The Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

Feast of St. Mary Magdalene

Eucharist at 7:30 a.m.

All Saints Church

132 N Euclid Ave

Pasadena CA 91101

626.796.1172 www.allsaints-pas.org

Welcome!

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith there is a place for you here.

Our childcare will be taking a pause this summer

as our staff take some time off and we reset for fall. We will be closed from July 19–August 16. During this time, families are invited to utilize the expanded Family Worship Rug in the Chapel, the Family Room in Regas House which will livestream the service, or the outdoor worship space. If you have questions, please reach out to Amanda Baughman at abaughman@allsaints-pas.org

A Land Use Acknowledgment

All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

To learn more about the history of the land we are on, read our report here:

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

As the people gather before the service begins, we encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Listen to your life.
See it for the fathomless mystery that it is.
In the boredom and pain of it no less than in the excitement and gladness:
touch, taste, smell your way to the holy and hidden heart of it because in the last analysis all moments are key moments, and life itself is grace.

— Frederick Buechner (1926–2022)

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Stand — all who are able — as the procession enters the Chapel.

SALUTATION Remain standing.

Tim Rich

Minister: Blessed be God: Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer.

People: And blessed be God's kindom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY Remain standing.

Priest and People:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA Remain standing.

Priest: Glory to God in the highest,

People: and peace to all people on earth.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Tim Rich

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Let us pray.

Remain standing; silence is kept.

Priest: Almighty God, whose blessed Son healed Mary Magdalene, and called her to be a witness of his resurrection: Mercifully grant that by your grace we may know you in the power of his unending life; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and forever. Amen.

LESSON Seated.

Diahanne Payne

A Reading from Judith (9:1, 11–14).

Judith prostrated herself, put ashes on her head, and uncovered the sackcloth she was wearing. At the very time when the evening incense was being offered in the house of God in Jerusalem, Judith cried out to God with a loud voice, and said, "Your strength does not depend on numbers, nor your might on the powerful. But you are the God of the lowly, helper of the oppressed, upholder of the weak, protector of the forsaken, savior of those without hope. Please, please, God of my ancestors, God of the heritage of Israel, Sovereign of heaven and earth, Creator of the waters, Ruler of all your creation, hear my prayer! Make my deceitful words bring wound and bruise on those who have planned cruel things against your covenant, and against your sacred house, and against Mount Zion, and against the house your children possess. Let your whole nation and every tribe know and understand that you are God, the God of all power and might, and that there is no other who protects the people of Israel but you alone!"

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

*A period of silence is observed following the reading.PSALM 42:1–7 Remain seated; read in unison.

Like a stag, a doe, longing for streams of cool water,
my whole being longs for you, my God.

My soul aches with thirst for God, for a God that lives!
When can I go and see God face to face?

My only food, day or night, is my tears; they recriminate me:
"Where is your God?" they say.

These things I remember as I pour out my soul like water;
How I would go with the crowds and lead them into God's house, amid cries of gladness and thanksgiving, drunk with the dance of celebration.

"Why so dispirited?" I ask myself. "Why so churned up inside? Hope in God!"
I know I will praise God once again, for you are my Deliverance; you are my God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

LESSON Remain seated.

Anina Minotto

A Reading from Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians (5:14–18).

The love of Christ urges us on, because we are convinced that one has died for all; therefore all have died. And Christ died for all, so that those who live might live no longer for themselves, but for the one who died and was raised for them. From now on, therefore, we regard no one from a human point of view; even though we once knew Christ from a human point of view, we know him no longer in that way. So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new! All this is from God, who reconciled us through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL Standing — all who are able.

Tim Rich

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in John (20:11–18).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" She turned and said to him in Hebrew, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, "Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to God. But go to the others and say to them, 'I am ascending to my God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, "I have seen the Lord"; and she told them that he had said these things to her.

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

Tim Rich

*A period of silence is observed after the sermon.NICENE CREED Standing — all who are able.

Anina Minotto

*We are using a version of the Nicene Creed approved by the Standing Liturgical Commission.
Recognizing and including all expressions of gender in God we proclaim:*

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Remain standing.

