Welcome!

“Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith there is a place for you here.”

Sunday Morning Childcare

Childcare for Infants and Toddlers: 9:00–12:00 p.m. in the Seminar room and Small Lounge in Regas House, sign in required. Space is limited.

All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

To learn more about the history of the land we are on, read our report here:

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer and Enfleshed. The biblical readings are from the new The Women's Lectionary year A, created by Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney.

Assisted listening devices are available at the Welcome table on the lawn.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel

Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

We ask that you extend a respectful courtesy to others by silencing all cell phones.

PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP IN GOD'S NAME

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

We encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Loving God, the source of strength and peace: Take from us all that inhibits the flow of your spirit, break down the walls that separate us, with hands of compassion wash away our fear, our resentment and our hardness of heart, enable us to become centered and still, aware of your Presence, here, now, to heal and to transform. We pray in the Spirit of Christ, our Healer. Amen.

ANTHEM

Sung by Unidad.

O, Colored Earth

Black, white, red, brown, yellow birth
 Blue and green, O colored Earth.
 Sister rain, brother stone.
 Bring us back to our true home.

What can I, a single soul
 Do for those I don't even know?
 O, I shall sing, and I shall work
 for peace on Earth until all are free.

Peace and love, love and peace,
 peace and love — the Earth is waiting.
 Love and peace, peace and love,
 love and peace — help one another.
 Peace and love.

No more war, no more fear.
 May hunger soon disappear.
 No more doubt, no more lies.
 Only truth shall free the cries.

Only hope, only dreams
 can erase the tears and screams.
 O, I shall sing, and I shall work
 for peace on Earth until all are free.

Thousands of lives, thousands of lives
 each life is sacred.
 Sacred lives.

—Words &amp; Music: Steve Heitzeg (b. 1959)

Expanding our capacity to offer worship in the language of the hearts of our increasingly diverse All Saints community is one of the ways we live into our values of Radical Inclusion and Joyful Spirituality. And a step forward in that journey is including Spanish and Mandarin in our weekly liturgies ... allowing the whole community to be enriched by the gifts of all.

以赛亚书/Lectura de Isaías /A Reading from Isaiah (26:16–19).

耶和華啊，我們是你的子民，
 我們在危難中尋求你。 你管教我們的時候，
 我們就向你祈求。
 耶和華啊，我們在你面前呼求， 如臨產的婦人在陣痛中喊叫。
 我們曾懷胎，痛苦呻吟， 但產下來的卻是一陣風。 我們沒有給世界帶來拯救， 也沒有給世上帶來生命。
 然而，屬你的人必復活， 他們的屍體必站起來。 睡在塵土中的人必醒來歡唱！ 你必使死人復活， 如清晨的甘露使大地恢復生機。

En la aflicción te buscamos, Dios, cuando nos corriges con un simple murmullo. Delante de ti estábamos, Dios, como cuando a una mujer
 encinta se le acerca el momento del parto y se retuerce y grita de dolor.
 Concebimos, sentimos los dolores del parto y dimos a luz, pero no era más que viento. No hemos traído la salvación al país, ni va a nacer gente que pueble el mundo. Pero tus muertos sí volverán a vivir, sus cadáveres resucitarán. Los que duermen en la tierra se despertarán
 y darán gritos de alegría. Porque tú envías tu luz como rocío y los muertos volverán a nacer de la tierra.

HOLY ONE, in distress they sought you,
 they pressed out a whispered prayer
 when your chastening was on them.
 Just as an expectant mother writhes-in-labor and cries out in her pangs when her birthing time is near; thus were we because of you, HOLY ONE. We too were expectant, we writhed-in-labor, but it was as though we birthed only wind.
 No victories have we won on earth,
 neither do the inhabitants of the world fall. Your dead shall live; their corpses shall rise. Awake and sing for joy you who dwell in the dust! For your dew is a radiant dew, and the earth shall release those long dead.

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

PSALM 36 Remain seated; read in unison.

Sin whispers to the wicked, deep within their hearts.
They have no fear of God at all.

