Corrigan, retired bishop suffragan of Colorado; Robert L. DeWitt, recently resigned Bishop of Pennsylvania; and Edward R. Welles, retired Bishop of West Missouri. A fourth bishop, José Antonio Ramos, Bishop of Costa Rica, was also present at the service in support of the women being ordained, but did not act as an ordaining bishop. Eleven women who were deacons presented themselves as ready for ordination to the priesthood.

These women, who came to be called the "Philadelphia Eleven", were Merrill Bittner, Alla Bozarth-Campbell, Alison Cheek, Emily Hewitt, Carter Heyward, Suzanne Hiatt, Marie Moorefield, Jeannette Piccard, Betty Schiess, Katrina Swanson, and Nancy Wittig. They were ordained on July 29, 1974 at the Church of the Advocate in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The ordinations inspired both celebration and controversy in the Episcopal Church. The House of Bishops declared them "irregular" and the Philadelphia Eleven were prohibited from officially exercising priestly functions. Nevertheless, the movement for the ordination of women continued to move forward. On September 7, 1974 George Barrett, retired Bishop of Rochester, ordained Lee McGee, Alison Palmer, Betty Rosenberg, and Diane Tickell in Washington, DC.

Finally, at the next General Convention in September 1976, the ordination of women to the priesthood was approved to begin on January 1, 1977, and the previous "irregular" ordinations were regularized.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The Collects and Prayers for this liturgy were written by: The Very Reverend Kay Sylvester, Diocese of Los Angeles

Assisted listening devices are available at the Welcome table on the lawn.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel

Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Holy God, we thank you for the courage of the eleven women who offered themselves to your service as priests on this day in Philadelphia. With gratitude, we honor all those who defended their cause and assisted them in answering your call. Help us, having their bravery in mind, to continue the work of inviting, blessing, and utilizing the gifts of all persons, for the building up of the Body of Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Susan Russell

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Minister: Holy God, you are always calling us to serve you in various ministries, so that your Church may grow and thrive: we pray that, following the example of the eleven women ordained in Philadelphia on this day, we may "never cease our labour, our care and diligence, until we have done all that lies in us, to serve as messengers, stewards, and keepers of your Good News." We pray because of Jesus, who calls us to follow. Amen.

Expanding our capacity to offer worship in the language of the hearts of our increasingly diverse All Saints community is one of the ways we live into our values of Radical Inclusion and Joyful Spirituality. And a step forward in that journey is including Spanish and Mandarin in our weekly liturgies ... allowing the whole community to be enriched by the gifts of all.

Andie Reid

出埃及/Lectura de Éxodo /A Reading from Exodus (1:15–21).

埃及王又命令两个希伯来的接生婆施弗拉和普阿：

“你们在替希伯来妇女接生的时候，如果看到生下的是男婴，就把他杀掉；如果是女婴，就让她活下来。”

但这两个接生婆敬畏上帝，没有执行王的命令，而是保留了男婴的性命。埃及王召见那两个接生婆，质问她们：“你们为什么这样做？为什么让男婴活着？”她们回答说：“因为希伯来妇女跟埃及妇女不同。

她们身体强健，我们还没有赶到，婴儿就生下来了。”

因此，以色列人口继续增加，更加繁盛。因为这两个接生婆敬畏上帝，上帝便赐福给她们，使她们生儿育女。

Además, el rey de Egipto habló con Sifrá y Puá, que eran parteras de las hebreas, y les dijo: —Cuando atiendan a las hebreas en sus partos, fíjense en el sexo del recién nacido. Si es niña, déjenla vivir, pero si es niño, ¡mátenlo! Sin embargo, las parteras tuvieron temor de Dios y no hicieron lo que el rey de Egipto les había ordenado, sino que dejaron vivir a los niños. Entonces el rey de Egipto las mandó llamar y les dijo: —¿Por qué han dejado vivir a los niños? —Porque las mujeres hebreas no son como las egipcias — contestaron ellas—. Al contrario, son muy robustas y dan a luz antes de que nosotras llegemos a atenderlas. De esta manera el pueblo israelita seguía creciendo en número, y cada vez se hacía más poderoso. Además, como las parteras tuvieron temor de Dios, él las favoreció y les concedió una familia numerosa.

