The Feast of St. Francis

Eucharist at 7:30 a.m.

All Saints Church
132 N Euclid Ave
Pasadena CA 91101
626.796.1172 www.allsaints-pas.org

Welcome!

Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith there is a place for you here.

Our childcare will be taking a pause this summer as our staff take some time off and we reset for fall. We will be closed from July 19–August 16. During this time, families are invited to utilize the expanded Family Worship Rug in the Chapel, the Family Room in Regas House which will livestream the service, or the outdoor worship space. If you have questions, please reach out to Amanda Baughman at abaughman@allsaints-pas.org

A Land Use Acknowledgment

All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

To learn more about the history of the land we are on, read our report here:

Our Mission Statement:

We are an Episcopal Church, walking with a revolutionary Jesus, loving without judgment, doing justice courageously, embracing life joyfully reverently inviting all faiths and peoples into relationship for the healing and transformation of ourselves, our community, and the world.

Our Core Values:

Radical Inclusion ✦ Courageous Justice ✦ Ethical Stewardship ✦ Joyful Spirituality

Prayer requests can be submitted by calling 626.583.2707 to leave a message for the Pastoral Care office or by email to prayers@allsaints-pas.org

If you are in need of pastoral support outside regular office hours, please reach out by calling 626.298.9551. A member of our pastoral staff will respond to your call to listen, support, and walk with you.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer. The readings are from the New Revised Standard Version of the Bible, lectionary year A as well as from The Message and from Inclusive Hebrew Scriptures and New Testament published by Priests for Equality.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

As the people gather before the service begins, we encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Gracious and life giving God, you created the world and said that it was good. We honor this day Francis of Assisi, remembering the way he heard your call and turned from the expectations of his family to live a simple life among the poor. May we be filled with his spirit of respect for the creation—earth, winds and waters, animals of every shape and size, and individuals from every culture. Amen.

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Stand — all who are able — as the procession enters the Chapel.

SALUTATION Remain standing.

Tim Rich

Minister: Blessed be God: Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer.

People: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY Remain standing.

Priest and People:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA Remain standing.

Priest: Glory to God in the highest,

People: and peace to all people on earth.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Tim Rich

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Let us pray.

Remain standing; silence is kept.

Priest: Most High, omnipotent God, grant your people grace to renounce gladly the vanities of this world; that, following the way of blessed St. Francis, we may for love of you delight in your whole creation with perfectness of joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LESSON Seated.

Diahanne Payne

A Reading from Job (39:1–18).

Do you know when the mountain goats give birth? Do you observe the calving of the deer? Can you number the months that they fulfil, and do you know the time when they give birth, when they crouch to give birth to their offspring, and are delivered of their young? Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open; they go forth, and do not return to them. Who has let the wild ass go free? Who has loosed the bonds of the swift ass, to which I have given the steppe for its home, the salt land for its dwelling-place? It scorns the tumult of the city; it does not hear the shouts of the driver. It ranges the mountains as its pasture, and it searches after every green thing. Is the wild ox willing to serve you? Will it spend the night at your crib? Can you tie it in the furrow with ropes, or will it harrow the valleys after you? Will you depend on it because its strength is great, and will you hand over your labor to it? Do you have faith in it that it will return, and bring your grain to your threshing-floor? The ostrich's wings flap wildly, though its pinions lack plumage. For it leaves its eggs to the earth, and lets them be warmed on the ground, forgetting that a foot may crush them, and that a wild animal may trample them. It deals cruelly with its young, as if they were not its own; though its labor should be in vain, yet it has no fear; because God has made it forget wisdom, and given it no share in understanding. When it spreads its plumes aloft, it laughs at the horse and its rider.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 121 Remain seated; read in unison.

I will lift up mine eyes to the mountains;
from where will my help come?

My help comes from our God,
who made heaven and earth.

Our God will not let our footsteps slip,
our Guardian never sleeps.

The Guardian of Israel
Will never slumber, never sleep!

Our God is our Guardian;
our God is our shade,

With God by our side,
the sun cannot overpower us by day
nor the moon by night.

Our God guards us from harm;
guards our lives.

Our God guards our leaving and our coming back,
now and forever.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

LESSON Remain seated.

