The Third Sunday after Pentecost
Eucharist at 7:30 a.m.

All Saints Church
132 N Euclid Ave
Pasadena CA 91101
626.796.1172 www.allsaints-pas.org

Welcome!

“Whoever you are and wherever you find yourself on the journey of faith there is a place for you here.”

Sunday Morning Childcare

Childcare for Infants and Toddlers: 9:00–12:00 p.m.

in the Seminar room and Small Lounge in Regas House, sign in required. Space is limited.

All Saints Church is located on Tovaangar, the ancestral homeland of the indigenous Tongva people, who were the original caretakers of this land we occupy, and who were dispossessed of it through the injustices brought about by colonization. The Tongva people continue to remain in relationship with these lands today through ceremony, culture, and stewardship, and we are grateful for their example and leadership.

We are guests upon this land, with a responsibility to treat it with respect and care, and to seek justice for indigenous peoples. It is only by telling the whole story that we can tell a new story of this land together. As part of our commitment to seeking reconciliation with the land and all people who have lived on it, and according to our core values of Courageous Justice and Ethical Stewardship, All Saints Church is committed to acknowledging the land's history and working with the Tongva to perform reparative action.

To learn more about the history of the land we are on, read our report here:

Language In Worship: Because language has the power to shape our thinking about one another, All Saints Church makes every effort to bring the language of worship into conformity with the principles of biblical theology that affirm that the personhood of God embraces all expressions of gender lovingly and equally. Therefore, in our worship, we take our Bible readings from an inclusive language lectionary, which is often truer to original sources in references to people, and expands our concept of God beyond exclusively masculine terms. In Prayer Book liturgies we make minimal but symbolically important changes which denote our commitment to inclusive expression. Some historical texts that are widely known and loved are left unaltered. The words of the liturgy are from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer and Enfleshed. The biblical readings are from the new The Women's Lectionary year B, created by Rev. Dr. Wil Gafney.

PRAYER OF MEDITATION

As the people gather before the service begins, we encourage you to use the following prayer for meditation.

Creator God, Holy one, Maker of love and source of joy: we give you thanks for the infinite variety of your creation. We bless you that we are fearfully and wonderfully made, and that we are your beloved rainbow tribe. Grant us the courage to tell our truth, to honor ourselves, to love our neighbors, and to share your grace with a world aching for healing. We pray because of Jesus, who shows us the way.
Amen.

— The Reverend Kay Sylvester, St. Paul's, Tustin

MINISTRY OF THE WORD

Stand — all who are able — as the procession enters the Chapel.

SALUTATION Remain standing.

Susan Russell

Minister: Blessed be God: Creator, Redeemer and Sustainer.

People: And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

COLLECT FOR PURITY Remain standing.

Minister and People:

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GLORIA Remain standing.

Minister: Glory to God in the highest,

People: and peace to all people on earth.

COLLECT OF THE DAY Remain standing.

Susan Russell

Minister: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Minister: Let us pray.

Remain standing; silence is kept.

Minister: O God, from whom all good proceeds: Grant that by your inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by your merciful guiding may do them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

LESSON Seated.

David Stecker

A Reading from Genesis (3:8–13).

They heard the sound of the Lord God walking in the garden at the time of the evening breeze, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden. But the Lord God called to the man, and said to him, "Where are you?" He said, "I heard the sound of you in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself." God said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree of which I commanded you not to eat?" The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me fruit from the tree, and I ate." Then the Lord God said to the woman, "What is this that you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent tricked me, and I ate."

Minister: Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People: Thanks be to God.

A period of silence is observed following the reading.

READING Remain seated.

Anina Minotto

A Reading from Bishop Steven Charleston.

If I know one thing about the Spirit
it is that she likes to make things.

Vast galaxies spinning countless stars like a pinwheel;
endless planets with mountains and valleys
of every shape and size;
tiny cells hidden in land frozen for a thousand years;
and great creatures swimming silently in distant seas.

What the Spirit thinks come to be;
what she dreams, happens;
when she speaks, matter changes shape and energy crackles through the open places of our lives.

She is the maker of all things and she calls each one of us to share her image.
Not to be complacent.
Not to sit idle in the heart of change,
but to take up our tools
and make tomorrow happen.

— from Ladder to the Light by Bishop Steven Charleston*A period of silence is observed following the reading.GOSPEL Standing — all who are able.