The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, whose names were Shiphrah and Puah, “When you are helping the Hebrew women during childbirth on the delivery stool, if you see that the baby is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, let her live.” The midwives, however, feared God and did not do what the king of Egypt had told them to do; they let the boys live. Then the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, “Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?” The midwives answered Pharaoh, “Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women; they are vigorous and give birth before the midwives arrive.” So God was kind to the midwives and the people increased and became even more numerous. And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families of their own.

Dale Hancock

A Reading from Sirach (1:4–15).

Wisdom was created before all other things,
 and prudent understanding from eternity.
 The root of wisdom—to whom has it been revealed?
 Her subtleties—who knows them?
 There is but one who is wise, greatly to be feared, seated upon his throne—the Lord.
 It is he who created her;
 he saw her and took her measure;
 he poured her out upon all his works,
 upon all the living according to his gift;
 he lavished her upon those who love him.
 The fear of the Lord is glory and exultation,
 and gladness and a crown of rejoicing.
 The fear of the Lord delights the heart,
 and gives gladness and joy and long life.
 Those who fear the Lord will have a happy end;
 on the day of their death they will be blessed.
 To fear the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
 she is created with the faithful in the womb.
 She made among human beings an eternal foundation,
 and among their descendants she will abide faithfully.
 and her branches are long life.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

Jean Bruce Poole

A Reading from Galatians (3:23–29).

Before the coming of this faith, we were held in custody under the law, locked up until the faith that was to come would be revealed. So the law was our guardian until Christ came that we might be justified by faith. Now that this faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian. So in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith, for all of you who were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. There is neither Jew nor Gentile, neither slave nor free, nor is there male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus. If you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL Remain standing.

The Rev. Margaret McCauley,
Parish Deacon, St. John's Episcopal Cathedral

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Luke (24: 1–11).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, the women took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were wondering about this, suddenly two men in clothes that gleamed like lightning stood beside them. In their fright the women bowed down with their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here; he has risen! Remember how he told you, while he was still with you in Galilee: 'The Son of Earth must be delivered over to the hands of sinners, be crucified and on the third day be raised again.'" Then they remembered his words. When they came back from the tomb, they told all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. It was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who told this to the apostles. But they did not believe the women, because their words seemed to them like nonsense.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

Minister: God of our forebears, we remember the first women ordained to the priesthood in the Episcopal Church: Merrill Bittner, Alla Bozarth-Campbell, Alison Cheek, Emily Hewitt, Carter Heyward, Suzanne Hiatt, Marie Moorefield, Jeannette Piccard, Betty Schiess, Katrina Swanson, and Nancy Wittig. Thank you for calling them to priesthood, and for giving them the resolve to answer.

People: We thank you, Holy One.

Minister: We remember the bishops who acted to ordain them: Daniel Corrigan, Robert DeWitt, and Edward Welles. We thank you for their apostolic service.

People: We thank you, Holy One.

Minister: We give thanks for the leaders of the Church of the Advocate, who embodied hospitality and care.

People: We thank you, Holy One.

Minister: We thank you for the bishops and deputies who acted to break down gender barriers to ordination, opening the way for women to answer your call in this church.

People: We thank you, Holy One.

Minister: Spirit of love, we pray for ears to hear your call, and the strength to answer.

People: Hear us, Holy One.

Minister: Spirit of wisdom, we pray for discerning hearts, so that we may recognize the gifts and ministries for which you equip us.

People: Hear us, Holy One.

Minister: Spirit of justice, we pray for those who are devalued and limited rather than lifted and celebrated; help us to see your glory in every human face.

People: Hear us, Holy One.

Minister: Spirit of love, we pray for your church and for your world. As we strive to bring equity to our church, we pray to serve as models of justice and peace for our neighbors.

People: Hear us, Holy One.

Minister: Holy and gracious God, we pray to participate each day in the renewal of your church and in the healing of the world. Teach us to value one another, to rely on the breadth of our diverse gifts, and to unite us in bonds of love. We pray because of Jesus, who teaches us to serve.

