A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Adult Choirs' Spring Concert featuring Beethoven's Choral Fantasy and Vaughan Williams' Dona Nobis Pacem

Sunday, June 7, 5:00 p.m. in the Church

Two extraordinary works. One unforgettable evening.

First, Beethoven's Choral Fantasy, a dazzling, joyful showpiece featuring the same melody that eventually became the iconic "Ode to Joy" from the 9th Symphony. Our own Grace Chung takes the piano. Then, Vaughan Williams' Dona Nobis Pacem ("Grant Us Peace") — a searingly beautiful cantata written as the world was tumbling toward World War II. Its longing for peace feels as urgent today as ever.

The concert moves from celebration to reflection: from pure joy to a prayer the whole world needs right now.

You won't want to miss it.

You Are Invited to Bring the Oblations to the Altar!

Consider bringing the bread and wine up the aisle for communion at the 10:00 a.m. service. For your birthday, anniversary, or in memory of a loved one — or any Sunday. We gather in community to share our prayers, our stories, the work of our hands and hearts while knitting and crocheting shawls to be given as mantles of healing to those in need of comfort. Prayer shawl participants have long known that working with hands is a meditative spiritual practice that quiets minds to hear God's clear voice. Please join us with yarn, needles, and prayer.

Fiction Fun! Reads Bewilderment by Richard Powers

Friday, June 26, 6:30 p.m. early discussion; 7:00–8:30 p.m. book discussion, in the Guild Room

This novel followed The Overstory, which we've read. Here's how the Booker Prize committee described it: "An astrobiologist thinks of a creative way to help his rare and troubled son in Richard Powers' deeply moving and brilliantly original novel." As a New Yorker summary notes, the son "undergoes an experimental neurofeedback therapy that can imprint other people's emotions—including his mother's—onto him. Before long, the treatment transforms Robin into an almost oracular figure, a social-media activist devoted to protecting the earth against mankind." Bewilderment sustains Powers' environmental concerns in a strongly emotional work.

Theatre Ministry Summer Offering

Mexodus at Pasadena Playhouse

Friday, July 17, at 8:00 p.m. Tickets are $43 and available here.

Mexodus – the New York Times Critic's Pick new musical created and performed by Brian Quijada and Nygel D. Robinson – comes straight from New York to the Playhouse stage this summer. This electrifying experience explores a hidden chapter of the Underground Railroad – one that moved south, by crossing the Rio Grande toward liberation in Mexico. This groundbreaking musical amplifies the story of a freedom seeker and an unlikely ally as they forge a remarkable bond that transcends borders. It's history remixed. It's a ride you won't want to miss.

The Fire Inside: The Dharma of James Baldwin & Audre Lorde

We launch Pride Month at All Saints by welcoming Dr. Rima Vesely-Flad to explore her new book The Fire Inside -- diving deeply into a dharma of liberation as lived by Baldwin and Lorde, offering timely lessons to help us each meet this moment. She explores the writers enduring legacies to show that liberation depends not only on organizing and mass movements, but the generative power of inner well-being, authenticity, art, and embodiment. Dr. Vesely-Flad's work helps answer the question: "How do we pursue justice without burning out, turning on each other, or becoming what we oppose?" Her response is: "Through disciplined spiritual practice that transforms how we see, feel, and act? not just what we believe." Books will be available for purchase.
