Also during the service, prayer shawls knitted and crocheted by members of our community will be presented and blessed.

9:00 a.m. in the Forum

What does it mean to be a healing spiritual community in a time where there seems to be more tearing us apart than there is bringing us together?

Join us for a conversation with the inimitable Nadia Bolz-Weber on hope and healing ... in person or livestream.

Nadia writes and speaks about personal failings, recovery, grace, faith, and really whatever the hell else she wants to. She always sits in the corner with the other weirdoes.

Seekers Program Youth in 9th grade and up are invited to join the Seekers class. A youth confirmation class that explores faith, church, other religions, the history of All Saints and much more. What has a community like All Saints to offer? Does church tradition matter? We will wrestle with questions like these together, discuss (and come to different conclusions), play games, eat together and even go on a fabulous mountain retreat. Sign ups are open now.

Discord Server The youth at All Saints are posting and chatting 24/7 on our ASC Youth discord server. It's an easy way to stay connected and with channels like music, art, memes, book club, and so many more, there is a topic for everyone. Content will be monitored by vetted volunteers and staff. For youth only. Contact Merry for the link to join.

Not-So-Bored-Game Night Every second Friday of the month, 6-9:30pm, we gather at All Saints church to play board games, eat snacks and hang out. It's tradition to end the evening with a murder mystery game. Who will win this time, the murderer or the town's people? Come and find out.

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Bearing Witness Through Compassionate Listening

Presented by NewGround:

A Muslim–Jewish Partnership for Change

A New Small Group for Urban Walkers

You are invited to imagine an All Saints small group that gets us out in the fresh air, using our own two feet as we can explore Pasadena and the greater LA area. Together! So many of us love our “urban living” and wouldn’t want to live any other way... the variety of foods/restaurants, museums, music/theater, multi-culture communities where we share and learn from one another, and of course, All Saints!

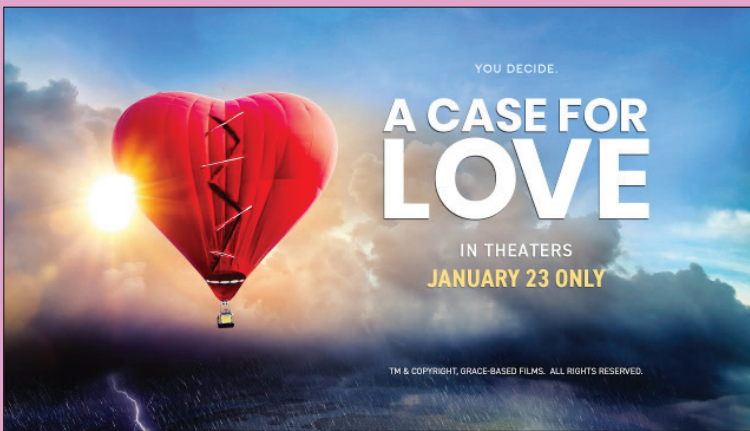

However, as we buzz by in our own little capsules (cars, Metro, Uber), we can easily miss the fact that there is much more that urban living has to offer, up close, personal. Let us slow down! Let us allow our senses to explore!

Our Goals: exercise, camaraderie, exploring, encourage one another, reflection. Facilitator: Robb Grimm Let’s talk about it! Sunday, January 28, 12:00pm in the OCC Conference Room. A light lunch will be provided.

Registration: <https://bit.ly/48itlwh> Questions: Amanda McCormick at amccormick@allsaints-pas.org

[this is a listening and organizing meeting. All are welcome. Bring your ideas.]

A Case for Love

As we enter this new year with all its challenges and opportunities, there is no better antidote to the anxiety, polarization and division that dominates our civic discourse than coming together to share the inspiring witness of those making a case for love in the face of hate ... a case for peace in a time of war ... a case for hope in the wake of despair. A Case for Love is a feature-length documentary inspired by Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's message of unselfish love and headed for a nationwide theatrical release in over 1000 theaters on Tuesday, January 23.

Join us as we join with Episcopalians across the country for this chance to jump-start 2024 with the shared experience of what it means to live as people of love, justice and compassion in our beautiful and broken world.

This a one day only-screening
Tuesday, January 23 — 4:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m.

These visits are an essential service to increase the family's chances for reunification and reduce the children's anxiety while in out-of-home placement. The visits will take place in an agency setting that provides strict health and safety protocols to protect the coach monitor and the families.

Five Season Cooking Classes with Chef "S."