Anina Minotto

Names of those for whom we continue to pray are on p. 11.

Minister: Loving God, thank you for the witness of Mary Magdalene, who inspires us to find our voices.
People: Help us to spread the good news of love's triumph over death.

Minister: Strengthen in us the gifts of courage, vision and wisdom in our work for justice and peace.
People: In recognition of the dignity of all, help us always to respond with compassion.

Minister: Thank you for all who open their hearts to those without hope.
People: Empower us to remove the fears that divide us.

Minister: We remember those who have asked for our prayers and those who offer their thanksgivings.

Names of those who have requested prayers are read.

Minister: We pray for those who have died and for the families and friends who grieve.

Names of those who have died are read.

Minister: For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

The People may add their own petitions aloud or in the silence of their hearts.

Minister: Loving God, we offer these prayers, knowing that you are doing for those for whom we pray more than we could imagine or desire. Amen.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

ABSOLUTION

Tim Rich

Priest: Almighty God, have mercy on you, forgive all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Priest: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS Seated.

Tim Rich

OFFERTORY SENTENCES

Priest: All things come of thee, O Lord,

People: And of thine own, have we given thee. Amen.

The offertory symbolizes the offering of our lives, labor, and gifts to God, reflecting gratitude, stewardship, and participation in Christ's self-giving and service. Oblation bearers bring forward the bread and wine on behalf of the congregation. The ushers will collect of gifts of pledges and offerings. Your pledges and financial gifts support All Saints' mission of transformation, connection and care to one another and our wider community.

Scan the QR Code to pay your pledge or make a donation online or TEXT "Give" to 877.494.7519.

GREAT THANKSGIVING Standing – all who are able.

Tim Rich

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

For in the multitude of your saints, you have surrounded us with a great cloud of witnesses, that we might rejoice in their fellowship, and run with endurance the race that is set before us; and, together with them, receive the crown of glory that never fades away.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: From your love and in your image you created us, breathing your spirit into the dust of the earth. When we failed to live in love, you loved us anyway, refusing to let us go. In Jesus of Nazareth you showed us what we might become. In miracle and mystery Jesus was born, as we are born, and lived as we might live.

In the fullness of his life, Jesus revealed the self-centeredness of our lives. So we sought to silence him. But we could not. The resurrection and ascension revealed the indestructible power of God's inexhaustible love.

On the night before Jesus died he shared a meal with his disciples. He took a loaf of bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take. Eat. This is my body that I share with you. Remember me whenever you eat, and offer your food and yourselves to the world."

After supper, Jesus took a cup of wine. When he had blessed it, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant of forgiveness that I share with you and with all. Remember me whenever you drink, and forgive."

Priest and People:

Now, gracious God, we offer our thanks for this bread and wine, the fruit of field and vine, and the body and blood of self-offering and compassion. We pray that the presence of your Holy Spirit will sanctify our meal, that we, like Christ, may love, heal, forgive and speak truth to all people. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra
como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父
愿人都尊你的名为圣，
愿你的国降临， 愿你的旨意行在地上，
如同行在天上。
我们日用的饮食，
今日赐给我们。 免我们的债，
如同我们免了人的债。
不叫我们遇见试探， 救我们脱离凶恶。
因为国度、权柄、荣耀，
全是你的，直到永远。阿门。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: Alleluia! We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us. Alleluia!

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive wine, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, you may touch the base of the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available at your request.

By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons. If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Tim Rich (adult Baptism) or Amanda Baughman (infant/child Baptism) to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. (trich@allsaints-pas.org or abaughman@allsaints-pas.org)

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Tim Rich

Priest: Let us pray.

Priest and People:

Eternal God, great Creator,
 you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
 Send us now into the world in peace,
 and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
 with gladness and singleness of heart;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSINGDISMISSAL

Tim Rich

Minister: Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People: Thanks be to God.

