Daylight Savings

Begins Sunday, March 8!

Set your clocks ahead one hour Saturday evening.

Faith & Formation at 9:00 a.m. in the Guild Room: Parishwide Lenten Book Group:

Scarred by Struggle, Transformed by Hope Session Two – with Susan Russell

Lent is the church's season for truth-telling about ourselves, our communities, and the world we inhabit. In a time marked by escalating political polarization, attacks on vulnerable communities, democratic uncertainty, and collective exhaustion, many people are asking how to remain spiritually grounded without retreating into denial or despair.

Scarred by Struggle, Transformed by Hope by Sr. Joan Chittister offers a deeply pastoral and theologically grounded framework for exactly this moment. Chittister insists that struggle is not a spiritual failure, but the very terrain where faith, courage, and hope are formed. This parish-wide Lenten study invites the congregation to engage struggle honestly, recognize the gifts hidden within it, and reclaim hope as a resilient, communal, and transformative spiritual practice.

Lenten Evensong

Sunday, March 8, 5:00 p.m., in the Church

Coventry Choir and Chamber Ensemble offer

Miserere in C Minor, by Zelenka, a dramatic, late-Baroque sacred work composed for Dresden Holy Week, featuring intense, pulse-driven choral sections and rich orchestration. The choir also offers Magnificat by MacMillan, commissioned for the BBC's millennium evensong at Wells Cathedral.

Susan Russell offers a meditation.

This special Lenten Evensong of prayer, meditation and song will provide a wonderful moment of reflection this holy season.

Validated parking is available at Plaza las Fuentes.

Programs for Children (Birth – 5th grade) at All Saints:

Sunday Morning Childcare for Infants Through Preschoolers 9:00–11:30 a.m.

Child Care is available for children birth-preschoolers (5 yrs.) in the Learning Center upstairs in Regas House from 9:00–11:30 a.m. Parents must sign their kids in and out.

Godly Play During Sunday service, children in kindergarten through 5th grade are invited (after the gospel reading) to attend, which invites children to enter into our sacred stories, respecting their innate spirituality, and encourages them to use their curiosity and imagination to experience the mystery and joy of God.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the Sunday morning, 10:00 a.m. service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

Programs for Youth (6th – 12th grade) at All Saints:

Acolyte Program All youth in grades 6–12 are invited to join one of our awesome Acolyte teams! It's a great opportunity to serve our church and our community while learning about our Anglican traditions. As an Acolyte, you'll work with a team, take on leadership roles, wear cool robes, and enjoy many donuts along the way. Plus, you'll make new friends and earn service hours for school! Come be part of something special!

Youth Dinners Join us for free dinners and great community every Wednesday from 6:30–7 p.m.

Youth Group for 6th–12th grade We will meet every Wednesday during the Program Year to be in community together. We learn together, support each other and of course have fun together. Youth Group is a safe place to express who you really are. Wednesdays, 7–8:30 p.m.

Offerings Online

Women's Lectionary Online Bible Study

We are using Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney's A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church, Year A. Each online Bible study session begins with an oral reading of the week's scriptures and then proceeds to conversation grounded in those readings as well as in Dr. Gafney's notes which reveal the womanist perspective from which the lectionary was written. All are welcome! All Sessions will be on Mondays at 9:00 a.m. Pacific standard time. Register here in advance here and you will be sent the link for the meeting. (The link will be good for the whole year)

Centering Prayer Tuesdays, 6:45–8:00 p.m., via Zoom

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Youth Self-Care Day!

Saturday, March 7, 10:00 a.m. –1:00 p.m. in Regas House

Join the CYF Ministry for a relaxed self-care day for youth on Saturday, March 7, from 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. at 132 N. Euclid Ave., Pasadena 91101. It will feature free hair styling and cuts, manicures, and makeup from The Paul Mitchell School, beauty, art and paint from Jazzy Jam for Empowerment, and quiet space with therapy dogs. There will be cookies from Diddy Riese, handmade quilts and pillowcases, YA books from The Book Truck, a pop-up store with products from EOS, Briogeo and more, plus snacks, beverages, and space to just be. It's all free. "We're creating a gentle space for youth to pause, breathe, and find a little joy," said Amanda Baughman, Director of All Saints' Children, Youth & Families Ministry. All youth 10-18 years old are welcome to come just as they are. Preregister for services today!

