Each week we put our faith into action: The US Must Lead on the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict

This week we are deeply concerned about the escalating, retaliatory violence occurring between Israeli and Palestinian forces. The escalation in Israel and Gaza over this past week is horrific. And now, tragically, with Hamas and other terrorist groups in Gaza firing rockets indiscriminately at Israeli cities and Israel responding with massive airstrikes, there are as of Thursday at least 83 Palestinians killed in Gaza and at least seven Israelis killed -- including, horrifically, children on both sides. Many more have been wounded. As a global superpower and Israel's closest ally, the United States is no mere bystander in this conflict. Our voice, our values and our leadership are vital. Right now, it's critical that the Biden administration engage proactively in securing an immediate ceasefire and pushing all sides to de-escalate. With lives on the line, our government can and should be doing more. Therefore, this week we are asking you to sign a J Street petition calling on President Biden to push for de-escalation, to work toward brokering a ceasefire and to commit to sustained leadership to address the root causes at the heart of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict -- including the ongoing injustice of the occupation.

Four Foundational Goals of All Saints Church

Claim our values, mission and VISION.
Equip our staff to SUPPORT the work and witness of All Saints Church.
Provide space that communicates radical WELCOME for all.
Deepen congregational connections and INSPIRE new leadership.

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer and Enfleshed.

The biblical readings are from the new The Women's Lectionary year W, created by Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney.

People: Christ is risen indeed! Alleluia!

COLLECT FOR PURITY

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Sally Howard

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Silence is kept.

Minister: Loving God, you have exalted your only child Jesus Christ with great triumph to your realm in heaven: Do not leave us comfortless, but send us your Holy Spirit to strengthen us, and exalt us to that place where our Savior Christ has gone before; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

LESSON

Gloria Pitzer

A Reading from Deuteronomy (29:10–15).

You all are standing here today, all of you, in the presence of the FIRE OF SINAI your God — your leaders of your tribes, your elders, and your officials, all the people of Israel, your little ones, and the immigrants who are among you in your camp, from the cutter of your wood to the drawer of your water— to enter into the covenant of the CREATOR OF ALL your God, which the MOST HIGH your God is making with you and by God's oath today, in order that God may establish you today as the people of God and, that God would be your God, just as God told you and just as God swore to your ancestors, to Sarah and Abraham, to Isaac, the son of Sarah, and to Jacob, born of Rebekah. Not just with you all am I inscribing this covenant and this oath, but also with those who are here standing with us today in the presence of the WISDOM OF THE AGES, our God, and even with those who are not here with us today.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 111

Jerry Craig

Hallelujah! I will give thanks to the HOLY GOD with my whole heart, in the council of the upright, and in the congregation.

Great are the works of the CREATOR OF ALL, sought after by all who delight in them.

Glorious and majestic is her work,
and her righteousness endures forever.

She has become renowned by her wonderful deeds;
gracious and loving is the MOTHER OF ALL.

Meat she grants to those who revere her;
she is ever mindful of her covenant.

The power of her works has she shown her people, giving them the heritage of the nations.

The works of her hands are faithful and true;
all her precepts are trustworthy.

They are established forever and ever,
to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

Redemption has she sent to her people;
she has commanded her covenant forever.
Holy and awesome is her name.

The reverence of SHE WHO IS WISDOM is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practice it have a good understanding.
Her praise endures forever.

LESSON

Jim White

A Reading from I Peter (1:3–9).

Blessed be the Most High God of our Redeemer Jesus Christ who in great mercy has engendered a new birth for us into a living hope, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, into an inheritance that is incorruptible, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you all, who in the power of God are kept through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the end time. In this you rejoice even when necessary for you to suffer various trials, in order that the examination of your faith, more precious than gold, which though perishable is tested by fire, may be found yielding praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. You have not seen him, yet you love him. You do not see him now, yet you believe in him and rejoice with a joy glorious and beyond words. You are receiving the completion of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

GOSPEL

Alfredo Feregrino

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in John (11:28–44).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

Now when Martha had said this, ("Yes, Rabbi, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who comes into the world"), she went back and called her sister Mary privately, "The Teacher is here and calling for you." And when Mary heard that she got up quickly and went to Jesus. Now Jesus had not yet come to the village, but was still in the place where Martha had met him. Thus the Jewish community who were with her in the house and consoling her saw Mary get up quickly and go out; they followed her thinking she was going to the tomb to weep there. So when Mary came where Jesus was seeing him, she knelt at his feet saying to him, "Rabbi, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." Thus when Jesus saw her weeping and the Jewish folk who came with her also weeping, his spirit was disturbed and he was deeply moved. And he said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Rabbi, come and see." And Jesus wept. Therefore the Jewish people with her said, "See how he loved him!" Yet some of them said, "Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?" Jesus, again deeply moved within himself, came to the tomb; it was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, "Rabbi, already there is a stench because it has been four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted his eyes upward and said, "My God, I thank you for having heard me. I know that you always hear me, for the sake of the crowd standing here have I said this, so that they may believe that you sent me." And when he had said this, with a loud voice he cried out, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, bound hand and foot with strips of cloth and, his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Loose him, and let him go."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Anna Davalos