Susan Russell

Minister: The Good News of Jesus as written in Mark (3:20–35).

People: Glory is yours, O Christ.

The crowd came together again, so that Jesus and his disciples could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind." And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons." And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered. Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins and whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"— for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit." Then his mother and his siblings came; and standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your siblings are outside, asking for you." And he replied, "Who are my mother and my siblings?" And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my siblings! Whoever does the will of God is my sibling and mother."

Minister: The Gospel of the Savior.

People: Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

Susan Russell

A period of silence is observed after the sermon.

NICENE CREED Standing — all who are able.

Anina Minotto

We are using a version of the Nicene Creed approved by the Standing Liturgical Commission.Recognizing and including all expressions of gender in God we proclaim:

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary, and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.
 On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
 he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
 who with the Father and the Son is worshipped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Anina Minotto

Minister and People:

Gracious Creator, the fount of all wisdom, you know our needs before we ask and our ignorance in asking; answer our prayers as may be best for us and grant us always to know and to show your love; through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

Minister: Let us confess our sins before God.

Silence is kept.

Minister and People:

We need your healing, merciful God: give us true repentance. Some sins are plain to us; some escape us; some we cannot face. Forgive us; set us free to hear your word to us; set us free to serve you.

Minister: Through Christ, God has put away our sin. Let us approach God in peace. *Amen.PEACE

Minister: The peace of Christ be always with you.

People: And also with you.

*Greet one another in the name of Christ.ANNOUNCEMENTS Seated.

OFFERTORY SENTENCES

Priest: All things come of thee, O Lord,

People: And of thine own, have we given thee. Amen.

GREAT THANKSGIVING Standing – all who are able.

Priest: God dwells in you.

People: And also in you.

Priest: Come to the table with thankful hearts.

People: We open our hearts to God and to one another.

Priest: Creative God, source of all life and ground of our being, you are the vibrant energy dancing at the center of the universe! Through us you move, and through us you are made known to the world. Co-creators with you, we are emboldened to move beyond ourselves, to find the courage to let go of old ways and welcome new life.

And so, in concert with those of every generation who have been touched by your redeeming love, we lift our praise to you:

Priest and People:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

CONSECRATION Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Priest: Holy God, known and beyond all knowing, in your image you created us, giving the earth into our care. In our arrogance, we lost touch with the breath of God within us, with the divinity of the creation, unable to perceive its beauty and harmonies. But through Christ, born of a woman, your deep abiding love reclaimed us and realigned us with the grain of the universe.

On that evening in an upper room, with his friends around him, our brother Jesus blessed the bread, broke it, and shared it with all who were gathered: This bread is my body, an offering of God's love for all. When you eat it, remember me. Taking the cup of wine, he blessed it and shared it with all who were gathered: This wine is my blood, God's promise of new life for all. When you drink it, remember me.

Priest and People:

God, in the memory of Jesus who healed people and washed his disciples' feet, who loved children and honored outcasts, who fed people and turned water into wine, who died and rose to new and unending life, we ask that you breathe on this bread and this wine, filling them with the transforming power of the cosmic Christ.

Breathe through us, God, that our bodies, minds, and spirits may be filled with your life-giving presence. Make us again a holy people, strongly bound to you, firmly rooted in the earth, with eyes to see all life as sacred. Empower us to spread the light of Christ in our wondrous and confusing world. Amen.

Priest: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, in the language of your heart, we are bold to say,

Priest and People:

Our Creator/Mother/Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen

Creador/Madre/Padre Nuestro que estás en el cielo, santificado sea tu Nombre, venga tu reino, hágase tu voluntad, en la tierra
como en el cielo. Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día. Perdona nuestras ofensas, como también nosotros perdonamos a quienes nos ofenden. No nos dejes caer en tentación, y libranos del mal.
Porque tuyo es el reino, tuyo es el poder, y tuya es la gloria, ahora y por siempre. Amén.

我们在天上的父
愿人都尊你的名为圣，
愿你的国降临，
愿你的旨意行在地上，
如同行在天上。
我们日用的饮食，
今日赐给我们。
免我们的债，
如同我们免了人的债。
不叫我们遇见试探，
救我们脱离凶恶。
因为国度、权柄、荣耀，
全是你的，直到永远。阿门。

BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept, during which the priest breaks the consecrated bread.

Priest: We are one bread, one body.

People: We will love one another as Christ loves us.

