A Land Use Acknowledgment

All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

Visitors

If you are new to All Saints please stop by the Welcome Table under the red canopy on the lawn for information about All Saints Church. Greeters at the Welcome Table can assist you with any questions you may have and help you get connected. We're so glad you are here!

In the pew racks in front of you:

Purple Prayer Request Cards and Green Welcome Cards

You are welcome to complete the cards and put them in the offering basket later in the service, or bring them to the Welcome Table on the lawn after the service.

We Come Together as Beloved Community at All Saints Church as a sign of what can happen outside our doors. That we can be the change our world must see. That we can Come Together as a Beloved Community in Pasadena, the nation and the world. That the human family can Come Together. Today.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

As the people gather before the service begins, we encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Loving God, as we prepare for worship, may we find comfort in this space and inspiration from people with whom we connect. Help us to open our hearts and minds to discover what we can give as we explore abundant opportunities for transformation in ourselves and in our world. In the name and spirit of Jesus, Amen.

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Stand — all who are able — as the procession enters the Chapel.

SALUTATION Remain standing.

Tim Rich

Minister: Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People: Glory to God for ever and ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY Remain standing.

Minister and People:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA Remain standing.

Tim Rich

Minister: Glory to God in the highest,
 People: and peace to all people on earth.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Minister: God dwells in you.
 People: And also in you.
 Minister: Let us pray.

Remain standing; silence is kept.

Minister: Almighty and everlasting God, you govern all things both in heaven and on earth: Mercifully hear the supplications of your people, and in our time grant us your peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LESSON Seated.

David Stecker

A Reading from Micah (6:1–8).

Hear what the Lord says: Rise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. Hear, you mountains, the controversy of the Lord, and you enduring foundations of the earth; for the Lord has a controversy with the people, and will contend with Israel. O my people, what have I done to you? In what have I wearied you? Answer me! For I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and redeemed you from the house of slavery; and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. O my people, remember now what King Balak of Moab devised, what Balaam son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the saving acts of the Lord. With what shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before the Lord with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? The Lord has told you, O mortal, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
 People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 15 Remain seated; read in unison.

Who has the right to enter your tent, O God, or to live on your holy mountain?
 Those who conduct themselves with integrity, and work for justice;
 who speak the truth from their heart, and do not use their tongues for slander;
 who do not wrong their neighbors, and cast no discredit on their friends;
 who look with contempt on the corrupt, but honor those who revere our God;
 who always keep their promises even when it hurts;
 who do not demand interest on loans, and cannot be bribed to exploit the innocent.
 If people do these things, nothing can ever shake them.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

LESSON Remain seated.

Dianne Payne

A Reading from Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians (1:18-31).

For the message of the cross is complete absurdity to those who are headed for ruin, but to us who are experiencing salvation, it is the power of God. Scripture says, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and thwart the learning of the learned." Where are the wise? Where are the scholars? Where are the philosophers of this age? Has not God turned the wisdom of this world into folly? If it was God's wisdom that the world in its wisdom would not know God, it was because God wanted to save those who have faith through the foolishness of the message we preach. For while the Jews call for miracles and the Greeks look for wisdom, there we are preaching a Messiah nailed to a cross. To the Jews this is an obstacle they cannot get over, and to the Greeks it is madness – but to those who have been called, whether they are Jews or Greeks, Christ is the power and the wisdom of God. For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength. Consider your calling, my beloved. Not many of you were wise by human standards, not many were influential, and surely not many were well-born. God chose those whom the world considers foolish to shame the wise, and singled out the weak of this world to shame the strong. The world's lowborn and despised, those who count for nothing, were chosen by God to reduce to nothing those who were something. In this way no one should boast before God. God has given you life in Christ Jesus and has made Jesus our wisdom, our justice, our sanctification and our redemption. This is just as it is written, "Let the one who would boast, boast in our God."

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL Standing — all who are able.

Jonathan Stoner

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Matthew (5:1–12).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, the disciples came to him. Then Jesus began to speak, and taught them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

Jonathan Stoner

A period of silence is observed after the sermon.

NICENE CREED Standing — all who are able.

Anina Minotto

We are using a version of the Nicene Creed approved by the Standing Liturgical Commission.

Recognizing and including all expressions of gender in God we proclaim:

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Remain standing.

Anina Minotto

Names of those for whom we continue to pray are on p. 13.

Minister: Protecting God, may our lives mirror the story of Jesus, who healed the suffering. Bless the ways we undo harmful stories in our bodies, in our minds and in our communities.

People: Help us to know your comfort and strength.

Minister: When there are rifts and wounds among us or around us, may we be people who show up to the work of repair and restoration.

