Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Fiction Fun Reads Train Dreams by Denis Johnson

Friday, November 20, in the Guild Room
6:30 p.m. Early discussion 7:00–8:30 p.m. Book discussion

Johnson (1949–2017) was a complex person; a biography of him is called Flagrant, Self-Destructive Gestures. Discussing Train Dreams in the New York Times, Anthony Doerr said, "The story concerns the life of Robert Grainier, a fictional orphan shipped by train in 1893 into the woods of the Idaho panhandle. . . . What Johnson builds from the ashes of Grainier's life is a tender, lonesome and riveting story, an American epic writ small. . . You look up from the thing dazed, slightly changed."

Heartbreak House

Sunday matinee, Nov. 15, 2:00 p.m. at Antaeus Theatre. Tickets are $41 and available here.

"If we women were particular about men's characters, we should never get married at all."

Will 20-year old Ellie Dunn fall out of love with her friend's husband, into love with the 88-year-old Captain Shotover, or marry the mercenary Mr. Mangan so she can afford to buy gloves? In George Bernard Shaw's comedic tribute to Chekhov, a menagerie of crackpots, dreamers and schemers, philosophers and thieves, search for the meaning of life and love. Directed by Artistic Director Nike Doukas (The Hothouse, The Tempest, Cymbeline). Written in the shadow of World War I as the British Empire crumbled, this magical dark comedy asks: where do we find strength in the face of chaos?

At the Very Bottom of a Body of Water

Sunday matinee, Nov. 22, 2:00 p.m. at Boston Court

Every week, Marina returns to the same fish store, buys a catfish, and makes soup—a quiet, methodical act masking devastating grief. But when her usual fishmonger suddenly vanishes, her fragile routine shatters and Marina is forced to confront the wreckage of her carefully constructed world when something unexpected breaks through: the stirrings of romance and a tidal wave of magic. Paper cranes begin to fly, and Marina enters uncharted, terrifying waters. Is the unraveling of her comfort a curse, or the beginning of something wondrous, wild, and entirely new? Poignant, surprising, and darkly unconventional, At the Very Bottom of a Body of Water poetically explores how we navigate life after the unexpected.

Sing at All Saints

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel.

Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works.

California Racial Justice Act with Elizabeth Lashley Haynes

Election Day reminds us that who we elect matters—and so do the laws they make. In 2020, the California Legislature passed the Racial Justice Act, creating new ways to challenge racial bias in our criminal legal system. Five years later, that legislation is making a difference in courtrooms across California, including right here in Pasadena. Elizabeth Lashley Haynes will show us how racial bias operates within our legal system, and how attorneys are putting this law to work in the pursuit of racial justice.

October 18 – November 22

THIS WEEK · SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 8

Each week of the campaign, we center on a different value: love, joy, belonging, courage and hope. We invite you to share how you experience that week's value at All Saints. We look forward to sharing your reflections and inspiring one another.

COURAGE

How do you experience courage at All Saints?

Respond on the provided pew card and drop it in the offering plate, or email snolan@allsaints-pas.org. We'll post reflections around the church.

WHAT IS A PLEDGE

A pledge is a promise to give a specific amount to All Saints Church over the coming year. It's a statement of intention that helps us budget responsibly and plan confidently.

Pledges fund about two-thirds of our annual budget, supporting everything from worship and music to justice work, family ministries and pastoral care.

WHY PLEDGE

Pledging is more than a financial commitment. It is a spiritual practice — an expression of thanksgiving and an act of generosity that deepens our connection to this community and to the God who lives and moves in all we do.

HOW TO PLEDGE

1. Online at allsaints-pas.org/pledge or scan the code.
2. On paper. Fill out a pledge card from the pews and place it in the offering plate.