Eric Whitten

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles (4:32–35).

The whole group of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one claimed private ownership of any possessions, but everything they owned was held in common. With great power the apostles gave their testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them, for as many as owned lands or houses sold them and brought the proceeds of what was sold. They laid it at the apostles' feet, and it was distributed to each as any had need.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL Standing — all who are able.

Jonathan Stoner

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Luke (12:13–21).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

Someone in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, tell my brother to give me my share of our inheritance." Jesus replied, "Friend, who has set me up as your judge and arbiter?" Then he told the crowd, "Avoid greed in all its forms. Your life is not made more secure by what you own – even when you have more than you need." Jesus then told them a parable in these words: "There was a rich farmer who had a good harvest. 'What will I do?' the farmer mused. 'I have no place to store my harvest. I know! I will pull down my grain bins and build larger ones. All my grain and my goods will go there. Then I will say to myself: You have blessings in reserve for many years to come. Relax! Eat, drink and be merry!' But God said to the farmer, 'You fool! This very night your life will be required of you. To whom will all your accumulated wealth go?' This is the way it works with people who accumulate riches for themselves, but are not rich in God."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

Jonathan Stoner

*A period of silence is observed after the sermon.NICENE CREED Standing — all who are able.

Eric Whitten

*We are using a version of the Nicene Creed approved by the Standing Liturgical Commission.
Recognizing and including all expressions of gender in God we proclaim:*

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE Standing — all who are able.

Eric Whitten

Names of those for whom we continue to pray are on p. 13.

Minister: Let us give thanks to God our Creator for all the gifts so freely bestowed upon us and for the beauty and wonder of the creation, in earth and sky and sea;

People: We thank you, God.

Minister: For all creatures that breathe, and move, and have life;

People: We thank you, God.

Minister & People:

Lord, make us instruments of your peace.

Where there is hatred, let us sow love; where there is injury, pardon;

where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope;

where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy. Grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

—Prayer attributed to St. Francis

Minister: We remember those who have asked for our prayers and those who offer their thanksgivings.

Names of those who have requested prayers are read.

Minister: We pray for those who have died and for the families and friends who grieve.

Names of those who have died are read.

Minister: For the special needs and concerns of this congregation.

The People may add their own petitions aloud or in the silence of their hearts.

Minister: Loving God, we offer these prayers, knowing that you are doing for those for whom we pray more than we could imagine or desire. Amen.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

We need your healing, merciful God: give us true repentance. Some sins are plain to us; some escape us; some we cannot face. Forgive us; set us free to hear your word to us; set us free to serve you.

ABSOLUTION

Tim Rich

Priest: Almighty God, have mercy on you, forgive all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Tim Rich

Priest: The peace of Christ be always with you.
 People: And also with you.

Greet one another in the name of Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS Seated.

Tim Rich

OFFERTORY SENTENCES

Jonathan Stoner

Priest: All things come of thee, O Lord,
 People: And of thine own, have we given thee. Amen.

The offertory symbolizes the offering of our lives, labor, and gifts to God, reflecting gratitude, stewardship, and participation in Christ's self-giving and service. Oblation bearers bring forward the bread and wine on behalf of the congregation. The ushers will collect of gifts of pledges and offerings. Your pledges and financial gifts support All Saints' mission of transformation, connection and care to one another and our wider community.

Scan the QR Code to pay your pledge or make a donation online or TEXT "Give" to 877.494.7519.

GREAT THANKSGIVING Standing – all who are able.

Jonathan Stoner

Priest: God dwells in you.
 People: And also in you.
 Priest: Lift up your hearts.
 People: We lift them to the Lord.
 Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
 People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

Because you are greatly glorified in the assembly of your saints. All your creatures praise you, and your faithful servants bless you, confessing before the rulers of this world the great name of your Son.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
 heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O God,

Priest and People:

We remember Christ's death,
We proclaim Christ's resurrection,
We await Christ's coming in glory;

Priest: And we offer our praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

Priest and People:

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant.

