The Sixth Sunday after the Epiphany

Eucharist at 7:30 a.m.

All Saints Church

132 N Euclid Ave

Pasadena CA 91101

Welcome!

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith there is a place for you here.

Sunday Morning Childcare

Childcare for Infants and Preschoolers: 9:00–12:00 p.m. in the Seminar room and Small Lounge in Regas House, sign in required.

All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

To learn more about the history of the land we are on, read our report here:

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year C, as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

As the people gather before the service begins, we encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

All things are born of you, O God.
We carry within us your light and your life.

In the mystery of matter and deep in the cells of our souls are your longings for oneness.

The oneness of the universe,
vast and vibrating with the sound of its beginning.

The oneness of the earth
greening and teeming as a single body

The oneness of the human soul

A sacred countenance in infinite form.

Grant us your longings for oneness, O God,

Amidst life's glorious multiplicities.

— John Phillip Newell from Praying with the Earth

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Stand — all who are able — as the procession enters the Chapel.

SALUTATION Remain standing.

Jonathan Stoner

Minister: Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People: Glory to God for ever and ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY Remain standing.

Minister and People:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA Remain standing.

Jonathan Stoner

Minister: Glory to God in the highest,
 People: and peace to all people on earth.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Minister: God dwells in you.
 People: And also in you.
 Minister: Let us pray.

Remain standing; silence is kept.

Minister: O God, the strength of all who put their trust in you: Mercifully accept our prayers; and because in our weakness we can do nothing good without you, give us the help of your grace, that in keeping your commandments we may please you both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LESSON Seated.

Anina Minotto

A Reading from Jeremiah (17:5–10).

“Cursed are those who put their trust in human ways,” says God, “who rely on things of the flesh, whose hearts turn away from God. They are like the stunted vegetation in the desert with no hope in the future. It stands in stony wastes in the desert, an uninhabited land of salt. Blessed are those who put their trust in God, with God for their hope. They are like a tree planted by the river that thrusts its roots toward the stream. When the heat comes it feels no heat, its leaves stay green. It is untroubled in a year of drought, and never ceases to bear fruit. The human heart is more deceitful than anything else, and desperately sick—who can understand it? I, your God, search into the heart, I probe the mind, to give people what their actions and conduct deserve.”

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.
 People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 1 Remain seated; read in unison.

Happy are those who reject the path of violence, who refuse to associate with criminals or even to sit with people who belittle others.

Happy are those who delight in the law of our God and meditate on it day and night.

They are like trees planted by flowing water; they bear fruit in every season, and their leaves never wither: everything they do will prosper.

But not wrongdoers! They are like chaff that the wind blows away.
 They will not have a taproot to anchor them when judgment comes, nor will corrupt individuals be given a place at the gathering of the just.

Our God watches over the steps of those who do justice;
 but those on a path of violence and injustice will find themselves irretrievably lost.

GOSPEL Standing — all who are able.

Jonathan Stoner

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Luke (6:17–26).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

Coming down the mountain with them, Jesus stopped in a level area where there were a great number of disciples. A large crowd was with them from Jerusalem and all over Judea, to as far north as the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon; people who had come to hear Jesus and be healed of their diseases, and even to be freed from unclean spirits. Indeed, the whole crowd was trying to touch Jesus, because power was coming out of him and healing them all. Looking at the disciples, Jesus said: "You who are poor are blessed, for the reign of God is yours. You who hunger now are blessed, for you'll be filled. You who weep now are blessed, for you will laugh. You are blessed when people hate you, when they scorn and insult you and spurn your name as evil because of the Chosen One. On the day they do so, rejoice and be glad: your reward will be great in heaven, for their ancestors treated the prophets the same way. But woe to you rich, for you are now receiving your comfort in full. Woe to you who are full, for you'll go hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will weep in your grief. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in the same way."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

Jonathan Stoner

A period of silence is observed after the sermon.

NICENE CREED Standing — all who are able.