Minister: Loving God, we pray for all people in their daily life and work;

People: for our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

Minister: For this community, the nation, and the world;

People: for all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

Minister: For the just and proper use of your creation;

People: for the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

Minister: For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

People: for those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and those in need.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

O God, you have searched us out and known us, and all that we are is open to you. We confess that we have sinned: we have used our power to dominate and our weakness to manipulate; we have evaded responsibility and failed to confront evil; we have denied dignity to ourselves and to our siblings, and have fallen into despair. We turn to you, O God; we renounce evil, we claim your love; we choose to be made whole.

Minister: Almighty God, have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

OFFERTORY SENTENCES

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Sung by Elizabeth Tatum.

How Can I Keep from Singing

My life flows on in endless song above earth's lamentation.
 I hear the real though distant song that hails a new creation.
 Through all the tumult and the strife I hear the music ringing.
 It sounds an echo in my soul, how can I keep from singing?

What though the tempest loudly roars, I hear the truth, it's living!
 What though the darkness round me close, songs in the night it's giving!
 No storm can shake my inmost calm while to that rock I'm clinging.
 Since I believe that love abides, how can I keep from singing?

When tyrants tremble when they hear the bells of freedom ringing.
 When friends rejoice both far and near, how can I keep from singing?
 In prison cell, in dungeon dark, our thoughts to them are winging.
 When friends hold courage in their heart, how can I keep from singing?

 Music: arr. by Richard Walters (b. 1982)

HOLY COMMUNION

GREAT THANKSGIVING

Sally Howard

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: In wonder and gladness we celebrate your creation of all that is, your incarnation in Jesus Christ, and your inspiration through the Holy Spirit.

And now we give you thanks for Christ's glorious resurrection from the dead. By his death Christ has destroyed death and by his rising again Christ has restored to us eternal life.

Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

SANCTUS/BENEDICTUS Everyone sings.

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo-ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless'd is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

CONSECRATION

Priest: Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Creator of all.

Priest: Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect self-offering for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Priest and People:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Priest: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this offering of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's life, death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ.

Priest and People:

Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ—by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我們在天上的父，
願人都尊父的名為聖， 願父的國降臨， 願父的旨意行在地上，
如同行在天上。 我們日用的飲食，
求父今日賜給我們。
又求饒恕我們的罪，
如同我們饒恕得罪我們的人。 不叫我們遇見試探，
拯救我們脫離兇惡。
因為國度、權柄、榮耀，
全是父的，永無窮盡 阿們。

All Saints' Congregational Response Team

The All Saints Church Congregational Response Team (CRT) was created to keep our community connected and cared for in ways that expand beyond the clergy, staff, and operations of the pastoral care office.

A diverse and growing group of lay volunteers are proactively reaching out and offering support, connecting resources to those in need, and caring for emotional and mental health needs through the lens of trauma-informed care through the CRT's Community Care Team.

The Community Care Team (CCT) is prepared to help those experiencing trauma as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, including: those who have been diagnosed with the virus, healthcare professionals, those who are mourning a death, those who are facing job loss and unemployment, those who are feeling isolated or depressed.

If you have an immediate need, please call the Community Care Team via the pastoral care line at 626.298.9551 or email acamacho@allsaints-pas.org.

If you would like to volunteer or have questions about the Congregational Response Team, please contact frontdesk@allsaints-pas.org.

Hosted by Thomas Diaz, with panelists Staci Kennelly, Carolyn Ash and Greg Richardson. It has been part of the Christian tradition for centuries, a ministry of All Saints Church for decades and in these times of challenge and transition a source of both comfort and inspiration for many. Join us for a very special Rector's Forum looking inward as we explore spiritual practices that feed the soul with a diverse panel of inspirational spiritual directors.

Guided Meditation: Recalling the Pandemic

Saturday, June 12, 4:00 – 5:30 p.m.

Staci Kennelly will be leading a guided practice, Recalling the Pandemic. This guided meditation invites us to look at the last year with curiosity. It helps us notice feelings and/or themes that we have experienced that we might not have been paying attention to. This meditation will help you discover what lessons you may want to take with you and what things you no longer need as we begin to gather with one another and the world opens up again. You will be guided through the practice as a group. We will then have small breakout groups to discuss and process what was revealed. If you would like to meet with Staci individually after the practice, she will be available to meet with you one-on-one in the following weeks. Staci Lee Kennelly is a spiritual director, writer, and film photographer living in Los Angeles. She has had her work shown in Pasadena, DTLA, and Malibu galleries. Her articles have been published in Bella Grace and Spiritual Directors International. Her passion is to help others find and celebrate the Divine within themselves.