People: Amen.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

We need your healing, merciful God: give us true repentance. Some sins are plain to us; some escape us; some we cannot face. Forgive us; set us free to hear your word to us; set us free to serve you.

Minister: Through Christ, God has put away our sin. Let us approach God in peace. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS Seated.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: God of Sarah, Hagar and Deborah, at Christmas you gave us your presence, at Easter you dismantled sin and death, and at Pentecost you empowered us to bear your image and spread your grace. God of Chloe, Phoebe and Priscilla, in mission you equip us to go to the four corners of the earth and rediscover what your Spirit is doing and meet you in the face of the stranger.

God of Euodia, Syntyche and Apphia, in ministry you share with us the abundance of your love in sacrament and story, in prayer and teaching, in reconciliation and in bringing your world home to you.

And so we gladly thank you, with saints and angels and archangels, and all the company of heaven, singing the hymn of your unending praise:

SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS Remain standing; everyone sings.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, San - to, san - to, san - to, es el Se - ñor. Heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry.

Ho - san - na en las al - tu - ras. — Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. — Ho - san - na en las al - tu - ras. Ho -

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: God of Ruth, Naomi and Esther, in Jesus you show us the extent of mission and the cost of ministry. Send your Holy Spirit, that your people may be filled with love, joy, and peace, and that these gifts of bread and wine may be for us the body and blood of your Son Jesus Christ.

Who, at supper with his disciples, took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup. Again he gave you thanks, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Great is the mystery of faith:

Priest and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Priest: God of Junia, Tryphena and Tryphosa, as you take bread and wine and make them the bearers of your Son's risen life, take our flesh and blood and make them the channels of your peace. Bless the ministry of women throughout the Anglican Communion and beyond.

Transform your church that it may resemble the generosity, joy, and abundance of your Trinity. God of Julia, Persis and Claudia, raise up those whose gifts have been suppressed, neglected, ignored or rejected. Renew your people through humble service and prophetic witness, that your name may be known in the face of injustice, poverty, and tyranny.

God of Mary, Mary Magdalene and Elizabeth, show your glory through agents of healing and learning, and shower your people with your love, until the day comes when every eye beholds you, full of grace and truth, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal. Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父，
愿你的名被尊为圣，
愿你的国降临，
愿你的旨意行在地上，
如同行在天上。
我们日用的饮食，
求父今日赐给我们。
又求饶恕我们的罪，
如同我们饶恕得罪我们的人。
不叫我们遇见试探，
拯救我们脱离凶恶。
因为国度、权柄、荣耀，
全是父的，永无穷尽。
阿们。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us.

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

—© The Archbishops' Council 2000, Eucharistic Prayer

In accordance with our policy of common sense risk reduction — you will be offered the opportunity to receive bread as well as wine from the common cup if they so choose. As always, it is an individual choice — and those who come to the rail may choose to receive both bread and wine, bread only, or request a blessing.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive wine, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, you may touch the base of the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available at your request on the back side rails.

By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons. If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Alfredo Feregrino to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. (aferegrino@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2713)

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

Children in the chancel re-join their families.

Members of our Healing Ministry are available in the Chapel and Baptistry during communion for all who wish to receive prayers and the laying on of hands. All prayers are kept confidential. If you desire follow-up, please contact our pastoral care department.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Susan Russell

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Eternal God, great Creator,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

HYMN "In the Midst of New Dimensions" Standing –all who are able; everyone sings.

1 In the midst of new di-men-sions, in the face of chang-ing ways,
 2 Through the flood of starv-ing peo-ple, war-ring fac-tions and de-spair,
 3 As we stand a world di-vid-ed by our own self-seek-ing schemes,
 4 Ev-'ry be-ing in your im-age, all per-sua-sions, old and young.
 5 Should the threat of dire pre-dic-tions cause us to with-draw in pain,
 Who will lead the pil-grim peo-ples wan-dering in their sep-arate ways?
 Who will lift the ol-ive branch-es? Who will light the flame of care?
 Grant that we, your glo-bal vil-lage, might en-vis-ion wid-er dreams.
 Each a gift in your cre-a-tion, each a love song to be sung.
 May your blaz-ing phoe-nix spir-it res-ur-rect the church a-gain.
 God of rain-bow, fier-y pil-lar, lead-ing where the ea-gles soar, We your peo-ple, ours the jour-ney now and ev-er, now and ev-er, now and ev-er - more.