For more information and to pre-register for styling, haircuts and art services, contact the Director of Children, Youth, and Families at abaughman@allsaints-pas.org

If You Crochet or Knit, Consider Joining the Prayer Shawl Ministry

Tuesday, March 10, 7:00–8:30 p.m., in the Regas House Lobby

The Prayer Shawl Ministry meets the 2nd Tuesday of every month. We gather in community to share our prayers, our stories, the work of our hands and hearts while knitting and crocheting shawls to be given as mantles of healing to those in need of comfort. Prayer shawl participants have long known that working with hands is a meditative spiritual practice that quiets minds to hear God's clear voice. Please join us with yarn, needles, and prayer.

Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

All Saints Church Creative Writing Group

Thursday, March 12, 7:00 – 9:00 p.m., in the Seminar Room

The All Saints Writers Group brings writers from different walks of life together to discuss their pieces in a workshop-style setting. In this small group, writers are able to read their work in any genre they choose (memoir, creative nonfiction, poetry, novel, short story, etc.), and all can give feedback to, and hear suggestions from, the other writers in the room.

This builds a sense of community, and helps the writers to become more confident in their work.

We meet every other Thursday at 7:00 p.m. Bernice Fong facilitates.

Be assured: whoever you are, and whatever you write, there is a place for you here!

Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Caravan and Serenade at Adelanto Detention Center

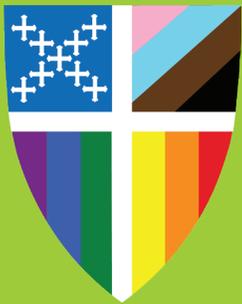

Saturday, March 14, Departs at 1:00 p.m. from All Saints North Parking Lot

All Saints members are helping fill a bus for a trip to the Adelanto Detention Center as a public witness for immigrant dignity and community solidarity. This event, called Caravan and Serenade, draws on the tradition of serenading loved ones with music. Musicians and speakers will gather outside the detention center to send love, hope, and encouragement to those detained beyond the walls. Program at Adelanto will be from 4:00–7:00 p.m. with music and speakers. And we'll return to Pasadena approximately 8:30–9:00 p.m.

Sign up for trip updates: If you are strongly interested in attending, please fill out the interest form here.

This is not a binding commitment but helps organizers share details with participants (what to bring, logistics for the day, etc.). Donations are not required, but encouraged. Each bus costs approximately $2,000. Even a $20 contribution helps offset expenses. For questions, contact Maddie Briggs at mwriter@greeneggsandham.org or 626.664.7323.

Important Survey About LGBTQ+ Inclusion and Experience in Our Church

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the continuum of orientation, identity or expression, the Episcopal Church invites you to participate in an important survey about LGBTQ+ inclusion and experience in our Church. Part of the work of the Task Force on LGBTQ+ Inclusion — chaired by our own Susan Russell — is to conduct a churchwide audit — and this survey is part of that work. It seeks to hear from all members, both LGBTQ+ and non-LGBTQ+, about your experiences with pastoral care, sacramental access, representation in leadership, and institutional accountability. Please give us your input, your wisdom, and 15 minutes of your time.

Deadline is March 15. Thank you!

Theatre Ministry Winter/Spring Season

All My Sons

Friday, Mar. 20, 8 p.m., at Antaeus Theatre
Tickets are $41 and available here.

Arthur Miller’s All My Sons is a gripping tragedy about family and morality. In the aftermath of World War II, the Keller family’s fragile happiness is shattered when long-buried secrets force them to confront the consequences of their choices. Directed by Oánh Nguyễn, this timeless classic delivers an unflinching look at love, sacrifice, and the price of the American Dream.

Octopus Garden

Saturday Matinee, Mar. 21, 2 p.m., at Boston Court
Tickets are $46 and available here.

When two marine biologists and a struggling composer discover that an octopus in a cephalopod lab has written the most transcendent piece of music ever heard, their worlds begin to unravel. Ambitions clash, egos fray, and their brush with something divine breeds obsession. Innovative puppetry brings soulful theatricality to this fable about art, science, and the moral quandaries that erupt when another being surpasses humankind.

Death of a Salesman

Friday, Apr. 10, 7:30 p.m., at A Noise Within
Tickets are $51 and available here.

