Fiction Fun! Reads

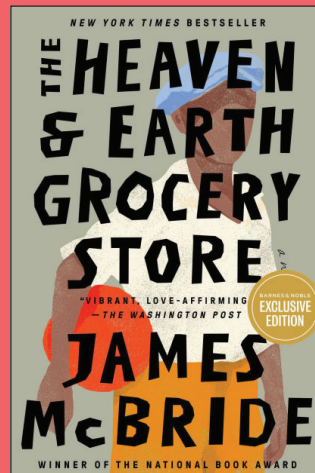

The Heaven and Earth Grocery Store

by James McBride

Friday, January 23, in the Guild Room,

6:30 p.m. Early conversations 7:00—8:30 p.m. Book Discussion

Named one of the best books of the year by the New York Times, NPR, The New Yorker and others, this story starts in 1972, when a skeleton is discovered, but then it moves back to the 1920s and 1930s in Pottstown, Pennsylvania. The New York Times reviewer said that it's "a murder mystery locked inside a Great American Novel." It adds that the author "has reached back into our shared past when, by migration and violence, segregation and collision, America was still becoming America. And through this evocation, McBride offers us a thorough reminder: Against seemingly impossible odds, even in the midst of humanity's most wicked designs, love, community and action can save us." All are welcome! Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org

As the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement, we follow the Way of Jesus. His way is the Way of Love, and that love has the power to change lives and change the world. One way to follow Jesus is to be part of The Way of Love. The Way of Love is a way of life. More than a program or a curriculum, it is an exploration of spiritual practices that you can incorporate into your life, bringing you into a closer relationship with God our creator and with Jesus helping us to live lives modeled after his. How will you and your ministry grow more centered in Jesus and share his loving, liberating, life-giving way in the world?

Experience a gripping tale of ambition, manipulation, and ruthless power. Set in the aftermath of a long civil war, the play follows Richard, a cunning and charismatic villain, who unexpectedly schemes a path to the throne – leaving behind a trail of betrayal and bloodshed. With sharp wit and chilling determination, Richard stops at nothing to achieve ultimate power, even as the consequences close in. Amadeus

Friday, Feb. 27, 8 p.m., at Pasadena Playhouse

Tickets are $45 and available here.

The stage is set for a riveting rivalry between two composers: Antonio Salieri, the court's celebrated musician, and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, the vulgar prodigy whose brilliance threatens everything Salieri holds dear. Tony Award-winner Jefferson Mays (A Christmas Carol, I Am My Own Wife) stars as Salieri under the masterful direction of Tony Award-winner Darko Tresnjak (A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder). Lavishly laced with biting wit, this Tony and Oscar-winning masterpiece dives deep into ambition, envy, and the price of greatness. Embrace the intrigue of Amadeus, where the music is divine and the drama is unforgettable.

Tickets are $41 and available here.

"There's a universe of people outside and you're responsible to it."

Arthur Miller's All My Sons is a gripping tragedy about family and morality. In the aftermath of World War II, the Keller family's fragile happiness is shattered when long-buried secrets force them to confront the consequences of their choices. Directed by Oánh Nguyễn, this timeless classic delivers an unflinching look at love, sacrifice, and the price of the American Dream.

Octopus Garden

Saturday, Mar. 21, 2 p.m., at Boston Court

Tickets are $46 and available here.

The Sacred Ground Journey Continues!

Last year from May to October, eighty All Saints parishioners completed a curriculum created by the national Episcopal Church that focuses on raising awareness of racism in our parishes and in our society. Sacred Ground, an eleven-week series spread over twenty-two weeks, includes the history of racism in the United States explored through film and readings-based dialogue circles. The eleven sessions of Sacred Ground will meet every other week starting February 24 through July 25 on Tuesday evenings, Saturdays, or online.

Registration opens this Sunday, January 25 and there will be helpers on the lawn right after church to assist with completing the online registration form or register here.

All Saints Church Welcomes Back Diana Butler Bass, Sunday Feb. 1

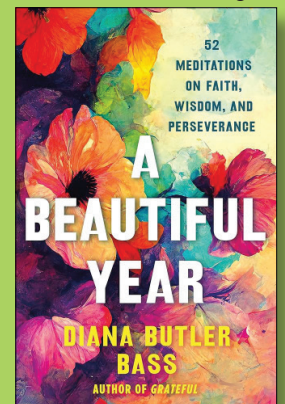

Diana Butler Bass is an author, scholar, and public theologian known for her insightful and accessible work on contemporary Christianity, spirituality, and church life — particularly how faith is evolving in a rapidly changing cultural landscape. In her latest book — A Beautiful Year: 52 Meditations on Faith, Wisdom, and Perseverance — she explores the Christian liturgical calendar as a cycle of sacred stories that compose a larger narrative of love, hospitality, mercy, justice, and gratitude. Reclaiming and presenting fresh perspectives for every biblical text in the church year — from musing on A Wrinkle in Time in Advent to remembering her father's old-fashioned blue Christmas decorations — Diana gives us both wisdom from the past and a road map grounded in hope for the challenges that lie ahead. A long-time friend of All Saints Church, we are delighted to welcome Diana back to Pasadena.

Religious Life Sunday — January 25, 2025

Longing for spiritual companionship?

Seeking to deepen your relationship with God?

Looking for resources to help your spiritual journey?

We believe that religious life has something to offer everyone!

- Discover how the communities we build among ourselves spill over in love, even right where you live.
- Thrive as you learn about prayer, receive spiritual direction, and guidance in writing and living a rule of life.
- Be trained and formed by time-tested traditions and practices to foster your spiritual growth and discernment.
- Be welcomed in spiritual friendship as you enter into religious life as a new monk or nun, sister or brother.
- Come, grow with us in our ministries and traditions as we lead retreats, make presentations about the spiritual journey, and offer hospitality to all in Christ's name.

What is Religious Life Sunday?

The General Convention of The Episcopal Church instituted this observance to educate our members on the diverse opportunities in Religious Orders (living together) Christian Communities (living apart).

Members of Religious Orders live in community with each other, give up all their possessions under a vow of poverty, and are celibate. Title III, Canon 14, section 1: “A Religious Order of this Church is a society of Christians (in communion with the See of Canterbury) who voluntarily commit themselves for life, or a term of years, to holding their possessions in common or in trust; to a celibate life in community; and obedience to their Rule and Constitution.” To learn more, visit caroa.net.

Members of Christian Communities live in their own homes, alone or with their families. Those members who take a vow of poverty may interpret this vow as simplicity and well-discerned use of resources but do not give away all their possessions. Some take a vow of chastity, but choose whether to be celibate or live in a committed relationship with a spouse or partner. Title III, Canon 14, section 2: “A Christian Community of this Church is a society of Christians (in communion with the See of Canterbury) who voluntarily commit themselves for life, or a term of years, in obedience to their Rule and Constitution.” To learn more, visit naecc.net.
