Welcome!

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith there is a place for you here.

Sunday Morning Childcare

Childcare for Infants and Preschoolers: 9:00–12:00 p.m. in the Seminar room and Small Lounge in Regas House, sign in required.

All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

To learn more about the history of the land we are on, read our report here:

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year C, as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

As the people gather before the service begins, we encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Listen to your life.
See it for the fathomless mystery that it is.
In the boredom and pain of it no less than in the excitement and gladness:
touch, taste, smell your way to the holy and hidden heart of it because in the last analysis all moments are key moments, and life itself is grace.

— Frederick Buechner (1926–2022)

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Stand — all who are able — as the procession enters the Chapel.

SALUTATION Remain standing.

Tim Rich

Minister: Alleluia! Christ is risen!

People: Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

COLLECT FOR PURITY Remain standing.

Minister and People:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA Remain standing.

Minister: Glory to God in the highest,

People: and peace to all people on earth.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Tim Rich

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Remain standing; silence is kept.

Minister: Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ's Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LESSON Seated.

Anina Minotto

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles (5:27–32).

The apostles were taken before the Sanhedrin, and the high priest began to interrogate them: "We gave you strict orders not to teach about that name, yet you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you are determined to make us responsible for this Jesus' blood." To this, Peter and the apostles replied, "Better for us to obey God than people! The God of our ancestors has raised Jesus, whom you put to death by hanging him on a tree. This One, who has been exalted to God's right hand as Ruler and Savior, is to bring repentance and the forgiveness of sins to Israel. We are eyewitnesses to this. And so is the Holy Spirit, who has been given to those who obey God."

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL Standing — all who are able.

Susan Russell

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in John (20:19–31).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the religious authorities, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As God has sent me, so I send you." When Jesus had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained." But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But Thomas said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands, and put my finger in the mark of the nails and my hand in his side, I will not believe." A week later the disciples were again in the house, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were shut, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands. Reach out your hand and put it in my side. Do not doubt but believe." Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written so that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the very Son of God, and that through believing you may have life in Jesus' name.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

Susan Russell

A period of silence is observed after the sermon.

NICENE CREED Standing — all who are able.

Anina Minotto

*We are using a version of the Nicene Creed approved by the Standing Liturgical Commission.
Recognizing and including all expressions of gender in God we proclaim:*

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Remain standing.

Anina Minotto

Names of those for whom we continue to pray are on p. 11.

Minister: We remember those who have asked for our prayers and those who offer their thanksgivings.

Names of those who have requested prayers are read.

Minister: We pray for those who have died and for the families and friends who grieve.

Names of those who have died are read.

Minister: For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

The People may add their own petitions aloud or in the silence of their hearts.

Minister: Loving God, we offer these prayers, knowing that you are doing for those for whom we pray more than we could imagine or desire. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS Seated.

Tim Rich

OFFERTORY SENTENCES

Priest: All things come of thee, O Lord,

People: And of thine own, have we given thee. Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING Standing – all who are able.

Tim Rich

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

And now we give you thanks for Christ's glorious resurrection from the dead. By his death Christ has destroyed death and by his rising again Christ has restored to us eternal life.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Priest: Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Priest and People:

We remember Christ's death,
We proclaim Christ's resurrection,
We await Christ's coming in glory;

Priest: And we offer our praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

Priest and People:

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant.

Unite us to your Son in his self-offering, that we may be acceptable through Christ, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, align all things with your love, and bring us to that heavenly country where with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra
como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父
愿人都尊你的名为圣，
愿你的国降临， 愿你的旨意行在地上，
如同行在天上。
我们日用的饮食，
今日赐给我们。 免我们的债，
如同我们免了人的债。
不叫我们遇见试探，
救我们脱离凶恶。
因为国度、权柄、荣耀，
全是你的，直到永远。阿门。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: Alleluia! We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us. Alleluia!

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive wine, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, you may touch the base of the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available at your request.

