9:00 a.m. in the Guild Room Spiritual Healing: A Conversation About Wholeness with Thomas Diaz

This presentation invites us to gently explore what spiritual healing can look like in our own lives. Rather than offering quick fixes or narrow definitions, we'll reflect on healing as a way of reconnecting—with ourselves, with one another, and with the presence of the Holy that moves through our days. Drawing on the contemplative rhythms and reflective practices that have shaped the Episcopal tradition, we'll consider how openness, compassion, and attentive presence can create space for renewal and deeper grounding.

Healing Service & Blessing of the Prayer Shawls

In the Healing Service you are invited to come forward and experience the laying on of hands — an ancient tradition in the church and a powerful experience. As we begin the year, let go of the past, whatever it has been, and welcome the new year. Also during the service, prayer shawls knitted and crocheted by members of our community will be presented and blessed.

Walk the Labyrinth

Sunday, January 4, 8:30 a.m. –1:00 p.m. in Sweetland Hall

All are invited to bring your intentions for a Healing Sunday Labyrinth Walk. Use this spiritual practice to add your prayers for healing for self, the All Saints community, individuals and communities impacted by the Eaton and Palisades fires, those suffering in our nation and around the world, especially in the Middle East and Ukraine. Add a Labyrinth Walk on this contemplative day of healing for our broken, hopeful and resilient world.

Sing at All Saints

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel. Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works.

Fiction Fun! Reads
The Heaven and Earth Grocery Store
by James McBride

Friday, January 23, in the Guild Room,
6:30 p.m. Early conversations 7:00—8:30 p.m. Book Discussion

Named one of the best books of the year by the New York Times, NPR, The New Yorker and others, this story starts in 1972, when a skeleton is discovered, but then it moves back to the 1920s and 1930s in Pottstown, Pennsylvania. The New York Times reviewer said that it's "a murder mystery locked inside a Great American Novel." It adds that the author "has reached back into our shared past when, by migration and violence, segregation and collision, America was still becoming America. And through this evocation, McBride offers us a thorough reminder: Against seemingly impossible odds, even in the midst of humanity's most wicked designs, love, community and action can save us." All are welcome!

All Saints Church Welcomes Back Diana Butler Bass, Sunday Feb. 1

(Rescheduled from November)

Diana Butler Bass is an author, scholar, and public theologian known for her insightful and accessible work on contemporary Christianity, spirituality, and church life — particularly how faith is evolving in a rapidly changing cultural landscape. In her latest book — A Beautiful Year: 52 Meditations on Faith, Wisdom, and Perseverance — she explores the Christian liturgical calendar as a cycle of sacred stories that compose a larger narrative of love, hospitality, mercy, justice, and gratitude. Reclaiming and presenting fresh perspectives for every biblical text in the church year — from musing on A Wrinkle in Time in Advent to remembering her father's old-fashioned blue Christmas decorations — Diana gives us both wisdom from the past and a road map grounded in hope for the challenges that lie ahead. A long-time friend of All Saints Church, we are delighted to welcome Diana back to Pasadena.

Join us for:

9:00 a.m. Forum presentation on A Beautiful Year
