Welcome!

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith there is a place for you here.

Sunday Morning Childcare

Childcare for Infants through Preschoolers (5 yrs.): 9:00–11:30 a.m. in the Seminar room and Small Lounge in Regas House, sign in required.

All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

To learn more about the history of the land we are on, read our report here:

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

As the people gather before the service begins, we encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Loving God, you are always more ready to bestow your good gifts upon us than we are to seek them. You are more willing to give than we desire or deserve. Help us so to seek that we may truly find, so to ask that we may joyfully receive, so to knock that the door of your mercy may be opened for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Stand — all who are able — as the procession enters the Chapel.

 People: See the greatness and power of God.
 Minister: Tell everyone who is anxious,
 People: Be strong and do not be afraid.

 People: They will train for war no more.
 Minister: This is the promise of God;
 People: God's promise shall be fulfilled.

CONFESSION OF SIN Remain standing.

Tim Rich

Minister: Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Remain standing, silence is kept.

Minister and People:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

MUTUAL ASSURANCE

Minister: There is no sin so great that God's love cannot forgive. In the name of Jesus Christ your sins are forgiven. Amen.

People: There is no sin so great that God's love cannot forgive. In the name of Jesus Christ your sins are forgiven. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Remain standing; silence is kept.

Minister: O God, by the leading of a star you manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth: Lead us, who know you now by faith, to your presence, where we may see your glory face to face; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

LESSON Seated.

Anina Minotto

A Reading from Isaiah (60:1–6).

Arise, shine, for your light has come! The glory of God is rising upon you! Though shadows still cover the earth and dense clouds enshroud the nations, upon you the Almighty now dawns, and God's glory will be seen among you! The nations will come to your light and the leaders to your bright dawn! Lift up your eyes and look around: they are gathering and coming to you – your children journey from afar, escorted in safety; you will see them and beam with joy, your heart will swell with pride. The riches of the sea will flow to you, and the wealth of the nations will come to you – camel caravans will cover your roads, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; everyone in Sheba will come, bringing gold and incense and singing the praise of God.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 72:1–7, 10–14 Remain seated; read in unison.

O God, give your anointed one your judgment and your justice.
 Teach your Chosen One to govern your people rightly and bring justice to the oppressed.
 The mountains will bring the people peace and the hills justice!

Your anointed one will defend the oppressed among the people,
 save the children of the poor, and crush the oppressor.

The reign of your anointed one will endure as long as the sun and the moon—throughout all generations.
 The rule of the Chosen One will be like rain coming down on the meadow, like showers watering the earth.
 Justice will flower through the days, and profound peace, until the moon shall be no more.

Tarshish and the Isles will offer gifts; Arabia and Sheba will bring tribute.
 All rulers will pay homage, and all nations will serve your anointed.

Your anointed will rescue the poor when they cry out, and the oppressed when there is no one to help them.

Your Chosen One will take pity on the lowly poor and will save their lives.
 Your Chosen One will rescue them from all violence and oppression, and will treat their blood as precious.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL Standing — all who are able.

Tim Rich

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (2:1–12).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

After Jesus' birth – which happened in Bethlehem of Judea, during the reign of Herod – astrologers from the East arrived in Jerusalem and asked, "Where is the newborn ruler of the Jews? We observed his star at its rising, and have come to pay homage." At this news Herod became greatly disturbed, as did all of Jerusalem. Summoning all the chief priests and religious scholars of the people, he asked them where the Messiah was to be born. "In Bethlehem of Judea," they informed him. "Here is what the prophet has written: 'And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah, are by no means least among the leaders of Judah, since from you will come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel.'" Herod called the astrologers aside and found out from them the exact time of the star's appearance. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, after having instructed them, "Go and get detailed information about the child. When you have found him, report back to me – so that I may go and offer homage, too." After their audience with the Herod, they set out. The star which they had observed at its rising went ahead of them until it came to a standstill over the place where the child lay. They were overjoyed at seeing the star and, upon entering the house, found the child with Mary, his mother. They prostrated themselves and paid homage. Then they opened their coffers and presented the child with gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh. They were warned in a dream not to return to Herod, so they went back to their own country by another route.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

PRESENTATION AND BLESSING OF PRAYER SHAWLS

Tim Rich

Priest: Loving God,
 You are the source of all healing.
 Bless these prayer shawls, and the hands that made them.
 May they bring comfort and healing to those to whom they are given, and may they be strengthened by your constant presence and Love.
 In the name of the healing Christ,
 Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING Standing – all who are able.