Anina Minotto

We are using a version of the Nicene Creed approved by the Standing Liturgical Commission.Recognizing and including all expressions of gender in God we proclaim:

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Remain standing.

Anina Minotto

Names of those for whom we continue to pray are on p. 12.

Minister: Praise to you, O God, who spins shining stars across the wondrous heavens and stretches out the seas, who lifts the dawn into place and sets boundaries for night, who gives everything a season and breathes life and love into the dust of us.

People: We praise you, O God.

Minister: Praise, in all things, for all things: the soft slant of sunlight, the sweat of battle, a song in the wilderness, the deep breath, the tended wound, mercy, quietness, a friend; for the miracles of the daily and the mysteries of the eternal.

People: We praise you, O God.

Minister: Praise for all creatures, laughers and list-makers, wonderers and worriers, poets and plodders and prophets, the wrinkled and the newborn.

People: We praise you, O God.

—Ted Loder

Minister: We remember those who have asked for our prayers and those who offer their thanksgivings.

Names of those who have requested prayers are read.

Minister: We pray for those who have died and for the families and friends who grieve.

Names of those who have died are read.

Minister: For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

The People may add their own petitions aloud or in the silence of their hearts.

Minister: Loving God, we offer these prayers, knowing that you are doing for those for whom we pray more than we could imagine or desire. Amen.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

ABSOLUTION

Jonathan Stoner

Priest: Almighty God, have mercy on you, forgive all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS Seated.

Tim Rich

OFFERTORY SENTENCES

Priest: All things come of thee, O Lord,

People: And of thine own, have we given thee. Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING Standing – all who are able.

Tim Rich

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Creator of all.

Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect self-offering for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Priest and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Priest: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this offering of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's life, death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Priest and People:

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ—by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal. Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父愿人都尊你的名为圣，愿你的国降临，愿你的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。我们日用的饮食，今日赐给我们。免我们的债，如同我们免了人的债。不叫我们遇见试探，救我们脱离凶恶。因为国度、权柄、荣耀，全是你的，直到永远。阿门。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: Alleluia! We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us. Alleluia!

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive wine, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, you may touch the base of the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available at your request.

By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons. If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Tim Rich to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. (trich@allsaints-pas.org)

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Tim Rich

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Eternal God, great Creator, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
 Send us now into the world in peace,
 and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

DISMISSAL

Tim Rich

Minister: Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People: Thanks be to God.

An Evening with John Philip Newell A Journey toward Hope: From Ashes to a New Relationship with Earth & One Another

Sunday, February 16, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m., in the Church, a reception follows in Sweetland Hall 8:30 – 9:00 p.m.

Internationally renowned Celtic teacher, John Philip Newell, will reflect on the themes of his new book, The Great Search: Turning to Earth & Soul in the Quest for Healing & Home, in the context of the devastating Southern California wildfires — inviting us through word, music, symbol and song to grieve our losses and re-imagine our future. You are invited to bring with you a symbol or photograph representing what has been lost — or a remnant or object from the ashes of your home — and place it by the altar of hope at the front of the church as we lament the sufferings of Earth and humanity and yearn for the way forward together. This will be an Interfaith experience and all are welcome!

The gathering will be live-streamed at <https://allsaints-pas.org/live-stream/>. Books will be available for purchase.

We Invite You to Help Us Create an Altar of Hope

In preparation for our evening together we will create an altar of hope at the front of the church on the chancel steps and we invite you to bring a remnant or object from the ashes of your home or a photograph and place it by the altar of hope as we lament the sufferings of Earth and humanity and yearn for the way forward together. The church will also be open through the week, Monday-Friday from 9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. to place objects – or bring them with you on the night of the 16th. Don't miss this opportunity to learn from this great teacher in community!