Unite us to your Son in his self-offering, that we may be acceptable through Christ, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, align all things with your love, and bring us to that heavenly country where with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra
como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父
愿人都尊你的名为圣，
愿你的国降临， 愿你的旨意行在地上，
如同行在天上。
我们日用的饮食，
今日赐给我们。 免我们的债，
如同我们免了人的债。
不叫我们遇见试探， 救我们脱离凶恶。
因为国度、权柄、荣耀，
全是你的，直到永远。阿门。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: Alleluia! We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us. Alleluia!

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive wine, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, you may touch the base of the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available at your request.

By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons. If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Tim Rich (adult Baptism) or Amanda Baughman (infant/child Baptism) to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. (trich@allsaints-pas.org or abaughman@allsaints-pas.org)

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Jonathan Stoner

Priest: Let us pray.

Priest and People:

Eternal God, great Creator,
 you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
 Send us now into the world in peace,
 and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
 with gladness and singleness of heart;
 through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSINGDISMISSAL

Jonathan Stoner

Minister: Let us go forth rejoicing in the name of Christ.

People: Thanks be to God.

Programs for Children (Birth — 5th grade) at All Saints:

Sunday Morning Childcare for Infants Through Preschoolers 9:00–11:30 a.m.

Child Care is available for children birth-preschoolers (5 yrs.) in the Learning Center upstairs in Regas House from 9:00 –11:30 a.m. Parents must sign their kids in and out.

Children's Chapel During Sunday service, children in kindergarten through 5th grade are invited (after the gospel reading) to attend, which invites children to enter into our sacred stories, respecting their innate spirituality, and encourages them to use their curiosity and imagination to experience the mystery and joy of God.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel

Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the Sunday morning, 10:00 a.m. service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

Programs for Youth (6th — 12th grade) at All Saints:

Acolyte Program All youth in grades 6–12 are invited to join one of our awesome Acolyte teams! It's a great opportunity to serve our church and our community while learning about our Anglican traditions. As an Acolyte, you'll work with a team, take on leadership roles, wear cool robes, and enjoy many donuts along the way. Plus, you'll make new friends and earn service hours for school! Come be part of something special!

Youth Dinners Join us for free dinners and great community every Wednesday from 6:30–7 p.m.

Youth Group for 6th–12th grade We will meet every Wednesday beginning in September.

We learn together, support each other and of course have fun together. Youth Group is a safe place to express who you really are. Wednesdays, 7–8:30 p.m.

Offerings Online

Women's Lectionary Online Bible Study

We are using Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney's A Women's Lectionary for the Whole Church, Year A. Each online Bible study session begins with an oral reading of the week's scriptures and then proceeds to conversation grounded in those readings as well as in Dr. Gafney's notes which reveal the womanist perspective from which the lectionary was written. All are welcome! All Sessions will be on Mondays at 9:00 a.m. Pacific standard time. Register here in advance here and you will be sent the link for the meeting. (The link will be good for the whole year)

Centering Prayer Tuesdays, 6:45–8:00 p.m., via Zoom

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Meditation with the Labyrinth & Worship in the Style of Taizé

Wednesday, October 7, 5:30–7:00 p.m. in the Church

The first Wednesday of the month the Labyrinth Ministry and the Taizé Worship Ministry are working together to offer an experience of meditation and worship. Our labyrinth will be set up on the Chancel from 5:30–7:00p.m., before and during the Taizé service which will be going on in the Chapel. Walking the labyrinth can be a time of quieting our minds, listening for a word from God, and connecting with the Spirit. In the church with the sounds of prayer and chanting going on in the Chapel, we believe this can be a holy time. Come try it out! Guidelines on how to walk the labyrinth will be available, as will socks if you need them (no shoes and no bare feet on the labyrinth).

All Saints Church Creative Writing Group

Thursday, October 8, 6:30 – 8:30 p.m., in the Guild Room

The All Saints Writers Group brings writers from different walks of life together to discuss their pieces in a workshop-style setting. In this small group, writers are able to read their work in any genre they choose (memoir, creative nonfiction, poetry, novel, short story, etc.), and all can give feedback to, and hear suggestions from, the other writers in the room.

This builds a sense of community, and helps the writers to become more confident in their work.