Tim Rich

Priest: God dwells in you.
 People: And also in you.
 Priest: Lift up your hearts.
 People: We lift them to the Lord.
 Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
 People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God,
 Creator of heaven and earth.

Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
 heaven and earth are full of your glory.
 Hosanna in the highest.
 Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
 Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said,
 "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Priest: Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Priest and People:

We remember Christ's death,
We proclaim Christ's resurrection,
We await Christ's coming in glory;

Priest: And we offer our praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

Priest and People:

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant.

Unite us to your Son in his self-offering, that we may be acceptable through Christ, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, align all things with your love, and bring us to that heavenly country where with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra
como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父
愿人都尊你的名为圣， 愿你的国降临， 愿你的旨意行在地上， 如同行在天上。 我们日用的饮食， 今日赐给我们。 免我们的债，
如同我们免了人的债。 不叫我们遇见试探， 救我们脱离凶恶。
因为国度、权柄、荣耀，
全是你的，直到永远。阿门。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: Alleluia! We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us. Alleluia!

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive wine, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, you may touch the base of the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available at your request.

By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons. If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Tim Rich (adult Baptism) or Amanda Baughman (infant/child Baptism) to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. (trich@allsaints-pas.org or abaughman@allsaints-pas.org)

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Tim Rich

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Eternal God, great Creator,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Healing Eucharist at 10:00 a.m. in the Church

9:00 a.m. in the Guild Room Spiritual Healing: A Conversation About Wholeness with Thomas Diaz

This presentation invites us to gently explore what spiritual healing can look like in our own lives. Rather than offering quick fixes or narrow definitions, we'll reflect on healing as a way of reconnecting—with ourselves, with one another, and with the presence of the Holy that moves through our days. Drawing on the contemplative rhythms and reflective practices that have shaped the Episcopal tradition, we'll consider how openness, compassion, and attentive presence can create space for renewal and deeper grounding.

Healing Service & Blessing of the Prayer Shawls

In the Healing Service you are invited to come forward and experience the laying on of hands — an ancient tradition in the church and a powerful experience. As we begin the year, let go of the past, whatever it has been, and welcome the new year. Also during the service, prayer shawls knitted and crocheted by members of our community will be presented and blessed.

Walk the Labyrinth

Sunday, January 4, 8:30 a.m. –1:00 p.m. in Sweetland Hall

All are invited to bring your intentions for a Healing Sunday Labyrinth Walk. Use this spiritual practice to add your prayers for healing for self, the All Saints community, individuals and communities impacted by the Eaton and Palisades fires, those suffering in our nation and around the world, especially in the Middle East and Ukraine. Add a Labyrinth Walk on this contemplative day of healing for our broken, hopeful and resilient world.

Fiction Fun! Reads
The Heaven and Earth Grocery Store
by James McBride

Friday, January 23, in the Guild Room,
6:30 p.m. Early conversations 7:00—8:30 p.m. Book Discussion

Named one of the best books of the year by the New York Times, NPR, The New Yorker and others, this story starts in 1972, when a skeleton is discovered, but then it moves back to the 1920s and 1930s in Pottstown, Pennsylvania. The New York Times reviewer said that it's "a murder mystery locked inside a Great American Novel." It adds that the author "has reached back into our shared past when, by migration and violence, segregation and collision, America was still becoming America. And through this evocation, McBride offers us a thorough reminder: Against seemingly impossible odds, even in the midst of humanity's most wicked designs, love, community and action can save us." All are welcome!

All Saints Church Welcomes Back Diana Butler Bass, Sunday Feb. 1

(Rescheduled from November)

Diana Butler Bass is an author, scholar, and public theologian known for her insightful and accessible work on contemporary Christianity, spirituality, and church life — particularly how faith is evolving in a rapidly changing cultural landscape. In her latest book — A Beautiful Year: 52 Meditations on Faith, Wisdom, and Perseverance — she explores the Christian liturgical calendar as a cycle of sacred stories that compose a larger narrative of love, hospitality, mercy, justice, and gratitude. Reclaiming and presenting fresh perspectives for every biblical text in the church year — from musing on A Wrinkle in Time in Advent to remembering her father's old-fashioned blue Christmas decorations — Diana gives us both wisdom from the past and a road map grounded in hope for the challenges that lie ahead. A long-time friend of All Saints Church, we are delighted to welcome Diana back to Pasadena.

A Climate Evensong

Sunday, January 11, 5:00 p.m., in the Church

Inspired by the vision of Dr. Lucy Jones, the service is framed within the traditional Anglican liturgy of Choral Evensong.