Misa de Sanación

Domingo, 17 de marzo, 5:00 p.m. en la Iglesia de Todos los Santos

Cualquiera que busque esperanza y sanación de su cuerpo, mente o espíritu para sí mismo o para alguien a quien ama está invitado a asistir a nuestro primer servicio eucarístico realizado completamente en español con imposición de manos y unción.

Todos son bienvenidos. Para más información, contacte a Alfredo Feregrino en aferegrino@allsaints-pas.org.

Reclaiming the Bible

This is "bible study" with a difference. Our goal will be to heal and move beyond the misunderstanding, confusion, hurtful interpretation, oppression, and other ways our bible has been used against us. Jesus is the Word of God, and God's Word is one of love, hope, and reconciliation. This is the bible we'll strive together to come home to in this small group study.

Sundays, 4 p.m. on Zoom. Contact leader Charles Foster at drcharlesfoster@icloud.com for Zoom access.

Say hello to our Children, Youth and Families Team!

Programs for Children (Birth — 5th grade) at All Saints:

Sunday Morning Childcare for Infants and Toddlers 9:00 a.m. –12:00 p.m. We are happy to announce that we are able to offer child care again! Child Care is available for children birth-Kindergarten in the Seminar Room in Regas House from 9:00 a.m. –1:00 p.m. Parents must sign their kids in and out. Space is limited.

Children's Chapel During Sunday service, children in kindergarten through 5th grade are invited after the gospel reading to attend Children's Chapel. Children connect and celebrate with age-appropriate lessons and activities, then return to the sanctuary for communion. We radically welcome, pray, explore themes of the people of God, and discuss what's happening in the world. Parents are welcome to attend.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the Sunday morning, 10:00 a.m. service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

Unidad Children's Choir All children in 1st–5th grade are welcome to join our wonderful children's choir. The program is free of charge and no auditions are necessary to join. Thursdays 5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

Programs for Youth (6th — 12th grade) at All Saints:

Acolyte Program Youth are welcome to join one of our fabulous acolyte teams. Being an Acolyte gives everyone a unique opportunity to serve: service to All Saints, service to the community, and service to God. Youth will learn more about our Anglican tradition, serve others, learn to work as part of team and to lead a team, wear fancy robes, eat donuts, meet new friends and have fun doing all of it.

Seekers Program Youth in 9th grade and up are invited to join the Seekers class. A youth confirmation class that explores faith, church, other religions, the history of All Saints and much more. Is church relevant in the 21st Century? Why do people believe in God? Is God really still a thing? What if I don't believe in God but want to be a part of the community anyway? What has a community like All Saints to offer? Does church tradition matter? We will wrestle with questions like these together, discuss (and come to different conclusions), play games, eat together and even go on a fabulous mountain retreat. Sign ups are open now.

Trouvères Youth Choir Want to join the family feel of a fabulous youth choir? The program is free of charge and no auditions are necessary. Wednesdays, 5:15–6:30 p.m.

Youth Dinners Join us for free dinners and great community every Wednesday from 6:30–7 p.m.

Youth Group for 6th–12th grade Every Wednesday we meet to be in community together. We learn together, support each other and of course have fun together. Youth Group is a safe place to express who you really are. Check it out! Wednesdays, 7–8:30 p.m.

Discord Server The youth at All Saints are posting and chatting 24/7 on our ASC Youth discord server. It's an easy way to stay connected and with channels like music, art, memes, book club, and so many more, there is a topic for everyone. Content will be monitored by vetted volunteers and staff. For youth only. Contact Merry for the link to join.