Berlin's Wound: a Coverup, an Open Sore, or a Healing Scar with Laura Krauss

The Rev. Dr. Laura Krauss will share the story of her documentary photographic essay, Berlin's Wound: a Coverup, an Open Sore, or a Healing Scar. Krauss spent a year in Berlin, Germany and undertook a walking pilgrimage — thirty-five years after the demolition of the Berlin Wall. Her 100-mile Berliner Mauerweg trek in search of insights to how the notorious former border is now being utilized by individuals, a community, and as an international symbol is an opportunity for both education and inspiration.

ASC Talks in August 9:00 a.m. in the Guild Room

Just as a TED Talk is a short, focused presentation designed to share an idea, insight or story, an ASC Talk offers the opportunity to hear a diversity of ideas, insights and stories represented by some of the saints who make up All Saints Church. This summer series of presentations in the Guild Room during our 9:00 a.m. Faith & Formation hour will range from art, poetry and meditation to global outreach and the art of aging. Spend some time this summer in community learning from and with fellow ASC parishioners as we continue the work of becoming Beloved Community – one story at a time. (Summer sessions will not be livestreamed on Sunday, but will be available for “on demand” viewing later in the week on our You Tube Channel.)

Art and Academic Freedom: Tracking Christian Nationalism

with Mike Hernandez

Artists Astri Swendsrud and Elana Mann join Mike Hernandez for a conversation about art, faith, academic freedom, and the growing influence of Christian nationalism in higher education. Drawing on their recent experiences with Christian universities, they will explore how artists, educators, and faith communities can respond creatively and faithfully to challenges facing free expression and democratic culture.

Can We Prevent Dementia?

What the Latest Science Tells Us

with Nicole Gatto

Dementia touches the lives of over 7 million older adults in the US today, a number which is expected to grow over the next three decades. Fortunately, we have new, promising evidence about dementia prevention, intervention, and care, providing hope for families impacted by dementia. In this presentation, we will break down the latest Lancet Commission report which identifies 14 potentially modifiable dementia risk factors. By understanding these factors, we can strive to do more to protect brain health as well as help individuals and their families living with dementia.

August 16

Poetry Hour and Open Mic

with Tony Rivera and Monique Thomas

Join us for a time of poetry and an Open Mic session led by All Saint's very own poets, Tony Rivera and Monique Thomas. You won't want to miss this moment as we engage the art of the spoken word to practice Joyful Spirituality. Sign ups for open mic will be limited so please arrive promptly to put your name on the list.

Queerness, Community, and the Great Outdoors

with Luca DiMassa

Local high schooler and All Saints vestry member Luca DiMassa will explore how we create communities outdoors, both between humans and as a part of the greater ecosystem. Tracing a lifelong love of adventure, a history of Scouting and camping, and a deep curiosity in the interspecies relationships around us, Luca will paint an image of how the great outdoors force all of us together, and how we find God's love from there. In addition, the talk will focus on the queerness of the world: sexual and gender queerness in animals and humans, but also how queerness can work as a mindset to reconsider our capitalistic relationship to nature, and why we should all strive to have a queer relationship with the outdoors

Seeking, Seeing, Resting, Opening — A Faith Journey into the Great Silence

with Betty Cole

Before the names for the divine unnamable, before the judgements and labels, fears and distractions, there is the Great silence breathing us continually into being. How do we learn to enter into its peace and awareness? This is a moment with a life-long Christian seeker, 45 year Zen Buddhist practitioner and teacher inviting us into the path of questioning, letting go and entering again into the Wholeness. All are welcome.

Programs for Children (Birth — 5th grade) at All Saints:

Our childcare will be taking a pause this summer

as our staff take some time off and we reset for fall. We will be closed from July 19–August 16. During this time, families are invited to utilize the expanded Family Worship Rug in the Chapel, the Family Room in Regas House which will livestream the service, or the outdoor worship space. If you have questions, please reach out to Amanda Baughman at abaughman@allsaints-pas.org

Children's Chapel During Sunday service, children in kindergarten through 5th grade are invited (after the gospel reading) to attend, which invites children to enter into our sacred stories, respecting their innate spirituality, and encourages them to use their curiosity and imagination to experience the mystery and joy of God.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the Sunday morning, 10:00 a.m. service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

Programs for Youth (6th — 12th grade) at All Saints:

Acolyte Program All youth in grades 6–12 are invited to join one of our awesome Acolyte teams! It's a great opportunity to serve our church and our community while learning about our Anglican traditions. As an Acolyte, you'll work with a team, take on leadership roles, wear cool robes, and enjoy many donuts along the way. Plus, you'll make new friends and earn service hours for school! Come be part of something special!