In their blind conceit,
they cannot see how wicked they really are.

Everything they say is crooked and deceitful.
They refuse to act wisely or do good.

They lie awake at night, hatching sinful plots.
Their actions are never good.
They make no attempt to turn from evil.

Your unfailing love, O Lord, is as vast as the heavens;
your faithfulness reaches beyond the clouds.

Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains,
your justice like the ocean depths.

You care for people and animals alike, O Lord.
How precious is your unfailing love, O God!

All humanity finds shelter in the shadow of your wings.

You feed them from the abundance of your own house, letting them drink from your river of delights.

For you are the fountain of life,
the light by which we see.

Pour out your unfailing love on those who love you;
give justice to those with honest hearts.

Don't let the proud trample me or the wicked push me around.

Look! Those who do evil have fallen!
They are thrown down, never to rise again.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

If I Must Die

If I must die,
 you must live
 to tell my story
 to sell my things
 to buy a piece of cloth
 and some strings,
 (make it white with a long tail)
 so that a child, somewhere in Gaza while looking heaven in the eye awaiting his dad who left in a blaze—and bid no one farewell not even to his flesh
 not even to himself—
 sees the kite, my kite you made, flying up above and thinks for a moment an angel is there bringing back love
 If I must die
 let it bring hope
 let it be a tale.

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in John (6:35–40).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. The person who comes to me will never be hungry and the one who believes in me will never be thirsty. Rather I said to you all that you have seen me and yet you all do not believe. Everything that the Creator gives me will come to me and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away. That is why I have come down from the heavens, for this reason, not to do my own will, but the will of the one who sent me. And this is the will of the one who sent me, that out of all that God has given me I should lose nothing, rather, raise it up on the last day. This is indeed the will of my God, that all who see the Chosen One and believe in him may have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

Minister: God of Justice and Mercy, like the prophets, we lament the exploitation people feel at the hands of the powerful. We weep for the destruction around us, calling out to God for justice. Hold us accountable when we live in ways that harm others.

People: Guide us, O God.

Minister: Forgive us when we hide our struggles because we are attached to public perception. Bless us when we share our burdens, for it is in our togetherness that we mirror the divine.

People: Bless us, O God.

Minister: Spirit of Understanding, when life overwhelms us we sometimes soothe our nervous systems in ways that don't serve us. We turn to substances, negative self-talk, self-harm, mindless scrolling, or over-working. Where we feel shame around these patterns, meet us with your abundant compassion.

People: Grant us the courage, community, and support we need to move through pain in our lives.

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

O God, you have searched us out and known us, and all that we are is open to you. We confess that we have sinned: we have used our power to dominate and our weakness to manipulate; we have evaded responsibility and failed to confront evil; we have denied dignity to ourselves and to our siblings, and have fallen into despair. We turn to you, O God; we renounce evil, we claim your love; we choose to be made whole.

Minister: Almighty God, have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Ain't Got Time to Die

Lord, I keep so busy praising my Jesus,

Ain't got time to die.

'Cause when I'm healing the sick I'm praising my Jesus,

Ain't got time to die.

Refrain: 'Cause it takes all of my time to praise my Jesus,

All of my time to praise my Lord.

If I don't praise him the rocks gonna cry out,

"Glory and honor!" Ain't got time to die.

Lord, I keep so busy working for the kingdom,

Ain't got time to die.

'Cause when I'm feeding the poor I'm working for the kingdom.

Ain't got time to die. Refrain

Lord, I keep so busy serving my Master,

Ain't got time to die.

'Cause when I'm giving my all I'm serving my Master

Ain't got time to die. Refrain

Now, won't you get out of my way, let me praise my Jesus.

Out of my way! Let me praise my Lord.

If I don't praise him the rocks gonna cry out, "Glory and Honor!"

Ain't got time to die. Refrain

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

And now we give you thanks for Christ's glorious resurrection from the dead. By his death Christ has destroyed death and by his rising again Christ has restored to us eternal life.

