Each week we put our faith into action: Maternal Health Care — The Momnibus Act

Our focus this week is Maternal Health Care. America has a shocking rate of maternal and infant mortality compared to our peer nations in the developed world. Of the more than 700 maternal deaths annually in this country, two-thirds of them are considered preventable. This week we are asking our members of Congress to support the Momnibus Act of 2021. A suite of twelve bills addressing a wide range of issues related to maternal health, from growing the perinatal health care workforce and funding community-based organizations that work on health equity, to improving maternal health care for those who are incarcerated and those with mental health issues.

Reverently inviting all faiths and peoples into relationship
For the healing and transformation of ourselves,
our community, and the world.

Radical Inclusion ✦ Courageous Justice ✦ Ethical Stewardship ✦ Joyful Spirituality

Four Foundational Goals of All Saints Church

Claim our values, mission and VISION.

Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.

Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.

Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer and Enfleshed.

The biblical readings are from the new The Women's Lectionary year W, created by Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Listen to your life.

See it for the fathomless mystery that it is.

In the boredom and pain of it no less than in the excitement and gladness:

touch, taste, smell your way to the holy and hidden heart of it because in the last analysis all moments are key moments, and life itself is grace.

— Frederick Buechner (b. 1926)

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Susan Russell

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Minister: O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

LESSON

Terry Moore

A Reading from Acts (17:1–4, 10–12).

Paul and Silas had traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia. They came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. As was his custom Paul went and on three sabbaths presented to them from the scriptures, explaining and demonstrating it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and to rise from the dead: "This is the Messiah, Jesus who I proclaim to you all." Now, some of the Jews were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas, as did a great many of the devout Greeks and not a few of the prominent women. Then, the people, immediately that night sent Paul and Silas away to Beroea; when they arrived, they went to the Jewish synagogue. These persons were more high-born and open minded than in Thessalonica; they received the word with great eagerness. Daily they examined the scriptures to see if these things were so. Thus any of them therefore believed, including highly respected Greek women and not just a few Jewish men.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 145:8–19

Lynndi Scott

Full of grace and a mother's love is the MOTHER OF ALL,
slow to anger and abounding in faithful love.

The WOMB OF LIFE is good to all,
and her mother-love is upon all she has made.

They shall praise you, WELLSPRING OF LIFE, all your works,
and all your faithful shall bless you.

Of the glory of your majestic rule shall they speak,
and your might shall they declare,

to make known to the woman-born her mighty works,
and the glorious splendor of her majestic rule.

Your majesty is an everlasting majesty,
and your sovereignty endures throughout all generations.

Faithful is the EVER-LIVING GOD in all her words,
and gracious in all her deeds.

Blessed be the LIVING GOD
and blessed be her name forever and ever.

The MERCIFUL ONE upholds all who fall,
and raises up all who are bent over.

The eyes of all look to you,
and you give to them their food at the right moment.

You open your hand,
and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

The FAITHFUL ONE is righteous in all her ways,
and loving in all her works.

The EVER-PRESENT GOD is near to all who call on her,
to all who call on her in truth.

The desire of all who reveres her she fulfills;
and their cry she hears and delivers them.

LESSON

Justin McNeill

A Reading from Romans (6:5–11).

For if we have been united in a death like Christ's, we will certainly be so with in the resurrection. This we know, that our old self was crucified with him so that the body of sin might be destroyed, and we might no longer be enslaved to sin. The person who has died is freed from sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, being raised from the dead, will never die; death no longer has dominion over him. For dying, he died once to sin, in living, he lives to God. So also should you consider yourselves dead to sin and alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

HYMN "Come My Way, My Truth My Life"

I Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life: such a way as gives us breath; such a truth as ends all strife; such a life as kill - eth death.

GOSPEL

Sally Howard

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in John (11:17–27).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

When Jesus arrived in Bethany, he found that for four days Lazarus had already been in the tomb. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about two miles away. So, many of the Judeans had come to Martha and Mary to console them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she met him, however Mary remained at the house. Martha said to Jesus, "Rabbi, if you had been here, my brother would never have died. Yet even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise." Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me, even though they die, they will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Rabbi, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who comes into the world."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: In wonder and gladness we celebrate your creation of all that is, your incarnation in Jesus Christ, and your inspiration through the Holy Spirit.

And now we give you thanks for Christ's glorious resurrection from the dead. By his death Christ has destroyed death and by his rising again Christ has restored to us eternal life.

Priest: Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

CONSECRATION

Priest: From your love and in your image you created us, breathing your spirit into the dust of the earth. When we failed to live in love, you loved us anyway, refusing to let us go. In Jesus of Nazareth you showed us what we might become. In miracle and mystery Jesus was born, as we are born, and lived as we might live.

In the fullness of his life, Jesus revealed the self-centeredness of our lives. So we sought to silence him. But we could not. The resurrection and ascension revealed the indestructible power of God's inexhaustible love.

On the night before Jesus died he shared a meal with his disciples. He took a loaf of bread, blessed it, broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take. Eat. This is my body that I share with you. Remember me whenever you eat, and offer your food and yourselves to the world."

Priest: After supper, Jesus took a cup of wine. When he had blessed it, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink, all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant of forgiveness that I share with you and with all. Remember me whenever you drink, and forgive."

Priest and People:

Now, gracious God, we offer our thanks for this bread and wine, the fruit of field and vine, and the body and blood of self-offering and compassion. We pray that the presence of your Holy Spirit will sanctify our meal, that we, like Christ, may love, heal, forgive and speak truth to all people. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be
done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el

All Saints' Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office.

A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support, connecting resources to those in need, and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT's Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus, healthcare professionals, those who are mourning a death, those who are facing job loss and unemployment, those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Telling The Whole Story – Civic Memory in Los Angeles
with William Deverell, Becky Nicolaides, Christopher Hawthorne, and Gail Kennard

As with our nation, the full history of our region has often been buried or white-washed. Last month, Mayor Garcetti's Civic Memory Working Group released its report (<http://civicismemory.la/>) with 18 key recommendations for telling the whole story of our history, particularly around race. This Sunday, we will be joined in the forum by four members of the working group — two All Saints church parishioners, Bill Deverell and Becky Nicolaides; Christopher Hawthorne, (working group chair and chief design officer for Mayor Garcetti), and Gail Kennard (Los Angeles Cultural Commission), to discuss both the findings and the process ... and what we can learn as we start telling our whole story as All Saints Church.

Foster Care Project – Love Has No Limits Campaign

Address the acute and growing need to recruit foster and adoptive families for our most vulnerable children, children languishing in the foster care system. Love Has No Limits is a collaborative, multi-county recruitment campaign that will continue through the end of May 2021. There are more than 40,000 children in foster care in Southern California. Los Angeles County alone has more children in foster care than any other county or entire state in the country. Outcome statistics for these children are horrifying, with significant numbers likely to become homeless, incarcerated, human trafficked, and prone to trauma the rest of their lives.

We have a critical need more foster and adoptive parents to give these children loving homes.

See <https://vimeo.com/503212378/#52337a5db>

Faith communities can be the solution to this crisis. Throughout the spring, please watch for information about the Love Has No Limits campaign posted on the Foster Care Project website: www://fostercareproject.org, or on our Facebook page.

Those interested in learning more about fostering and/or adopting and the Love Has No Limits campaign should text 'FAMILY' to 94090 or visit LoveHasNoLimits.com/FAMILY