First Class — Winter–Water Season

Sunday, January 28, 12:00 – 2:00 p.m., in Sweetland Hall

(Also upcoming in April 21 and July 14) This class is the first in a series of five classes related to using food and spiritual practices for healing and of course great taste. Each one will correspond to one of the five seasons (included Indian Summer if you're wondering why 5?) Here at All-Saints we do much service for a variety of communities at large, from serving the homeless, to supporting LGBTQ+ communities, to working for continuing racial and sexual justice. However, with all that giving we often don't seem to have time to rejuvenate ourselves. We consequently get sick. This is one way out.

Requested $20 donation to cover food and support All Saints $5 for Zoom attendance.

January Jazz Vespers: John & Maya Proulx

Sunday, January 28, 2024, 5:00 p.m., on the Chancel

The jazz scene is abuzz about singer, pianist, composer, and recording artist, John Proulx (pronounced "Proo"). His piano playing is hot and swinging, and his voice recalls the smooth, mellow sounds of a young Chet Baker. John's latest CD, "Say It", features Chuck Berghofer, Joe LaBarbera, Larry Koonse, Bob Sheppard, a duet with

Melissa Manchester, and three string quartet arrangements by Alan Broadbent. John's previous three albums on MAXJAZZ, "The Best Thing For You", "Baker's Dozen-Remembering Chet Baker", and "Moon and Sand", have garnered national and international acclaim, and John's fan base is quickly growing. In addition to touring with his own trio, John has performed with the likes of Anita O'Day, Natalie Cole, Melissa Manchester, and Marian McPartland.

Maya Proulx has been performing since studying piano and viola at South Pasadena Music Conservatory at four years old. She sang with the Los Angeles Children's Chorus and with the All Saints Children's Choir as she trained vocally in classical and jazz styles. Proulx attended Arroyo Vista and South Pasadena Middle School before attending high school at California School of the Arts – Duarte. A versatile artist, Proulx studied creative writing, picked up classical guitar sophomore year and now plays in the CSArts jazz band as both guitarist and lead singer. She was recently named a 2024 YoungArts winner with distinction in VOICE, JAZZ the highest honor of the organization.

John recently wrote a book, Soundscapes an educational book of beautiful and soothing original piano pieces for the intermediate pianist. Inspired by the music of George Winston, Soundscapes combines contemporary piano with jazz influenced chord changes and voicings. The simple melodies coupled with lush chords truly make it accessible music for all to enjoy!

Validated parking will be available in Plaza las Fuentes. There is no charge. No reservations required.

Sing at All Saints

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel. Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works. To audition, please contact Weicheng Zhao, Director of Music at wzhao@allsaints-pas.org.

Would I Like to Release?*

Help Us Create Our Ashes For Ash Wednesday

Bring your offering on Shrove Tuesday, February 13, 4:00–6:00 p.m.

We will be creating ashes out of things in our lives we want to release or transform. We invite you to write a word or phrase that represents something that prevents you from living as a fully beloved child of God.

Then either: Bring it to the church, on Shrove Tuesday, Feb. 13, 4:00 – 6:00 p.m. or email your word or phrase to information@allsaints-pas.org

Save the Date: The Philadelphia Eleven Documentary Film Screening @All Saints Church

Saturday, March 16, 2:00 p.m., in the church

The Philadelphia Eleven is an award winning documentary marking the 50th anniversary of the July 1974 moment when eleven courageous women and three brave bishops shattered the stained glass ceiling by ordaining the first women as priests in the Episcopal Church. These groundbreaking ordinations opened the way for fifty years of living more fully into equity across the gender spectrum in an historically patriarchal institution — and while there is still much work to do to dismantle oppression in all its forms, the Episcopal Church has inarguably been changed because of what happened on that July day in Philadelphia.

Join us on Saturday, March 16 for this opportunity to learn from our past as we continue to grow into God's future as the Beloved Community we are called to be.

Film screening at 2:00 p.m. followed by panel discussion with some very special guests and a festive reception on the lawn.

All are welcome. Registration requested: here

The New Suburbia: How Diversity Remade Suburban Life in Los Angeles After 1945

with author Becky Nicolaides

America's suburbs have been transforming. The conventional story of suburbs as bastions of white, middle-class homeowners no longer describes the suburbs of America's cities. Today they house a more typical cross-section of the nation--rich, poor, Black American, Latino, Asian, immigrant, the unhoused, the lavishly housed, and everyone in between. Stories of everyday suburban life, in the process, have taken on new inflections.