Pulitzer Prize winning Death of a Salesman is a poignant exploration of the American Dream and its unraveling. The play follows aging salesman Willy Loman as he grapples with disappointment, disillusionment, and the growing gap between his dreams and reality. As Willy’s world unravels, so does his sense of identity, leading to heartbreaking confrontations with his family and himself. Through memory, conflict, and fractured hope, Miller crafts a powerful portrait of a man chasing success in a society that defines worth by achievement. Death of a Salesman remains a timeless and deeply human story about ambition, family, and self-worth.

Brigadoon

Friday, May 15, 8 p.m., at Pasadena Playhouse

Tickets are $49 and available here.

Two American travelers lose their way in the Scottish Highlands and stumble upon Brigadoon—a mysterious village that appears for just one day every hundred years. With its lush score, live orchestra, sweeping choreography, and a newly adapted book, this beloved classic is a heart-stirring journey into a world where time stands still, and love defies all logic. Featuring the Lerner & Loewe Broadway standards “Almost Like Being In Love” and “The Heather on the Hill,” let yourself be swept away by one of the most romantic musicals ever written, as timeless as the legend itself. Starring Tyne Daly!

Fiction Fun! Reads Wuthering Heights

Friday, March 27, in the Guild Room

6:30 p.m. Early conversations 7:00–8:30 p.m. Book discussion

Wuthering Heights is the English language's great, over-the-top, romantic novel. Emily Brontë (1816–55), one of three literary daughters of an English clergyman, wanted to write something dark and passionate and powerful, and she succeeded. There's a new film adaptation coming out in February, and its advertising copy is already proclaiming "the greatest love story of all time." Yet arguably, the story isn't quite that. As a Guardian article has pointed out, "what actually happens is that Cathy rejects Heathcliff because she's a snob, and he turns into a psychopath." Still, Wuthering Heights is a love story, and maybe the wildest, strangest, and most melodramatic one there'll ever be. Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Time to "Go Green" with Our Children's Worship Bags!

We're making an exciting change to help align with our value of ethical stewardship. Our children's worship bags will be transitioning from single use to reusable bags.

Here's what this means for your family:

Please return worship bags with its contents to the designated basket after each service

Bags will be cleaned and refreshed weekly with new children's liturgies

If your child would like to take home their artwork or activity sheets, simply remove them before returning the bag.

This simple change helps us reduce waste while ensuring our children have engaging materials for worship. Thank you for partnering with us in this effort to be good stewards of our resources!

Questions? Contact Amanda at abaughman@allsaints-pas.org.

Ushers Needed!

Ushering at All Saints is a team effort and fun especially for those who enjoy meeting new people and/or get antsy sitting still for more than 10 min. The commitment is to serve one service a month at one of our services plus about 6 special assignments throughout the year for evening and Festival services. We would love to add you to the team! Contact Melissa Hayes, mhayes@allsaints-pas.org.

Become a Greeter!

Are you looking for a fun opportunity to be more involved on Sundays? Be the face of radical welcome to all who come to All Saints by joining a Greeters team. Teams are forming now and commitment is as little as one Sunday a month.

For more information, contact ministry lead Ben Martin brmusc@gmail.com.

Sing at All Saints

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel. Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works.

Meditation with the Labyrinth & Worship in the Style of Taizé

Wednesday, April 8, 5:30–7:00 p.m. on the Chancel

The first Wednesday of the month the Labyrinth Ministry and the Taizé Worship Ministry are working together to offer an experience of meditation and worship. Our labyrinth will be set up on the Chancel from 5:30–7:00p.m., before and during the Taizé service which will be going on in the Chapel. Walking the labyrinth can be a time of quieting our minds, listening for a word from God, and connecting with the Spirit. In the church with the sounds of prayer and chanting going on in the Chapel, we believe this can be a holy time.

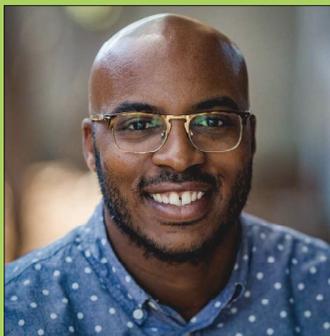

Come try it out! Guidelines on how to walk the labyrinth will be available, as will socks if you need them (no shoes and no bare feet on the labyrinth).

Donate for Flowers for Easter

Each Easter All Saints Church decorates the altars and chancel with celebration and memorial flowers. Altar flowers are a beautiful way to remember a loved one, celebrate a special event, or to give thanks for someone who has touched your life. Contributions can be made in celebration or memory of loved ones and will be listed in the printed Liturgy on Easter.