INVITATION

Priest: The Gifts of God for the People of God.

In accordance with our policy of common sense risk reduction — you will be offered the opportunity to receive bread as well as wine from the common cup if they so choose. As always, it is an individual choice — and those who come to the rail may choose to receive both bread and wine, bread only, or request a blessing.

Whoever you are and wherever you are on your journey of faith, there is a place for you at Christ's table. When it comes time for communion, everyone of any age is welcome to receive either communion or a blessing.

If you wish to receive the bread, when you come to the front you may kneel or stand at the altar rail and hold your hands together in front of you to receive the bread.

If you wish to receive wine, help guide the cup to your lips or, if you prefer not to receive the wine, you may touch the base of the cup when it is presented to you.

If you wish to receive a blessing, when you come to the front, cross your arms over your chest, and you will be offered a blessing.

Gluten-free wafers and grape juice are available at your request.

By tradition, The Episcopal Church offers Holy Communion to all baptized persons. If you are not baptized, but wish to receive, we invite you to participate fully in the opening part of the service, called the Ministry of the Word, hearing God's word and reflecting on your life, enabling you to come to the table for communion, if you so choose, with a heart prepared to receive. We hope that if you feel touched by the word and sacrament and wish to learn more about the life-giving power of the Spirit of the Risen Christ, you will contact Alfredo Feregrino to inquire about participating in Holy Baptism. (aferegrino@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2713)

If you have any questions or are confused about any of this, please just come forward and ushers and staff will be happy to guide you.

POST-COMMUNION PRAYER Kneeling or standing — all who are able.

Susan Russell

Minister: Let us pray.

Minister and People:

Eternal God, great Creator,
you have graciously accepted us as living members of your son our Savior Jesus Christ and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace,
and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you
with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BLESSING

DISMISSAL

Anina Minotto

Minister: Let us go forth rejoicing in the name of Christ.

People: Thanks be to God.

Reclaiming the Bible

This is "bible study" with a difference. Our goal will be to heal and move beyond the misunderstanding, confusion, hurtful interpretation, oppression, and other ways our bible has been used against us. Jesus is the Word of God, and God's Word is one of love, hope, and reconciliation. This is the bible we'll strive together to come home to in this small group study.

Sundays, 4 p.m. on Zoom. Contact leader Charles Foster at drcharlesfoster@icloud.com for Zoom access.

Children, Youth and Families

Welcome Our Interim Director of Children, Youth and Families: Jonathan Stoner!

Jonathan was ordained to the priesthood this past January. He serves as an interfaith hospital chaplain at City of Hope.

Please welcome Jonathan!

Children's Chapel During Sunday service, children in kindergarten through 5th grade are invited after the gospel reading to attend Children's Chapel. Children connect and celebrate with age-appropriate lessons and activities, then return to the sanctuary for communion. We radically welcome, pray, explore themes of the people of God, and discuss what's happening in the world. Parents are welcome to attend.

Creative Worship Space for Families Available in the Chapel

Families are invited to worship together through art and play on our rug in the chapel during any part of the Sunday morning, 10:00 a.m. service. Families should stay with their children as this area is not staffed. All are welcome to sit in the chapel; please be understanding whenever our youngest members make a joyful noise.

Unidad Children's Choir All children in 1st–5th grade are welcome to join our wonderful children's choir. The program is free of charge and no auditions are necessary to join. We will resume in the fall, Thursdays 5:00 – 6:00 p.m.

Programs for Youth (6th — 12th grade) at All Saints:

Acolyte Program Youth are welcome to join one of our fabulous acolyte teams. Being an Acolyte gives everyone a unique opportunity to serve: service to All Saints, service to the community, and service to God. Youth will learn more about our Anglican tradition, serve others, learn to work as part of team and to lead a team, wear fancy robes, eat donuts, meet new friends and have fun doing all of it.

Trouvères Youth Choir Want to join the family feel of a fabulous youth choir?

The program is free of charge and no auditions are necessary. We will resume in the fall, Wednesdays, 5:15–6:30 p.m.

Youth Dinners Join us for free dinners and great community every Wednesday from 6:30–7 p.m.

Youth Group for 6th–12th grade Every Wednesday we meet to be in community together. We learn together, support each other and of course have fun together. Youth Group is a safe place to express who you really are. Check it out! Wednesdays, 7–8:30 p.m.