Priest: Therefore with angels and archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify your glorious name, evermore praising you and saying:

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: Holy and gracious God: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Creator of all.

Jesus stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect self-offering for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

Priest: After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Priest and People:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Priest: We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O God, in this offering of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling Christ's life, death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Priest and People:

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in Christ. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ—by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y líbranos del mal. Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父，
愿你的名被尊为圣，
愿你的国降临， 愿你的旨意行在地上， 如同行在天上。 我们日用的饮食，
求父今日赐给我们。 又求饶恕我们的罪， 如同我们饶恕得罪我们的人。 不叫我们遇见试探，
拯救我们脱离凶恶。
因为国度、权柄、荣耀，
全是父的，永无穷尽。 阿们。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: Alleluia! We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us. Alleluia!

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

In accordance with our policy of common sense risk reduction — you will be offered the opportunity to receive bread as well as wine from the common cup if they so choose. As always, it is an individual choice — and those who come to the rail may choose to receive both bread and wine, bread only, or request a blessing.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive wine, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, you may touch the base of the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available at your request on the back side rails.

By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons. If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Alfredo Feregrino to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. (aferegrino@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2713)

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

Children in the chancel re-join their families.

Members of our Healing Ministry are available in the Chapel and Baptistery during communion for all who wish to receive prayers and the laying on of hands. All prayers are kept confidential. If you desire follow-up, please contact our pastoral care department.

Adult Education with Rick Thyne: Jesus At Ground Level

Sundays, June 2, 9, 16, 23 and 30, 11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m., in the Forum

For five Sundays in June, we'll explore together this person who is the center of our faith and, at the same time, the focus of so many of our questions and doubts. Does he still matter to us, or have we developed a faith that marginalizes him as we work to turn the human race into the human family? Bring your preconceptions and your open mind as we try to figure out the place Jesus holds in our beliefs and in our daily lives.

June 2: Jesus At Ground Level: *Who was he? What do we know about his birth and his family? Was he educated? Was he very spiritual? How does he compare to Mohammed or the Buddha or Moses? Was he Divine?

June 9: *What did he say? He is one of the most enduring teachers in human history; his stories and aphorisms, his parables and wise insights into people mark him as a teacher whose brilliance too often gets overshadowed by notions that he might have been Divine. What can we know about what he said, and which things that he taught still matter to us?

June 16: *What did he do? We're told that he healed the sick, walked on water and, on a few occasions, raised up dead people from the grave. Really? Do we believe in these miracles? If so, why? If not, why not? If he matters to us, we want to figure out as near as we can what he did.

June 23: *Why did he die? He was betrayed by his friends who turned him over to the religious and political leaders whom he threatened and, as they always do with revolutionaries, the authorities killed him. But is that it: is he just another martyr like so many other brave women and men? Or does his death have something to do with our sinfulness and God's forgiveness? Martyr or Savior: do you care which, if either, is true?

June 30: *Did God raise him from the dead?

It's the most dramatic of the beliefs in the Christian faith: God raised a dead man, and Jesus is still alive in some heavenly realm, reigning over us and all of creation. It sounds ludicrous to a contemporary person who knows this kind of thing belongs in the category of fantasy and is not an event for educated people to take seriously. It may be nearly impossible to believe. But what if . . . ?

Get Out the Vote with the Very Rev. Gary Hall

"It is a Christian obligation to vote, and more than that, it is the church's responsibility to help get souls to the polls." — Presiding Bishop Michael Curry

The Very Rev. Gary Hall returns to All Saints to help us kick off our Get Out the Vote activities. A former ASC staffer, Gary currently serves as Interim Dean of Bloy House, the Episcopal theology school in Los Angeles. He is the retired dean of the Washington National Cathedral and is no stranger to political activism.

Participating in our country's political life isn't just about casting our own vote. It requires working together so we can all vote and vote faithfully. There are many ways to get involved, from participating ourselves to supporting others in our congregations and communities. We can all play a role in getting "souls to the polls!"