People: Help us to reflect your justice and love.

Minister: May we co-create places to play, to grieve, to heal and to organize our way to a hopeful present and a vibrant future.

People: Help us to live in your grace.

Minister: We remember those who have asked for our prayers and those who offer their thanksgivings.

Names of those who have requested prayers are read.

Minister: We pray for those who have died and for the families and friends who grieve.

Names of those who have died are read.

Minister: For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

The People may add their own petitions aloud or in the silence of their hearts.

Minister: Loving God, we offer these prayers, knowing that you are doing for those for whom we pray more than we could imagine or desire. Amen.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

O God, you have searched us out and known us, and all that we are is open to you. We confess that we have sinned: we have used our power to dominate and our weakness to manipulate; we have evaded responsibility and failed to confront evil; we have denied dignity to ourselves and to our siblings, and have fallen into despair. We turn to you, O God; we renounce evil, we claim your love; we choose to be made whole.

ABSOLUTION

Tim Rich

Priest: Almighty God, have mercy on you, forgive all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Tim Rich

Priest: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS *Seated.OFFERTORY SENTENCES

Priest: All things come of thee, O Lord,

People: And of thine own, have we given thee. Amen.

The offertory symbolizes the offering of our lives, labor, and gifts to God, reflecting gratitude, stewardship, and participation in Christ's self-giving and service. Oblation bearers bring forward the bread and wine on behalf of the congregation. The ushers will collect of gifts of pledges and offerings. Your pledges and financial gifts support All Saints' mission of transformation, connection and care to one another and our wider community.

Scan the QR Code to pay your pledge or make a donation online or TEXT "Give" to 877.494.7519.

GREAT THANKSGIVING Standing – all who are able.

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Come to the table with thankful hearts.

People: We open our hearts to God and to one another.

Priest: Creative God, source of all life and ground of our being, you are the vibrant energy dancing at the center of the universe! Through us you move, and through us you are made known to the world. Co-creators with you, we are emboldened to move beyond ourselves, to find the courage to let go of old ways and welcome new life.

And so, in concert with those of every generation who have been touched by your redeeming love, we lift our praise to you:

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: Holy God, known and beyond all knowing, in your image you created us, giving the earth into our care. In our arrogance, we lost touch with the breath of God within us, with the divinity of the creation, unable to perceive its beauty and harmonies. But through Christ, born of a woman, your deep abiding love reclaimed us and realigned us with the grain of the universe.

On that evening in an upper room, with his friends around him, our brother Jesus blessed the bread, broke it, and shared it with all who were gathered: This bread is my body, an offering of God's love for all. When you eat it, remember me.

Taking the cup of wine, he blessed it and shared it with all who were gathered: This wine is my blood, God's promise of new life for all. When you drink it, remember me.

Priest and People:

God, in the memory of Jesus who healed people and washed his disciples' feet, who loved children and honored outcasts, who fed people and turned water into wine, who died and rose to new and unending life, we ask that you breathe on this bread and this wine, filling them with the transforming power of the cosmic Christ.

Breathe through us, God, that our bodies, minds, and spirits may be filled with your life-giving presence. Make us again a holy people, strongly bound to you, firmly rooted in the earth, with eyes to see all life as sacred. Empower us to spread the light of Christ in our wondrous and confusing world. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal. Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父
愿人都尊你的名为圣，
愿你的国降临，
愿你的旨意行在地上，
如同行在天上。
我们日用的饮食，
今日赐给我们。
免我们的债，
如同我们免了人的债。
不叫我们遇见试探，
救我们脱离凶恶。
因为国度、权柄、荣耀，
全是你你的，直到永远。阿门。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: Alleluia! We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us. Alleluia!

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive wine, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, you may touch the base of the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available at your request.

By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons. If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Tim Rich (adult Baptism) or Amanda Baughman (infant/child Baptism) to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. (trich@allsaints-pas.org or abbaughman@allsaints-pas.org)

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Tim Rich

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Eternal God, great Creator, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
 Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSINGDISMISSAL

Tim Rich

Minister: Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People: Thanks be to God.

All Saints Church Welcomes Back Diana Butler Bass, Sunday Feb. 1

Diana Butler Bass is an author, scholar, and public theologian known for her insightful and accessible work on contemporary Christianity, spirituality, and church life — particularly how faith is evolving in a rapidly changing cultural landscape. In her latest book — A Beautiful Year:

52 Meditations on Faith, Wisdom, and Perseverance — she explores the Christian liturgical calendar as a cycle of sacred stories that compose a larger narrative of love, hospitality, mercy, justice, and gratitude. Reclaiming and presenting fresh perspectives for every biblical text in the church year — from musing on A Wrinkle in Time in Advent to remembering her father's old-fashioned blue Christmas decorations — Diana gives us both wisdom from the past and a road map grounded in hope for the challenges that lie ahead.