By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons. If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Tim Rich (adult Baptism) or Amanda Baughman (infant/child Baptism) to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. (trich@allsaints-pas.org or abaughman@allsaints-pas.org)

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Tim Rich

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Eternal God, great Creator,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

DISMISSAL

Tim Rich

Minister: Alleluia! Alleluia! Let us go forth rejoicing in the name of Christ.

People: Thanks be to God. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Learn More About Becoming Beloved Community

Sunday, April 27, 12:00–2:00 p.m., in the Forum

In the Episcopal Church, we are guided by the vision of Becoming Beloved Community, our church's long-term commitment to racial justice, healing and reconciliation. We're all on a lifelong journey toward God's dream, taking intentional and faithful steps as if moving through a labyrinth.

All Saints Pasadena is a part of this nationwide church initiative for racial reconciliation and in the next weeks and months will be offering several opportunities for moving closer to Beloved Community. Sacred Ground, a film-based race dialogue series for white community members will launch on May 4. Several opportunities for learning more and registration are available on the All Saints website now.

In person options for exploring Sacred Ground and for registration will be available in the Forum after church April 27, 12–2 p.m.

Please visit our website here to learn more and become a part of Becoming Beloved Community.

Nonviolence / Civil Disobedience Training

Sunday, April 27, 3:30–6:00 p.m., in the Learning Center

We will gather for an interfaith training on nonviolent civil disobedience — exploring its religious, philosophical & historical underpinnings and engaging in concrete practices of direct action.

Now is the time to ground ourselves in why/how we resist systemic injustice and refresh our skills in the collective strategies/tactics that will help us for the long haul. Join us as we come together to be the change we want to see. Learning Center. Sponsored by the EDLA Sacred Resistance Task Force, CLUE & Nefesh and hosted by the ASC Peace & Justice Ministry. For more information

Programs for Children (Birth — 5th grade) at All Saints:

Your feedback is vital in helping us shape our ministry to best serve the needs of your family. This survey is designed to gather input from parents of children in different age groups, so we can offer meaningful and relevant programs. Please take a few moments to fill out all sections that apply to your family.

Sunday Morning Childcare for Infants Through Preschoolers 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

Child Care is available for children birth-Kindergarten in the Seminar Room in Regas House from 9:00 a.m. –12:00 p.m. Parents must sign their kids in and out. .

Godly Play During Sunday service, children in kindergarten through 5th grade are invited (after the gospel reading) to attend, which invites children to enter into our sacred stories, respecting their innate spirituality, and encourages them to use their curiosity and imagination to experience the mystery and joy of God.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel

Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the Sunday morning, 10:00 a.m. service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

Programs for Youth (6th — 12th grade) at All Saints:

Acolyte Program All youth in grades 6–12 are invited to join one of our awesome Acolyte teams! It's a great opportunity to serve our church and our community while learning about our Anglican traditions. As an Acolyte, you'll work with a team, take on leadership roles, wear cool robes, and enjoy many donuts along the way. Plus, you'll make new friends and earn service hours for school! Come be part of something special!

Youth Dinners Join us for free dinners and great community every Wednesday from 6:30–7 p.m.

Youth Group for 6th–12th grade We will meet every Wednesday to be in community together. We learn together, support each other and of course have fun together. Youth Group is a safe place to express who you really are. Wednesdays, 7–8:30 p.m.

Not-So-Board-Game Night Every second Friday of the month, 6–9:00 p.m., we gather at All Saints church to play board games, eat snacks and hang out. It's tradition to end the evening with a murder mystery game. Who will win this time, the murderer or the town's people? Come and find out.

