Transgender Day of Remembrance

Sunday November 17, 5:00 p.m., in the Church

On and around Nov. 20 across the world, people gather in solidarity to mourn those who have been victims of anti-trans violence, and to ensure that their lives, and deaths, are not forgotten. It allows us to call attention to the continued violence and discrimination persons of trans experience face every day, and serve as a reminder that the community of people of trans experience and their allies are resilient.

Following the service we will have a private dinner and discussion for transgender people.

At the same time all allies are invited for a group discussion.

Friday, November 15, 7:00 p.m., in the Guild Room

In the preface to the Penguin Classic of Winesburg, Ohio (recommended), Malcolm Cowley called Anderson “a writer’s writer, the only storyteller of his generation who left his mark on the style and vision of the generation that followed.... Hemingway was regarded as his disciple in 1920 when both men lived on the Near North Side of Chicago. Faulkner says that he had written very little, ‘poems and just amateur things,’ before meeting Anderson in 1925 and becoming, for a time, his inseparable companion.

Russ has performed with Jimmy Witherspoon, Jim Pepper, Joe Farrell, Joni Mitchell, Bobby McFerrin, Robben Ford, Al Jarreau, Marilyn Scott, Kevyn Lettau, Ernie Watts, Sadao Watanabe, GRP, Big Band, Lee Ritenour, Tom Scott, Take 6, Michael Franks, Eric Marienthal, and Brenda Russell. Advent Small Group – Christ's Nativity in Art and Literature

This group, led by Wendy Furman-Adams, will meet on four Monday evenings, Dec. 2, 9, 16, and 23, 6:00-7:15 p.m. on Zoom. Register online here: <https://bit.ly/4fMjLFJ>

"When the Maker of time, the Word of the Father, was made flesh, he gave us his birthday in time; and he without whose divine bidding no day runs its course, in his Incarnation reserved one day for himself. He himself with the Father precedes all spans of time; but on this day, issuing from his mother, he stepped into the tide of the years."

(Augustine of Hippo, 354-430)

These words, preached in the 5th century, sound strange to 21st-century ears. Yet poets and artists have continually pondered the strangeness of this central mystery of our Christian faith: that the very Word who creates the world chooses to enter that world as a shivering, speechless infant—to live and die as one of the "least" of us. Over the four weeks of Advent, this small group will explore the mysteries of Christ's Incarnation in poetry, prose, and the visual arts: the humble young woman whose humility leads to her exaltation; the Infant who pleads for humanity before he has learned to speak; the shepherds and magi transformed by their encounter with the infant God. We will enter into the mystery of kairos time, by which Christ is repeatedly born—Hodie (this day)—in the eucharistic celebration of his birth. For these artists and poets, the strangeness of the scene overcomes all estrangement, bringing each of us into an intimate conversation with Christ himself.

Welcome Our New Director of Children, Youth & Families Ministry – Amanda Baughman!

“Many of you might know Amanda as the mother of three: Mason, Willow, and Adelyn. She, along with her husband, Dave, have been worshipping at All Saints for the last thirteen years. She has been working for Parent Ed at La Cañada Presbyterian Church for the past eight years.

At a later time, I will invite Amanda to introduce herself more fully and formally. Today, I will tell you simply, Amanda has had an immensely successful tenure at Parent Ed, and I could not be more excited that now she will bring her experience and talents home to All Saints.

I am grateful for the vision and commitment of the vestry, who gave their blessings on this search. And I am equally thankful to Jonathan Berry, Jonathan Stoner, Jenny Tisi, Merry Simkins, and the many parent volunteers who have sustained our CYF ministries these past several months. Although their efforts will remain essential to re-establishing a vital CYF program, I am confident that Amanda is the perfect person to lead the charge.

Amanda officially begins November 24, but please, when you see her in the coming days, join me in offering her the heartiest of congratulations.”

9:00 a.m. in the Guild Room Gratitude with Susan Brown

*It comes at us from every direction at this time of year, doesn't it?
Be grateful for what you have been given— it's Thanksgiving!*

Gratitude is something deeper than green bean casserole, though, or in some families, the turkey that became the tamales and those are what we really crave! Gratitude is awareness of gifts and beauty in our lives often existing right beside undeniable pain. As the Buddhist teacher and psychologist Jack Kornfield said: "Gratitude is the confidence in life itself. In it, we feel how the same force that pushes grass through cracks in the sidewalk invigorates our own life."

Come join this interactive exploration. Bring both your "cracks in the sidewalk" and your experiences of gratitude. Facilitated by Susan Brown, long-time parishioner and Administrator of By Your Side, an ECS Compassion Program