A long-time friend of All Saints Church, we are delighted to welcome Diana back to Pasadena.

Join us for:

Programs for Children (Birth – 5th grade) at All Saints:

Sunday Morning Childcare for Infants Through Preschoolers 9:00–11:30 a.m.

Child Care is available for children birth-preschoolers (5 yrs.) in the Learning Center upstairs in Regas House from 9:00 –11:30 a.m. Parents must sign their kids in and out.

Godly Play During Sunday service, children in kindergarten through 5th grade are invited (after the gospel reading) to attend, which invites children to enter into our sacred stories, respecting their innate spirituality, and encourages them to use their curiosity and imagination to experience the mystery and joy of God.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the Sunday morning, 10:00 a.m. service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

Programs for Youth (6th – 12th grade) at All Saints:

Acolyte Program All youth in grades 6–12 are invited to join one of our awesome Acolyte teams! It's a great opportunity to serve our church and our community while learning about our Anglican traditions. As an Acolyte, you'll work with a team, take on leadership roles, wear cool robes, and enjoy many donuts along the way. Plus, you'll make new friends and earn service hours for school! Come be part of something special!

Youth Dinners Join us for free dinners and great community every Wednesday from 6:30–7 p.m.

Youth Group for 6th–12th grade We will meet every Wednesday during the Program Year to be in community together. We learn together, support each other and of course have fun together. Youth Group is a safe place to express who you really are. Wednesdays, 7–8:30 p.m.

Not-So-Board-Game Night Every second Friday of the month, 6:00–9:00 p.m., we gather at All Saints church to play board games, eat snacks and hang out. It's tradition to end the evening with a murder mystery game. Who will win this time, the murderer or the town's people? Come and find out.

Offerings Online

Women's Lectionary Online Bible Study

We are using Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney's A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church, Year A. Each online Bible study session begins with an oral reading of the week's scriptures and then proceeds to conversation grounded in those readings as well as in Dr. Gafney's notes which reveal the womanist perspective from which the lectionary was written. All are welcome! All Sessions will be on Mondays at 9:00 a.m. Pacific standard time. Register here in advance here and you will be sent the link for the meeting. (The link will be good for the whole year)

Centering Prayer Tuesdays, 6:45–8:00 p.m., via Zoom

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Events & Opportunities

The Way of Love

Continuing Sunday, February 1, 12:00–2:00 p.m., in the Learning Center

As the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement, we follow the Way of Jesus. His way is the Way of Love, and that love has the power to change lives and change the world. One way to follow Jesus is to be part of The Way of Love. The Way of Love is a way of life. More than a program or a curriculum, it is an exploration of spiritual practices that you can incorporate into your life, bringing you into a closer relationship with God our creator and with Jesus helping us to live lives modeled after his. How will you and your ministry grow more centered in Jesus and share his loving, liberating, life-giving way in the world?

Meditation with the Labyrinth & Worship in the Style of Taizé

Wednesday, February 4, 5:30–7:00 p.m. on the Chancel

The first Wednesday of the month the Labyrinth Ministry and the Taizé Worship Ministry are working together to offer an experience of meditation and worship. Our labyrinth will be set up on the Chancel from 5:30–7:00p.m., before and during the Taizé service which will be going on in the Chapel. Walking the labyrinth can be a time of quieting our minds, listening for a word from God, and connecting with the Spirit. In the church with the sounds of prayer and chanting going on in the Chapel, we believe this can be a holy time. Come try it out! Guidelines on how to walk the labyrinth will be available, as will socks if you need them (no shoes and no bare feet on the labyrinth). Information = Jeannie Cobb at jeanniecobb@me.com

Senior Saints February Gathering

Faith, Humanity and the Rise of Artificial Intelligence

Thursday, February 5, 12:30–2:00 p.m., in Sweetland Hall.

Artificial Intelligence is becoming part of everyday life. This presentation by Sarah Nolan will explore what AI means for our understanding of faith, purpose, and what it means to be human, drawing on insights from multiple spiritual traditions. We'll reflect on how faith communities can thoughtfully engage new technologies, while also examining practical concerns such as AI-driven scams and phishing—and how to protect yourself. This conversation offers both spiritual reflection and practical guidance for navigating an increasingly digital world. All older adults are invited to join. Bring a friend! Suggested donation of $10 for light lunch. Please RSVP to the Front Desk at frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org by Monday, Feb 2.

