led by Wendy Furman Adams

Thursdays, March 6, 13, 20, 27, April 10 & 27, 12:00 p.m., via Zoom

These lines begin and end the third “cantic” of Dante’s famous Commedia, and they summarize all the poet has learned by the end of his mystical pilgrimage. At last he is able to gaze at the luminous Reality of God’s eternal and universal love and to study God’s “supernal face”—visibly expressed (as Paul says in Colossians) in the human face of the cosmic Christ. The light of this Love, Dante tells us, is so radiant that no one who sees it can ever again turn away. To see it, moreover, is to be transformed from our ordinary mortal selves into the miraculous beings we were created to become.

March Jazz Vespers: Mina Choi Orchestra

Sunday, March 23, 5:00 p.m., on the Chancel

We invite you to join us for an unforgettable evening of jazz and storytelling, featuring the highly anticipated new release, "Stories," by the Mina Choi Orchestra, with special guest Bill Cunliffe. "Mina Choi, who was born in South Korea and has long been based in Southern California, is a talented pianist, arranger, composer and conductor. While she has been quite active during the past decade including performing at top clubs and a few jazz festivals, and working as an educator, Stories is her recording debut. While the soloists in her band are all world-class, the focus is on Mina Choi's inventive arrangements. Although the influences of classical music and her Korean heritage are sometimes felt in her writing, the often-dense music is always modern jazz. Her originals in particular sum up her struggles and her optimistic attitude as an immigrant in Los Angeles.

Throughout Stories, Mina Choi's writing is both unpredictable and logical. She has a knack for telling tales through music, making this an impressive debut. Stories is easily recommended and rewards repeated listenings."

Validated parking will be available in Plaza las Fuentes.

There is no charge. No reservations required.

Upcoming Shows with Theatre Ministry

Jane Eyre

Friday, March 28, 7:30 p.m., at A Noise Within, Tickets are $41, available here.

Experience Jane's resilience and determination to live life on her own terms, from her early years of hardship and mistreatment to her eventual pursuit of love and independence. In a tale beloved for generations, thrills, mystery, and romance abound in this tenacious story of self-determination. Facing societal expectations and personal challenges, Jane navigates betrayal and injustice with inexhaustible courage. This bold and dynamic production offers audiences a compelling portrayal of one woman's quest for freedom and fulfillment in the face of devastating adversity.

Frou-Frou: A Menagerie of Sorts

Saturday, March 29, at Boston Court Theatre at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are $51, and available here.

L is a stoner with social anxiety, Harold is an aspiring ballerina, and their mother is a woman from another time. Driven by archaic dreams for her children, all Mamma wants is for a man to marry L to rescue the family from financial ruin. So when a big, burly traveler turns up at their doorstep, she thinks her prayers have been answered. But it is Harold, her tutu-wearing son, who seems most attracted to this strange man, while L, her chronically online "daughter," doesn't seem to want him – but wants to become him. By turns raucous, poetic, touching, and dangerous, Frou-Frou: A Menagerie of Sorts riffs on Tennessee Williams's The Glass Menagerie in this story of two queer siblings yearning to be understood. This show contains adult content and nudity.

Information = Melissa Hayes at mhayes@allsaints-pas.org.

ABOUT ACOLYTES

All youth in grades 6-12 are invited to join one of our awesome Acolyte teams! It's a great opportunity to serve our church and community while learning about our Anglican traditions. As an Acolyte, you'll work with a team, take on leadership roles, wear cool robes, and enjoy many donuts along the way. Plus, you'll make new friends and earn service hours for school! Come be part of something special!