Offerings Online

Women’s Lectionary Online Bible Study

We are using Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney’s A Women’s Lectionary for the Whole Church, Year C. Each online Bible study session begins with an oral reading of the week’s scriptures and then proceeds to conversation grounded in those readings as well as in Dr. Gafney’s notes which reveal the womanist perspective from which the lectionary was written. All are welcome! All Sessions will be on Mondays at 9:00 a.m. Pacific standard time. Register here in advance here and you will be sent the link for the meeting. (The link will be good for the whole year)

Centering Prayer Tuesdays, 6:45–8:00 p.m., via Zoom

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God’s presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Strength for the Journey – A Selfcare Saturday

Saturday, February 15, 1:00–5:00 p.m., in Regas House

Join us for a restorative self-care event designed to support our community in recovering from the impact of the Eaton Fire.

This afternoon of healing focuses on listening to our bodies and re-establishing our connection to ourselves as we navigate this journey together. Experience the power of a supportive presence through a variety of wellness practices:

Acupuncture ✦ Chiropractic care ✦ Reiki ✦ Laying on of Hands

Additionally — a Yoga session will be offered from 2:00 – 3:00 p.m.

All offered to nurture your body and spirit. No prior experience of yoga is necessary. Bring a yoga mat if you have one, but what is most important is that you just bring yourself.

Let's take this time to restore, recharge, and find strength for the journey ahead.

Sacred Earth Sacred Soul Celtic Wisdom 1

Celtic Wisdom 1 is the first of a three-part series of annual retreats led by the Celtic teacher John Philip Newell and his colleague Cami Twilling in which we explore the sacredness of every human being, the sacredness of the feminine, and the sacredness of Earth.

The teachings of this retreat are based on John Philip's award-winning book Sacred Earth Sacred Soul: Celtic Wisdom for Reawakening to What Our Souls Know and Healing the World (especially Chapters 1, 2, and 7 drawing on the wisdom of Pelagius, Brigid, and Teilhard de Chardin).

John Philip Newell is a Celtic teacher and author of spirituality who calls the modern world to reawaken to the sacredness of Earth and every human being. A 'wandering teacher,' he follows the ancient path of many lone teachers before him in the Celtic world, seeking the wellbeing of the world. He has been described as having 'the heart of a Celtic bard and the mind of a Celtic scholar,' combining in his teachings the poetic and the intellectual, the head as well as the heart, and spiritual awareness as well as political and ecological concern.

Cami Twilling is the Director of Earth & Soul, where she heads up the overall work of Earth & Soul and facilitates the spiritual practice component of the Earth & Soul's Annual Retreats. Cami is passionate about the relationship between spirituality and action and believes that spiritual vision and practice can play a vital role in helping to heal and transform our lives both individually and together.

February Jazz Vespers:

LA Jazz Quartet: Chuck Manning, Larry Koonse, Darek Oles & Jason Harnell

Sunday, February 23, 5:00 p.m., on the Chancel

The Los Angeles Jazz Quartet, active since 1994, is an L.A. based group made up of four musicians who share a similar vision of acoustic jazz in the new millennium. While definitely influenced by the sound, style and sensibilities of the classic jazz of the 1950's and 60's, the L.A. Jazz Quartet provides a fresh perspective in the context of the contemporary jazz ensemble. Most of the material performed by the L.A. Jazz Quartet is original and draws upon a varied palette of musical styles. The quartet can play music that is unashamedly lyrical and understated while at the same time possesses an ability to be as hard-edged as the music warrants. Reflecting LAJQ's philosophy that every band member is an integral part of the improvisation process, each member is also a composer contributing their own original material in a collective manner. There is no charge. No reservations required. Validated parking is available in Plaza las Fuentes. Info = jazz@allsaints-pas.org

Memorial for Our Unhoused Neighbors

Monday, February 24, 6:00 p.m., in the Church

Each year, thousands of unhoused people die on the streets of our nation due to illness, exposure or violence, many from Pasadena, without the dignity and respect they deserve. Please join us Monday, February 24, at 6:00 p.m. in the Church, as we honor and acknowledge their lives and membership in the human family.

For more information and/or to provide the name of someone you know who has lost their life on the streets (so they can be acknowledged in the service), contact Melissa Hayes at 626.583.2725 or mhayes@allsaints-pas.org.