Time to “Go Green” with Our Children’s Worship Bags!

Starting Feb 15, we're making an exciting change to help align with our value of ethical stewardship. Our children's worship bags will be transitioning from single use to reusable bags. Here's what this means for your family:

Please return worship bags with its contents to the designated basket after each service

Bags will be cleaned and refreshed weekly with new children's liturgies

If your child would like to take home their artwork or activity sheets, simply remove them before returning the bag

This simple change helps us reduce waste while ensuring our children have engaging materials for worship. Thank you for partnering with us in this effort to be good stewards of our resources! Info = Amanda at abaughman@allsaints-pas.org.

Theatre Ministry Winter/Spring Season

Richard III

Friday, Feb. 13, 7:30 p.m., at A Noise Within

Tickets are $51 and available here.

Experience a gripping tale of ambition, manipulation, and ruthless power. Set in the aftermath of a long civil war, the play follows Richard, a cunning and charismatic villain, who unexpectedly schemes a path to the throne – leaving behind a trail of betrayal and bloodshed. With sharp wit and chilling determination, Richard stops at nothing to achieve ultimate power, even as the consequences close in. A thrilling drama, Richard III is one of Shakespeare's most iconic explorations of corruption, control, and the obsessive pursuit of power. Ann Noble plays the title role.

Amadeus

Friday, Feb. 27, 8 p.m., at Pasadena Playhouse

Tickets are $45 and available here.

The stage is set for a riveting rivalry between two composers: Antonio Salieri, the court's celebrated musician, and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, the vulgar prodigy whose brilliance threatens everything Salieri holds dear. Tony Award-winner Jefferson Mays (A Christmas Carol, I Am My Own Wife) stars as Salieri under the masterful direction of Tony Award-winner Darko Tresnjak (A Gentleman's Guide to Love and Murder). Lavishly laced with biting wit, this Tony and Oscar-winning masterpiece dives deep into ambition, envy, and the price of greatness. Embrace the intrigue of Amadeus, where the music is divine and the drama is unforgettable.

All My Sons

Friday, Mar. 20, 8 p.m., at Antaeus Theatre

Tickets are $41 and available here.

"There's a universe of people outside and you're responsible to it."

Arthur Miller's All My Sons is a gripping tragedy about family and morality. In the aftermath of World War II, the Keller family's fragile happiness is shattered when long-buried secrets force them to confront the consequences of their choices. Directed by Oánh Nguyễn, this timeless classic delivers an unflinching look at love, sacrifice, and the price of the American Dream.

Octopus Garden

Saturday, Mar. 21, 2 p.m., at Boston Court

Tickets are $46 and available here.

When two marine biologists and a struggling composer discover that an octopus in a cephalopod lab has written the most transcendent piece of music ever heard, their worlds begin to unravel. Ambitions clash, egos fray, and their brush with something divine breeds obsession. Innovative puppetry brings soulful theatricality to this fable about art, science, and the moral quandaries that erupt when another being surpasses humankind.

If You Crochet or Knit, Consider Joining the Prayer Shawl Ministry

Tuesday, February 10, 7:00–8:30 p.m., in the Regas House Lobby

The Prayer Shawl Ministry meets the 2nd Tuesday of every month. We gather in community to share our prayers, our stories, the work of our hands and hearts while knitting and crocheting shawls to be given as mantles of healing to those in need of comfort. Prayer shawl participants have long known that working with hands is a meditative spiritual practice that quiets minds to hear God's clear voice.

Please join us with yarn, needles, and prayer.

All Saints Church Writers Group

Thursday, February 12, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m., in the Seminar Room

The All Saints Writers Group brings writers from different walks of life together to discuss their pieces in a workshop-style setting. In this small group, writers are able to read their work in any genre they choose (memoir, creative nonfiction, poetry, novel, short story, etc.), and all can give feedback to, and hear suggestions from, the other writers in the room.

This builds a sense of community, and helps the writers to become more confident in their work.

We meet every other Thursday at 7:00 p.m. Bernice Fong facilitates.

Be assured: whoever you are, and whatever you write, there is a place for you here!

Interfaith Study Group Screens the Documentary Ojalá Supieras (I Wish You Knew)

Sunday, February 15, 4:00–6:30 p.m., at the Islamic Center of Southern California, 434 N. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles 90020

“Ojalá Supieras” (I Wish You Knew) is an immersive visual documentary that brings to light the hidden histories of Muslims, Jews, Christians, and Indigenous peoples in Mexico during the Spanish Inquisition. Through reenactments of voices long buried in the archives, the film tells the stories of forbidden belief, suppressed identity, and the ways in which religion, identity and resistance become intertwined under empire. “Ojala Supieras” is not only a film - it is an act of reclamation. Come join us to view and discuss this film.

