March Jazz Vespers: Mina Choi Orchestra

Sunday, March 23, 5:00 p.m., on the Chancel

We invite you to join us for an unforgettable evening of jazz and storytelling, featuring the highly anticipated new release, “Stories,” by the Mina Choi Orchestra, with special guest Bill Cunliffe. “Mina Choi, who was born in South Korea and has long been based in Southern California, is a talented pianist, arranger, composer and conductor. While she has been quite active during the past decade including performing at top clubs and a few jazz festivals, and working as an educator, Stories is her recording debut. While the soloists in her band are all world-class, the focus is on Mina Choi’s inventive arrangements. Although the influences of classical music and her Korean heritage are sometimes felt in her writing, the often-dense music is always modern jazz. Her originals in particular sum up her struggles and her optimistic attitude as an immigrant in Los Angeles.

Throughout Stories, Mina Choi’s writing is both unpredictable and logical. She has a knack for telling tales through music, making this an impressive debut. Stories is easily recommended and rewards repeated listenings.”

Validated parking will be available in Plaza las Fuentes.

There is no charge. No reservations required.

Join Theatre Ministry to See Frou-Frou: A Menagerie of Sorts

Saturday, March 29, at Boston Court Theatre at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $51, and available here.

L is a stoner with social anxiety, Harold is an aspiring ballerina, and their mother is a woman from another time. Driven by archaic dreams for her children, all Mamma wants is for a man to marry L to rescue the family from financial ruin. So when a big, burly traveler turns up at their doorstep, she thinks her prayers have been answered. But it is Harold, her tutu-wearing son, who seems most attracted to this strange man, while L, her chronically online “daughter,” doesn’t seem to want him – but wants to become him. By turns raucous, poetic, touching, and dangerous, Frou-Frou: A Menagerie of Sorts riffs on Tennessee Williams’s The Glass Menagerie in this story of two queer siblings yearning to be understood. This show contains adult content and nudity. Information = Melissa Hayes at mhayes@allsaints-pas.org.

Lenten Offerings 2025

Here is a complete listing of all Lenten small groups, ongoing ministries and Lent-related events happening during Lent 2025, in the order of their beginning sessions. Each would make a meaningful addition to your Lenten journey.

Monday Night Meditation

Mondays, 6:45-8:00 p.m. in the Chapel. Every week our open gathering of people sitting together and walking together in the Great Silence confirms the mysterious healing power of the Spirit. Beginning meditators, practitioners from Buddhist, Catholic, Anglican and other traditions are all transformed together on Mondays at 6:45 p.m. both on Zoom and in the chapel. All are welcome. Why not try it on for Lent?

Tuesday Centering Prayer

Tuesdays, 7:00-8:00 p.m. on Zoom. Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period. Make this part of your Lenten Tuesdays?

Taize

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 p.m. in the Chapel. Prayer in the Taize style of worship is quiet and reflective, deeply peaceful and joyful, including simple songs and chants in different languages, readings, silences and prayers. Songs are sung many times over as a prayer of the heart and the focus of this service is on Christ and the cross, reconciliation and prayers for the suffering throughout the world. Taize would make a great addition to your Lenten journey.

FULL — From Dark Wood to Mystic Rose: A Lenten Journey with Dante Alighieri led by Wendy Furman Adams

Thursdays, March 6, 13, 20, 27, April 10 & 27, 12:00 p.m., via Zoom.

These lines begin and end the third "cantic" of Dante's famous Commedia, and they summarize all the poet has learned by the end of his mystical pilgrimage. At last he is able to gaze at the luminous Reality of God's eternal and universal love and to study God's "supernal face"—visibly expressed (as Paul says in Colossians) in the human face of the cosmic Christ. The light of this Love, Dante tells us, is so radiant that no one who sees it can ever again turn away. To see it, moreover, is to be transformed from our ordinary mortal selves into the miraculous beings we were created to become.