We meet every other Thursday at 6:30 p.m. Bernice Fong facilitates. Be assured: whoever you are, and whatever you write, there is a place for you here! Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

LGBTQ+ Ministry Movie Night: Pride

God of Love: A Guide to the Heart of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam with Father Greg Boyle and Mirabai Starr

Tuesday, October 13, 6:00 p.m., in the church

Join us for a powerful and timely evening with the one and only Father Greg Boyle and Mirabai Starr. Affectionately known as Father “G”, Boyle is a Jesuit priest, New York Times best-selling author, founder of Homeboy Industries and recipient of numerous awards including the California Peace Prize and a designation as a “champion of change” by former President Barack Obama. Starr is an award winning author, mystic, international speaker, certified bereavement counselor and world renowned teacher of contemplative practices. You won’t want to miss this anchoring and life giving dialogue, as Father Boyle facilitates a time of discussion on the new edition of Mirabai’s bestselling book God of Love: A Guide to the Heart of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. They’ll be discussion, readings, question and answer, and a special book signing. In a time when the volume of hate seems to be at its highest, we need a God of Love more than ever to speak to us at our deepest.

Books will be available for purchase. We hope to see you there.

This is a non-ticketed event first come first serve. Information = frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org

Holy Rakers

Next gathering: Saturday, October 17, 8:30 a.m.,

Watch the Canterbury & Coventry Choirs' Spring Concert from June 7, 2026

Two extraordinary works. One unforgettable evening.

First, Beethoven's Choral Fantasy, a dazzling, joyful showpiece featuring the same melody that eventually became the iconic "Ode to Joy" from the 9th Symphony. Our own Grace Chung on piano.

Watch Beethoven's Choral Fantasy here.

Then, Vaughan Williams' Dona Nobis Pacem ("Grant Us Peace") — a searingly beautiful cantata written as the world was tumbling toward World War II. Its longing for peace feels as urgent today as ever.

Watch Vaughan Williams' Dona Nobis Pacem here.

The concert moves from celebration to reflection: from pure joy to a prayer the whole world needs right now.

First Jazz Vespers of the Season Tierney Sutton

Sunday, October 18, 5:00 p.m. on the Chancel

With 9 Grammy nominations to her credit, Tierney Sutton is widely regarded as one of the most distinctive and thoughtful voices in contemporary jazz. As vocalist, arranger, educator, and song writer, she has built a body of work marked by artistic integrity, collaborative innovation, and a profound commitment to storytelling. Raised in Milwaukee and currently based in Los Angeles and Paris, Sutton emerged in the 1990s with a fresh approach to jazz singing—one that blended impeccable musicianship, emotional depth, and a uniquely collaborative spirit. As leader of the acclaimed Tierney Sutton Band, she helped redefine the modern jazz vocal ensemble, creating recordings and performances that emphasized collective improvisation and sophisticated arrangements. Sutton's celebrated tributes to artists such as Bill Evans, Frank Sinatra, Joni Mitchell, and Sting helped establish her as one of the premier interpreters of the Great American Songbook and beyond. The New York Times has called her "one of the most-lauded jazz vocalists of her generation."

She will be joined by Bill Cunliffe on piano.

Validated parking will be available in Plaza las Fuentes. here is no charge. No reservations required.

Fiction Fun! Reads Homegoing by Yaa Gyasi

Friday, October 23, in the Guild Room

6:30 p.m. Early discussion 7:00–8:30 p.m. Book discussion

Born in Ghana but raised in the U.S., with degrees from Stanford and the Iowa Writers' Workshop, Gyasi won the PEN/Hemingway for Debut Novel. Homegoing begins with half sisters in eighteenth-century Ghana. One prospers, but the other gets forced into slavery, and the novel tells what happened down seven generations. This is a complicated thing to do, but the New Yorker review by Laura Miller said that the novel "succeeds, by the end, in accumulating no small emotional power."

Sing at All Saints

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel.

Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works.

Information = Grace Chung, Associate Organist-Choirmaster at gchung@allsaints-pas.org.

Ushers Needed!

Ushering at All Saints is a team effort and fun especially for those who enjoy meeting new people and/or get antsy sitting still for more than 10 min. The commitment is to serve one service a month at one of our services plus about 6 special assignments throughout the year for evening and Festival services. We would love to add you to the team! Contact Melissa Hayes, mhayes@allsaints-pas.org.

Become a Greeter!

