All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

To learn more about the history of the land we are on, read our report here:

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer and Enfleshed. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year C, as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

Assisted listening devices are available at the Welcome table on the lawn.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel

Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. to others by silencing all cell phones.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles (11:1–18).

The apostles and the community in Judea heard that Gentiles, too, had accepted the word of God. As a result, when Peter went up to Jerusalem, some of the Jewish believers took issue with him. "So you have been visiting the Gentiles and eating with them, have you?" they said. Peter then explained the whole affair to them step by step from the beginning, "One day when I was in the town of Joppa, I fell into a trance while at prayer and had a vision of something like a big sheet being let down from heaven by its four corners. The sheet came quite close to me. I watched it intently and saw in it all sorts of animals and wild beasts; everything possible that could walk, crawl or fly. Then I heard a voice that said to me, 'Now, Peter, make your sacrifice and eat.' I replied, 'I cannot, my God. Nothing profane or unclean has ever entered my mouth!' And a second time the voice spoke from heaven, 'Do not call profane what God has made clean.' This happened three times, then the sheet and what was in it was drawn up to heaven again. Just at that moment, three couriers stopped outside the house where we were staying, they had been sent from Caesarea to fetch me, and the Spirit told me to have no hesitation about returning with them. These six believers came with me as well, and we entered Cornelius' house. He told us he had seen an angel standing in the house who had said, 'Send messengers to Joppa and bring back Simon, known as Peter; he has a message for you that will save you and your entire household.' I had hardly begun to speak when the Holy Spirit came down on them in the same way the Spirit came on us in the beginning, and I remembered what Christ had said: 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' I realized then that God was giving them the same gift that had been given to us when we came to believe in our Savior Jesus Christ. And who am I to stand in God's way?" This account satisfied them, and they gave glory to God, saying, "God has granted the repentance that leads to life; even to the Gentiles!"

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

Expanding our capacity to offer worship in the language of the hearts of our increasingly diverse All Saints community is one of the ways we live into our values of Radical Inclusion and Joyful Spirituality. And a step forward in that journey is including Spanish and Mandarin in our weekly liturgies ... allowing the whole community to be enriched by the gifts of all.

¡Hombres y mujeres, jóvenes y viejos!

¡Alaben todos el nombre de Dios, pues
sólo su nombre es altísimo!
¡Su honor está por encima del cielo y
de la tierra!

¡Él ha dado poder a su pueblo!
¡Alabanza de todos sus fieles,
de los israelitas, su pueblo cercano!

you hosts!

Praise God, sun and moon, praise God,
all you shining stars!

Praise God, you highest heavens, and you waters above the heavens!

Let them praise the name of our God, by whose command they were created.

God established them forever and ever and gave a decree which will not pass away.

Praise our God from the earth,
you sea creatures and ocean depths,
lightening and hail, snow and mist,
and storm winds that fulfill God's word,
mountains and all hills, fruit trees and all cedars, wild animals and all cattle, small animals and flying birds,

rulers of the earth, leaders of all nations,
all the judges in the world, young people, elders and children; let them all praise the name of our God whose name alone is exalted, whose majesty
transcends heaven and earth,

and who has raised up a horn for God's people to the praise of the faithful, the children of Israel, the people dear to God! Alleluia!

A Reading the Book of Revelation (21:1–6).

I saw new heavens and a new earth. The former heavens and the former earth had passed away, and the sea existed no longer. I saw a new Jerusalem, the holy city, coming down out of heaven from God, beautiful as a bride and groom on their wedding day. And I heard a loud voice calling from the throne, "Look! God's Tabernacle is among humankind! God will live with them; they will be God's people, and God will be fully present among them. The Most High will wipe away every tear from their eyes. And death, mourning, crying and pain will be no more, for the old order has fallen." The One who sat on the throne said, "Look! I am making everything new!" and added, "Write this, for what I am saying is trustworthy and true." And that One continued, "It is finished. I am the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End. To those who are thirsty I will give drink freely from the spring of the water of life"

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

At the last supper, when Judas left, Jesus said, "Now is the Chosen One glorified and God is glorified as well. If God has been glorified, God will in turn glorify the Chosen One and will do so very soon. My little children, I won't be with you much longer. You'll look for me, but what I said to the Temple authorities, I say to you: where I am going you cannot come. I give you a new commandment: Love one another. And you're to love one another the way I have loved you. This is how all will know that you're my disciples: that you truly love one another."

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Priest and People:

We remember Christ's death,
We proclaim Christ's resurrection,
We await Christ's coming in glory;

Priest: And we offer our praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

Priest and People:

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant.

