Featured Ministry for January 19: The Greeters Ministry

The All Saints Greeters Ministry serves to warmly greet all people who come to All Saints and to draw them into closer communion with God and our community. We offer an inclusive, warm, and non-judgmental welcome; seeking to be the embodiment of what we mean when we say that All Saints offers a “radical welcome” to everyone.

The Greeters Ministry’s responsibilities include staffing the Welcome Table and acting as roving ambassadors before and after Sunday morning services. We generally host a Welcome Table at special events and evening services such as Jazz Vespers.

The Greeters Ministry is coordinated by two to three co-leaders with the support of church staff. A team of two to seven people assists with each service, each typically volunteering once a month.

There is no better way to become part of our community than by volunteering as a Greeter. Consider yourself invited! Join us on the lawn after the service.

Fiction Fun! Reads Drive Your Plow Over the Bones of the Dead by Olga Tokarczuk

Friday, January 24, 7:00 p.m., in the Guild Room.

Olga Tokarczuk, Drive Your Plow Over the Bones of the Dead (2009; U.S. trans. 2019). Tokarczuk won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2018. In 2019, the British Guardian ranked it 75th among the 100 best books—not just novels—of the twenty-first century. It said, “In this existential eco-thriller, a William Blake-obsessed eccentric investigates the murders of men and animals in a remote Polish village. The book is an examination of how atavistic male impulses, emboldened by the new rightwing politics of Europe, are endangering people, communities and nature itself.” In the New Yorker, Jia Tolentino called the book “exhilarating in a way that feels fierce and private, almost inarticulate; it’s one of the most existentially refreshing novels I’ve read in a long time.”

Help Parents and Children be Reunited As a Family

Attend the upcoming coach monitor training 9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. on January 25 and February 1 at All Saints Church.

Become a trained volunteer coach monitor and provide court ordered supervised family visits so that children, removed from the care of their parents, can visit their parents in a physically and emotionally safe setting. Each visitation site is filled with toys, games, books, and art materials to provide a comfortable environment for children and their parents to have positive experiences together. These visits are an essential service to increase the family's chances for reunification and reduce the children's anxiety while in out-of-home placement. We are especially interested in bilingual volunteers who speak Spanish. The visits will take place in an agency setting that provides strict health and safety protocols to protect the coach monitor and the families in Pasadena,

South Pasadena, El Serreno, or Glendale.

For more information and to sign up, contact: inbox@fostercareproject.org.

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel.

Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works.

To audition, please contact Weicheng Zhao, Director of Music, at wzhao@allsaints-pas.org.

Christian Nationalism

TACKLING THE TRUTHS
OF A TOXIC MOVEMENT

Resources to Tackle the Toxic Movement of Christian Nationalism

The rise of White Christian Nationalism as a force of division and polarization in our nation compels us to increase our understanding of this toxic movement in order to increase our capacity to resist it. This list of resources is offered as a place to start "digging deeper" as we equip ourselves and each other to stand up and speak out against this hijacking of the Gospel of love, justice and compassion as a tool of hatred, judgement and discrimination.

It delves into the layered experiences of grief in conflict zones like Gaza, Ukraine, Sudan, and Post-inauguration in the USA as well as the shared human need for connection and healing. Drawing on stories, reflections, and lessons Jonathan invites us to consider how we might transform grief into action and hope, fostering resilience across divides.

What is Sacred Ground?

Sacred Ground is a film-and-readings-based dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. Small groups are invited to walk through chapters of America's history of race and racism, while weaving in threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity. Part of Becoming Beloved Community — The Episcopal Church's long-term commitment to racial healing, reconciliation, and justice in our personal lives, our ministries, and our society — the 11-part series is built around a powerful online curriculum of documentary films and readings that focus on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories.

The series is open to all, and especially designed to help white people talk with other white people. Participants are invited to peel away the layers that have contributed to the challenges and divides of the present day – all while grounded in our call to faith, hope and love.

Sacred Ground is not brand new to All Saints Church. In 2021 a number of parish leaders and staff members assisted in introducing the program here in the Diocese of Los Angeles. Many of those who participated at that time were hoping to widen the circle by creating a parish-wide opportunity to engage with the material.

Who created Sacred Ground and Why?

The dialogue series developer and author is Katrina Browne, producer/director of the documentary Traces of the Trade: A Story from the Deep North. Browne is a lifelong Episcopalian who is dedicated to racial justice and healing. As a white woman, she is particularly concerned with the important work white people need to do in conversation with each other, as part of the larger project of Becoming Beloved Community. More here: <https://www.episcopalchurch.org/sacred-ground/about/>

When is Sacred Ground Coming to All Saints Church?

The timeline to introduce Sacred Ground 2025 at All Saints is MLK Weekend (January 19) with a presentation in the Forum at 9:00 a.m. Registration will begin in February and the launch of the 11-part series of dialogue circles will begin in the Spring. There will be opportunities for both in person and online, daytime and evening, weekday and weekend groups. (Please Note: We have extended our roll out timeline due to the challenges of the Eaton Canyon disaster.)

Trained facilitators will be working in collaboration with Sacred Ground Coordinators MaryAnn Ahart and Lori Kizzia and under the direction of staff member Thomas Diaz, Director of Connection & Care.

For more information, please email SacredGroundASC@gmail.com

We are grateful to be returning to Sacred Ground as a process for healing relationships which have been wounded by a void in the ability to talk about and embrace each other's racial history and identity. We are confident that Sacred Ground will offer one of the steps we need to us move forward with the work that we have to do in 2025 and beyond.