Discord Server The youth at All Saints are posting and chatting 24/7 on our ASC Youth discord server. It's an easy way to stay connected and with channels like music, art, memes, book club, and so many more, there is a topic for everyone. Content will be monitored by vetted volunteers and staff. For youth only. Contact Merry for the link to join.

Not-So-Bored-Game Night Every second Friday of the month, 6-9:30 p.m., we gather at All Saints church to play board games, eat snacks and hang out. It's tradition to end the evening with a murder mystery game. Who will win this time, the murderer or the town's people? Come and find out.

For general questions about our Children, Youth & Families program, please contact Merry Simkins at msimkins@allsaints-pas.org or 626.583.2733.

Offerings Online

Centering Prayer Tuesdays, 6:45–8:00 p.m., via Zoom

Centering Prayer is a meditation practice that is centered in the contemplative Christian tradition. A sacred word is chosen as your symbol of intention to consent to God's presence and action within. Your word is used to focus your attention so that when thoughts or sensations arise you return gently to the sacred word. The prayer is done in silence for a 20 minute period.

Adult Education with Rick Thyne: Jesus At Ground Level

Sundays, June 9, 16, 23, and 30, 11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m., in the Forum

For five Sundays in June, we'll explore together this person who is the center of our faith and, at the same time, the focus of so many of our questions and doubts. Does he still matter to us, or have we developed a faith that marginalizes him as we work to turn the human race into the human family? Bring your preconceptions and your open mind as we try to figure out the place Jesus holds in our beliefs and in our daily lives.

June 9: What did he say? He is one of the most enduring teachers in human history; his stories and aphorisms, his parables and wise insights into people mark him as a teacher whose brilliance too often gets overshadowed by notions that he might have been Divine. What can we know about what he said, and which things that he taught still matter to us?

June 16: What did he do? We're told that he healed the sick, walked on water and, on a few occasions, raised up dead people from the grave. Really? Do we believe in these miracles? If so, why? If not, why not? If he matters to us, we want to figure out as near as we can what he did.

June 23: Why did he die? He was betrayed by his friends who turned him over to the religious and political leaders whom he threatened and, as they always do with revolutionaries, the authorities killed him. But is that it: is he just another martyr like so many other brave women and men? Or does his death have something to do with our sinfulness and God's forgiveness? Martyr or Savior: do you care which, if either, is true?

June 30: Did God raise him from the dead?

It's the most dramatic of the beliefs in the Christian faith: God raised a dead man, and Jesus is still alive in some heavenly realm, reigning over us and all of creation. It sounds ludicrous to a contemporary person who knows this kind of thing belongs in the category of fantasy and is not an event for educated people to take seriously. It may be nearly impossible to believe. But what if . . . ?

Voices from the Heart Brunch Honoring Robin Kinman

Sunday, June 9, at 12:30 p.m., in Sweetland Hall

Join the Women's Community on as we honor the wife of our Rector, Robin Kinman, at the annual Voices from the Heart luncheon. She has been an esteemed educator with over three decades of experience teaching in grades K-6, and holds a masters of Educational Leadership in Mathematics. She was a participant in the 2024 Los Angeles Marathon and currently is primarily known as a talented fine artist. Let's come together to celebrate her remarkable contributions to education, the arts, the 2024 marathon, and her faith journey as the wife of our Rector, Mike Kinman.

Scholarships and sponsorships available.

If You Crochet or Knit, Consider Joining the Prayer Shawl Ministry

We meet the 2nd Tuesday of every month, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m., in the lounge in Regas House. Next meeting: June 11

We gather in community to share our prayers, our stories, the work of our hands and hearts while knitting and crocheting shawls to be given as mantles of healing to those in need of comfort. Prayer shawl participants have long known that working with hands is a meditative spiritual practice that quiets minds to hear God's clear voice. Please join us with yarn, needles, and prayer. Information = Ashley Hengst ahengst@allsaints-pas.org

Jazz Vespers in June Maria Puga Lareo

Sunday, June 23, 5:00 p.m., on the Chancel

Maria Puga Lareo is a Jazz and Brazilian music vocalist, songwriter and producer. She initiated her career in Buenos Aires, Argentina, where she was born and raised. Maria collaborated with this culturally rich and historical city's finest musicians, singing in clubs, theaters and jazz festivals. Puga Lareo's popularity quickly rose in the Argentine music scene, propelling her to perform on bigger stages and demand of media appearances bringing her local status to being one of the cities most noted jazz singers.