Offerings Online

Women's Lectionary Online Bible Study

We are using Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney's A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church, Year C. Each online Bible study session begins with an oral reading of the week's scriptures and then proceeds to conversation grounded in those readings as well as in Dr. Gafney's notes which reveal the womanist perspective from which the lectionary was written. All are welcome! All Sessions will be on Mondays at 9:00 a.m. Pacific standard time. Register here in advance here and you will be sent the link for the meeting. (The link will be good for the whole year)

Centering Prayer Tuesdays, 6:45–8:00 p.m., via Zoom

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Fiction Fun! Reads Paradise by Abdulrazak Gurnah

Friday, April 25, 7:00 p.m. in the Guild Room

Abdulrazak Gurnah's Paradise (1994) is our April book selection. Gurnah, born on the island of Zanzibar in 1948, won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2021. The Nobel Prize Committee called Paradise his major work. Discussing it in the New Yorker in 2021, Kristen Roupenian said that when she read this novel in graduate school, she felt "like a person who still knew how to read for pleasure. My clearest memories of the book have to do with its sensory richness, its flashes of eroticism, and the protagonist's dreamy interiority." It evoked "a web of multilingual communities that are threatened by an encroaching colonial monoculture."

Interfaith Study Group Presents:

"Hard Conversations" – Listening with Compassion, Sharing with Courage

Sunday, April 27, 5:00-7:30 p.m. in Sweetland Hall

Led by Aziza Hasan and Andrea Hodos, Executive and Associate Directors of New-Ground: A Muslim-Jewish Partnership for Change. Violence in the Middle East has brought pain & anger into our local communities. How can we talk with one another in ways that increase understanding, rather than distrust, bias and dehumanization? Aziza & Andrea have been acknowledged nationally for their expertise supporting communities to better understand one another in these very difficult discussions. Please bring an open heart, a mind willing to listen and learn, and a vegetarian dish to share in our potluck.

"From Director Andrew Ahn comes a joyful comedy of errors about a chosen family navigating cultural identity, queerness, and family expectations. Frustrated with his commitment-phobic boyfriend Chris and running out of time, Min makes a proposal: a green-card marriage with their friend Angela in exchange for her partner Lee's expensive IVF. Elopement plans are upended, however, when Min's grandmother surprises them with an extravagant Korean wedding banquet. Starring Bowen Yang, Lily Gladstone, Kelly Marie Tran, Han Gi-chan, Joan Chen, and Youn Yuh-jung, The Wedding Banquet is a poignant and heartfelt reminder that being part of a family means learning to both accept and forgive."

Theatre Ministry —Mark Your Calendars

A Man of No Importance

Friday, May 9, 7:30 p.m., at A Noise Within. Tickets are $41, and here.

Step into 1960s Dublin, where an amateur theater group and their passionate leader, bus conductor Alfie Byrne, bring Oscar Wilde's Salome to life against all odds. A Man of No Importance weaves a heartfelt tale of courage, love, and the transformative power of theatre. From the acclaimed creators of Ragtime, this evocative and award-winning musical delves into themes of identity, acceptance, and artistic defiance, echoing the bold spirit of Broadway itself. A story about friendship and redemption, it celebrates the enduring impact of theater for a man who proves he is anything but unimportant.

A Doll's House, Part 2

Friday, May 23, 8:00 p.m., at Pasadena Playhouse, Tickets are $40, and available here.

Nora's back—15 years after walking out on her family—ready to confront the fallout of her iconic escape. Bold, satisfying, and packed with razor-sharp twists, Lucas Hnath's Tony-nominated play dives into the messy reality of what it means to be a woman living on your own terms. It's complicated. It's witty. And it's happening at Pasadena Playhouse. Get your tickets for A Doll's House, Part 2 and don't miss this audacious sequel 146 years after Ibsen's classic.

If You Crochet or Knit, Consider Joining the Prayer Shawl Ministry

Tuesday, May 13, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m., in the Regas House Lobby

The Prayer Shawl Ministry meets the 2nd Tuesday of every month. We gather in community to share our prayers, our stories, the work of our hands and hearts while knitting and crocheting shawls to be given as mantles of healing to those in need of comfort. Prayer shawl participants have long known that working with hands is a meditative spiritual practice that quiets minds to hear God's clear voice. Please join us with yarn, needles, and prayer.