Please bring an open heart a mind willing to listen and learn, and a vegetarian dish to share in our potluck.

Ash Wednesday Services, February 18

7:00 a.m. in the Chapel

12:10 p.m. in the Church

7:30 p.m. in the Church, a bilingual Spanish/English service

Ash Wednesday is the first day of Lent, the 40-day period of fasting before Easter. On Ash Wednesday, ashes are blessed, mixed with either holy oil or water, and imposed on the head with the sign of the cross, or sprinkled on the forehead. The ashes are made from burning palm branches blessed the previous year on Palm Sunday. When a minister imposes the ashes they say "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you will return."

Memorial for Our Unhoused Neighbors

Monday, February 23, 6:00 p.m., in the Church

Each year, thousands of unhoused people die on the streets of our nation due to illness, exposure or violence, many from Pasadena, without the dignity and respect they deserve. Please join us Monday, February 24, at 6:00 p.m. in the Church, as we honor and acknowledge their lives and membership in the human family.

For more information and/or to provide the name of someone you know who has lost their life on the streets (so they can be acknowledged in the service), contact Melissa Hayes at 626.583.2725 or mhayes@allsaints-pas.org.

We are grateful for financial donations for the dinner that follows the service. Please donate here.

Fiction Fun! Reads George Orwell's Animal Farm

Friday, February 27, in the Guild Room

6:30 p.m. Early conversations; 7:30–8:30 p.m. Book discussion

Animal Farm—initially subtitled A Fairy Tale—is a satirical novella by George Orwell, in the tradition of Jonathan Swift. Its ostensible subject is the Russian Revolution and Joseph Stalin, but it has a bearing on authoritarian politics everywhere and always. Orwell was a democratic socialist, and he wrote this work during World War II; it was published in 1945. It's a recognized classic, on several lists of leading works of fiction in the twentieth century. Wikipedia not only has an entry for the novel, but has entries for characters such as Napoleon, Snowball, Old Major, Squealer, Benjamin, and Boxer—pigs and a donkey and a horse.

Launching the Hospitality Ministry at All Saints Church!

(formerly known as the Parish Celebrations Ministry)

We are excited to launch the Hospitality Ministry at All Saints Church—formerly known as the Parish Celebration Ministry—renewed and reimaged to support our community whenever we gather. Centered on service at parish events and shared moments of fellowship, this ministry offers opportunities to help with setup, hospitality support, and care for the community behind the scenes. Through this work, we help create spaces of warmth, connection, and belonging.

If you enjoy volunteering, serving the church community, and helping others feel seen and included, we invite you to join us.

The Sacred Ground Journey Continues!

Last year from May to October, eighty All Saints parishioners completed a curriculum created by the national Episcopal Church that focuses on raising awareness of racism in our parishes and in our society. Sacred Ground, an eleven- week series spread over twenty-two weeks, includes the history of racism in the United States explored through film and readings-based dialogue circles. Many who completed Sacred Ground described it as a powerful and life changing experience. We are ready to offer Sacred Ground again to those of you who couldn't fit it into your schedule last time, or have heard good things about it from friends and would like to participate now.

The eleven sessions of Sacred Ground will meet every other week starting February 24 through July 25 on Tuesday evenings, Saturdays, or online.

Register here.

For more information about Sacred Ground visit our website or email Sacred GroundASC@gmail.com

Sacred Ground's trained facilitators are eager to meet you, and the number of participants will be limited to space available. So don't wait to sign up!

Children, Youth & Families (CYF) Looking for Volunteers

Remember when adults showed up for you? Now, you can be that adult for a child or youth in our parish! CYF is looking for thoughtful, dependable volunteers with experience or a heart for children or youth to make a simple once-a-month commitment. Low time investment, high impact—and plenty of meaningful moments along the way.

If interested, please complete our volunteer application here.

New Season Launches February 24

Sacred Ground is part of Becoming Beloved Community, the Episcopal Church's long-standing initiative committed to healing, reconciliation, and justice.

Sacred Ground offers the opportunity to take a deeper dive into both understanding race and racism as well as learning what we as people of faith can do to promote racial healing and reconciliation.

In small groups you'll learn more about the history of race in America, share stories and experiences and learn how to grow in your commitment to making Beloved Community not just words we say but a reality we live.

The 11-part series is built around a powerful online curriculum with resources which include documentary films, articles, and book excerpts. Our next season of Sacred Ground Circles launches February 24, with both in-person and online options. Registration opens January 25 and space will be limited.