Not-So-Bored-Game Night Every second Friday of the month, 6-9:30pm, we gather at All Saints church to play board games, eat snacks and hang out. It's tradition to end the evening with a murder mystery game. Who will win this time, the murderer or the town's people? Come and find out.

For general questions about our Children, Youth & Families program, please contact Merry Simkins at msimkins@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2733.

Offerings Online

Centering Prayer Tuesdays, 6:45–8:00 p.m., via Zoom

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Rest to Receive: Centering Mindfulness Practices and Embodied Healing

Led by Mackenzie Edwards, Thursdays in Lent, 5:45–7:15 p.m. in the Learning Center

Things are heavy right now, personally, communally, and globally, with many feeling the effects. It is hard to pour into others, call for and bring about subversive change, when pouring from an empty cup. Intentional moments to be still, listen, ground, and rest, are also part of doing the work. This series is for those seeking a space to let go, move from head to heart, and connect deeper to self and the Holy Spirit this Lenten season.

*All practices are beginner friendly and while this is a series, each session will stand on its own. A free-will offering will be taken to defray costs.

Please bring:

- 1 yoga mat or blanket to lay on
- 1 blanket to use as a prop and covering
- 1 large pillow, or a bolster
- Journal/notebook & something to write with
- socks as body temperature drops during Yoga Nidra
- something to cover eyes = sleep mask, scarf, etc. to limit light during Nidra

Mackenzie Edwards is a sacred space holder. As a spiritual wellness educator and mindfulness leader, she facilitates and guides others through: Yoga Nidra, breath work, meditation, inner voice coaching, Restorative and Yin Yoga, and every day mindfulness practices. With a Masters degree in Theology and the Arts, over 500 hours of teacher trainings, and 20 years practicing yoga and mindfulness she brings all of this knowledge and experience to each of her sessions. Through multiple healing modalities she offers guidance to others to experience embodied restoration and connect back to the wholeness of who they are.

Fiction Fun Reads The Loved One by Evelyn Waugh

Friday March 22, 6:00–9:00 p.m., in the Guild Room

A great comic satirist observes Los Angeles in the 1940s.

As an online commentator has said, “Evelyn Waugh’s satire of American burial customs may be less savage” than the writings of Nathaniel West, but “he takes catty glee in showing us a culture that’s lost any sense of the sacred.”

If you have questions please email Ana Camacho acamacho@allsaints-pas.org

Join Us for a Staged Reading of Twilight: Los Angeles 1992

Sunday, March 24, 2:00 p.m. in the Church

Join us for a performance of Anna Devere Smith’s play about the aftermath of the 1992 Rodney King uprising. The play is composed of a series of monologues by real people connected directly and indirectly to the uprising. Smith chose the texts of the monologues and the subjects from interviews that she had conducted with more than 300 individuals in the process of researching the play. It is considered an example of the genre of verbatim theatre. The play was nominated in 1994 for a Tony Award for Best Play. It won the Drama Desk Award for Outstanding One-Person Show, Smith’s second such honor in two years. Foothill Arts Collective (FAC) is producing the presentation with All Saints, Racial Justice Ministry, AAPI, and Latino Ministries. The talents of All Saints’ own Eddie King and Monique Thomas are in the cast. A panel discussion afterwards with members of the Racial Justice Ministry, AAPI+ Ministry and Latino-Hispanic Ministries.

Theatre Ministry

One of the Good Ones

Friday, March 22, 8:00 p.m. at Pasadena Playhouse

Tickets are $42 and available here.

The ultimate family showdown is on in the world premiere of this new comedy commissioned by Pasadena Playhouse. When the “perfect” Latina daughter brings her boyfriend home to meet the parents, her family’s biases and preconceptions are put on full display. As tensions run high and hilarity ensues, everyone must navigate the ins and outs of family dynamics and the boundaries of acceptance — all while tackling the age-old question: what does it truly mean to be an American? Meet your new favorite family in this laugh-out-loud, heartfelt story from Gloria Calderón Kellett, the co-creator and showrunner of Netflix’s One Day at a Time. The cast includes Lana Parilla, Carlos Gomez, Isabella Gomez, Nico Greetham and Santino Jimenez.