Women's Health and Well-Being Retreat

Saturday, May 17, 10:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m. in the Guild Room and Sweetland Hall.

Join us for a relaxing, reinvigorating morning and early afternoon of retreat and renewal time focusing on women's health and well-being. With the events of early January, we are all in various stages of recovery and grief, all while navigating paths of health that are not prioritized by today's health system.

Topics include what aspects of health we need to pay attention to for overall wellbeing (social, emotional, mental, physical, spiritual, and more), the evidence-based guidelines for doing so, and how trauma impacts our health over the course of our lives.

Keynote features Dr. Emily Dossett, Reproductive Psychiatrist, Assistant Professor in Psychiatry, Obstetrics/ Gynecology at USC and Centering Prayer with Dr. Carol Hekman, Psychotherapist, Psychoanalyst, trained in Richard Rohr's Living School on spirituality. We'll also enjoy discussion and Centering Prayer time, lunch, and yoga meditation.

Cost is $25, scholarships are available. Register here.

May Jazz Vespers: Ernie Watts

Sunday, May 25, 5:00 p.m. on the Chancel

Two-time Grammy Award winner Ernie Watts is one of the most versatile and prolific saxophone players in music. Summing it all up, Watts describes his ongoing journey: "I see music as the common bond having potential to bring all people together in peace and harmony. All things in the physical world have vibration; the music I choose to play is the energy vibration that touches a common bond in people. I believe that music is God singing through us, an energy to be used for good."

There is no charge. No reservations required.

Save the Date for the Adult Choirs' Spring Concert

Creation

Sunday, June 1, 5:00 p.m. in the Church

Join us for Creation, a breathtaking choral-orchestral concert that celebrates the beauty, diversity, and interconnectedness of life, on June 1 at 5pm at All Saints.

Through the powerful music of acclaimed composer Dan Forrest, this work invites us into a deep reflection on the majesty of creation, the dignity of all people, and our shared longing for healing and unity. Creation offers an expansive and inclusive vision of our world, one that embraces the wonder of existence and humanity's profound capacity for love, compassion, and justice. Let's come together to celebrate the beauty of the world and the hope that still shines through.

Generosity at All Saints — Make a Special Easter Gift

You're invited to share in the joy of Easter by giving a special offering in gratitude for the hope and new life we celebrate.

Thank you for your generosity – Happy Easter!

Sing at All Saints

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel. Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works. Information = Grace Chung, Associate Organist-Choirmaster at gchung@allsaints-pas.org.

Ushers Needed!

Ushering at All Saints is a team effort and fun especially for those who enjoy meeting new people and/or get antsy sitting still for more than 10 min. The commitment is to serve one service a month at one of our services plus about 6 special assignments throughout the year for evening and Festival services. We would love to add you to the team! Contact Melissa Hayes, mhayes@allsaints-pas.org.

Become a Greeter!

Are you looking for a fun opportunity to be more involved on Sundays? Be the face of radical welcome to all who come to All Saints by joining a Greeters team. Teams are forming now and commitment is as little as one Sunday a month. For more information, contact ministry lead Ben Martin brmusc@gmail.com.

SACRED GROUND and SACRED BEING SESSIONS

Becoming Beloved Community

In the Episcopal Church we are guided by the vision of becoming Beloved Community — our church's long-term commitment to racial justice, healing and reconciliation.

We understand that we are all on a lifelong journey toward God's dream, and it is all of our work to do as we take intentional and faithful steps forward, as if moving through a labyrinth.

All Saints Pasadena is committed to being part of this nationwide church initiative for racial reconciliation and in the next weeks and months we will be offering two opportunities for us all to do the work of moving closer to Beloved Community.

Sacred Ground — a film-based race dialogue series for white community members — will launch on May 4.

Sacred Being — an opportunity for people of color to come together to find a pathway of liberation from internalized racial oppression — will launch soon.

To register for Sacred Ground or pre-register interest in Sacred Being use the QRcodes below or visit our website at <https://allsaints-pas.org/becoming-beloved-community/>