We are grateful for financial donations for the dinner that follows the service.

All Saints Welcomes B'nai Simcha Jewish Community Pre-School!

From now on the voices of children will echo around the halls of ASC during the week because B'nai Simcha Jewish Community Pre-school has moved to All Saints. B'nai Simcha, which means "joyful children," lost their previous home at the Pasadena Jewish Temple and Center to the Eaton Canyon Fire. Many of their families have relocated for at least the short-term, and they're starting small as they rebuild their program. We're grateful to be able to provide them a new place to thrive. Their educational philosophy and values align closely with those of All Saints. The pre-school is inclusive, and welcomes children of all faiths, ages 0-5 years. They'll be open from 7:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, primarily in the Learning Center. If you see them when you're on campus, say hi!

Upcoming Memorials at All Saints Church

A Celebration of the Life of Marshall Rutter, Saturday, March 1, 4:00 p.m.

Oscar Night at All Saints Church

Sunday, March 2, 3:30 p.m., in the Learning Center (Awards begin at 4:00 p.m.)

Join us for the most anticipated night in cinema!

Come celebrate with us—everyone's invited! Bring a dish, snack, drink, or an alcoholic beverage (wine, beer) to share!. Let's make it a night to remember with good company, great food, and all the glitz and glam of the Oscars!

Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper

Tuesday, March 4, 5:00 – 7:00 p.m., in Sweetland Hall

Join us as we merge the Anglican tradition of Shrove Tuesday Pancakes with the festive energy of the best Mardi Gras party in town! Bring your Mardi Gras spirit to this traditional last "fat" meal before Ash Wednesday! Bring your children and grandchildren! We will offer arts and crafts for the young and young at heart. Tickets are $8 for Adults; $6 for Youth (under 14)

Information = Ana Camacho at acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

Ash Wednesday Services, March 5

7:00 a.m. in the Chapel

12:10 p.m. in the Church

7:30 p.m. in the Church, a bilingual Spanish/English service

We will also offer Ashes-to-go out in our community!

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, the 40-day period of fasting before Easter. On Ash Wednesday, ashes are blessed, mixed with either holy oil or water, and imposed on the head with the sign of the cross, or sprinkled on the forehead. The ashes are made from burning palm branches blessed the previous year on Palm Sunday. When a minister imposes the ashes they say "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you will return."

All Saints hosts Workshops on Internalized Racial Oppression

Friday, March 7 and Saturday, March 8

Though here at All Saints we believe we are all called to do the work of racial justice, we also recognize that the work will not always look the same for all of us. One aspect of the work that will be different for some of us is the area of Internalized Racial Oppression. Internalized Racial Oppression, or IRO, is a complex, multi-generational socialization process, by which people of color live into the and internalize the falsehoods of white supremacy. Oppressive systems don't just infiltrate our society, but they infiltrate our very hearts, minds, bodies and even culture. On March 7th and March 8th, leaders from the National Episcopal Church will be helping us understand and heal from this insidious force. This workshop is open to anyone who identifies as a person of color. Meals will be provided and the workshops are free for all participants. Please register at the following link as space will be limited.

For our white siblings interested in this work, we invite you to please register for the Sacred Ground curriculum here.

Upcoming Shows with Theatre Ministry

Topdog/Underdog

Friday, March 7, 8:00 p.m., at the Pasadena Playhouse.

Tickets are $42, and available here.

Two brothers in freetail struggle to find their footing as they hustle their way through life. Haunted by the past and their obsession with street cons and cards, the brothers come to learn the true nature of their fate. Winner of the Pulitzer Prize, Suzan-Lori Parks' darkly comic fable is poetic, gripping, and unforgettable.

Jane Eyre

Friday, March 28, 7:30 p.m., at A Noise Within,

Tickets are $41, available here.

Experience Jane's resilience and determination to live life on her own terms, from her early years of hardship and mistreatment to her eventual pursuit of love and independence.