Youth Dinners will resume Wednesday, September 9, from 6:30–7 p.m.

Youth Group for 6th–12th grade We will meet every Wednesday beginning in September. We learn together, support each other and of course have fun together. Youth Group is a safe place to express who you really are. Wednesdays, 7–8:30 p.m., beginning Sept. 9.

(in the Guild Room) 5:15–6:15 p.m.

Our open and radically accepting fellowship welcomes you, and your experience, strength and hope. This one hour meeting includes meditation and a speaker and is sponsored by L.A. CADA – A Path to Recovery and Healthy Living. Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

LGBTQ+ Sharing Small Group

(Zoom and the Guild Room) – 6:30–8:00 p.m.

We host weekly meetings for the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and queer community to check-in about the highs and lows in both our lives and the wider world.

Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Wednesday, July 29

Noon Eucharist & Healing Service 12:10 p.m. in the Chapel.

Saturday, August 1

Overeaters Anonymous 8:30–10:00 a.m., in the OCC Conference Room Overeaters Anonymous (OA) is a community of people who through experience, strength, and hope are recovering from unhealthy relationships with food and body image. All are welcome. Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Drum Circle 10:00 a.m. on the Playground. Led by Brother Gerald Rivers (<https://www.geraldcrivers.com/>), a Master Drummer and Djembe player. Drumming is an ancient communal spiritual practice, which roots us in the rhythms of God in creation and binds us to one another. Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Offerings Online

Women's Lectionary Online Bible Study

We are using Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney's A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church, Year A. Each online Bible study session begins with an oral reading of the week's scriptures and then proceeds to conversation grounded in those readings as well as in Dr. Gafney's notes which reveal the womanist perspective from which the lectionary was written. All are welcome! All Sessions will be on Mondays at 9:00 a.m. Pacific standard time. Register here in advance here and you will be sent the link for the meeting. (The link will be good for the whole year)

Centering Prayer Tuesdays, 6:45–8:00 p.m., via Zoom

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Recovery Eucharist Meets 1st and 3rd Wednesday at 6 p.m.

The Recovery Eucharist is designed for those recovering from any addiction and for those who support them in their recovery. Elements of the service are drawn from the Book of Common Prayer and the 12 Step readings.

Upcoming dates: Aug. 5 & 19 Link to join: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87551078462> Meeting ID: 875 5107 8462

Looking Ahead

Events & Opportunities

Fiction Fun! Reads The Stranger by Albert Camus

Friday, July 24, in the Guild Room

Early Discussion: 6:30 p.m. Book Discussion: 7:00–8:30 p.m.

This is a classic work by a celebrated writer. As Adam Gopnik said in the New Yorker, we remember Camus “not just as a fine writer but as an exemplary man, a kind of secular saint, the spirit of his time, as well as the last French writer whom most Americans know something about.” The Stranger tells the story of Meursault, who kills an Arab man on a sunny Algerian beach. Why? Why not? (Any translation is acceptable. Many people will have read the one by Stuart Gilbert long ago, but he was English, and the Matthew Ward translation, dating from 1989, is much praised now. Ward was American, and the prose style of The Stranger owes much to hard-boiled American fiction.)

LA Day of Mindfulness

In the tradition of Thich Nhat Hanh, with Deer Park Monastics

Saturday, July 25, 8:00 a.m. –3:30 p.m., at All Saints

SoCal-based sanghas and Deer Park monastics warmly invite all sangha members and friends to come together for a day of practice. Due to popular demand, our Children's Program has reached its capacity. If you would like to be placed on the waiting list for the program you may indicate your interest when you reserve a spot and check out. If available, the program will provide for children 9 years old and younger during a portion of the morning schedule. Children 5 years old and younger will require caregiver supervision at all times.

To attend, Please register here.

We expect a large turnout so we would appreciate your help on the day of the event.