Unite us to your Son in his self-offering, that we may be acceptable through Christ, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, align all things with your love, and bring us to that heavenly country where with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal. Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父，愿你的名被尊为圣，愿你的国降临，愿你的旨意行在地上，如同行在天上。我们日用的饮食，求父今日赐给我们。又求饶恕我们的罪，如同我们饶恕得罪我们的人。不叫我们遇见试探，拯救我们脱离兇恶。因为国度、权柄、荣耀，全是父的，永无穷尽。阿们。

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Tim Rich (adult Baptism) or Amanda Baughman (infant/child Baptism) to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. Keynote features Dr. Emily Dossett, Reproductive Psychiatrist, Assistant Professor in Psychiatry, Obstetrics/ Gynecology at USC and Centering Prayer with Dr. Carol Hekman, Psychotherapist, Psychoanalyst, trained in Richard Rohr's Living School on spirituality. ### A Celebration of Resilience & Resistance

Saturday, May 17, 11:00 a.m.–2:00 p.m.

hosted at the Episcopal residence of Bishop John Taylor and Canon Kathy O'Connor

We are not living in ordinary times and the struggle is real. Our LGBTQ Ministry is gearing up to make God's love tangible at Pride Events around the diocese in the wake of accelerated targeting of LGBTQ people in general and transgender people in specific. And our Sacred Resistance Task Force is continuing to organize and mobilize to defend the dignity and human rights of all people, especially those targeted because of their immigration and refugee status.

Join us as we gather to celebrate the ongoing work of becoming Beloved Community in the Diocese of Los Angeles at a festive brunch jointly sponsored by the LGBTQ Ministry and Sacred Ground Task Force.

This inaugural joint event will be an opportunity not only to share food and fellowship, but to remember the roots of resilience and resistance that have brought us this far on the journey -- and to recommit to the challenges ahead as we move forward together. It will also be a chance for us to honor and give thanks for Bishop John's unwavering support for this prophetic work during his episcopate as we prepare for the election of our next bishop and a new chapter for the Diocese of Los Angeles.

Suggested donation $40. Cash, checks and credit will be accepted at the door.

Register here and be part of being the change we want to see in the world.

Holy Rakers

Next gathering: Saturday, May 17, 8:30 a.m., by the vegetable garden near Scott Hall.

Join the fellowship of other worker bees as we plant, weed, prune, mulch and otherwise attend to the ever-changing church gardens. We meet the third Saturday morning of each month. All are welcome. Ministry Leader: Judith Fischer

Youth Day of Restoration for All Youth Impacted by Eaton Fire

Sunday, May 25, 1:00–4:00 p.m., in Regas House

For youth in 5th-12th from the Altadena/Pasadena community are invited to have hair styling/haircuts and make-up sessions offered by Paul Mitchell School, to participate in creative activities and art therapy, and to just relax with therapy dogs.

“We all know today's kids are carrying a lot—and for youth impacted by the fires, that weight can feel even heavier,” said Amanda Baughman, All Saints' Director of Children, Youth and Families Ministry. “That's why we wanted to create a space where they can take a breath, reset, and enjoy some much-needed fun. I hope youth from all over Altadena and Pasadena come through for a fresh cut, a brand-new book, or to hang out with friends in our art studio space.”

There will also be a free store, offering EOS Lip Balm, EOS Lotion, Moisturizer and Make-Up bags, Briogeo Haircare, hundreds of YA books provided by The Book Truck© and Badger State Vettes, Ltd, and cozy handmade quilts donated by quilt-maker guilds across California.

Sing at All Saints

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel. Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works. Information = Grace Chung, Associate Organist-Choirmaster at gchung@allsaints-pas.org.

Sacred Being

Hello Friends,

It is my joy to announce an exciting upcoming opportunity here at All Saints. As a parish, Beloved Community is the heartbeat of so much that we do. It stands as the foundation of our four core values of courageous justice, ethical stewardship, radical inclusivity, and joyful spirituality. Those core values are all a part of what we call the Beloved Community. It is a beautiful bond of relationships and connectivity that break through the glass ceilings of white supremacy, patriarchy, homophobia, transphobia, scarcity and so much more. It is not just a resisting of who we don't want to be and to become, but it is a visioning and striving towards the people and community we DO want to be and to become.

Towards that end, in collaboration with the Center For Restorative Justice (<https://www.cfrjustice.org/>) here in Pasadena, we are pleased to announce that we are embarking on a journey specifically designed for our BIPOC parishioners here at All Saints. As our white siblings are embarking on their own distinct and unique journey towards Beloved Community through "Sacred Ground", we will be embarking on our own distinct and unique journey with a series we are calling "Sacred Being." We all have our work to do in Beloved Community, and in this season our work as people of color will focus primarily on healing, resiliency, community building and solidarity. Through this journey we will reclaim and remember that our existence and being is not deficient as defined by white supremacy, but our existence and very being is sacred as defined by God.

With that being said, please join us on Wednesday, June 18th at 6:30 p.m. Dinner and refreshments will be provided. This will be a visioning and info session where we will lay out the specifics of the series as a whole, and a listening session where we will hear your needs and desires for the series.

Please RSVP for the information session at the following link:

<https://allsaints.ccbchurch.com/goto/forms/93/responses/new>

After registering you will be provided with the address and location. Thank you for your time and attention to this invitation.

Peace and Blessings.

Rev. Mark Chase