In a tale beloved for generations, thrills, mystery, and romance abound in this tenacious story of self-determination. Facing societal expectations and personal challenges, Jane navigates betrayal and injustice with inexhaustible courage. This bold and dynamic production offers audiences a compelling portrayal of one woman's quest for freedom and fulfillment in the face of devastating adversity.

Join Our Getting Connected Class

We will meet five Sundays,

beginning March 9,

12:00 – 1:30 p.m., in the Learning Center

This five-week class is designed for anyone — from brand new explorers to longtime seekers — interested in exploring the essence of All Saints Church and getting more connected through active engagement. Each class consists of a presentation by a staff member and lay leader followed by a small group experience. Together we consider the core values of All Saints Church and develop a sense of belonging as we build connections to individuals, ministries and groups.

Please register here. Information = Ana Camacho at acamacho@allsaints-pas.org

How To Be Brave Together with Susan Russell

On January 21st Bishop Mariann Budde preached a sermon in our National Cathedral which is still preaching as we move together into this challenging time of dramatic change. The call to be beacons of God's love, justice and compassion in these moments call for the kind of bravery Bishop Budde brought to the pulpit that day. Let's learn more from her how to be brave together. Join us for an introduction to Bishop Budde's bestselling book

"How We Learn to Be Brave: Decisive Moments in Life and Faith" led by Susan Russell.

Parish Annual Meeting

Sunday, February 23, 12:00–1:30 p.m. in the Forum

This canonically required meeting is our yearly opportunity to thank out-going Vestry members, elect new Vestry members and Diocesan Convention delegates, adopt a budget for the coming year and hear reports on from our wardens and priest-in-charge. We will also receive the Annual Report summarizing the work and witness of All Saints over the previous year. Don't miss this opportunity to be "in the room where it happens" as we review the year past and look ahead to both the challenges and opportunities in the year to come. All are welcome!

What is Sacred Ground?

Sacred Ground is a film-and-readings-based dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. Small groups are invited to walk through chapters of America's history of race and racism, while weaving in threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity. Part of Becoming Beloved Community — The Episcopal Church's long-term commitment to racial healing, reconciliation, and justice in our personal lives, our ministries, and our society — the 11-part series is built around a powerful online curriculum of documentary films and readings that focus on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories.

The series is open to all, and especially designed to help white people talk with other white people. Participants are invited to peel away the layers that have contributed to the challenges and divides of the present day – all while grounded in our call to faith, hope and love.

Sacred Ground is not brand new to All Saints Church. In 2021 a number of parish leaders and staff members assisted in introducing the program here in the Diocese of Los Angeles. Many of those who participated at that time were hoping to widen the circle by creating a parish-wide opportunity to engage with the material.

Who created Sacred Ground and Why?

The dialogue series developer and author is Katrina Browne, producer/director of the documentary Traces of the Trade: A Story from the Deep North. Browne is a lifelong Episcopalian who is dedicated to racial justice and healing. As a white woman, she is particularly concerned with the important work white people need to do in conversation with each other, as part of the larger project of Becoming Beloved Community. More here: <https://www.episcopalchurch.org/sacred-ground/about/>

When is Sacred Ground Coming to All Saints Church?

Sacred Ground 2025 was introduced at All Saints MLK Weekend (January 19) with a presentation in the Forum at 9:00 a.m. Registration will begin in February and the launch of the 11-part series of dialogue circles will begin in the Spring. There will be opportunities for both in person and online, daytime and evening, weekday and weekend groups. (Please Note: We have extended our roll out timeline due to the challenges of the Eaton Canyon disaster.)

Trained facilitators will be working in collaboration with Sacred Ground Coordinators MaryAnn Ahart and Lori Kizzia and under the direction of staff member Thomas Diaz, Director of Connection & Care.

For more information, please email SacredGroundASC@gmail.com

We are grateful to be returning to Sacred Ground as a process for healing relationships which have been wounded by a void in the ability to talk about and embrace each other's racial history and identity. We are confident that Sacred Ground will offer one of the steps we need to us move forward with the work that we have to do in 2025 and beyond.