Are you looking for a fun opportunity to be more involved on Sundays? Be the face of radical welcome to all who come to All Saints by joining a Greeters team. Teams are forming now and commitment is as little as one Sunday a month.

For more information, contact ministry lead Ben Martin brmusc@gmail.com.

Faith & Formation at 9:00 a.m. in the Guild Room:

Strength for the Journey: Spiritual Resources for Such a Time as This

Join us for a powerful time of learning and formation as we anchor ourselves in the wisdom and insight of the one and only Father Greg Boyle and Mirabai Starr. We'll be navigating selected readings from Father Boyles work "Cherished Belonging: The healing power of love in divided times", and Starr's latest book "God of Love: A guide to the heart of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam." This time of formation will not only collectively anchor us in the way of love, but it will prepare us as community for when Father Boyle and Starr join us in person for a special conversation and book signing event on October 13th in All Saints sanctuary. As we navigate our current socio-political landscape, there can be no better time and no greater resource to look to than love itself.

ALL SAINTS CHURCH

IT IS TIME TO NOMINATE NEW MEMBERS TO THE VESTRY!

What is the Vestry?

The Vestry is the legal governing and decision-making body of All Saints Church, contains representatives elected from the congregation of All Saints Church, and typically meets on a designated Sunday each month at 12:00p.m. All Vestry meetings are open meetings. The presiding officer of the Vestry is the rector/priest-in-charge and there are two wardens, a senior warden and a junior warden. Vestry candidates are elected to one four-year term and must be off the Vestry for at least one year before being eligible for election to another four-year term. Youth candidates are elected to a shorter term determined by their school grade level.

What does Vestry do?

The Vestry sets the vision for All Saints Church. It also serves as the policy-making body for the church, as well as sharing in the spiritual leadership of the church. Last but not least, the Vestry has fiduciary responsibility for the church's finances. Additionally, every Vestry member serves on at least one Vestry Standing Committee or Vestry Ad Hoc Committee/Task Force. The Vestry Standing Committees are: Audit; Buildings & Grounds; Children, Youth, & Families; Communications; Congregational Life; Finance; Giving; Pastoral Care and Peace & Justice.

What qualities should a Vestry member have?

Church canons and All Saints' policy require Vestry members to be pledging (committing to an annual financial gift) communicants of All Saints Church.

We seek people who are committed to and live out the Core Values of All Saints Church: Radical Inclusion ▪ Courageous Justice ▪ Joyful Spirituality ▪ Ethical Stewardship, as well as people who have a demonstrated commitment to eradicating racism and pursuing social progress both beyond and within All Saints Church.

Additionally, we seek people who are:

- Prayerful and committed to ongoing deepening of their spiritual journey ▪ Seeking collaboration and empowerment, not competition ▪ Active members of the Parish ▪ Self-reflective ▪ Strategic thinkers who also can roll-up their sleeves and get to work ▪ Willing to encourage others to participate in stewardship activities ▪ Compassionate and socially aware ▪ Independent thinkers ▪ Able to give time to the Vestry as it is crucial to attend the Vestry and committee meetings

A good Vestry needs introverts and extraverts, faithful people from across spectra of race, economic class and generation, and people who think and approach leadership and the life of the church in a range of conventional and nontraditional ways. English fluency is not a requirement (translation services will be provided if needed)

What is the process for selecting Vestry members?

Here is the process for selecting Vestry members:

- A Vestry Nominating Committee is formed. It is made up of the retiring members of the Vestry, the Rector/Priest-in-Charge, the Wardens, and several parish members representing a cross-section of the parish.
- A request for nominations goes out to the Parish via the Sunday liturgy, email, the website, and social media. People are encouraged to self-nominate as well as to nominate fellow parishioners they feel would make good Vestry members.
- Nominations are accepted until 5:00p.m. Sunday, October 4, 2026.
- Once the Vestry Nominating Committee receives the nominations, they will review all nominations and make recommendations of the slate to be presented to the Vestry for a vote.
- The members of the slate will then be contacted and asked to serve. Once all have agreed, their photos and bios will appear on the All Saints website and in a parish-wide email so the parishioners have the names and information about the nominees before they vote on the slate at the Annual Parish Meeting.