If you would like to volunteer, please sign up here.

Summer Choir Continues!

All tuneful voices are welcome to participate. You've enjoyed Coventry and Canterbury Choirs leading our Sunday services throughout the year. Well, now, it's your turn to stop singing only in the shower and at the top of your lungs in your car on the way to church! Yep! All you have to do is simply show up at 9:00 a.m. in the Church on the Chancel. You'll rehearse, be vested and lead the 10:00 a.m. service. Join us any or all Sundays through August 30. It's your turn to Make a Joyful Noise!

Information = Weicheng Zhao,
Director of Music/Organist-Choirmaster
at wzhao@allsaints-pas.org.

All Saints Church Creative Writing Group

Thursday, July 30, 6:30 – 8:30 p.m., in the Guild Room

The All Saints Writers Group brings writers from different walks of life together to discuss their pieces in a workshop-style setting. In this small group, writers are able to read their work in any genre they choose (memoir, creative nonfiction, poetry, novel, short story, etc.), and all can give feedback to, and hear suggestions from, the other writers in the room. This builds a sense of community, and helps the writers to become more confident in their work.

We meet every other Thursday at 6:30 p.m. Bernice Fong facilitates. Be assured: whoever you are, and whatever you write, there is a place for you here!

Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Newcomers Coffee

Sunday, August 2

Meet in the Chapel immediately following the 10 a.m. service.

Please join other newcomers and meet staff and greeters, ask more questions, have a cup of coffee and learn how to get connected!

Training for Leading a Ministry or Committee at All Saints Church

Sunday, August 23, 11:45 a.m.–1:15 p.m. in the Forum

Whether you are a new ministry leader or have been a leader for many years, this class will offer you new insight and ideas.

The class provides specific training to help leaders of a ministry or committee find their vision, execute an agenda, recruit others into the work, plan for your successor, and encourage the participation of each member. Those thinking about ministry leadership are welcome too! A light lunch will be provided.

Register here.

If You Crochet or Knit, Consider Joining the Prayer Shawl Ministry

Please contact the front office for information on our August Potluck and our September meeting.

We gather in community to share our prayers, our stories, the work of our hands and hearts while knitting and crocheting shawls to be given as mantles of healing to those in need of comfort. Prayer shawl participants have long known that working with hands is a meditative spiritual practice that quiets minds to hear God's clear voice. Please join us with yarn, needles, and prayer.

Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Blessing of the Backpacks

Sunday, August 23, 10:00 a.m. service

All children and youth are invited to bring their backpacks to church for a special blessing!

Getting Connected Class:

An Introduction to All Saints Church

Five Sundays, September 27 – October 25, 12:00–1:30 p.m., in the Learning Center

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself in your journey at All Saints Church there is a place for you in Getting Connected. The five-week class is designed for anyone - from brand new explorers to longtime seekers - interested in exploring or re-exploring the essence of All Saints and getting more connected through active engagement. Each class consists of a presentation by a staff member and lay leader followed by a small group experience. Together we consider the core values of All Saints Church and develop a deeper sense of belonging as we build connections to individuals, ministries and groups.

Please register here.

Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Want to serve the church with your writing skills?

Every week, God is at work in and through our church community, in worship, service, learning, and fellowship. We share these stories through our website, newsletter, and social media, and we're looking for parish members to help tell them. You don't need to be a professional writer— just someone who enjoys sharing stories and celebrating the people and ministries of our church. Volunteer writers might help with:

Stories about ministries, events, and parish life ✦ Reflections on faith and community ✦ Profiles of members and leaders

Interested in contributing? We'd love to hear from you!

Make Good Trouble!

Write Postcards to Increase Voter Turnout

Democracy works best when everyone can participate in the process. For this midterm election, All Saints Church ensure voters in voter-suppression states know their voices – and their votes – matter by writing 1,000 postcards to voters of color in North Carolina and Georgia.

We have worked in our Sacred Being, Sacred Ground, and Beloved Community Circles sessions to build relationships and a greater understanding among ourselves about racial and ethnic justice, and the intersectionality of our multiple identities.