King Hedley II

Friday, April 19, 8:00 p.m. at A Noise Within

Tickets are $51 and available here.

King Hedley II continues A Noise Within’s commitment to August Wilson’s American Century Cycle, engaging with characters that exist throughout these epic plays. After seven years in prison, an ambitious and proud King re-enters society eager to rebuild his life, but quickly confronts the inescapable challenges facing Black men in Reagan-era Pittsburgh. King’s aspirations come in conflict with the stories he’s been telling himself, and he insists on planting seeds where nothing can grow.

Misalliance

Friday, May 24, 8:00 p.m. at Pasadena Playhouse

Tickets are $62 and available here.

One summer day, an early 20th century English undergarment mogul and his family entertain friends and unexpected visitors at their country estate. Through their lively debate and subsequent antics – including eight marriage proposals and one plane crash – the audience is treated to a satiric comedy of manners that exposes chaotic clashes of class, gender, and generations.

12:00 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. in the Chapel

Maundy Thursday, March 28

7:30 p.m. service in the Church

This beautiful evening service recalls the last supper Jesus shared with his disciples. The congregation is invited to participate in the washing of the feet, symbolic of the servant ministry Jesus instituted with the disciples. The Trouvères offer music; Sally Howard offers a meditation. This is a Spanish/English liturgy. Parking is available at Plaza Las Fuentes.

Prayer, Meditation and Reflection Vigil

Follows Maundy Thursday service, 9:00 p.m.—Midnight, in the Guild Room. Guided Vigil prayers and the labyrinth will be available.

Christ sits beside us at all times. We invite you to sit beside him. Join us as we keep watch with Christ, in prayer, in silence, and with each other. We will meditate in silence, walk the labyrinth, pray with Anglican and traditional rosary beads in English and Spanish, reflect on the stations of the cross, and share readings in the chapel. Information =Ana Camacho acamacho@allsaints-pas.org

Good Friday, March 29

The Great Three Hours

12:00 – 3:00 p.m. in the Church

Members of the pastoral staff offer five meditations on the meaning of the crucifixion in our own time. Each meditation is part of a fabric of worship and reflection that includes hymns, scripture, prayers and silence. Canterbury and Coventry choirs offer spirituals and music of Hopkins, Poelinitz, Mozart, Dawson, Beach, Gibbons, Chilcott, Pärt, Barrett and Hogan.

Stations of the Cross — A Journey Through Pasadena

6:00 p.m. on the Quad Lawn

We journey through Pasadena and recreate events that encompassed Jesus' journey carrying his cross from the Hall of Pilate where he was condemned to death to the site of his execution on Golgotha, reflecting, and praying at each station. This is a Bilingual Spanish/English service.

Tenebrae: Service of Shadows

7:30 p.m. in the Church

This ancient candlelight service commemorates the somber in-between-time of waiting, offering an opportunity to grieve Jesus' death and sense a glimmer of hope of the resurrection. Coventry Choir Renaissance Singers offer music.

Thomas Diaz offers a meditation.

Validated parking is available in Plaza las Fuentes for all Good Friday services.

Holy Saturday — Easter Sunday

Holy Saturday, March 30

Children's Vigil & Baptisms

4:00 p.m. p.m. in the Church

Celebrate the conclusion of Holy Week and beginning of Easter with children leading this service through reading and music with infant and child baptisms. Unidad offer music. Bring a bell to ring at the Easter proclamation!

The Great Vigil of Easter

7:30 p.m. in the Church

The service begins on the lawn with the kindling of the fire and lighting of the Paschal candle, then proceeds into the church to experience the stories of our faith and to baptize adults by candlelight. You're invited to bring bells to ring during the Gloria. The journey continues into the church to celebrate the first Eucharist of Easter. Canterbury Chamber Singers offer music of Wood; Susie Glaze offers folk song, Long Lonesome Way. Incense will be used in this service.

Easter Sunday, March 31

Festive Eucharists
7:00 a.m.,
9:00 a.m.,
& 11:15 a.m.
in the Church

We celebrate the resurrection amidst a blaze of candles, and beautiful flowers.