Maria started to frequently perform in New York City as well as other international known jazz cities worldwide. Maria has been performing and recording with Los Angeles's premiere jazz musicians: Nan Schwartz' Orchestra, Bobby Shew Quintet, John Beasley, Billy Childs, Bill Cunliffe, Mitch Forman, Russ Ferrante, Larry Koonse, Josh Nelson, Gary Novak, Darek Oles, Alan Pasqua, Otmario Ruiz, Leo Amuedo, Arturo Sandoval, Mike Valerio and Christian Euman. 2024 will be the year Maria Puga Lareo releases her third solo album with string arrangements by Grammy winner & 7-time Emmy-nominee composer, arranger and conductor Nan Schwartz as well as arrangements by her husband Bob Sheppard, international jazz recording artist and saxophone legend.

"Many sing in tune and in a mellow tone. But few can sound sensual and emotional, passionate and dedicated, like María Puga Lareo that night in Buenos Aires. While it was worth following the music with eyes always open."

—Calling You Show Review by Fernando Rios, ArgentJazz

Validated parking is available at Plaza las Fuentes. There is no charge. No reservations required.

Fiction Fun! Reads The Master and Margarita by Mikhail Bulgakov

Friday June 28, 7:00 p.m., in the Guild Room

Join us as we discuss Mikhail Bulgakov's The Master and Margarita. (Recommended translation: Burgin and O'Connor, though others are possible.) This is an enduringly popular novel, much appreciated on Goodreads. Martin Seymour-Smith, in a survey of literature, said, "Bulgakov is one of the most interesting of writers to survive (one wonders how he did it) the horrors of the earlier Stalin years. His fictional procedures are among the most interesting of his time." And his "masterpiece" is The Master and Margarita, "a multi-layered piece of 'realist magic' about two critics, Berlioz and Bezdomnyi, and the devil, Pilate, Christ and the crucifixion—all in Moscow."

Employment Opportunity: Director of Children, Youth and Families Ministry

We are conducting a search for our next Director of CYF (Children, Youth & Families) Ministry. The purpose of this position is to continue to develop and implement a vibrant CYF program that is welcoming, inclusive, and in alignment with All Saints' values. The Children, Youth and Families department at All Saints strives to create a safe haven for all Children and Youth, and to amplify their voices in the church and in the wider community in spreading love, compassion, and healing to all people. If you are interested or know someone who is, please read the job description in the link below and see if it looks like a fit. Job description here.

Christian Nationalism

TACKLING THE TRUTHS
OF A TOXIC MOVEMENT

Resources to Tackle the Toxic Movement of Christian Nationalism

The rise of White Christian Nationalism as a force of division and polarization in our nation compels us to increase our understanding of this toxic movement in order to increase our capacity to resist it. This list of resources is offered as a place to start "digging deeper" as we equip ourselves and each other to stand up and speak out against this hijacking of the Gospel of love, justice and compassion as a tool of hatred, judgement and discrimination. Memorial Planning

Planning your own memorial is an act of love. Memorial plans help your family understand how you would like to be remembered, relieving your loved ones from the guesswork in your absence.

To plan your memorial at All Saints, you can reach out to the pastoral care office by emailing Ashley Hengst ahengst@allsaints.org to set up an appointment.

Sing at All Saints

The mission of our music ministry is to lead the All Saints community in liturgies that glorify God, move the heart and challenge the mind—all with great variety, color and reverence. We know there are many of you who sing in the pew rather than the chancel.

Your musical gifts and experience are needed to lead this great congregation in exuberant song. If you've attended a Sunday service, it's likely that you've noticed our two adult choirs: Canterbury and Coventry. They rehearse weekly to prepare and offer the finest music in a variety of styles and expressions, ranging from gospel, jazz, and world music, to traditional Anglican repertoire and full-scale orchestral/choral works.

To audition, please contact Weicheng Zhao, Director of Music, at wzhao@allsaints-pas.org.

Worship Volunteers

Worship is the center of our life at All Saints Church, and it is from that center that we respond to God's call to put our faith into action. From Sunday morning worship to Evening services, many hands are involved in creating a welcoming and inclusive environment for all and to make God's love known to everyone. All Saints is a place where inclusion is valued and where people of all faiths are welcomed. Whatever your gifts and interests, there is a place for you to join with others and serve All Saints through our many Worship Service Volunteer Opportunities.