Now, together, we are ready to engage in collaborative work that gives deeper meaning to becoming a beloved community. We are partnering with the Center for Common Ground, anon-partisan, Black and women-led voting rights organization founded in 2018 that focuses on voter suppression in states where more than 20% of voters are voters of color (Alabama, Arizona, Florida, Georgia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Texas).

Join us in this important work!

Sunday, August 30, 11:30 a.m. –2:00 p.m. in the Forum

Wednesday, September 16, 6:30–8:30 p.m. in the Forum

- We will provide postcards, addresses, scripts, guidelines and best practices.
- Please bring your own pens and postcard stamps if possible.
- We invite you to support these efforts by donating money for stamps if you are unable to write cards.

Please register here to reserve your postcards.

Ushers Needed!

Ushering at All Saints is a team effort and fun especially for those who enjoy meeting new people and/or get antsy sitting still for more than 10 min. The commitment is to serve one service a month at one of our services plus about 6 special assignments throughout the year for evening and Festival services. We would love to add you to the team! Contact Melissa Hayes, mhayes@allsaints-pas.org.

Become a Greeter!

Are you looking for a fun opportunity to be more involved on Sundays? Be the face of radical welcome to all who come to All Saints by joining a Greeters team. Teams are forming now and commitment is as little as one Sunday a month. For more information, contact ministry lead Ben Martin brmusc@gmail.com.

You Are Invited to Bring the Oblations to the Altar!

Consider bringing the bread and wine up the aisle for communion at the 10:00 a.m. service. For your birthday, anniversary, or in memory of a loved one — or any Sunday. You may do this with your family, a partner or be paired with someone else. If you are not able to walk up the steps to the altar, the staff will come to you!

To sign up or for more information, please contact Marianne Ryan at marianneryan1014@gmail.com.

Save the Dates for the Fall!

Homecoming Sunday, September 13

Join us following the 10:00 a.m. service, for an afternoon of games, mouthwatering treats, and the pure joy of reconnecting with the All Saints family as we kick off another exciting program year. This beloved tradition is a free event for the whole community—a time to laugh, play, and rejoice together.

It's truly an event you don't want to miss!

Another Step Toward Telling the Whole Story

James Baldwin famously noted that "Not everything that is faced can be changed, but nothing can be changed until it is faced." Join us at All Saints Episcopal Church in Pasadena on Sunday September 13th and on Monday September 14th, as we engage in an act of community remembrance to face All Saint's history of racial segregation. As part of that community remembrance, we will unveil a plaque to serve as a historical marker on our building's cornerstone that names and grieves this chapter in our parish's history. Our current building's cornerstone was laid in 1923, at a time when All Saints Church's White parishioners did not permit African Americans to attend worship services. This practice persisted for decades. It eventually led to the founding of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church in Pasadena as an act of resilience by the African Americans who were turned away. The plaque will tell this story so that our community might reflect and learn to grow towards what is God's true dream for us, a beloved community.

As part of our Homecoming service on September 13th we will gather outside on Euclid Avenue and Plaza Las Fuentes. We chose the date of homecoming to lament the reality that despite our name, all of the saints were not always welcome to come home. Together we will engage in a liturgy and worship whose cornerstone is truth telling.

On September 14th we will expand our community remembrance and truth telling to include our civic and community leadership, as we recognize that this story is part of the wider story of Pasadena.

Together, with God's help, let us face what cannot be changed, in order to change what we can still become.

Celebration of Ministries — Sunday, September 20

Looking to make a difference... to meet new people... to deepen your faith journey... to discuss a great book... to have a good time... to serve others? Step out onto the quad lawn for the Celebration of Ministries! Everything you ever wanted to know about All Saints ministries can be found at the tables on the lawn after our 10:00 a.m. service. You can also chat with our mentors at the signup kiosk about ministries that might be a good fit for you. Find ways to get connected and to serve the community and God through our work in the world.

St. Francis Day, Blessing of the Animals, Sunday, October 4, 10:00 a.m. Service

Please bring your pets, photos of your pets, or even a stuffed animal. All pets are invited to process in the Church and then adjourn to the outdoor worship service on the quad lawn including a blessing of animals.