Mike Kinman preaches. At 7 a.m. Lydia Brown offers music; at 9 & 11:15 a.m. Coventry and Canterbury choirs and Trouvères, and soloists offer a traditional South African tune, and music of Ames, Rentz, Hayes and Langlais.

Normal Sunday parking is available in Kaiser and Plaza Las Fuentes. Childcare will be available 8:00 a.m.– 1:00 p.m.

Living with Cancer

The Second Monday of Each Month, Next Meetings: Apr. 8, May 13, at 7:00–8:30 p.m., via Zoom.

Any unexpected medical diagnosis can take our breath away as we struggle to see how to adapt our lives. But when the diagnosis is Cancer our lives stop in that moment. So many questions come up; what, how long, treatment, pain. Living with cancer, whether during treatment or living with the threat of recurrence is difficult. Join us for a time to share, to learn from each other, and to support each other. The group is facilitated by The Rev. Dori Torrey and Nancy Naecker.

If You Crochet or Knit, Consider Joining the Prayer Shawl Ministry

We meet the 2nd Tuesday of every month, 7:00–8:30 p.m., in the lounge in Regas House. Next meeting: April 9

We gather in community to share our prayers, our stories, the work of our hands and hearts while knitting and crocheting shawls to be given as mantles of healing to those in need of comfort. Prayer shawl participants have long known that working with hands is a meditative spiritual practice that quiets minds to hear God's clear voice. Please join us with yarn, needles, and prayer. For further information, contact Ashley Hengst ahengst@allsaints-pas.org

Seeking Healthy Faith

The group meets on the 2nd Wednesday of the month, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m. on Zoom. Next meeting is April 10.

Trust, love, and hope are at the center of faith, yet many of us have had harmful and injurious religious experiences. This monthly small group provides a safe space to explore toxic religious experience and develop new and healthier ways of understanding ourselves and God/Spirit. Contact leader Charles Foster at drcharlesfoster@icloud.com for Zoom access.

Centennial Conversations: All Saints Church, Pasadena: One Story at a Time

As our Centennial Celebration continues, so do our Centennial Conversations. Inspired by the groundbreaking narrative project "Humans of New York," Centennial Conversations is an opportunity to tell the story of All Saints Church "one story at a time" with conversations with the saints of All Saints – those who have been part of making All Saints Church what it is and who are calling it to continue to become all that it could be. Each issue will include: a profile of our featured "saint," a photo from the archives, and updates on upcoming Centennial events.

Watch for this monthly feature in your email inbox or on our social media platforms. February issue available here.

Episcopal Church 101

The four-week hybrid (in-person and online) course will be held on Sunday afternoons in the Guild Room, April 14, 21, 28, and May 5, 12:00–1:30 p.m. with lunch.

Episcopal Church 101 is a series of presentations, discussions, and anyone wanting to go deeper into the history, theology, and doctrine of the Episcopal Church.

The program concludes with the opportunity to receive the sacramental rite of Confirmation at the diocesan wide Confirmation service with Bishop John Taylor on Saturday, May 11, 10:00 a.m., at St. John's Cathedral.

Here's what one parish leader wrote about his experience with both the class and Confirmation:
From the moment I stepped onto the lawn one Sunday morning, everything fell into place. Within weeks, I was entrenched in the All Saints Community, joining small groups and becoming an usher. When the Confirmation Class began a few months later, it seemed like a "no-brainer" because it isn't just about confirming my commitment to my community; it's about committing to my faith, roots, and growth as a spiritual being.

Christian Nationalism

TACKLING THE TRUTHS
OF A TOXIC MOVEMENT

Resources to Tackle the Toxic Movement of Christian Nationalism

The rise of White Christian Nationalism as a force of division and polarization in our nation compels us to increase our understanding of this toxic movement in order to increase our capacity to resist it. This list of resources is offered as a place to start "digging deeper" as we equip ourselves and each other to stand up and speak out against this hijacking of the Gospel of love, justice and compassion as a tool of hatred, judgement and discrimination.
